Select Loetry.

AROUND THE HEARTH.

Will ever be like that.

Whatever be our earthly lot, Wherever we may roam, Still to our hearts the brightest spot Is round the hearth at home; The home where we received our birth, The hearth by which we sat, o other spot on all the earth,

When winter, coming in its wrath, Piled high the drifting snow, Sate clustered round the cheerful hearth We watched the firelight glow:

Nor brighter seemed the rudy flames Than did our hearts, the while A loving mother breathed our names, With sweet approving smile.

When wearied with our eager chase Through many a tangled path, How sweet the dear accustomed place, To talk around the hearth;

And still, when by our toil and care We feel ourselves oppressed, Our thoughts forever cluster there, And there alone find rest. Bright promise of the rest above, weet shelter from the storm, Home hallowed by a mother's love, Hearth by that love made warm; Topugh wildly roared the storm without What recked we of the cold, What place for any fear or doubt

And when some little trouble weighed Upon the childish heart. Till from our brimming eyes it made Within the loving fold?

The gushing tear-drops start : How quick before the genial glow, We felt each sorrow cease.

And back the crystal current flow, To flood our hearts with peace.

And brighter with the passing years Seems childhood's sweet employ, And even sweeter still appears Each well remembered joy. Around the cheerful hearth at home,

Where we in childhood sat. No other spot where'er we roam, Will ever be like that.

MY PRIVATE SCHOOL.

"Look at that!" cried my grandmother, striking an attitude worthy of Ledy Macboth, when she addressed the fatal spot on her hand; this time, however, it was only the scissors which, in falling, stood upright

"I see. It's nothing uncommon, is it?" "Did you ever know it to happen that a coming, for the matter of that."

grand-nother always used double negatives, scious word. when she meant to be emphatic) - "most deal by that sign; but it ain't to be men-time. ing up in the floor."

will be here before him;" and with the this crisis, and he received it at once. words the wind went wailing around the house, and the first big drops beat against bound for Meriden; what then?" the window panes.

Three score years and ten had not taken the first bloom from the romance of my brought in insensible." given as in her girlhood. Beggars heard of Moriden to-day."

She followed the advice of Lamb without | den to-day.' ver having heard of it. When the poor reature come before her she stayed not to house is this ?" inquire whether "the seven small children" in whose name he implored her assistance. had a veritable existence, but east her bread upon the waters and lived in taith.

In fact, she had east so much bread upon the water in the course of her long life, and | too much." so small a proportion had come back to her, that she had nothing left for herself except the old farm and the gambrel roofed house.

Within its walls my father had first seen the light and lived till he went out to fight the world. He fell early in the strife, and my mother soon followed him; but not until she had marked out my way in life, and "Normal School," for my destiny was to be have to be done all over again. Neverthea teacher. My listle meome had to be eked less, I will not abandon hope, till I enter at a teacher. My little meome nan to which the door which that inscription. Ever yours.

J. J. DEANE." tween body and mind.

When I graduated my grandmother left carried me home with her for a "breathing | the body this afternoon."

bring a pleasure.

its foundation, but it clung gallantly to the escent that ever tried a woman's patience. together and made a night of it.

wet weather."

The words were searcely spoken when we ling far more of him than my book nough-don't tell me again that signs ever it. fail. Who is it, Bob?"

Said he'd pay me most any price to get him | mother. don't know nothin."

and bathed the broad white forehead which | into my mind like letters of fire. bind it '

come to at all."

you're done with him. Now, I'll go after the glance the whole map of one's life. doctor; tain't noways likely he'll know any more what's the matter than we do; but him, and went up to my room. pretend to, and if the man dies it's his fault and not ourn."

the head was injured, and he must be put for granted that she was his sister. He had to bed and kept as quiet as possible. Now never spoken of her, but married people was my grandmother in her element. "You couldn't work any harder," said I,

"if he were your own son." "He's somebody's own son, we never forget that, you know." Our patient fell from his first fainting fiinto a fever; and from morning till night. more or less expressed. he must be in Meriden that night. My all. grandmother was nurse in chief, but she I would go away at once, no matter where. often made me her deputy when the labor Mr. Deane was so far recovered that my began to wear upon her.

