

Raftsmen's Journal

CLEARFIELD, PA., NOV. 9, 1870.

To PATRONS.—To insure the safe transmission of money by mail, patrons should remit by check or money order, or have their letters registered. A receipt will be enclosed in the first paper after the money comes to hand.

Table with columns for destination (e.g., Philadelphia, Harrisburg, York) and departure times for various trains.

RELIGIOUS.—Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows: By Rev. Hall, in St. Andrew's Episcopal church, at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M.

OFF THE TRACK.—Engine No. 207 ran off the track at this place, on Wednesday night last—a switch being open. No damage was done.

FOR SALE.—A No. 12 Steep and Pipe, nearly new. For further information apply to Henry E. Snyder.

MR. JACK FROST, a well-known character in this region, has again made his appearance, and contemplates a stay of several months in our midst.

GRADUATED.—Our devil, on Tuesday morning last, he has been "pronounced" since, however, having obtained a situation as "clerk" in a horse stable.

IMPORTANT ARRIVAL.—By reference to another column, it will be seen that the largest, best and cheapest stock of goods of the season has just arrived at Wm. Reed's, on Market street.

TO SPORTSMEN.—The following section of the Game Law, enacted by our last Legislature, should be heeded by all sportsmen: "That no person shall kill, capture, take or have in his or her possession, any quail or Virginia partridge for the period of three years, under the penalty of five dollars for each and every bird so killed or had in possession, or exposed for sale."

FIRE.—We learn that on Wednesday night last, about one million feet of lumber belonging to Messrs. Hesser & Hillman, in Decatur township, was destroyed by fire.

SUNDAY SPINNERS.—We understand, a number of boys engaged in a game of ball, about fifteen miles from town, on Sunday last. This is a bad practice. Boys who have no more to do for themselves, their parents, their friends, and their God, than to play on such days on the Sabbath day, are forming habits that, if persisted in, will eventually land them in the penitentiary.

NOTEWORTHY.—We have seldom had such a pleasant summer and fall. Up to the close of October the weather has been all that sunny days and balmy airs could make it. But the chilling winds and rainy days are upon us, and it is now time to prepare for indoor amusements.

FRUITS.—Below we give the names of the Justices of the peace, elected in October: B. J. E. H. Williams, Burnside; James Riddle, Curwensville; J. D. Thompson, Conington; Peter Garnier, Decatur; John Hughes, Ferguson; T. B. Davis; G. T. G. Steyer; Guelich, W. B. White; S. L. Jordan, Henry Swan; Karthaus, R. C. O'Connell; H. J. Sloppy; Lawrence, Stephen Ogden; Lumber-city, J. P. Farwell; Morris, A. Hunter; N. Washington, N. Palmer; Pike, G. Scofield; Union, F. Halperster.

SLIGHT FIRE.—On Wednesday night last, the waistinging in the dining room, in the Shaw House, in this place, caught fire from a defect in the hot-air flue. The alarm being given (about 12 o'clock) the lodgers, male and female, at once sprang from their beds and hastened to the scene of the conflagration, and speedily extinguished the flames. The only damage sustained was the burning of a few feet of the waistinging, and the charring of the window casing, and a little of the flooring. Some of the lodgers made a rather hasty toilet, judging from the ludicrous appearance they presented on the occasion, having nothing on but a shirt with a pair of pants swung over their arm; and it was quite amusing to see them dodge into a dark corner when they discovered that they had made their debut in an "undress" uniform. Further deponent saith not.

HARDWARE.—We would state for the benefit of all interested, that Harry F. Bigler & Co., have just received and opened the most complete assortment of hardware, cutlery, stoves, lamps, etc., ever brought into the county. Give them a call.

List of Letters remaining unclaimed in the Postoffice at Clearfield, Pa., November 1st, 1870: Miss Rachael F. Armstrong, H. C. Anderson, J. S. Albert, Michael Butler, Frank R. L. Blair, Mrs. Magdalen Ball (2), Joseph Biddle, Miss Mary Bilger, Harry Callahan, Wm. S. Carson, G. N. Connely, J. H. Carver, M. C. Colman, Wm. L. From the Counties Around Us. CENTRE.—The Evangelical Church at Woodward—the only one in the village—was burned a few days ago under the following circumstances: Two gentlemen attempted to widen the aperture for the bell rope by a heated iron, and set fire to the floor, which spread so rapidly as to become entirely unmanageable, and the building, which was of wood, was soon enveloped in flames. On Friday last Gus Ryan, of Phillipsburg, had the two middle fingers of the right hand, cut off by a power mortising machine, at Way & Co's planing mill. Five bushels of apples were stolen from Mr. Flegals's cellar, in Phillipsburg, on Sunday night a week.

ELK.—On Friday afternoon a week, a deer was discovered among the logs in a mill dam at Ridgway. Several of the hands on the mill made a rush for his deer ship, and one of them dispatched it with a cut-throat. It evidently had been chased by dogs, and intended to cross the stream there, when it met its death from an unlooked for source. The Alerts, of Ridgway, beat the Rough & Ready's of Pennsylvania, on Saturday a week, by a score of 34 to 12. The R. & R.'s lost several of their best players recently, which may account for the result.

