First millinery in the county, at W. T. Reed's.

We had several heavy frosts in this region during the past week.

FOR SALE.—No. 12 Spear's Revolving Light Anthracite coal stove and pipe, nearly new. For further information apply to Henry E. Snyder.

NEW PAVEMENT.—The brick pavement now being laid in front of the Court House, is a good and permanent improvement, and meets the approval of everybody. Let property holders follow the admonition it affords.

A very singular phenomena was visible in the heavens on Sunday and Monday evenings last. It consisted of a dark crimson belt, extending in an unbroken line through the zenith, from the western to the eastern horizon.

HOUSE BURNED.—We learn from the Philadelphia Journal, that the dwelling house of Mr. George Kyle, near Williamsburg, in this county, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday evening, October 18th. The building was a total loss—no insurance.

NEW GOODS.—J. B. Graham & Sons have just received and opened a general assortment of seasonable goods, to which they direct the attention of customers, and the public generally. Persons in want of anything in their line should call and examine their stock, before buying elsewhere.

CERTAIN CURE FOR DIPHTHERIA.—Take spirits of turpentine and sweet oil, equal parts; mix well together; take a thin film; wet well; cover throat and neck completely; then take strong clear vinegar, make it seething hot, make a wheat bran poultice and put on over the rag, renew the whole every hour, night and day. In no case permit it to get cold until the cure is effected. So says an exchange.

REMEMBER.—We learn that on Thursday evening, October 13th, some person entered the house of D. Dressler, Esq., in Union township, and stole a valise belonging to a colored man in his employ. The valise contained $16.00 in money, some postage stamps, a wallet, pair of pants, vest and several shirts—the whole worth upwards of $20. The following day the valise, one shirt and a towel, were found in a field some distance from the house. No clue to the robber.

NEW FAIR GROUND.—We understand that the officers of the Agricultural Society have purchased about sixteen acres of ground from R. Shaw, Jr., for the use of the Society. This piece of ground lies on the opposite side of the river, and but a short distance from the end of the new bridge. It is in contemplation to lay out a half mile trotting course on these grounds, and to erect permanent buildings, at an early day. This is a move in the right direction.

SERIOUSLY INJURED.—We are informed that on Friday last, October 21st, Mr. Ed. Lee of Huston township, met with a very serious accident, while he and several other persons were engaged in pulling stumps with a lever machine. Having attached the chain to a stump, the power was applied while young Lee was holding up the crotch over which the chain passes. Unexpectedly one foot of the crotch sunk in the ground and upon it, striking Lee on the side of the head and face with such force as to knock him speechless for some hours. At last accounts he was getting along as comfortably as circumstances would warrant, yet little hope of his recovery were entertained.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We are informed that on Saturday Oct. 22d, Mr. David Welty, Jr., of Union tp., met with a fatal accident while engaged in raising a shed at his father's barn. The top plate had just been pushed up on skids by a number of men, and when in the act of dropping it into its place, the pike poles being released, the one end of the plate unexpectedly slid back and descended to the ground, knocking down young Welty and fell on him across the bowels, crushing him so badly that he died the next day, Sunday. He was an exemplary young man, and his sudden death is deeply lamented by his many relatives, and by the community generally.

Ladies' and children's coats, made to order, in the best style at WM. REED'S.

Those who are sick, or afflicted with any chronic difficulty, should without delay write for Dr. Hamilton's New Treatise, sent free to any address. R. Leonidas Hamilton, M. D., P. O. Box 4,952, N. Y. City, Sept. 26, 66.

The undersigned is now in the Eastern markets, and about the 8th or 10th of November will have a full line of winter Dress Goods, Shawls, Ladies' and Children's Coatings, Furs, and Fancy Goods, to which the attention of the citizens of the county is respectfully invited. WM. REED, Market street.

HOUSE BURNED.—We learn that, on Monday last about 10 o'clock, the house of Mr. John M. Cracken, of Knox township, together with all the furniture and family clothing, was destroyed by fire. Mr. M. Cracken was out making timber at the time, and his wife had gone to New Millport. It is supposed the fire originated from a defective flue.

