

Raftsman's Journal.

S. J. EWE, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

CLEARFIELD, PA., JUNE 7, 1871.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR SENATOR GENERAL: Col. DAVID STANTON, of Beaver. FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL: Col. ROBERT B. BEATH, of Schuylkill.

Showing their Hand. At Lexington, Va., is the renowned institution of learning re-baptized as the Washington and Lee University.

A Little of Everything. The river is low. The thermometer is high. Ice drinks are luxuries.

Local Correspondence. THE Imperial Library of Paris—called Royal or National, according to what government is in—declared, to the great pleasure of the literary world, to have escaped the ruin of Paris.

Information for the Farmer. Mr. EDITOR: Having noticed in various parts of this county a vegetable generally explained by farmers to be, "only a sickly little thistle."

Resign or Die.—Governor Scott has refused to accept the resignation of Mr. Jas. C. Leahy, Judge of Probate of Newberry county, South Carolina.

Drunkness and its Curses. Who can point us to a single benefit derived from our present license law? Who will dare offer a single argument in its favor, save those who are lost to every sense of duty pertaining to the cause of Christ?

Timely Advice. The political campaign we have now fairly entered into will be one of the most interesting and exciting that has ever marked the history of our Commonwealth.

GEN. McCANDLESS.—The Carlisle Herald, says of the Democratic nominee for Auditor General:

THE Alabama State Journal says: "Let every Republican in the State ask himself these questions: Am I of any benefit to the Republic?"

THE Cincinnati Commoner (Dem.) says: "A party must know when to abdicate. It may easily find the proper time to do so by self-examination, whether it has a great man around whom to rally."

THE New York Globe, referring to the verdict of the coroner's jury in the case of the late terrible disaster at Pittston, says with some severity, but also with some justice, "the men who died at Pittston were murdered by the owners of this mine, inasmuch as they did not obey the law of the State, or make any attempt to do so."

THE Bellefonte Watchman makes a very dry face over the resolution of the Democratic State Convention endorsing negro suffrage.

THE Lynchburg Virginian, like the Memphis Appeal, refuses to "depart." It "accepts nothing" in the language of Mr. Davis, and says that it is necessary now, more than ever, to unfurl "the spotless banner of the white man's party."

Then stood forth Mr. John Letcher, once Governor of the Old Dominion, and remarked: "If he had made such a speech he might have landed in the old Capital Prison again, and he was not certain that he would be safe now, to introduce it; but he would, at a venture, endeavor to express his hearty concurrence in its sentiments."

Timely Advice. The political campaign we have now fairly entered into will be one of the most interesting and exciting that has ever marked the history of our Commonwealth.

GEN. McCANDLESS.—The Carlisle Herald, says of the Democratic nominee for Auditor General:

THE Alabama State Journal says: "Let every Republican in the State ask himself these questions: Am I of any benefit to the Republic?"

THE Cincinnati Commoner (Dem.) says: "A party must know when to abdicate. It may easily find the proper time to do so by self-examination, whether it has a great man around whom to rally."

THE New York Globe, referring to the verdict of the coroner's jury in the case of the late terrible disaster at Pittston, says with some severity, but also with some justice, "the men who died at Pittston were murdered by the owners of this mine, inasmuch as they did not obey the law of the State, or make any attempt to do so."

THE Bellefonte Watchman makes a very dry face over the resolution of the Democratic State Convention endorsing negro suffrage.

THE Lynchburg Virginian, like the Memphis Appeal, refuses to "depart." It "accepts nothing" in the language of Mr. Davis, and says that it is necessary now, more than ever, to unfurl "the spotless banner of the white man's party."

THE Democracy of Wayne county, Ohio, have denounced the Vallandigham platform, and passed resolutions adhering to the old landmarks of Democratic faith and practice, i. e. to slavery, plunder and rebellion.

Then stood forth Mr. John Letcher, once Governor of the Old Dominion, and remarked: "If he had made such a speech he might have landed in the old Capital Prison again, and he was not certain that he would be safe now, to introduce it; but he would, at a venture, endeavor to express his hearty concurrence in its sentiments."

Timely Advice. The political campaign we have now fairly entered into will be one of the most interesting and exciting that has ever marked the history of our Commonwealth.