'John Jacob Deane' engraved on them; ber, if nothing more, but we had no other clue to his identity. It Then I read my own letter, and in it was is impossible to watch over a patient, day my way of escape, and night, striving to be both brain and Aunt Rachael wrote to say that "she was bands to him, wi hout growing into a very at death's door with neuralgia, and would I strong feeling toward him of attachment or come to help her with the children?" She stranger didn't come before the day was scarcely dared whisper to myself to which of her sufferings that familiarity with it years yet; there's no die in him. Come "I never noticed; somebody was always thought of him all the time, and if he had Rachael, but now I was ready to lay all the a going to be put off any more." died it would have been a blow to me, al- stress on her letter which it would bear. "I tell you that sign don't fail."-(my beit I had never hear I him speak a con- "What will Mr. I cane say to your going others will, but that's true as a book. And had been motionless for a long time; a sud- Rushael. another thing, there was a stranger in my den movement made me look up. His eyes | "I don't care what he says." tea to night, a long one-that shows 'tis a were fastened upon me with a new expresman that's comin'. Some folks set a great sion. I knew that he saw me for the first look which implied a two hours' speech at tioned the same day with the seissors stand- "Don't leave me," he said faintly, as I "That letter was from his wife," I said was about to call my grandmother. I gave looking anywhere but at her. "I hope he will come soon, or the storm him the cordial which had been kept for She never answered a word, but just kiss-

"You jumped from the wagon when the morning before Mr. Deane was up. horse was running near our house; and were Aunt Rachael was out of sight of "death's ment. But if Jake does prove recreant to could go to the moon as easily as to Meri- my heart. "Jupiter Tonnes! ten days! Whose alone for awhile.

"He will talk all the titue," said I to my grandmother when she went up stairs.

said, coming down again in a few minutes. Deane's offered hand, "He wants you to write a letter for him." so fixed me in the groove of her ideas that five miles of Meriden, and they tell me I I had no choice left. I went to a village have been light headed for a matter of ten statemy till I was old enough to enter the days. The business that I came on will the door which, according to Dante, bears hape, divides the burden most equally be- "You must not speak another word," I said imperatively. "I promise, if you will sing again what place." the old gambrel roof to see me do it, and you were singing when I found myself in spell (as she said), before getting a place So I sang "Allan Perey" and "Auld Rubin Gray" and two or three other old As to my future I was neither happy nor | ballads, of which I had a store, and my paunhappy, but rather between. At twenty, tient soon fell into a healthy sleep. The life rame on with very little friction; there next day he found his appetite, and from is excitement enough in mere youth to make that time came back to health with wonder- but it has the reputation of being difficult ful rapidity. He was docile as a lamb to to manage; and from all that I know of The evening drew on with ever increasing my grandmother, but with me he became you, I have concluded that you will be the gusts of wind, and the old house shook to the most exacting and troublesome conval | right person. Will you undertake it?"

great central chimney, which, being nearly He openly preferred my grandmother's as broad as it was high, could afford to be dainty dishes, and if Liett him for an hour school is small-it has, in fact, one scholar. indefferent when wind and weather came his bell would ring, and I went back to find aged thirty two, and his name is John Jahis pillows on the floor and his head so hot cob Deane." "I hope you don't mean to sit up for that that nothing but stroking it with cologue somebody who is coming. All signs fail in and singing all the while would cool it. To in any way for some minutes after this as to that of all the fingers. Without the nough for her mother to hear, "Good bye.

heard the tread of a horse running at full We grew well acquainted with these long "And that letter"-I found myself saying by the large ball formed by the muscles of speed down the steep hill above the house, summer days, till I went to Meriden on a after awhile. then a crash of the tence and all was still. shopping expedition. I found a thick let- "Was from my sister to her husband, of the human hand. We held our breath and listened. Soon ter at the postoffice for Mr. Deane, which who had deserted her. It was to look after a man's step sounded low and heavy on the had been lying there nearly three weeks. It him and bring him to reason that I was ri- There is an old lady living in Lynchburg.

