A. J. ROW, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

CLEARFIELD, PA., JULY 26, 1871. REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL: Col. DAVID STANTON, of Beaver. FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL: Col. ROBERT B. BEATH, of Schuylkill.

The Pittsburg Post, Democratic, still defends the New York rioters. "Birds of a feather," etc.

Many persons were killed and much property destroyed, during the recent storm in the West and South.

It is said that nearly every man engaged in the recent riot in New York, was in the employ of the city. Comment is unnecessary.

Mayor Kelso, and his horde of Democratic ruffians, are responsible for the destruction of life and property, during the late riot in New York.

Some of General Hancock's friends, it is said, met in Washington recently, and subscribed $1,000 each, to aid his election to the Presidency, intending to raise the sum of $100,000, if need be.

Democratic ruffians, most of them of foreign birth, were the principal participants in the recent New York riots; and hence the Democratic leaders and the Democratic party are responsible for the outrages perpetrated.

While the hold of Tammany on the city of New York may not be much loosened by recent events, it has lost the State, and to a great extent its influence throughout the country, and will be of little account in political affairs outside of New York.

All the Democratic platforms say to the people, "listen to our complaints." All the Republican platforms say, "Look at our record." One party lives on its promises, the other on its performances. The Democrats only remember what is going to happen.

The Press says: The country at large will watch the course of the Republicans of New York with anxious interest. The State is now theirs if they will take advantage of the unusual opportunity that has been thrust upon them. If they fail of success it can only be through some fault or blunder of their own. The people will elect them to power this fall if they will but put forward good and true men for the Legislature, and establish there such a majority as cannot be corrupted. The State is literally sick of the corruptions of Tammany and longs for relief, and for it looks to the party that has no Tammany or centralized power to dictate its policy, but is controlled by the spirit of the people.

The last Congress reduced taxation to the amount of $84,000,000. As soon as the next Congress meets measures will be introduced looking to a further reduction to the amount of between $80,000,000 and $90,000,000 more. And while this great reduction is made, which, of course, takes just so much from the yearly revenue of the Government, the monthly reduction of the debt goes on steadily. The secret of this seeming financial paradox is that while taxes have been reduced the expenses of the Government have been reduced also. Is not this wise and prudent management? The Democrats claim the ability to do better. They had an opportunity under Johnson. Has any voter forgotten that administration?

The records of the parties tell for themselves, and we invite careful comparison. The Republican party has never yet found itself forced to the necessity of a "new departure," or obliged to adopt Democratic principles for the purpose of gaining votes. The Democrats denounce the Republicans, and accuse them of every species of political crime on the catalogue. But they show their appreciation of them, nevertheless, in a very convincing manner, by endorsing their principles. This "new departure" is simply this: an endorsement of all the Republicans have done, and it is on this platform the Democrats hope to win the next elections. This is an expression of opinion of the Republican record also. And if the Democrats endorse the past action of our party, it is tolerably certain the country will.

The Pittsburg Gazette says: "Now is the season of their discontent. The Democracy have discovered that the State of Pennsylvania is sure to award a heavy Republican majority next October, and thus seal and secure the reelection of President Grant in 1872. Already ominous and mysterious out-givings are heard that Rio Java Wallace is not so much interested in carrying the State as he is to lay the ropes to secure his own political advancement in the future. We care not how much our good Democratic friends may fight in their own camp, for we are sure that a brilliant triumph awaits our own party next October as the coming of that month itself. But while we partake of the very universal and sanguine feeling of safety and certainty of an easy victory at the ballot box, we still feel that a good deal of work is necessary in order to swell the majority of the State to such figures as will carry terror and consternation into the ranks of the opposition everywhere throughout the Union. Let us work. The election is pregnant with importance. The people interested most in the progress of the land look to Pennsylvania to do her duty. Seldom has our Commonwealth failed to respond to the behests of the loyal and patriotic people, and at the coming election, more than at any for years past, is the importance of doing right most imperative. We promise, hoping for the liberal co-operation of the Republicans everywhere in the State, to give an overwhelming endorsement to the present National Administration next October, and to sound once more to the political world the patent truth, that "as Pennsylvania goes, so goes the Union."

