CALCUTTA, OHIO, July 16, 1871. EDITOR ROW: - Dear Sir: Please send my "Raftsman's Journal" to Calcutta Po., Columbiana county, Ohio.

The writer forgot to sign his name, and hence we cannot make the change. Perhaps some one of the writer's friends could inform us who it is.

Personal -On account of repairs in Mr. Graham's three story brick building we were compelled to remove a part of the JOURNAL printing material into Mr. Alexander's saddler shop, where we can be found for the present. In consequence of this removal we fail to issue our paper at the usual hour this week, but will be up to time hereafter. We tender our thanks to Messrs. Goodlander & Hagerty for the use of their press in issuing the JOURNAL until we get back into our old quarters; to Mr. Alexander for the use of his shop as an office; and to Messrs. Miller & Powell, for the use of their ware-house, to store away some of our material. Our thanks are also due to Mr. Graham and Mr. R. H. Shaw, for similar

The facts in the case, as near was approved June 2d, 1871; as we can learn, are these: Mr. Wilson, away somewhere, and returned as far as our Legislature, a fact which seems to have had several miles to walk before reaching in this county. Bills have been sent to our their home. KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS. - A lodge of the Knights of Pythias, was organized in this place, on Wednesday evening last. This organization starts under very promising auspices,-the membership numbering upwards of twenty.

WEST CLEARFIELD continues to improve pletion in that pleasant locality. We understand that a number of elegant residences next summer. So mote it be.

ONE of the Light Houses, now building at the machine shop of Messrs. Bigler, Your & Co., is now being set up and fitted together, before shipping it for its destination. A light house in our mountain region is somewhat of a novelty.

Horse Hunz.-Some ten days ago, while some horses were pasturing in a field on Judge Shaw's form, one of them in attempting to jump over a paling fence lodgthe fiesh in a most fearful manner. One flap tore loose is about 5 inches wide and 12 at an angle at the north side of the barn, or 15 inches long, while another wound is being more than would fill a large wagon about 12 inches deep. It is thought the body; and now, the 19th, three days after horse will get well.

LARGE BERRIES .- One day last week, Mr. John Sankey, of Goshen twp., sent us a specimen of whortleberries, that excelled anything in that line we ever inspected. The berries grew in compact clusters from 21 to 31 inches in length, and 11 inches in diameter, and had more the appearance of clusters of grapes than whortleberries. The "Land of Goshen" is certainly ahead in the berry line, this year.

It seems that people, as we see he is putting a third story the long July days are even too short to satisfy the enthusiasm of the proficients, as we saw a party playing by lamp-light the other evening. On Friday and Saturday mornings, July 21st and 22d, there was the bridge at night, were liable to walk off during Saturday some hail fell in this vicinity, while on the ridges, we are told, snowthanks of the traveling public are due to flakes were quite abundant. In consequence of the frigid state of the atmosphere, overcoats and fires were brought into requisition, Who is it?-The following letter came but, we believe, no damage was done to the growing grain and fruit crops.

> Another Successful Institution .-Clearfield can now boast of another successful institution-an Orchestra-recently gotten up by some of our energetic musicians. We do not know the exact time of their organization, but they now discourse some music of which older organizations might well be proud. Messrs. Harry Kratzer, C. Gordon, Jack Lytle, Wm. Lytle, W. M. Shaw, S. I. Snyder, J. K. Bottorff, Ed. Leitzinger, Harry Ross, Jack Alexander, and Kay Wrigley form the corps.

> TOWNSHIP CLERKS. - By a law passed at the last session of the Legislature township clerks are required within sixty days after the annual election to make out and publish a full and complete statement of the financial condition of such townships, under a penalty of $50. There are townships in this, as there are in other counties, of whose financial affairs nothing whatever is known. and of which but little could be learned from the records kept in the past. This is a source of great dissatisfaction among the people, and a burning shame to the officers.

PENN TOWNSHIP, July 19th, 1871. On Sunday afternoon (16th) about five o'clock, a destructive hail storm, with considerable wind, passed over parts of Bloom and Penn townships. On the farms of W. W. The oats and corn beaten down, and in some places almost destroyed. In Penn township, which appears to be the great centre of destruction, the storm entered on the farm of Elisha Fenton and Abraham Spencer, where a field of wheat in shock was much injured by the grain being beaten off, and about thirty acres of corn and oats literally destroyed. The corn being stripped writing to us, will take the precaution to of leaves, much broken and bruised, so as to be almost worthless. The oats beaten would avoid some confusion and delay in down, particularly the Excelsior, a special their epistles reaching us, as it frequently early variety, large and nearly ripe, is beathappens that they are directed "S. The fruit mostly destroyed and the apple trees stripped of about half their leaves. The grape cines much injured and the fruit badly bruised. Even the elder bushes have the appearance of being beaten with rods, the green berries and leaves stripped, and the young shoots have the bark peeled and bruised. Birds were found, crippled and some killed, after the storm. The hail fell in such quantities at this place, near Pennville, that the fields were white, as though covered with snow, for more than an hour ed on the top of it-mangling and tearing after the storm had ceased; and the hail lay on the ground two feet in depth (measured) the storm, a considerable pile remains yet unmelted. The Buckwheat being up and in third leaf is literally beaten out of sight, and has to be resown. The garden, as may be supposed, is totally destroyed-the beans, tomatoes and beets left mere stumps and with what damage I have not learned. Since writing the above, I have accertained that the course of the storm was north of north-west, to south of south east, and about one mile in width, extending south into Pike township-the wind alone doing little damage, except throwing down and scattering grain in shock, prostrating a few fences, and tearing down Richard Danver's barn. But in connection with the hail, there is a general destruction of gardens, corn and oats crops, and glass on the north side of E. F.

"THE THREE HOLY KINGS." the twentysecond volume of the "Fatherland Series," has just been issued by the Lutheran Board of Publication, Philadelphia, Pa. 223 pages; price $1.15. The story of the "Three Kings," is a German legend founded upon the Gospel account (Matt. ii. 1-12) of the birth of the Saviour. While the legend gives much that is not inspired, it yet tells us nothing that is at variance with the New Testament. The book is very interesting, and will be read with delight by all classes of persons-old and young.

A FEW WORDS TO THE LADIES. - Many ladies, particularly methers nursing, com-plain of a tired, listless feeling, or complete exhaustion, on arising in the morning. On the wife and mother devolves the responsibility of regulating the duties of the house-hold. Her cares are numerous, and the mental as well as the physical powers are frequently called into requisition. She of-ten finds her slightest occupation a weary task and existence a burden, while at the same time she has no regular disease. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, if resorted to at this period, will prove an untailing remedy On Sunday, July 2d, 1871, by Rev. S. for this annoying lassitude. The effects of Croft, Mr. Winfield S. Loy, and Miss Catherine E. Riedefer, both of Centre cheek and elastic step of the head of the family, as with restored health and renewed spirits she takes her accustomed place in the family circle. If this friend in need be regularly used, those depressing symptoms will never be complained of, and not only would lassitude not be experienced. but many diseases following its advent be avoided. As a medical agent it has no equal, while its pleasing flavor and healthful effects have made it a general favorite. It is free from all properties calculated to impair the system, and its operations are at once mild, soothing and efficient. All who have used the Bitters attest its virtues and commend it to use.