walk and my grandmother rushed to open was directed in a lady's hand, and I thought ding post haste to Meriden that wild night. Va., who sa, s she made a pair of stockings the sight of it brought a shadow to his face. She enclosed it in a letter to me. I forgot last fifteen years by merely knitting feet this light of the eternal day bursting upon "Don't be scart," said the familliar voice He looked so glad to see me after my two to mention," he said, after a pause, which to them every winter and legs every other her, she expired, and was at Home with of one of our neighbors, and he stumbled hours' absence that I went up stairs in quite | was not without eloquence of his own, "that | winter that I was to taste at last the joy of which ber.' "Lay him right on the lounge-get the I had heard and read with unsatisfied long-

"Here's a letter for you that Job brought things that I have always longed for." "I dunno his name; city fellow, I reckon. in while you were gone," said my grand When Miss Rebecca Verjuice, my former in about a month of her sixteenth birthday.

enough till we got to that 'ere hill, then a sat by the open window reading one sheet and darkly that mine would be one of the deared herself to those who best knew her. flash seared her, and she never stopped till of his letter with knit brows, while the oth- many matches founded on gratitude. she brought up agin' your fence. If he er lay beside him. Suddenly a light breeze "John Jacob," said I, solemnly, when I born of the Spirit; but it was not until the hadn't been a fool and jumped out he might whirled it out into the flower plat, and I saw him again, "if you are to marry me last few months of her life that the glory a-been as spry as I am; but some folks ran out to get it. It had not occurred to out of graticule bell me at once, that I may and strength of the religion of Jesus were 'That's so, that the rest can get a livin' ling was farther from my thoughts than to yet time. out of 'em," said my grandmother. Mean read over the date of it; but the writing "My dear httle s hoolmistress," he re- its fair hopes spread before her, there is time she was vigorously chating his hands was large and plain, and, as I stooped to plied, "if I had been moved only by gratic surely abundant encouragement for the weaand feet, while dashed I camphor in his face, pick it up, the first four words were burned tude, I should have proposed to your grand- ry and oppressed to trust in the Saviour.

certainly promised well for the brain be. "My own dear busband," Surely it should have been nothing to me that Mr. "He must be dead," said I; "he don't Deane's wife had written to him; but, woe old and amusing scenes frequently occur i me! the fact of his having a wife at all with parties who visit the Probate Court "No he ain't. Folks can't be killed so was like a death blow to me-like the ineasy. He'll give you trouble enough before stant before dieing, when one sees at a

I gave him the letter without looking at Doubtless this was the "Dear Mary had done nothing to make her jealous. musn't Once he had taken my hand and touched it with his lips, and all the rest of the foundations of my castle in the a.r lay in looks license.

till morning again, he tossed and turned But the love, it appears, was all on my with one continuous cry to drive faster, for side. He was idle and grateful, that was grandmother could easily attend to all his The doctor had found some cards in the wants, and he could soon return to his own the old man?" note b. ok of our patient, with the name place. It would be something to remem-lislike. It was so with me, though I saw that door so often in her own account away?" said my grandmother, when I had It was the tenth day of the fever, and he impressed on her mind my duty to Aunt

> "Lor!" said my grandmother, with a least.

ed me on both eyes, and stroked my hair Jake looked as if he would. "Tell me all about it," he said; "I was tenderly for a minute or two. Then we par door' long before I reached her, as I had his promise we will wager any amount of grandmother's character; it was fresh and "Last night, I suppose; I must go on to confidently supposed she would be; but she nickle that Melindy will go for him, to use welcomed me heartily, and the kisses of the the venacular of the uncultivated, "like a tur afar off, and ran to fall on the neck of "I suppose it was ten days ago, and you children soothed somewhat the sore spot in thousand of brick."

For the next three days the activity of the pin, was not to be compared with mine. If | ner one day. But this is the way he relates Temperance Hale. I will call her to see I was determined to have them out of it; the brakesman, as we approached Xenia.

the children, and picked as for my life.

field," said one of them. "I don't see but he is quiet enough," she I looked up after a minute, and took Mr.