GODY'S LADY'S BOOK.—The illustrations for November consist of a steel plate—"Our Controversies," a six-figure colored fashion-plate; a large extension sheet, containing thirty-three designs of dresses, and other articles of the wardrobe; riding habit; hats, bonnets, etc.; various designs for the work table, etc. The figure alphabet for marking is a fine illustration. It would be impossible for us to enumerate all the beauties of this number, both literary and pictorial. Terms for 1871: One copy, one year, $3.00, two copies, one year, $5.00, three copies, one year, $7.50, four copies, one year, $10.00, five copies, one year, and an extra copy to the person getting up the club, making six copies, $14.00. Address L. A. Godey, Philadelphia.

FIRE.—The mill property of Judah Whitcomb, known as the Little Bear saw mill, near the New York coal mine, about two and a half miles from this place, was burned on Tuesday evening. A fire had been built under the boilers for the purpose of putting in some repairs, in the early part of the day, but had been raked out and it was thought extinguished. In the middle of the night a family residing near were awakened by the flames and gave the alarm, but the fire had gained too much headway to be subdued, and the mill burned to the ground. By the fortunate circumstance of a favorable wind the lumber, piled near the mill, escaped, though a pile of shingles was consumed so close to some of the lumber as to scorch it. The loss is estimated at $6,000; insured for $3,500.—Philadelphia Journal.

THE LADY'S FRIEND FOR NOVEMBER.—This is a very handsome number. The fashions in this magazine are always superior. A group of graceful and elegant ladies, in parlor or pleasure ground, tastefully and artistically dressed—that is what we see in the colored fashion-plate of The Lady's Friend. The steel plate is a scene from Scott's "Fair Maid of Perth"; there is a pretty, colored Tidy pattern, and the one is the famous "German Fatherland." "Sold in silver" is an admirable story, and "The Mysterious Chest" will be sure to please the young ladies. All new subscribers for 1871, who subscribe by the first of November, shall receive the November and December numbers in addition gratis, making Fourteen Months in all. Those who subscribe by the first of December, shall receive the December number free—making thirteen months in all! Those desiring of subscribing for a lady's magazine for the next year should take advantage of these liberal offers. Price $2.50 a year (which also includes a large steel engraving). Published by Deacon & Peterson, Philadelphia. Sample copies sent free.

THE STRAY LAMB.—We are frequently interrogated in reference to the mode of treating stray horses, cattle, sheep, &c. The law on this subject is in substance this: Whenever a stray beast is found trespassing on the premises of any one it is the duty of the party to give notice to the owner thereof under the penalty of $5, if he can be found, and within four days deliver to the township clerk a full description of the kind, marks, color, or any natural or artificial marks of such stray or strays, together with the fees, which are for a horse, 50 cents; cattle, 25 cents each; sheep, 6 cents each. If the owner does not appear within ten days after such strays shall be taken up, and settle all damages and costs, it shall be the duty of the party taking up the same to cause the said stray or strays to be advertised for three weeks in at least one newspaper (which costs $1.50). And if the owner shall not have appeared within sixty days after such advertisement, and settle all reasonable costs and damages, the person taking up the said stray shall make application to a Justice of the Peace, in said township, who is required to issue his warrant to the Constable, whose duty it shall be to sell the same at public sale, first giving ten days notice of such sale by at least three printed or written handbills. And after he shall have sold the same, he shall make return of the proceeds to the said Justice, who shall, after paying all reasonable damages and cost of keeping as aforesaid, pay over the surplus, if any there be, to the County Treasurer; but if the owner shall appear within one year after such sale, and prove his property to such stray, the said Justice shall certify the same to the said Treasurer, who shall pay the owner the whole amount of such surplus, but if the owner shall not appear within the time aforesaid he shall thereafter be debarred from recovering, and the money aforesaid may be applied to county purposes.

The work of the extension of the Connelville Railroad through to Baltimore is favorably progressing, and before next St. Valentine's day will be completed. President Houghart has already received through freight, to be carried in the month of January, thus showing his confidence in the promises of the contractors.

New York detectives on Monday captured plates, presses, ink and paper enough to print half a million dollars in counterfeit twenty dollar national bank bills.
