ent of Clearfield County.

I.-EDUCATIONAL PROGRESS. HOUSES .- The new houses that have been built during the past year, are as follows: Beccaria, one ; Boggs, two ; Bradford, one Brady, two; Burnside, one; Chest, two: Decatur, one, and Huston, one. Nearly all these are first-class buildings. A number of old ones have been so remodeled that they now present both the comfort and appearance of new ones. One hundred and filty-seven s hools, and one hundred and fifty four houses in the county. Eighty of these are classed as good; fifty one as middling, and twenty-three as very poor. Many of the last are injurious to the health of pupils. They should, and no doubt will, soon be replaced by good ones. A few of the new houses have been built without any forethought or plan, and are a disgrace to the districts. Directors should examine plans, and have such houses built as they want, in-The flag was suddenly withdrawn from the stead of being influence1 by contractors, as FURNITURE will class very nearly with the ouses. A good house, occasionally, has poor furniture, but more frequently the furniture is better than the house. Those classed as mid-lling have insufficient furniture, and those very poor have none fit for use. APPARATUS. - Eighty complete sets outline maps are in use, and a number of schools are supplied with charts of various cinds, such as Osgood's, Sanders' and the National. In addition to those reported last year, the directors of Decatur, Jordan,

Woodward, Penn and Guelich, have sup-TEACHERS. - We have a few competent and well qualified teachers, but a large majority lack in qualifications and experience. The scarcity of good ones is a natural consequence, so long as there is no distinction made in wages and when the salary paid, in many districts, is inadequate to assist them in their self sacrificing efforts to become better qualified. It is a pleasure to lew years ago. MODES OF INSTRUCTION were about the same as the previous year ; except, a few teachers forced their pupils, two or three times, through the different books in a single term or four months. Few, if any, of the pupils comprehended the elementary principles, and the teachers gained consid erable popularity in the profession, and were set down, by patrons and directors, as model teachers. How long they will be satisfied to be thus agreeably and satisfactorily deceived, remains to be seen. The motto

IV .- OBSTACLES IN THE WAY OF IMPROVEMENT 1. The want of more competent and faithful teachers; 2. short school terms and low. wages; 3. the frequent change of teachers. So strong is the desire to change, that only eight or ten schools during the last four years, have been taught for two successive terms $786 28. by the same teacher, and but two or three CHEST. for a longer period ; 4. irregular attendance of pupils. The evil results from this are patent to all; and when parents know that the absence of one pupil is not only an injury to himself, but to the whole class. I cannot see why they do not endeavor to adapt their home arrangements more to those of school-for without the parents co-operation little progress can be made; with it much more than now is can be accomplished ; 5. incompetent directors, and carelessness of others in the administration of school affairs. V.-TO PROMOTE IMPROVEMENT.

1st. A law requiring directors to be sworn, particularly Secretaries, to a proper discharge of their duties. 2d. An increase of the State appropriation, sufficient to keep all the schools of the State open four months visit some of the best houses in the county, in the year. 3d. An increase of the minimum length of school term to six months. Teachers cannot be prevailed upon to qualiis sometimes the case, and allowing them to erect such as may be most profitable to them. which does not guarantee to them more than which does not guarantee to them more than four months employment. 4th. Appropri-ate school buildings in Clearfield borough, with grounds sufficient to accommodate all the children ; under the control of a competent and faithful teacher, who should have the power to adopt and carry out a rigid course of discipline; a board of directors, who feel an interest in all the children, and the cry of "public nuisance" would cease to be so common in our county seat.

FINANCIAL RECORDS. -- With the consent of directors, a uniform system of keeping school accounts will be established in every district. A reform is very much needed.

PUBLIC SENTIMENT has long been favorable to the school system. It is true, there are neighborhoods where little or no interest felt, where buildings and furniture unsuitable for school purposes still remain, where persons who are known to be opposed to increasing the taxes for school purposes, or paying teachers better wages are elected directors; but the large majority see the importance of having their children well inof creating a commodious school edifice in

The bladder is composed of various coverings or tissues, divided into parts, viz : the Upper, the Lower, the Nervous, and the Mucous. The upper expels. the lower retains. Many have a desire to urinate without the ability, others urinate without the ability to retain. This frequently occurs in children.

To cure these affections, we must bring into action the muscles, which are engaged in their various functions. If they ere neglected, Gravel or Dropsy may ensue.

The reader must also be made sware, that however slight may be the attack, it is sure to affect the bodily health and mental powers, as our flesh and blood are supported from these sources.

Gour, on REELMATION .- Pain occurring in the loins is indicative of the above diseases. They occur in persons disposed to acid stomach and chalky concretions.

The GRAVEL .- The gravel ensues from neglect or improper treatment of the kidneys These organs being weak, the water is not expelled from the bladder, but allowed to remain; it becomes feverish, and sediment forms. It is from this deposit that the stone is formed, and gravel ensues DEOPST is a collection of water in some parts of the body, and bears different names, according to the parts affected, viz: when generally diffused over the body, it is called Anasarca ; when of the Abdomen, Ascites; when of the chest, Hydrotho-TAL.

TREATWENT .- Helmbold's highly concentrated compound Extract Buchu is decidedly one of the best remedies for discuses of the bladder, kidneys, gravel, dropsical swellings, rheumatins, and gouty affections. Under this head we have arranged Dysurie, or difficulty and pain in passing water. PRILADELPRIA, PA., Tob. 25, 1867. H. T. HELNDOLD, Druggist:

DEAR SIN :-- I have been a sufferer, for upward of twenty years, with gravel, bladder and kidney affections, during which time I have used various medicinal preparations, and been under the treatment of the most eminent Physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consulted with my family physician in regard to using your Extract Buchu.

I did this because I had used all kinds of advertised remedies and had found them worthless. and some quite injurious ; in fact. I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no remedies hereafter unless I knew of the ingredients. It was this that prompted me to use your remedy. As you advertised that it was composed of buchu , ubebs and juniper berries, it occurred to me and my physician as an excellent combination, and, with his advice, after an examination of the artiels, and consulting again with the druggist, I concluded to try it. I commenced its use about eight months ago, at which time I was confined to my room Frem the frst bottle I was astoniahed and gratified at the beneficial effect, and after using it three weeks was able to walk out. I felt much like writing you a full statement of my case at that time, but thought my improvement might only be temporary, and therefore concluded to defer and see if it would effect a perfect cure, knowing then it would be of greater value to you, and more satisfactory to me.

I am now able to report that & cure is effected after using the remedy for five months.

I have not used any now for three months, and feel as well in all respects as I over did.

Your Buchu being devoid of any unpleasant taste and odor. & nice tenic and invigorator of the system, I do not mean to be without it whenever occasion may require its use in such affections. M MCCORMICK