I wrote one this wise from his dictation : your fortune will seen be made," he said, could send me in addition a boiled pocket-"DEAR MARY-I came to grief within with a glad look in his eyes which seemed book stuffed with greenbacks, and well garto banish that dreadful wife of his to the hished with United States bonds. Postal uttermost parts of the earth.

told her I had good news for you she relen- the waiter to go to the bank and "draw" ted, and gave me the clue to your hiding some,

"Aunt Rachael directed you here?" "Precisely."

"What is your good news?" "I have heard of a school that you can have for the asking."

"I am exceedingly obliged to you." "It is a private school, and very small "Yes, if you are sure of my fitness."

"If I said anything or committed myself

it.

in, carrying a man, pale and lifeless in his | a flutter of spirits. Could it be possible | my school begins about the first of Septem-

"Not if I am to teach it," said I. "I camphor bottle-here's somebody sure e- ing? But I would not stop to think about shall spend that month and others after it life and death of Emily A. Drake, the el-room mate at the "Normal," heard the sto to Meriden to night. The mare did well I took it and glanced at Mr. Deane. He ry or my engagement, in which she intimable, she attracted the good and greatly en-me to be curious about the letter, and noth be off to my Aunt Rachael, while there is so clearly shown. In the triumphant death

LOVE AND A FARM .- Quite a number of for the purpose of securing the necessary document to legalize their marriage. But the other day a young mun, about twentyonce, accompanied by one of the opposite sex equally as young, ascended the main steps of the Court House, and then, on bewhom I had written that first letter from ing directed to the Probate Court took up The doctor found no bones broken, but his dictation, and I had foolishly taken it the line of march for its ballowed precincts.

Reaching the door, he refused to enter. The rustic maiden, who was extremely are always mysterious, and her price anxious to see the marriage programme carmight be far above rubies nevertheless. He | ried to a successful issue, looked upon him with pleading eyes, and then, taking him by the hand in the most tender manner, beseeched him to enter court and obtain the

> "Oh! come along, Jake; what's the use of backing out?" fell in dulcet tones upon Jacob's car.

"Melindy, I can't. The old man will give me fits it I marry you." "Haven't you told me a thousand times over that you would marry me in spite of "Yes! yes! but there is-"

"Is what?"

"W by the farm." "Plague take the farm."

"Yes, but Melindy," reasoned her lover, 'Hadn't we better wait till the old man dies, and then I'll have the farm sure?" "Dod not his old soul, he'll live fifteen order of feeling my own should belong. I had rather hardened my heart toward Aunt along now and git that ere license; I ain't

"I'll tell you what I'll do, Melindy."

"Well spit her out." "If the old man holds out agin my having you till Christmas, I'll marry you then farm or no farm."

* Sure ?" "As sure as my name's Jacob."

"Well, let ber go then till Christmas, but if you back out then, Jake, look sharp." "I'll soe the scratch then by jingo, if the old man runs me off from the farm with a double barrelled shot-gun certain." And Thus reassured on being married by ted for the night, and I went away in the Christmus, Melindy drew off with her Jake tally satisfied, doubtless, with the postpone-

The "Fat Contributor" stepped off at "busy bee" long ago impaled on a poetical Xenia, Ohio, on the Miami road, for din-"It belongs to my grandmother, Mrs. there was any gifts of healing in mere work, it: "Twenty minutes for dinner," shouled but the image of Mr. Dence was ever in Arriving there I entered the dining room "Thank you; I can wait. Perhaps the my mind's eye, and as people say who have and inquired of a waiter. "What have you sight of another stranger might fatigue me not been to the "Normal," I got no better got for dinner?" "Twenty minutes," was the hurried reply. I teld him I would try But I thought he might safely be left. Last of all I went huckleberrying with half a dozen minutes now just to see how they went. He looked confused, scratched "There's a strange man coming across the his head and walked off. I approached the man who took the money. "What do you have for dinner?" said L. "Half a dollar," said he. I told him I would take a "If you teach school as you pick berries half dollar well done. Asked him if he currency wasn't bad as a side dish, and was as mysterious over your departure as if notes, on draft. He said they were out of would say: "O, I have come back. I you had gone into a convent; but when I everything but bank notes, and he ordered thought I was going home."