WAITING FOR AN OPPORTUNITY.—When the Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist sees a head of a nail it knows enough to hit it. In a recent issue it says:

"It is not with the political convictions of Messrs. Davis and Stephens and Toombs the Southern people find fault. The preponderance of those convictions are as much now as ever with them. The State rights views of the Southern people are as decided now as ever. But it is as to the policy of proclaiming and insisting on those views on the one side, or on the other waiving their discussion and holding them in abeyance until they can receive a fair and impartial hearing before the American people, that the former comrades in arms and in council of the great Southern leaders now stand divided."

A bill has passed the Brazilian Senate, authorizing a loan of $20,000,000 and imposing a tax on imports of four per cent. ad valorem. France has also placed an additional tariff on imported goods, and both have done so to help build up their manufactures by taxing those of other nations. This is the true policy; build up our own workshops, and pay out our wages to our own workmen; thus we will increase our own wealth and population, and consequently the demand for agricultural products.

A writer from Paris states that thirty thousand persons were killed in suppressing the Commune, that ninety thousand prisoners have been taken, and fifty thousand more are being hunted after. This is barbarous. The expenditure of so much blood is certainly not necessary to the establishment of a Republic.

New York city is controlled by the Democracy by the aid of murderers and thieves. Should the Democracy be placed in power in the National Government, these same ruffians would also try to control its destinies, by riot, rapine and murder. The people should remember these facts.

A serious riot is reported to have taken place at Vienna, on Sunday a-week between the Socialists and the Ultramontanes. The former attacked the latter, and many people were injured. As in the New York riot, the military assisted the police in quelling the rioters.

A shock of earthquake has been again felt along the coast of Maine and at points in New Hampshire. It is rather peculiar that points so far north should be so frequently visited with such a very undesirable shaking.

Senator Harry White, who has served two terms in our State Senate, with signal ability, has just been renominated for a third term by the Republicans of his district. The compliment is well deserved.

A Little of Everything. This will be the champion tomato season. Hay is coming in rapidly, at $20 per ton. Whortleberries are selling at 10c. per qt. Poor weather for ice cream and soda-water.

Come to the JOURNAL office for your Job Work. "Cheap"—the Bellefonte Watchman's pun on our morals.

Cheaper—All kinds of Job Work at the JOURNAL Job Office.

Parties are swarming to the mountains to gather whortleberries. When do men's heads resemble their dwellings? When they are covered with titles.

Reports from all portions of California show a better wheat crop than was anticipated. Eldorado, Kansas, had a terrible storm last week. $90,000 worth of property destroyed.

"Put money in thy purse," as the pick-pocket said when he robbed a man of an empty one.

All uniformed National Guards of the State of Pennsylvania are exempt from jury service, if they so desire.

Dr. Livingstone is said to be the only traveler of renown who does not write letters or make speeches.

We want two or three tons of good hay. You can't find an easier way of paying your indebtedness to the JOURNAL.

Carrollville and Clearfield ladies. "Keep your eye skinned," there's a "good catch" in Clearfield "worth $150,000."

The receipts of the Patent Office during the quarter ending June 30, were $181,805, and the expenditures, $149,416.

A correspondent wants to know what is the best thing for potato vines. We know of nothing better than potato vines.

An exchange, wanting to compliment a "live stock journal," says it is edited by a man whose head is full of live stock.

The municipal election for the city of Paris will be held on August 21. The army everywhere voted the Republican ticket.

In the office of the Second Auditor of the Treasury there are now 8,000 claims for bounty arrears, involving over $2,000,000.

There are six ministers in the Lutheran synod of Pennsylvania who have labored in the pastoral office of that church from fifty to sixty years.

The friends of the Pope fear plots against his life on the part of the Italians, and the friends of Hyacinth find the same for him on the part of the Jesuits.

An Irish schoolmaster recently informed his pupils that the feminine gender should always be applied to all ships and vessels afloat, except mail steamers and men-of-war.

