Religious.—Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows:
By Rev. Hall, in St. Andrew's Episcopal church, at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. Sunday school at 3 P. M. Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.
By Rev. Butler in the Presbyterian church, morning and evening. Sabbath school at 3 P. M. Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Killed.—A man named Shannon, was killed at the Deatur Coal Company's mines, by a fall of coal, on Wednesday, March 8th. His remains were interred at the Catholic cemetery in Osceola.

Our Streets.—We take this early opportunity to direct the attention of the Borough officers to the miserable condition of our streets. They are a disgrace to any civilized community. We hope the Burgess will give them his personal attention, and that some substantial improvement will be made this summer.

Building.—We learn that several business houses are to be erected in this place, this summer, besides a number of residences and the new jail. We like to see this spirit of improvement. Several manufacturing establishments would add much to the prosperity of our town. Who will be the first to move in this direction?

Broke Jail.—A prisoner made his escape from jail, one evening last week, by climbing over the outer wall. He was, however, captured after a long chase over the hills east of the borough, and returned to his old quarters, by the new Sheriff. Prisoners should remember that Sheriff Pie is pretty fast a foot, and unless they are sure of a good start, they had better not attempt to escape. So look out.

Raining.—Snow.—Raining in has been quite brisk, for more than a week past, in this region, and a goodly number of rafts started for the lower markets; but, we presume, the greater part of the timber will still back. The water in the streams is getting rather low for rafting, most of the snow having passed off already, and hence it will require pretty copious rains to raise the streams sufficiently high to float off the remaining timber.

A Giant Tree.—A pine tree was felled on lands of John DalBois, Esq., in Huston township, about two miles from Pennfield, a short time since, by some men working for Mr. James Bundy, from which was obtained seven or sixteen feet in length, and containing seven thousand two hundred feet of good lumber. Talk about your giant trees of California, but you seldom find larger pine trees in this country, than the one above referred to. See a correspondent.

An Innovation.—On Sunday last, we noticed a wagon driving around our streets spluttering milk to customers. Might not a farmer with the same property come to town and deliver apples, or potatoes, or butter and eggs, or anything else, to customers? Who is responsible for this innovation, the seller or the buyer? Wouldn't Saturday evening be more appropriate than Sunday morning for such business? We leave each one to answer these questions as conscience dictates.

Dismissing Scene.—On Saturday last we witnessed a most disgusting scene, on the street in front of our office. A man in attempting to cross the street, was so drunk that he fell into a mudhole, where he wallowed about like a hog for a minute or two, when he was helped out of the mud and landed on a wagon by several friends and taken out of town. This was one of the most disgusting spectacles we have ever witnessed, and we hope it will never occur in our streets.

Death of a Former Citizen.—It is with feelings of deep regret, that we announce the death of our old and esteemed friend, Nicholas K. McMullin, Esq. He died at his residence, near Fontonville, Washington county, Nebraska, on Friday, March 11, after a severe illness of six weeks, in the 54th year of his age. He was sick all winter, but the immediate cause of his death was fungus tumors, or bleeding cancers—one in the stomach, two in the mouth, one on the lower and one on the upper jaw. The growth of these tumors was very rapid, and no medical skill could avert the fatal result. His remains were followed to the grave by a large concourse of people. Mr. McMullin removed from this place to Nebraska some five or six years ago, where he acquired a homestead for himself and family. He was a man of strong mind, good business qualifications, honest and upright—an affectionate husband, an indulgent father, and a kind and accommodating neighbor—loved and respected by all who knew him. His death will be much regretted and greatly lamented by his numerous relatives and friends, both here and in his adopted western home. Peace to his remains.

Law Broken.—A Mr. J. Laugham, of Grant township, Indiana county, had a leg smashed between two timber stalks, while engaged in reading near Cherrytree, last week.

Enlarged and Improved.—The Clinton Republican. It is now a nine column folio, neatly printed and ably edited. The Republic is an excellent paper, and worthy a liberal support. We wish it success.

Railroad to Cherrytree.—We see by the Indiana papers, that some fifteen or twenty men are at work on the Homer and Cherrytree railroad. We presume this road will be extended into this county at no very distant day. It is worthy the attention of our citizens, at least.

Wolf Caught.—A correspondent writes us as follows: "About two weeks ago, Mr. Robert C. Taylor, of New Salem, Brady township, caught a large wolf in a fox trap, near that village. This old trespasser was pursued and overtaken by a dog, who would not let him cross a fence until Mr. Taylor came up and shot the wolf with his cane gun." Now, this may all be so, but we do not fully comprehend how the varmint was "caught in a fox trap," and why it "was pursued and overtaken by a dog who would not let him cross a fence." That's all.