OUR HANDS.-The human hand is so sorry I came back !" In the hand there are twenty-nine bones ing child.) In the hand there are twenty-nine bones ing child.)

from the mechanism of which result strength, mobility and elasticity. On the her, she said, "It is getting dark and cold."

When the darkness of death came over her, she said, "It is getting dark and cold."

Clearfield, Pa., where he keeps constantly an "I haven't a doubt of it. I said the from the mechanism of which result When the darkness of death came over perfect mobility of the thumb, depends the room, but I cannot see you." power of the hand, its strength being equal After this she called out again, loud ekeep him still I read aloud for hours, think tonishing speech, I have entirely forgotten flesby bail of the thumb, the power of the ma!" And as though she would draw all fingers would avail nothing; and according after her the dying girl exclaimed, "Good the thumb is the distinguishing character by darking? When the dark man the constantly replenishing their stock of Drugs,

A Child Going Home.

It is seldom that faith in a present Saviour is more clearly exhibited than in the in turning all my fortunes into the pretty dest daughter of Rev. L. I. Drake, of West Liberty, Ohio, who died July 1, 1870, with-

> Modest in disposition, and naturally amin-It is believed that from a child she had been of one in the very bloom of life, with all

While yet the prospect of length of days and the realization of the pleasures of life were fair, and seemed, humanly speaking to be sure, she said to her father. "I think, pa, if all the joys and pleasureof the world were offered me for Christ, I would put them all away and eling to Christ. From being apparently the most healthy of her family, she began to decline about five months previous to her death; but so surrounding country. obscure was her disease, that not until within ten days of her death did she or her family think she might not recover. She spoke of death with the greatest calmness. "I do not think I am going to die soon; at least not now : but in God's time I want

For her, death had lost its terrors, and faith in a risen Saviour had taken away its sting. As she became conscious that the hour of her dissolution was not far distant. she repeatedly spoke of her death as "go

"I do want to go home to Jesus. I want to die now. I do not wish to live longer. I do do not mean that death seems pleasant, but then I shall be with Jesus."

At another time sl c said to her parents, "I am going home. I wish you could go with me; but then Jesus will go with me. When usked what portion of the Bible was the most precious to her, she replied, "O, it is all precious; but now the Twen Lord is my Shepherd; and when I shall g walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with

The Bible was to her a treasure. Her mother said to her one day. "Daughter, shall I read to you from some other good book, or from the bible?" She replied, "O, read from the Bible all the time. Her mind was remarkably clear. She spoke of many things that the awful realities of death and eternity would seem to shut out from one's thoughts; But she seemed to feel that what she did must be done quickly, and the past redeemed. Forgetting nothing, she reminded every one of his or her kindness with thanks. "I would like to be buried," said she. by the side of sister Lillie. But it does not seem like I was going to be buried, when I die. It just seems that I am going home, be with me." To one of her young companions she said. "I think I have found the Saviour. Won't you love Jesus, and be a Christian, too?" To her brother she said, "You have be- zens of that place and vicinity gun to follow Jesus. You must not draw back. Be a faithful Christian man."

To one aged and infirm elder in the extensive dealers in all kinds of sawed Tumber. church she sent word, "Tell him I am going shingles and square timber Orders soffeited. Woodland Pa., Aug. 18th 1853 to die soon, and it will not be long until we meetin heaven." To the Sabba a school she sent this message by the Superintendent: "Tell them I want them all to love Jesus; to seek 11 m South-East corner of 3d and Market Streets. early, for He says, 'I love them that love Me, and they that seek me early shall find SURVEYOR .- The undersigned offer eight months ago, at which time I was confined Me.' I would like to meet them in Sabbath school once more, but I am too weak to go; but tell them I shall sooon be carried by bright angels to heaven, where Jesus is the great Superintendent." During her last days, there were times Having located at Occasion Page of that there are stoned entirely gone when exwhen she seemed entirely gone when exstonal services to the people of that there and see if it would effect a perfect cure, thought I was going home."

