REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR EDITOR GENERAL: Col. DAVID STANTON, of Beaver.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL: Col. ROBERT B. BEATH, of Schuylkill.

A BAD Democratic "ring"—the "new departure ring." It tells the death of the party.

LOST—the "White Man's" party. The finder will be liberally rewarded upon returning the same to the Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee.

THE Philadelphia Press says, it is certain that the Democratic ticket can not be elected in that city. This fact alone insures the success of the Republican State ticket, if our friends will but do their whole duty.

THE Democracy knowing that they are responsible for the late massacre in New York city, are more despondent than ever of success at the coming elections. In fact, they feel that defeat is their certain doom, if the Republicans will stand by their principles, and poll a full vote. Let our friends remember this.

THE Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, in the address which we print on the outside of to-day's paper, tersely and truly sets forth the record of the great party of progress. It is a capital summary of magnificent reforms consummated and eternal principles vindicated. The political history of the Republican party fills many volumes, but no part of it is so brilliant as the work it has done for Humanity.

CERTAIN journals are making themselves exceedingly unhappy over the reported payment by private parties of the amount agreed upon for a year's lease of Samana Bay. They say it is a conspiracy to renege the San Domingo question. This does not follow. There is not a particle of evidence that the President has any such purpose—and if he had, the whole affair must come fully out. No one pretends that the Government is bound by the action of private parties.

THE N. Y. Times appears to hold the whip-handle in dealing with the Democratic Mayor and Controller of that city, as will be seen by an article in another column. It presents an astounding array of figures which bear indisputable evidence of fraud, in the distribution of the public moneys. After such a startling exposure, let no one question under which rule their interests are best guarded, and forever let Democratic journals hold their tongues about Republican corruption.

THE fight among the Democratic leaders on account of the New York riot, is represented as being exceedingly bitter. Hoffman is denounced by Hall and others, and it will depend very greatly whether Tammany gets easily out of its present dilemma whether it gives Hoffman its support for the Presidency. Hall and the local leaders of Tammany are exceedingly sore that their little game should have been spoiled, and resent the interference of the Governor so far as they dare.

GENERAL HANCOCK has been nominated for the Presidency by a party of gentlemen at Alton Springs, Virginia. The Lynchburg Virginian says this reminds it of the meeting of the tailors of Tooley street, London, who resolved that "We the people of England," &c. Not exactly. "Tail trees," you know, "from little acorns grow"—if not stunted in their growth. And has not Virginia long borne the reputation of being the mother of States as well as Statesmen and Presidents?

At no period of the administration of President Grant has Mr. Boutwell more fully shared the confidence of the people than at the present writing. It may be said, without disrespect to his predecessors, that no former Secretary of the Treasury has so thoroughly entitled himself to the confidence of our people by perfect integrity in the discharge of his official duties, by quiet and unassuming deportment, and by an inflexible adherence to the straightforward business rules which he laid down for himself when he accepted this important position.

Democratic Economy.

There is a very sublimity of audacity in the way the Democratic ring which misgoverns New York defrauds the tax-payers of that city. Its transactions evince not only an utter disregard of that homely, old-fashioned virtue known as honesty, but a total recklessness of consequences and an outraged public sentiment. Long immunity from punishment, due to the numerical strength and corrupt condition of the party which maintains them in power, has emboldened and hardened a set of officials never conspicuous for integrity, and with hands thrust deep into the public treasury they now fearlessly pluck out millions when once they were content with thousands or hundreds.

This wholesale robbery practiced by the Democratic government of New York city, is being clearly shown up by the N. Y. Times, which is pushing the work of exposure with commendable zeal. Though Controller Connelly has refused compliance with the law requiring reports to be made at stated times of the city's finances, the Times has managed to obtain transcripts from the records, and is giving publicity to swindles and downright thefts of the most outrageous character, in which not only the Controller himself and Mayor Hall, but other members of the notorious Tammany Ring are charged with participation. Among the items of plunder mentioned in a recent article is $85,000 charged to the city for the rent of ten lofts ostensibly occupied for armory purposes, but actually not used at all; $190,000 a year additional being charged for the rent of the armories really occupied. For keeping ten armories in repair nine months the following preposterous sums are charged:

Table with 2 columns: Item description and Amount. Includes A. J. Garvey for plastering, J. H. Kessler for plumbing, G. H. Ingersoll for chairs, G. S. Miller for carpenter work, etc.

It is not necessary to extend the list. These charges are no higher than an average of the whole, and together comprise less than one-fourth of those made for work performed in the single month of December, 1869. December must hereafter be set down as a remarkably good month for plastering, even in the cold climate of New York, no matter what the previous opinions of housebuilders may have been; and Andrew J. Garvey is certainly one of the luckiest of plasterers if he really retained all the earnings accreted to him for those thirty-one days.

Is any Democrat sufficiently idiotic to believe that the one-hundredth part of these sums were actually paid to the parties named, and that the work actually done and articles furnished were really worth even one-half that small fraction? Of course not. The other ninety-nine hundredths represent the profits, or rather the stealings of the ring. And yet these are only some of the crumbs.

