CLEARFIELD, PA., MAY 3, 1871.

To Patrons.—To insure the safe transmission of money by mail, patrons should remit by check or money order, or have their letters registered. A receipt will be enclosed in the first paper after the money comes to hand.

Penn. R. R.—Winter Arrangement.

Table with 2 columns: Station and Time. Includes Philadelphia, Clearfield, Tyrone, and Lock Haven.

Accommodation Train.

Religious.—Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows:

By Rev. Hall, in St. Andrew's Episcopal church, at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. Sunday school at 3 P. M. Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Progressing favorably.—the work on the new jail in this place.

RATHER COOL—the weather for some days passed, for the growth of vegetation.

IN BLOOM—some of the fruit trees. Shouldn't wonder if much of the fruit was "shipped in the bud," by the late cold "snaps."

THE Mexican "sonbrero" seems to have gained the preference this spring. Some of those running around the streets somewhat resemble traveling straw sheds.

IN TOWN—Warner's Managerie and Circus, on Monday last. Also a pretty large crowd of people. The performances are spoken of as having been very good.

MISSISS. Bigler, Young & Co., have just put up a steam hammer with a fifteen hundred pound stroke. Better keep fingers from under that hammer, or you might get 'em smashed.

A FEW persons seem to have their "backs up" about our lines, in reference to the object of the excursion to Tyrone. Well, (as an explanation), we would say that Anna didn't "eckle," but did she "chuck"?

VEGETABLES.—We see that early vegetables have been in the market, in all the towns along the railroad, except Clearfield. Why is this? Has no one enterprise enough to accommodate the citizens of this place, in that line?

THE Elk Advocate, Cameron Press, and the Benetite "Sawing Society," are indulging in a discussion on "Tomato plants," such trying, as we suppose, to out do each other in the magnitude of the plants—in the plant story.

WANTED—badly—a pavement along the new "Masonic Hall" building. Clearfield admires the fact, but says the Penn. Legislature "can't be broken up to make a pavement in Clearfield." The Legislature ought to admonish, then, at once.

DIRTY like to make a "pictorial" out of his paper—the "thin-skinned editor who inserts a cut of the Vinegar Bitter's man, the perforated undergarments, etc., regularly. No doubt, his "reluctation" was sadly neglected "on this point."

NEEDS CLEANING.—In passing along Fourth street, last week, we noticed that the "cist" in that locality needs cleaning out, the dirt having caved in to such an extent as to obstruct the flow of the water. The borough "Dads" should give it their early attention.

AROUND—this week—the "soap man," soaping some of the "ereen" 'uns. Well, some "fools" know how to make money at the expense of others; notwithstanding their "education on this point" was not neglected by the very conscientious editor of the Republic.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Sunday last Thomas Kyler, of Kylesport, this county, was killed at Briar Bottom, Clinton county. He was engaged in snubbing a rail on a tree, when the tree, pulling out by the root, fell upon and killed him. The deceased was a son of J. B. Kyler, Esq., of Morris tp.

SOME fellows tried hard to "kick up a row" at the Western on Saturday night, but Young soon let them know that he "run" his own house, by shoving a couple of 'em into the street. One chap, however, had to be knocked down and stretched out under a bench, before he could be quieted.

WANTS REPAIRING.—The curfew on First street, at the Shaw House corner, remains in rather a delapidated condition, notwithstanding the attention of some of the borough officers has been called to it. The necessary repairs should be made at once, lest some horse break a leg and the borough be unletted for damages.

The Demo-ratic Watchman, is the title line on the second page of a paper published in Bellefonte—meaning, we presume, that the editor intends to take away, (extirpate, or cast out), the old rebel rats that have been gnawing at the vitals of his party ever since the late war. Give 'em fits, Meek; there is plenty of room for reform.

The usual number of side-shows, razor-powder men, and "humbags" generally, followed the circus to town on Monday. The soap man held forth in front of the Mansion House, selling an article of soap "warranted to take the stains from a guilty conscience." The "thin-skinned" editor of the Republic should have invested in a cake or two.

RAFTING.—Rain commenced falling in this region on Thursday evening last, and continued to fall at intervals during Friday, causing a fair rafting flood in the river. A goodly number of rafts passed this place on Saturday and Sunday, which, we hope, will reach their destination in safety. A large portion of the rafts are still back, and it is rather doubtful if they will reach a market this season.