Once she said: "O, pa, I saw Jesus! I was almost over; He put out His hand to me, but I turned and came back. I am so of conveyance, articles of give him and to shimely that be can render satisfaction. Decks of conveyance, articles of give ements and all legal to have not used any now for three ments of conveyance, articles of give ements and all legal to the promption of the remedy for five months.

I was now able to report that a cure is after using the remedy for five months.

I have not used any now for three ments of conveyance, articles of give ements and all legal to the remedy for five months.

beautifully formed, and has so fine a sensi- A few minutes before she breathed her bility, that sensibility governs its motions last, she took an affectionate leave of her so correctly, every effort of the will is an parents, brothers, sisters, and of all around swered so instinctly, as if the hand itself her, with all the calmness of one going on were the seat of the will; its notions are so a visit from home. Looking up at her taxes paid, conveyances prepared, and insuranfree, so powerful and yet so delicate, that it father, with a smile of triumph on her face ces taken. seems to possess a quality instinct in itself. and the light of heaven in her eye, she extra House and we use it as we draw our breath, un claimed, "I am going home this time, Good wm. A. WALLACE consciously, and have lost all recollections of bye, ma! Good bye, dear pa! Kiss me the feeble and ill directed efforts of its first for ma." (Her mother was lying sick in an R E M O V A L-G U N S II O P exercises, by which it has been perfected. adjoining room, and could not go to her dy-length, strength, free lateral motion, and O, so dark! I know you are all here in the bye, everybody !" And with broken sobs bye, darling." When the darkness of death had forever shut out the natural vision, she exclaimed, as she lifted her hand, "I see a" little light away off;" and then in a little while she said. "It is brighter now, O, so bright! Pon't you see it, pa?" and with

Business Directory.

A. W. WALTERS. ATTORNEY AT LAW. Clearfield Pa. Office in the Court House ALTER BARRETT, Attorney atlaw. Clear

B. GRAHAM & SONS, Dealers in Dry-Goods Provintens, Hardware, Queensware, Wooden-Provintens, etc., Market St. Clears, id. Pu. F. BIGLER & Co., Dealers in Huraware

P. NAUGLE, Water and Clock Maker and I . dealer in Watches, Jewelry, &c. Rosm in Graham arow, Marketstreet. Nov. 18.

H. BUCHER SWOOPE. Atterney at Law.
bild Pa. Office to Graham's Row, four doc's west of Graham & Boynton's store. Nov. 18. THO'S J McCULLOUGH, ATTORNET - AT-LAW, Clearfield, Pa. All legal business prompt-by attended to. Cet. 27, 1869.

WM. REED. Market Street, Clearfield, Ps., Fancy Dry Goods, White Goods, Notions, Embroideries, Ludies' and Gents' Furnishing I SHAW Dealer in Drugs Patent Madicines

A. Fancy Articles, etc., and Properture of Dr. Boyer's West Branch Bisters, Market Street, Stearfield, Pa. R B READ, M D., Physician and Summer B. Khan, a. D. . Repeatfully offers his pro-lessional services to the citizens of that place and corrounding country. [Apr. 20-5m]

ORBIN T. NonLe. Afterney at Law. Lock Ha O ven. Pa. Will practice in the several courts of Clearfield county. Fusiness entrasted to kim will receive prompt attention. Js. 29, 70-y. C. KRATZER, Desler in Dry-Goods, Clothing, Hardware Quechaware, Groceries, Provi-sions, etc., Market Street, nearly opposite the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. June, 1863.

