An irreverent Democratic editor says: "Senator Revels was a preacher, and most of the colored office seekers, especially those who are candidates for Congress, are preachers. Having learned the art of public talking, they conceive themselves to be peculiar ly qualified for Congressional service, in which talking always takes precedence of acting." There might be worse charges made against a people than their disposition to entrust political power to preachers. If the Democracy always did the same the character of their representatives in Congress would be immeasurably improved.

STRASBURG. September 8, via London September 10.—The siege of Strasburg con tinues with great vigor, and the Prussians are making the greatest efforts to secure its reduction. 4,000 Baden troops are working day and night in the third line of trenches. quite near the city, and under constant fire from the defenses. Over 2,000 citizens have been killed. The scream of the shells can be heard five miles. The beautiful Cathedral has been partly destroyed. There are now over five hundred cannon bearing on the citadel, and 40,000 Baden troops are ready to enter as soon as the walls are broken. Over 20,000 refugees are within the walls, suffering all the terrors of the bombardment'

The fortifications are slowly burning. The Germans captured have their heads cut off and stuck on poles. Hundreds of the Ger-mans expelled have been killed between the fires of the two parties. The city is in flames at twenty different places, and the rabble are pillaging the houses and making destruction of everything they can lay hold of. There are daily thunder storms and the Rhine has risen, driving the inhabitants from the cellars. The people are fighting for places in the sewers to escape destruction from the shells poured by hundreds into the streets. Six hundred citizens have been buried by the falling buildings. Every night the horizon is lurid for miles, like a mimic sunset with the blaze of the Baden batteries. Horse flesh is the only meat to be obtained. and the inhabitants are on the verge of starvation. Awful scenes are witnessed. Many citizens are killed in bed, and the commander shoots at once all who talk of surrender. There is mob rioting nightly, and demanding the surrender of the city, which has not fired a gun since the 6th. It is under fire from three sides. The sluiees which furnished the city with water are destroyed, thereby adding to the sufferings of the people. It is known that 200,000 Chassepots are stored in Strasburg. An immediate sur-render is predicted. There are only 7,000