TO BE BUILT.—We notice that the Bennett's Branch of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, 92 miles east from Redbank station is to be put under contract shortly. This road will pass through the western part of Clearfield county, thus opening a new outlet for much valuable timber that is now almost inaccessible to a market. Our friends in that section of the county have cause for congratulation over their prospect of railroad communication "with the outer world" by the completion of the Bennett's Branch road.

LIST OF LETTERS remaining unclaimed in the Postoffice at Clearfield, Pa., May 1, 1871: Bumgarner, Mrs O. Lyman, Charles Bumgarner, Miss Laura Lyttle, B. Brown, M. L. Biehan, Mrs M. A. Bate, Miss Jennie, R. A. J. Cummings, E. M. Campbell Vincent, Conant Joseph A. Crawford, Edward Deffen, D. B. Holland, Miss Mary Rowland, J. Hunsinger, George Hikes, George Hubert, John R. Johnson Susan A. Kramer & Robert, Knapp, Andrew P. A. GAULIN, P. M.

ALMOST A FATAL MISTAKE.—The Philadelphia Journal says: "A man named Isaac Rothrock, living near Grahamton, Clearfield county, arose from his slumbers on Sunday morning, April 16th, and as was his custom proceeded to the cupboard to get his 'bitters.'" Being no doubt aware that "there is many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip," and desiring that there should be none in his case, he determined to take it "by word of mouth," i. e., out of the bottle, and seizing it he took a long and a strong pull. Imagine his horror, when, upon setting the bottle down, he discovered he had treated his inner man to a draught of poison for biddings instead of poison for men. Two bottles, which alike, were in the cupboard, one containing whisky, and the other the quicker poison, and in his haste he had taken a drink out of the wrong bottle. Physicians were called in, antidotes were applied, and at last accounts he was slowly recovering."

THE GAPING BRIGADE.—We learn that the "Gaping Brigade" is fully organized for the Summer campaign, and is performing regular duty every Sabbath evening. On Sunday evening last, its members filed right and left, and formed an open line from the foot of the stairs in the M. E. church, out through the hall to the front gate, and for a considerable distance along the side walk. It was a magnificent sight, to behold this self-sacrificing and accommodating Brigade on drill. And then, too, it is so exceedingly pleasant, especially for ladies, to allow their way through this crowd of gentlemen (7), who frequently leave scarcely room enough for a single person to pass between their accurately formed lines. This Brigade is the pride of our town, and some of the citizens think of presenting it with a leather meddle for its well behaved and orderly bearing, instead of resorting to the harsh measures recently adopted by our Altoona neighbors, i. e., of fining each member a "V." We tender our citizens the heart-felt thanks of the members of the "Gaping Brigade," for their kind intentions and forbearing consideration.

MARRIED.—On Tuesday, April 25th, by Rev. W. M. Borchardt, Mr. JOSEPH BIRKBECK, of Knox township, and Miss CHARIE M. BIRN, of Lawrence township.

On Thursday, April 20th, by H. J. Sloppy, Esq., Mr. FREDERICK MCCRAKEN, of Ferguson township, and Miss MARY MICHAELS, of Clinton county, Pa.

On Sunday, April 23d, by H. J. Sloppy, Esq., Mr. J. A. HAINES, and Miss ELLEN HOCKENBERRY, all of Woodward township.

WHAT becomes of all the old shoes? It is a question that has puzzled philosophers for years. But a greater question is, what becomes of all the boots and shoes sold by Alexander at the Keystone Shoe Store on Second Street? He has the largest assortment of sizes, and sells the cheapest of any firm in Clearfield.

DR. F. PRATTO, formerly of Syracuse, N. Y., desires us to inform the people of Clearfield and vicinity that he has permanently located among them, for the purpose of practicing his profession. The Doctor will be in readiness to attend to all professional calls, either night or day. His office is on Reed street, south side, between the Railroad and Second street, where he may be found night and day, when not engaged elsewhere. March 8, 1871, if

NEGLECTED THROAT AND LUNG DISEASES.—During the changeable seasons of fall and winter when Coughs and Colds are so prevalent, no person should be without some reliable preparation for their cure. They should recollect that a neglected Cough or Cold frequently terminates in Consumption. Hason's Compound Syrup of Tor is the best, and most reliable article known for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Asthma, Chronic Catarrhs, and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. No family should be without it. It is no private "quack" preparation, on the contrary, it is prescribed by some of the most eminent physicians in the country. Price 50 cents. For sale by Hartwick & Irwin, Clearfield; Joseph R. Irwin, Curwensville, and Drug-gists everywhere. [Feb. 22-124.]