INDIANA.—On Saturday morning, October 29th, Joseph J. Young, Esq., of Indiana, went out bird shooting, a favorite sport. Not returning in the evening, or during the night, search was made by the citizens, on Sunday morning, and in a short time he was found a short distance from town dead, shot through the heart—his favorite dog "Jack" sitting at his feet, watching the lifeless remains of his master. A post mortem examination showed that the charge of shot passed through the heart, literally riddling it to pieces. He was about sixty-four years of age. A man named Walters, committed for larceny, broke out of the Indiana jail, last week. A new military company is about to be organized in Indiana.

Local Correspondence. BURNSIDE, November 1, 1870. MR. EDITOR: I had not intended to follow up so soon, "Old fellow," but having a little news on hand I thought I might as well forward it. Burnside just now is quite lively over bright Railroad prospects, an engineer having been engaged to stake and locate the route from Homer to Pine Flats. The "big meeting" at Patchinville, closed last Wednesday night, and the Lyceum which had adjourned, convened on Friday evening. The exercises on this occasion were more interesting than at any previous meeting of the Society. A comic essay was read by A. B., entitled, "Ketchin Heifers," which created much amusement. Mr. Jack P. delivered an original oration: subject, "Unity of the Elderberry crop." Jack said he thought some attention should be paid to this subject, as nothing else in particular was raised around Patchinville. His remarks created a profound sensation, most of the audience being sound with sleep by the time he concluded. Lastly came the debate: Resolved, That Christopher McCree is entitled to more credit for discovering America than Joe Columbus for blowing the rocks out of Chest Falls. Friend Jack led off as follows: "Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen: On the 15th of April, 1492, Christopher McCree set sail from the Puckle Paul in Spain, and after carrying around the fish pond four or five days, landed at Gallows Harbor." Mr. C. (interrupting) "No he didn't. Guess you don't read much history." J.—"Where did he land then, smoke?" Mr. C.—"Why he landed on Mr. Ararat." J.—"Well, be that as it may, a mistake is no backstap, and whether his landing be here or there, he didn't stay in this country long enough to improve rafting navigation, while Joe Columbus blowed all the rocks out of Chest falls. And now a fellow can run through without swinging and jumping off." Our conveyance being about to depart we were forced to retire and missed the balance. The population of Burnside has increased just one since my last. "Father morning I was coming out of the 'old slab,' kicking the pig right and left, when happening to glance toward the Burnside Inn, I saw a fellow in his shirt sleeves, standing on the fence, waving his arms toward me and shouting loudly. Thinking that some one, was wanting me I approached the individual and he descended from his 'roost' with the evident intention of meeting me half way. Closing up on me he exclaimed, 'Look here, old boy, I want you to understand distinctly that I'm a 'pap.'" "Bully for you," said I, "many happy returns of the occasion," and I wheeled and started for the wigwag again, when he hallowed, "Oh, Ben, was you ever a 'pap'?" "Not as I know of," I replied, and hastened on.

Our old friend, Dr. White, is very ill. But if the prayers of his many friends avail he will surely recover. God grant the veteran christian many happy days to come.

LUCKY OLD BEN.

Those who are sick, or afflicted with any chronic difficulty, should without delay write for Dr. Hamilton's New Treatise, sent free to any address. R. Leonidas Hamilton, M. D., P. O. Box 4,952, N. Y. City. Sept. 26—60.

HORSES FOR SALE.—J. H. Wilson will sell at public sale, on Thursday, November 17th, 1870, at the Mansion House, in Clearfield, ten horses, suitable for lumbering. Several pairs of these horses are closely mated. Sale to commence precisely at 10 o'clock a. m. A credit of sixty days will be given or 2 per cent. off for cash.

MARRIED. On Tuesday, November 1st, 1870, by Rev. W. S. Ferguson, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. N. E. ARNOLD, and Miss ALICE E. HIRPLE, all of Curwensville, this county.

DIED. On Sunday morning, October 23rd, 1870, in Falls City, Nebraska, Mrs. ELIZABETH K. FRANK, wife of M. A. Frank, Esq., formerly of this place, aged about 50 years.

The deceased was intimately known by all in this place and vicinity. She was a most kind, accommodating and sympathetic friend and neighbor, and a sincere and earnest Christian. All deeply regret her sudden demise, and sincerely sympathize with the bereaved family in their sore distress on account of their great and irreparable loss. But she is gone. Let the departed ease their rest in peace. And may we all, like her, strive to reach that haven above, where there is no pain, nor sorrow, nor parting, but where all is peace, and love, and joy forevermore.

Recommended by the medical Faculty and many thousands of our best citizens. Read the testimony of Physicians and patients who have used Rosdalis; send for our Rosdalis Guide to Health Book or our Rosdalis distribution. It will give you much valuable information. Rosdalis is a very peculiar medicine. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in a case of secondary syphilis in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula, by which your Rosdalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of alternative ingredients. Dr. Sparks of Nicholasville, Ky. says he has used Rosdalis in cases of Scrofula and skin diseases, and has seen it cure a scrofulous sore eye. He writes: "I have suffered for twenty years with an intractable eruption over my whole body; a short time since I purchased a bottle of Rosdalis and it effected a perfect cure. Laboratory, 61 Exchange Place, Baltimore." CLEMENTS & CO., Proprietors. Rosdalis is sold by Hartwick & Irwin and A. J. Shaw, Clearfield, D. R. Good, Osceola, and by Druggists generally.