B M'ENALLY, Attorneyat Law, Clearfield Pa. Practices in Clearfield and adjoining counties. Office in new brick building of J. Lays to. 2d street, one door south of Lanich's Hotel

TEST. Attorney at Law. Clearfield. Pa., will ed to his caree in Clearfield and adjoining counties. Office on Market street. July 17, 1:67. riviloMAS M. FORCEY Dealer in Square and

Saved Lumber, Dry. Goods, Queensware, Gro-ceries, Figur, Grain, Feed, Bacon, &c., &c., Gra-hamton, Clearfield county, Pa. Oct 10. HARTSWICK & IRWIN, Dealers in Drops, rax. Pancy Goods, Notions, etc., etc., Market street,

7. Clothing, Hardware Queensware Gree-ries, Provisions, &c., Second Street Clera field Pa. Dec 27, 1865 ty third Poalm seems most precious. The round CELICH, Manufacturer of all kinds a Uabinet-wars, Market street Clearfield, Pa He also makes to order Coffins, on short notice, and attends funerals with a hearse. April 39.

learly opposite the Court House. |June 30, '69 INREDERICK LEITZINGER. Manufacturer of ware, of his own manufacture. ... Jan. 1, 1865 Mansion House, Clearfield Pa This will known hotel, near the court House is worshy the patronage of the public. The tall will be supplied with the best in the market. The all kinds of Stonn-ware Clearfield. Pa Or solidited-wholesale or ratail He also keeps going to Jesus in heaven. It is, I know, a John H. PULFORD, Attorney at Law. Clear going to Jesus in heaven. It is, I know, a . I field. Pa Office on Market Street over long way; it is a dark way; but Jesus will Hart wick & Irwin's Drag Store. Promptation for given to the securing of Bounty claims. &c. and all legal business. March 27, 1867.

> A I THORN, M. D. PHYSICIAN AND Pa. offers his professional services to the ci-

DR J. P. BURCHFIELD-Late Surgeon of the sub-bs and juniper berries, it occurred to me and from the army, offers his professional services to my physician as an excellent combination, and, the eltirons of Clearfield and vicinity. Profes-Oct, 4, 1855-6mp.

his services to the public, as a Surveyor. the may be found at his residence in Lawleine township, when not engaged; or addressed by letter at Clearfield, Peno a March 6th, 1877.-tf. JAMES MITCHELL JEFFERSON LITZ, M.D.

"How did you find me?"

Stamps will do for desert. I would like to she would recover a little strength, she wash my dinner down with national bank wash my dinner down with national bank. CRORGE C. KIEK, Justice of the Peace Sur-> papers promptly and neatly executed JeS'10-yt WALLACE A WALTERS. REAL ESPATE AGENTS AND CONVEYANCERS, > Clearfield, Pa Real estate bought and sold, titles examined Office in new building, nearly opposite Court

J. BLAKE WALTERS.

The undersigned begs leave to inform his old hand, and makes to order, all kinds of Gens. Also, gues rebored and revarnished, and revaired neatly on short notice Orders by mail will re-

SMALL PROFITS and QUICK SALES.

HARTSWICK & IRWIN

Medicines, &c. School books and Stationery, including the Osgood and National series of readers. Also-Toborco and Cigars, of the best quality and at the lowest prices. Call and sec.

Clearfield, Nov. 10, 1869

DRY GOODS—the cheapest in the county, May 29, '67

THE KIDNEYS.

The Kidneys are two in number, situated at the upper part of the loin, surrounded by fat, and consisting of three parts, viz: the Anterior, the Interior, and the Exterior.

The anterior absorbs Interior consists of tis sues or roins which serve as a deposit for the urine and convey it to the exterior. The exteand manufacturers of Tin and Sheet from rier is a conductor also, terminating in a single tabe, and called the Ureter. The wreters are connected with the bladder.

The bladder is composed of various coverings BUCHER SWOOPE, Attorney at Law. Cleng- or tissues, divided into parts, viz.; the Upper, th Lower, the Nervous and the Mucous. The upper expels the lower retains. Many have a desire to urinate without the ability, others urinate without the ability to retain. This frequently occurs

> To care these affections, we must bring into action the muscles, which are engaged in their vaions functions. If they ere neglected, Gravel or Dropsy may ensue. The reader must also be made aware, that how> ever slight may be the attack, it is sure to affecthe budily health and mental powers, as our flesh and blood are supported from these sources. Goty on Restuarism - Prin occurring in the > lulas is indicative of the above diseases. They cent in persons disposed to sold stomach and chalky concretions. THE GRAVEL -The gravel onsues from neglect or improper treatment of the kidneys These or gans being weak, the water is not expelled from the bladder, but allowed to remain; it becomes feverish, and sediment forms. It is from this deposit that the stone is formed, and gravel ensues. Dropsy is a collection of water in some parts of he body, and bears different names, according to he parts affected, viz; when generally diffused over the body, it is called Anasarea; when of the Abdomen, Ascites; when of the chest, Hydrotho-