Rowdyism.—On Thursday evening last, a man was arrested and lodged in jail, for indulging in a little pugilistic exercise; and another on Saturday evening for trying to incite a disturbance. The immediate cause in both cases, was intoxicating drinks. For some time past, our borough has been comparatively free from disturbances of this character, but they seem to be on the increase with the advent of rafting. But, we are glad to see that our Borough Constable is prompt in arresting all offenders against the laws. A few hours quiet lodging in the big stone "mansion" will have a wonderful tendency to alleviate drunkenness, quarreling, fighting, and a disturbance of the good peace of our town generally. The thanks of our citizens are due to the officers for their prompt and efficient arrest of all peace-disturbers.

Shooting Affair.—A correspondent informs us that, on Wednesday night, March 8th, between 12 and 1 o'clock, a shooting affair came off at the "American House" in Curwensville, the facts of which are substantially as follows: A young man named Jack Robinson came in and demanded liquor. Mr. Bowman, the bar-keeper, thinking he had sufficient already, refused to comply with his demand, whereupon Robinson drew out a pistol, and the bar-keeper retreated. Robinson then called up Mr. Reed, the proprietor, and repeated his demand for liquor. Mr. Reed refused to grant the request, and then Robinson into the street, whereupon the latter attempted to break in the door. Mr. R. then stepped out and caught Robinson by the wrists and threw him down, Robinson having the pistol in his hand at the time. While in this position, Robinson fired the ball entering Mr. Reed's leg just above the knee, and coming out under the knee, having passed through without breaking the bone or cutting an artery. The wound is not considered as being immediately dangerous. Robinson has not been arrested as yet.

See advertising columns for several cautions, Recorder's notices, etc.

To Parents.—A select school for girls, designed to be permanent, will be opened in Curwensville, by Miss Belle Welch, on the 17th of April.

The Card of James H. Parker, of Pittsburgh, dealer in pork, etc., appears to day. Read the card, and buy your pork at Parker's. He sells cheap.

The advertisement of J. M. Kratzer appears in another column. He has just opened a stock of new goods, to which he invites the attention of customers.

Read the advertisement of Reed Brothers, which is published to day. They are just receiving their first invoice of Spring goods, which they offer low for cash.

Cemetery Work.—Mrs. Liddell has just received a large stock of Italian and Vermont marble, which will be worked to order in the highest style of the art. Her workmen are of the best in Central Pennsylvania. Give her a call.

Dr. P. Pratto, formerly of Syracuse, N. Y., desires us to inform the people of Clearfield and vicinity that he has permanently located among them, for the purpose of practicing his profession. The Doctor will be in readiness to attend to all professional calls, either night or day. His office is on Reed street, south side, between the Railroad and Second street, where he may be found night and day, when not engaged elsewhere.

Educational.—Prof. Harrison, it seems, is determined to make the Academy, in this place, a school second to none in Pennsylvania. While the Trustees have fitted up the school room in a very tasteful and comfortable style, Prof. H. has been laboring in another direction for the improvement of the school, and his efforts have been crowned in securing the services of an additional teacher of more than ordinary attainments, as regards both education and experience. Miss Broome comes among us highly recommended—is a graduate of the Baltimore Female College, and has had considerable experience as a teacher in the best graded schools in that city. She takes charge of the Female department in the Academy. The other teachers are too well known to the citizens of the county as first class teachers, to require any special commendation. Read the advertisement in another column.

Neglected Throat and Lung Diseases.—During the changeable seasons of fall and winter when Coughs and Colds are so prevalent, no person should be without some reliable preparation for their cure. They should recollect that a neglected Cough or Cold frequently terminates in Consumption.

Harrison's Compound Syrup of Tar is the best and most reliable article known for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Asthma, Chronic Catarrhs, and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. No family should be without it. It is no private "quack" preparation; on the contrary, it is prescribed by some of the most eminent physicians in the country. Price 50 cents. For sale by Hartswick & Irwin, Clearfield; Joseph R. Irwin, Curwensville, and Druggists everywhere. [Feb. 22-12c.]

WOLF CAUGHT.—A correspondent writes us as follows: "About two weeks ago, Mr. Robert C. Taylor, of New Salem, Brady township, caught a large wolf in a fox trap, near that village. This old trespasser was pursued and overtaken by a dog, who would not let him cross a fence until Mr. Taylor came up and shot the wolf with his cane gun." Now, this may all be so, but we do not fully comprehend how the varmint was "caught in a fox trap," and why it "was pursued and overtaken by a dog who would not let him cross a fence." That's all.