That little chap who wanted to "snow-bail on the Fourth of July," so his hands wouldn't get cold," might have had his wish gratified on the 23d of July, 1871, had he lived hereabout.

A young gentleman informs us that some of the young ladies living in the country near Philadelphia have adopted the Hindoo style of horseback riding—"straddle leg!" If you know what that means.

Mrs. Martin of Baltimore, a lady in high life has had two indictments found against her by the Grand Jury for poisoning. It is intimated that she is guilty of poisoning several persons within several years.

A Paris letter says: Business is gradually coming up. Merchants and wholesale dealers who have been idle for a year are full of orders; but there is more begging than I have ever seen, in the streets of Paris.

There are a great many places in town that smell of disease and epidemic, particularly in the alleys, and swampy places, and we advise a disinfectant or a general cleaning. Have our Borough authorities no "scents" of smell?

Rev. Peter Cartwright, the veteran pioneer preacher, is drawing nigh to the close of his earthly pilgrimage. He is now confined to his room in Pleasant Plains, near Springfield, Ill. His strength is rapidly failing, and it is feared he cannot live many months.

In Tusville it is customary to speak of the fashionable young lady as wearing an "eighty-six barrel opera suit," and when a boy wants to have his teeth plugged he gets a requisition on the "old man" for a couple of barrels of oil. The system seems to work very smoothly.

The most foolish piece of extravagance we have heard of is the proposition to erect drinking fountains in Washington, on the streets. After Congress adjourns there may be one in a while a man who will drink water, but not enough to tax the capacity of a common syringe, let alone a fountain.

Some of the "moral" young men who were swinging at Cabin Springs on last Sunday afternoon, might have their morals considerably improved if they could be induced to attend one of our afternoon Sabbath schools. We will give their names to the Sabbath school officers if they will talk to them.

One of the Democratic candidates for office in this county, who is considerably piqued at the Ninth resolution, says he "has some little things in his head." Nothing extraordinary or uncommon, with a certain breed of politicians. The remedy is usually found in the application of a fine tooth comb. Try it.

When the Key-Sickle affair was on the tapis it used to be considered a good question to ask, "If Sickle is worthy of death, what is Butterworth?" The reply, though at rather a late date, comes from California, that since he went to the Pacific slope, Butterworth has, by fortunate speculation, become possessed of a good $2,000,000.

The lack of unanimity among the Democracy relative to the line of political policy to be adopted, is clearly indicated by the course pursued by the Maryland Democratic convention. It refused to make any utterance relative to political questions, but authorized its executive committee to do so at some future time should it be found desirable. This shows very conclusively that the Maryland Democracy are not ready to stand on the platform of the "new departure," but will do so if at some future date it shall seem popular. This is the first break on the part of an entire State against a new policy, and doubtless foreshadows a non-committal policy on the part of others. This is clearly indicative of weakness—as no declaration is worse than to take any position at all.

The New York World terms Grant "our Holiday President." Fitting appellation. He has given Democrats many holidays already out of office, and proposes to furnish them with four years' more rest from the arduous duties pertaining to the administration of the affairs of the nation after 1872.

It is announced that Prince Frederick William has left Ems, where he had been summoned by his royal father, and will proceed to England, where he will be the guest of Victoria, at her summer residence at Osborne. So much for the recent story that he had been subdued in England.

The coasts of New Foundland and Labrador were visited by a very destructive storm last week. It is reported that 325 fishing smacks, 23 dwellings, over 40 stores, and $1,500,000 worth of property were destroyed, and 93 lives lost.

The double girl-baby died in Boston last week. The one head out-lived the other about three hours. The parents were Joseph and Ann E. Finley, of Morrow county, Ohio. The child was nine months old at the time of its death.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN Hair Renewer. Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard, and it is the only reliable and perfect preparation for restoring GRAY OR FADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair-glands. By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme cases. It is the most economical Hair Dressing ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid glossy appearance. A. Hays, M. D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says: "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; it consists of the Best Preparation for its intended purposes."

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicines. Price One Dollar.