TREATMENT.-Helmbold's highly concentrated compound Extract Buchn is decidedly one of the A KRATZER & SON, desters in Dry Goods | test remedies for discuses of the bindler, kidneys, gravel, dropsical swellings, rhenmatista, and gouty affections. Under this head we have arranged Dysurie, or difficulty and pain in passing water, Scanty Secretion, or small and frequent discharges of water; Strangury, or stopping of water; CHARD MOSSOP, Dealer in Possign and De Lamaturia, or bloody urine; Gout and Rheuma-liquors &c. Room, on Market street, a few doors, west of Jacqual Office, Clearfield, Pa. Apr. 27 iiiy, but lacrense in color or dark water. It was WALLACE & FIELDING ATTORNEYS AT LAW slways highly recommended by the late Dr.

Clearfield. Pa. Office in residence of W. A.
Wallace Legal business of all ninds attended to with promptness and fidelity. [Jan 5, 70 pp [WM. A. WALLACE. FRANK FIGHRING and excites the absorbents into healthy exercise.] W Sulfil. Arronner at Law. Clearfield by which the watery or calcareous depositions trusted to his care. Office on selected floor of new building adjoining County National Bank, and and inflammation are reduced, and it is taken by men, women and children. Directions for use and dist accompany.

PRILADELPHIA, PA., Feb. 25, 1867.

II T. HELMPOLD, Druggist; DEAR Sin :- I have been a sufferer, for upward of twenty years, with gravel, bladder and kidney affections during which time I have used various medicinal preparations, and been under the treatment of the most eminent Physicians, experiencing but little relief

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised. I consulted with my family physician in regard to using your Extract Buchu.

I did this because I had used all kinds of advertised remodies, and had found them worthless, and some quite is jurious; in fact, I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no remedies berenfter unless I knew of the ingredients. It was this that prompted me to use your remedy. As you advertised that it was composed of buchu, with his advice, after an examination of the article, and consulting again with the druggist, I concluded to try it. I commenced its use about to my room From the first bottle I was astonished and gratified at the beneficial effect, and after using it three weeks was able to walk out. I felt much like writing you a full statement of my case at that time, but thought my improvement might defer and see if it would effect a perfect cure. knowing then is would be of greater value to you and more satisfactory to me. I am now able to report that a cure is effected

I have not used any new for three months, and

Your Buchu being devoid of any unpleasant taste and odor, a nice tonic and invigorator of the system, I do not mean to be without it whenever occasion may require its use in such affections. M McCORMICK.

Should any doubt Mr. McCormick's statement, he refers to the following gentlemen:

Hon. Wm. Bigler, ex Governor Penn'a. Hon Thomas B Florenae, Philadelphia. Hon. J. C. Knox, Judge, Philadelphia. Hon. J. S. Black, Judge, Philadelphia. Hon. D. R. Porter, ex-Governor, Penn'a. Hon, Ellis Levis, Judge, Philadelphia. Hon. R. C. Grier, Judge U. S. Court. Hon. G. W. Woodward, Judge, Philadelphis. Hon, W. A. Porter, City Solicitor, Phil'a. Hen. John Bigler, ex Governor, California. Hon. E. Banks, Auditor Gen. Washington, D.C.

And many others, if necessary. Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere, Beware of counterfeits. Ask for Helmbold's, Take no other. Price-$1.25 per bottle or 6 bottles for $6.50. Pelivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications.

Address H. T. HELMBOLD, Drug and Chemical Warehouse, 594 Broadway, N. Y.

NONE ARE GENUINE UNLESS DONE UP IN steel-engraved wrapper, with fac-simile of my Chemical Warehouse and signed June 15.170-19

H. T. HELMBOLD.