GEN. McCANDLESS.—The Carlisle Herald, says of the Democratic nominee for Auditor General:

THE Alabama State Journal says: "Let every Republican in the State ask himself these questions: Am I of any benefit to the Republic?"

THE Cincinnati Commoner (Dem.) says: "A party must know when to abdicate. It may easily find the proper time to do so by self-examination, whether it has a great man around whom to rally."

THE New York Globe, referring to the verdict of the coroner's jury in the case of the late terrible disaster at Pittston, says with some severity, but also with some justice, "the men who died at Pittston were murdered by the owners of this mine, inasmuch as they did not obey the law of the State, or make any attempt to do so."

THE Bellefonte Watchman makes a very dry face over the resolution of the Democratic State Convention endorsing negro suffrage.

THE Lynchburg Virginian, like the Memphis Appeal, refuses to "depart." It "accepts nothing" in the language of Mr. Davis, and says that it is necessary now, more than ever, to unfurl "the spotless banner of the white man's party."

THE Democracy of Wayne county, Ohio, have denounced the Vallandigham platform, and passed resolutions adhering to the old landmarks of Democratic faith and practice, i. e. to slavery, plunder and rebellion.

Then stood forth Mr. John Letcher, once Governor of the Old Dominion, and remarked: "If he had made such a speech he might have landed in the old Capital Prison again, and he was not certain that he would be safe now, to introduce it; but he would, at a venture, endeavor to express his hearty concurrence in its sentiments."

Timely Advice. The political campaign we have now fairly entered into will be one of the most interesting and exciting that has ever marked the history of our Commonwealth.

GEN. McCANDLESS.—The Carlisle Herald, says of the Democratic nominee for Auditor General:

THE Alabama State Journal says: "Let every Republican in the State ask himself these questions: Am I of any benefit to the Republic?"

THE Cincinnati Commoner (Dem.) says: "A party must know when to abdicate. It may easily find the proper time to do so by self-examination, whether it has a great man around whom to rally."

THE New York Globe, referring to the verdict of the coroner's jury in the case of the late terrible disaster at Pittston, says with some severity, but also with some justice, "the men who died at Pittston were murdered by the owners of this mine, inasmuch as they did not obey the law of the State, or make any attempt to do so."

THE Bellefonte Watchman makes a very dry face over the resolution of the Democratic State Convention endorsing negro suffrage.

THE Lynchburg Virginian, like the Memphis Appeal, refuses to "depart." It "accepts nothing" in the language of Mr. Davis, and says that it is necessary now, more than ever, to unfurl "the spotless banner of the white man's party."

THE Democracy of Wayne county, Ohio, have denounced the Vallandigham platform, and passed resolutions adhering to the old landmarks of Democratic faith and practice, i. e. to slavery, plunder and rebellion.

Then stood forth Mr. John Letcher, once Governor of the Old Dominion, and remarked: "If he had made such a speech he might have landed in the old Capital Prison again, and he was not certain that he would be safe now, to introduce it; but he would, at a venture, endeavor to express his hearty concurrence in its sentiments."

Timely Advice. The political campaign we have now fairly entered into will be one of the most interesting and exciting that has ever marked the history of our Commonwealth.

GEN. McCANDLESS.—The Carlisle Herald, says of the Democratic nominee for Auditor General:

THE Alabama State Journal says: "Let every Republican in the State ask himself these questions: Am I of any benefit to the Republic?"

THE Cincinnati Commoner (Dem.) says: "A party must know when to abdicate. It may easily find the proper time to do so by self-examination, whether it has a great man around whom to rally."

THE New York Globe, referring to the verdict of the coroner's jury in the case of the late terrible disaster at Pittston, says with some severity, but also with some justice, "the men who died at Pittston were murdered by the owners of this mine, inasmuch as they did not obey the law of the State, or make any attempt to do so."

THE Bellefonte Watchman makes a very dry face over the resolution of the Democratic State Convention endorsing negro suffrage.

THE Lynchburg Virginian, like the Memphis Appeal, refuses to "depart." It "accepts nothing" in the language of Mr. Davis, and says that it is necessary now, more than ever, to unfurl "the spotless banner of the white man's party."

THE Democracy of Wayne county, Ohio, have denounced the Vallandigham platform, and passed resolutions adhering to the old landmarks of Democratic faith and practice, i. e. to slavery, plunder and rebellion.

