A DISTINGUISHED FOREIGNER.-M. Du Chaillu, the great French Explorer who has 11.40 a m. traveled more than eight thousand miles through the wilds of Equatorial Africa, will deliver a lecture in the Court House, on Wednesday evening, the 23d inst. This will be a rare opportunity for all to hear from the greatest of living travelers, a description of that heretofore unknown region of our Globe. M. Du Chailla's reputation, as a lecturer, stands second to none. No one should fail to go, as the lecture will be highly instructive as well as entertaining. In another column will be found the proper advartisement

REBUILDING.-The frame of the new Steam Saw Mill, of the Moshannon Land & Lumber Co., of Osecola, is being raised upon the site of the old mill which was destroyed by fire. In slape the building is nearly square, resting upon solid foundations of masonry and supported by the most massive timbers. Everything about it has a look of solidity, strength and durability rarely seen. We believe this mill is intended to be larger WATER. -The agitation of water works and of greater espacity for turning out lum seems to have died away. We hope the ber than the old one. The boilers, six in number, which passed through the fire, have been repaired, and, we suppose, will be used, as they were protected from the enormous heat of the conflagration by the boiler house of brick.—Philipslang Journal.
