CHANCEMEN have made their appearance in our markets.

A FULL stock of new and seasonable goods, just received and opened at C. Kratzer's, opposite the jail. Purchasers will find nothing but the best.

APPLE BUTTER: The metamorphosis of the fruit adopted the apple—through a process of stirring in a pot, over a fire, with juice of the same fruit—into a mushy, miserable mess.

CURRY.—The list of Jurors and Trial list for November term of our courts, will be found in another column of to-day's Journal.
The court will continue two weeks, commencing on Monday, November 14th.
Parties interested in the trial of causes should govern themselves accordingly.

HO, SQUIGLES ERECT!—The act of Assembly requires all persons elected to the office of Justice of the Peace, to give notice to the Prothonotary in writing, within thirty days after such election, of their acceptance of the office—otherwise the commissions will not be issued. All should bear this in mind.

DEB.—Mr. Ed. Lee, the young man who was injured in Haddon township, while working with a stump machine, a notice of which we published last week, died on Friday last from the effects of the injuries received. He was very young and industrious young man, and his sudden death is much regretted by the community generally in which he resided.

DECEASED.—The new M. E. church, in Oreola, will be dedicated (Providence permitting) on Sunday, November 6th. Preaching at 9 a.m., 11 a.m., 3 p.m. and 7 p.m. Dr. J. S. H. Murray, P. E., will conduct the services. The people are cordially invited to "come up to the House of the Lord."

FROM NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.
JERFESSON.—On Friday, Oct. 21st, C.
Eagle, Esq. of Brookville, while engaged in building an out-house on his property south of the town, accidentally fell and broke his arm, narrowly escaping other serious injuries. . . . Christian Guenther had himself terribly injured by coming in contact with a saw on the mill on which he was working. He lay close to his hand. . . . Mr.
John Bell, of Warsaw township, last week, presented the editor of the Republican with an apple weighing 21 ounces.

CENTRE.—A boy named Elmer, of Port Matilda, had his back broken by falling under a wagon, the wheel of which was locked. . . . The M. E. Church, in Phillipsburg, is nearly completed. . . . The Presbyterian, in Phillipsburg, have engaged Rev. Sargent, as pastor. . . . Mr. McCausland of Phillipsburg, week before last, killed a deer at one shot. That was a lucky shot. . . . The Baptist church will be completed and ready for dedication about the first of December. . . . A brazen-faced man entered a house in Phillipsburg, one day last week, and made overtures of a most depraved character to the lady of the house, who picked up a chair and drove the rascal out of doors. She ought to tap his "rump piece" a little. . . . A freight engine was thrown off the track at Phillipsburg on Saturday week. No damage was done.

GARRISON.—The number of scholars attending the Henshaw public schools, is about 200. . . . The editor of the Allegheny was out hunting all day on Saturday week and didn't get a sight of a squirrel.
Try again, better luck next time, perhaps. . . . The United Brethren church, in Warren, will be dedicated to the service of God on November 6th.

INDIANA.—Mr. D. Brady, of East Mahoning, had a hand badly cut, while feeding a machine. Mr. A. McCoy, then cut his place, and a few minutes after cut his hand worse than the other. . . . A brother and daughter of Mr. Alex. Lyons, of Cummington township were attacked by a cow, a week or two ago—the girl escaped with but little injury, but the boy was corrupted through the lower bowels, and will probably die. . . . Mr. William Stiffus, had a hand cut off, all but the thumb, while working a threshing machine in motion. Anticipation at the wrist was the result.

FOR SALE.—No. 12 Spear's Revolving Light Anthracite coal stove and pipe, nearly new. For further information apply to Henry E. Snyder.

THE very best oysters can be had at Mc-Pherson's restaurant, by the dish or quantity. Those who are fond of good bivalves should give Ross a call.

THOSE who are sick, or afflicted with any chronic difficulty, should without delay write for Dr. Hamilton's New Treatise, sent free to any address. R. Leonidas Hauton, M. D., P. O. Box 4,952, N. Y. City.
Sept. 26-6t.