Then stood forth Mr. John Letcher, once Governor of the Old Dominion, and remarked: "If he had made such a speech he might have landed in the old Capital Prison again, and he was not certain that he would be safe now, to introduce it; but he would, at a venture, endeavor to express his hearty concurrence in its sentiments."

Timely Advice. The political campaign we have now fairly entered into will be one of the most interesting and exciting that has ever marked the history of our Commonwealth.

GEN. McCANDLESS.—The Carlisle Herald, says of the Democratic nominee for Auditor General:

THE Alabama State Journal says: "Let every Republican in the State ask himself these questions: Am I of any benefit to the Republic?"

THE Cincinnati Commoner (Dem.) says: "A party must know when to abdicate. It may easily find the proper time to do so by self-examination, whether it has a great man around whom to rally."

THE New York Globe, referring to the verdict of the coroner's jury in the case of the late terrible disaster at Pittston, says with some severity, but also with some justice, "the men who died at Pittston were murdered by the owners of this mine, inasmuch as they did not obey the law of the State, or make any attempt to do so."

THE Bellefonte Watchman makes a very dry face over the resolution of the Democratic State Convention endorsing negro suffrage.

THE Lynchburg Virginian, like the Memphis Appeal, refuses to "depart." It "accepts nothing" in the language of Mr. Davis, and says that it is necessary now, more than ever, to unfurl "the spotless banner of the white man's party."

THE Democracy of Wayne county, Ohio, have denounced the Vallandigham platform, and passed resolutions adhering to the old landmarks of Democratic faith and practice, i. e. to slavery, plunder and rebellion.

H. F. BIGLER & CO., DEALERS IN HARDWARE AND MANUFACTURERS OF Tin and Sheet Iron Ware, CLEARFIELD, PA.

FAIRBANKS' STANDARD SCALES, OF ALL KINDS, ALSO, Baggage Barrows, Warehouse Trucks, Copying Presses, Improved Money Drawers, &c.

H. F. BIGLER & CO., Dealers in Hardware, March 16 CLEARFIELD, PA. (1870)

THE CLEARFIELD WOOD CHOPPER'S AXE, Manufactured expressly for the CLEARFIELD TRADE, for sale by H. F. BIGLER & CO.

FRUIT CAN, Manufactured from best charcoal tin, Grooved and soldered on outside. WARRANTED. ALSO, GLASS FRUIT JARS, for sale by H. F. BIGLER & CO.

SAWS! SAWS!! DISTON, CROSS CUT, MILL, DRAG, AND CIRCULAR SAWS, LIGHTNING SAWS, PATENT PERFORATED, ELECTRIC SAWS, And DISTON'S SAWS of all kinds, for sale by H. F. BIGLER & CO.

COOK STOVES! SPEAR'S CALORIFIC, SUSQUEHANNA, SCOTLAND, GOV. PENN., REGULATOR, NOBLE COOK, NATIONAL RANGE, &c., &c. And all kinds of HEATING STOVES, On hand and for sale by H. F. BIGLER & CO., SECOND STREET, CLEARFIELD, PA. August 3, 1870.

PINK and White Lining Skirts and Hosiery, at H. F. BIGLER & CO'S. THIMBLE-SKIRTS and Pipe-holes for Wagons, for sale by H. F. BIGLER & CO. IRON, IRON!!—Best Bar Iron for sale at the store of H. F. BIGLER & CO.

STOVES of all sorts and sizes, constantly on hand at H. F. BIGLER & CO'S. CABLE CHAINS—a good article, on hand and for sale by H. F. BIGLER & CO. HORSE-SHOES, and horse-nails, to be had at H. F. BIGLER & CO'S.

1871. 1871. REED BROTHERS' Dry Goods, Notion, Trimming and Millinery Emporium, CLEARFIELD, PA. The Only Exclusive Dry Goods Store in the County. Study your Interests. Buy where you can the Cheapest.

DRY GOODS. Heavy and Fine Brown Madras Bleached Muslins, extra wide Brown and Bleached Sheetings, Pillow Cases, Towels, Hosiery, Striped Denims, Blue Drill, Cottons, ados, Cassimeres, Flannels, Prints, Delaines, Percales, lawns, Hosiery, Corsets, Summer Silks, Japanese Silk, Black and White, &c. Silk, very good, at $2.25 per yard. The store has new, fresh goods and have only to be priced to know of their remarkable cheapness.