OYSTER SUPPER.—The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church will give an oyster supper, at the residence of J. W. Shugart, Esq. on Friday evening next. The funds thus raised will be contributed towards the completion of their new church building in this place. Every one should attend, and thus encourage the Ladies in the good work which they have undertaken.

PROF. HART'S READINGS.—We neglected last week, to refer to Prof. Hart's lecturerian entertainment in the Court House, on Friday a week. The Professor is one of the best elocutionists in the country. His recitation of "The Battle," from Shiller, was particularly fine and entertaining; while his comic pieces afforded much amusement to the large audience in attendance.

Local Correspondence.

BURNSIDE, October 27, 1870.

MR. EDITOR: I come again, Oh, Knight of the quill! But my budget of news this week will be light, and I am afraid not very interesting. This very day we had a little skirmish in town and the sight unceremon-ious.

IN the Indiana Progress of Oct. 13th there is an interesting account of a trip to Clearfield, made by two of our young friends from Cherry Tree—E. L. and C. Most people here could not get the run of it right. I met our postmaster the other night on the street, and he hailed me and inquired very seriously, whether or not I had perused that letter in the Progress. I replied in the affirmative, and then quoth he, "Why can't some of our young fellows take a trip somewhere, and write such a beautiful account of it?" A brilliant idea flashed across my unusually dull brain, and I responded, "Mr.
K, dang my buttons if I don't take a trip if I can get a suitable companion."

I immediately despatched a message to my friend H. E. F., and the next morning he came over with his "hoss" who he calls Grey Eagle, and the mill wagon, and about eight o'clock we set sail, our destination, Lumber-city. The first place worthy of note after leaving Burnside, is "Sweet Auburn." We reached it after a drive of about 3 miles, and concluded to call on our friend W. B.

We found him sitting on the veranda, picking his teeth with a barrow pin, we reined up in front of the domicile and hitched Grey Eagle to a white wire clothes line. Our host entertained us with the kitchen piano for a while, (song of the shirt and leather breeches,) when, all excitement, B rushed in and exclaimed, "Hi, your old grey hoss has fainted, and tore down our new patent wire clothes line. Come out for, for land's sake, and let's try to get him up." We rushed out and pulled and hauled at Grey Eagle's bridle, but the "old cuss" wouldn't stir. Finally we captured a couple of rails and succeeded in raising the venerable steed to his pins again. I tendered my respects to W. B. in the shape of a cent, but he declined, saying, "can't buy anything with that at the rate they sell goods in Burnside."

The next place to be mentioned is Mi-chaelstown. We arrived opposite the town about noon, but the fog had not raised, and we did not get to see many of the buildings.
We had just cleared the outskirts, when, all at once, Grey Eagle stopped, coughed once, sneezed twice, and fell over again in a fit. He jumped out, gazed for a moment on his fallen steed, and exclaimed, "By heavens, your soul, old Ben. We are in for a wake home." We tagged old G. E. to one side of the road, left him in care of a responsible person, and retraced our steps, arriving at A. H. S.'s about 9 o'clock. P. M.
I took a drink and a half pond of No. 1 shot to hold it down, and retired for the night.

"Fall many a glorious morning have I seen, Flatter the mountain tops with sovereign eyes, An interesting religious revival is in progress at Pateville, and quite a number of erring ones have returned to the "fold." It is conducted by Rev. J. A. Boyer, an able minister and a very popular man with all classes. The Lyceum meanwhile is supported, but will reopen when the meeting closes, and I will try and be there to take some notes.

Mr. Jack P. has just returned with his lady from a long trip east, Williamsport, Philadelphia and Wilmington. He is as full of Railroad as ever, and says "She must come." A meeting was held this week at Homer for the purpose of consulting an Engineer, but I have not heard the result.

FRATERNALLY,

LUCKY OLD BEN.