WHITE GOODS. Pique choice styles, in stripes, figures, solids and satin finished, 20 to 60 cents per yard. Also, netts, Nanooks, Victoria Lawns, Swiss Mull, Tape Checks, white and colored, Tartan, Mosquito Net, Curtains, Net, 25 to 40, 50, 60 cents and $1.00 per yard. Towels, and Tearing Brown, and bleached Table Damasks, Napkins, Quilts, &c. English Crochet Edging, Imperial Embroidery, Registered Embroidery, Valenciennes Lace, Nottingham Lace, Filling, Alexandria, Filling Hamburg Edgings, Valenciennes Lace, and Always Ready, Blue, Bing, Hercules Braid, Alpaca, Fringe, Hair Net, Black, and Brown, Ribbons, Chignons, Buttons of every description, Sleeve Buttons, &c.

FANCY GOODS. Lace Collars, Lining Collars and Cuffs, French sleeves, Chemises, Handkerchiefs, Tricots, Ribbons, and Millinery Goods, Trimmed Hats and Bonnets, &c. Umbrellas, Parasols and Fans, in great variety. Buyers will please give this their attention, and time and money will be saved.

REMEMBER THE PLACE! REED BROTHERS, Market St., Clearfield, Pa. May 17, 1871.

WELCOME NEWS TO THE HUNGRY ONES. SHOWERS' FAMILY GROCERY, MARKET STREET, CLEARFIELD, PA.

The undersigned has just received from the East, and is now offering to the public, a well selected stock of Family Groceries, such as HAMS, DRIED BEEF, FISH, CHEESE, MOLASSES, SUGAR, RICE, TEA, COFFEE, SPICES, ETC. VERMICELLI, SAGO, DRIED PEACHES, RAISINS, PRUNES, DRIED APPLES, PICKLES, SAUCE, CANNED VEGETABLES & FRUIT, KETCHUP, CRACKERS, NUTS and CANDIES. ORANGES, LEMONS, and all kinds of green fruits and vegetables in season.

In short, nearly every article wanted for family use. All goods warranted to be of superior quality. PRICES LOW, FOR CASH. THE PLACE. Rooms one door west of the Mansion House, and lately occupied by Messrs. Hartwick & Irwin as a Drug Store.

All are invited to call and examine my stock and judge for themselves of quality and prices. JOSEPH S. SHOWERS, June 7, 1871.

THE LATEST MOVE! Hartwick & Irwin's DRUG STORE, ON SECOND STREET, nearly opposite the Store of Weaver & Betts, Where they will continue to supply their old and as many new customers as may come, with PURE DRUGS, CHEMICALS, and Pharmaceutical Preparations, including all new remedies, PATENT MEDICINES, PAINTS AND OILS, GLASS AND PUTTY, SCHOOL BOOKS, STATIONERY AND PAPER, Also, a full line of DRUGGISTS' Sundries, PERFUMES AND TOILET ARTICLES, HAIR TONICS, COSMETICS, BRUSHES, TOILET SOAPS, POCKET BOOKS, All of the best quality.

PURE WINES AND LIQUORS, for Medicinal and Sacramental purposes ONLY. PURE WHITE LEAD, COLORS, of all kinds, Raw and Boiled LINSEED OIL, VARNISHES, TURPENTINE, COAL OIL, PAINT and VARNISH BRUSHES, CONFECTIONARIES, FLAVORING EXTRACTS, BIRD SEED, Ground and Unground SPICES, &c., &c.

SMOKERS AND CHEWERS, Will find our stock of CHEWING and SMOKING TOBACCO, Imported and Domestic, CIGARS, SNUFF and FINE CUT, to be of the very best brands in the market.

Lamps and Lamp Chimneys, Garden Seeds, Musical Instruments, Violin Strings, &c. Having a long experience in the business, and an extensive and well selected stock of Medicines, we are enabled to fill Physicians' Prescriptions at the shortest notice and on the most reasonable terms, day or night. May 31, 71. GUNS, Pistols and sword cases to be had at H. F. BIGLER & CO.