The whole hoards and fishes devoured by these cormorants at the expense of the tax-payers amount, in many cases, according to the Times, to millions upon millions of dollars. But why waste words in further illustrating the preposterous nature of the robberies perpetrated upon the people of New York city by the Democracy who govern it?

Is it worth while to make an application of such a manifest lesson? We think not; yet, we presume there are thousands of voters throughout the country who are so gullible as to believe that the Democratic party, no matter how damaging its record, is somehow noted for purity and economy. Let such be undeceived. The speculation in New York city are but a sample of the rascality of the Democratic leaders; and should those leaders ever get a hold on the national government their plunderings would have no end. Then, the only safety for the people from the ravages of the Democratic cormorants lies in the success of the Republican party, whose economical administration of our National and State affairs, as well as municipal, where in power, is beyond evil or dispute.

The gratifying announcement is made by the Lincoln Monument Association that it has been able to pay for all the work thus far completed, and that only four groups of statuary are needed to complete the monument in accordance with the original design. This amount will doubtless be raised, and the monument finished. This will be creditable to the Association, and indicates that even in this country a noble enterprise can be properly consummated. Have we a Washington Monument Association?

A Little of Everything.

Shortening—the days. Flour from new wheat has appeared. Fortune has no power over desertion. The squirrel harvest opened yesterday.

A capital letter—one retaining a remittance. California will harvest 30,000 gallons of castor oil. Plenty—tea parties and gossip—cause and effect.

Canada is the fourth maritime power in the world. Raleigh vouches for a pea-pod two feet two inches long. Stunning—the ring of some of our church going "bells."

Kissing over the gate is the popular moonlight amusement. Prof. Jacobs, of Gettysburg Seminary died on the 22d ult.

"Tammany Commune" has swallowed up the New York cops. Vice President Colfax has entirely recovered from his recent illness.

President Grant is not going to California. So says madam rumor. Wanted—two loads of good timothy hay, for which the cash will be paid.

The line of business some strong minded ladies take up—the masou line. Vermont grasshoppers have got round-shouldered chowing short grass.

"Here's what makes us wear old clothes," is the latest toast over a whisky "straight." An undertaker in N. Y. without partiality advertised funerals for $25 after the riot.

Morrissey intends according the right to women next year to engage in the play at faro. Why should young ladies set good examples? Because young men are so apt to follow them.

The Republican State Committee have their committee rooms at the Lapierre House on Broad street. A "moustache brigade" has been organized in Clearfield. Raw recruits are constantly coming in.

While a Cincinnati family were at the theatre their servant girl stole two wagon loads of furniture. When Maryland men want divorces without publicity they take their wives out fishing and upset the boat.

Although there are no chinamen in Clearfield, yet we are blessed with quite a number of "Celestial beings." A colored military company is on the tapis in Williamsport. Wonder if the "Colonel" will drill with them?

The "drunk-cholic" season is at hand—judging from the number of green "pills" on exhibition at the saloons. Not many years ago women were ashamed of false hair. Now they are ashamed to be without it. Funny, isn't it?

An Ohio base ball club buried their catcher because he stood too near the batter when he was preparing for a home run. A contemporary advises a "new departure" from former habits, by his delinquents. He wants them to pay up. That's all.

A Philadelphia hack driver drove a dead man around for half a day and never knew it until he wanted to collect the fare. The atmosphere has moderated considerably during the past week—makes it extremely hairrassing for female equestrians.

It is rumored that Hon. Wayne M'Veigh, of Pennsylvania, Minister to Constantinople, will return home shortly and resign the Mission. Pleasant—to receive a shower of muddy water on a pair of white pants or dress, while standing near a house with his feet in the gutter.

Ladies of uncertain age and matrimonial aspirations are gently reminded that leap year approacheth. Another bottle of hair dye this way. A Jersey editor was feathered last week for publishing a wedding description in which he said there were tight bridesmaids, instead of eight.

Change of time.—The Express train heretofore arrived at 9.30, but a young lady says it now arrives at the most interesting time. How is it, Agent? The Red Cloud band of Sioux are reported to be getting ready for the war path. Little gangs are out stealing stock to facilitate their operations.

"I read my papers with more satisfaction when they are paid in advance," is the testimony of one who has tried it for years. Others should do likewise. Gentlemen having hip pockets in their pantaloons, should be careful in depositing their handkerchiefs therein. They look rather suspicious when the tip hangs below the coat tail.

Philips rejoiced in the first brick pavement last week. They seem as much pleased with it, as an old creak with a single chick; but, then, they expect to have others hereafter. Our devil says he never heard of but one old woman "who kissed a cow," but he knows hundreds of young women who kissed great calves. The poor "imp" has had his share—no doubt.

Badly fooled—the chap who, on Saturday night last, pitched pebbles and beans against his lady-love's bed-room window. Cut the hair off your upper lip, and the mistress will not so easily recognize you by moonlight, next time. Are girls who work for a living as good as those who pass their time in murdering music and the peace of mind of their neighbors, or indulging in silly gossip with soft young men, while the "old woman" does the household work? Is a question just now agitating Williamsburg (Blair county) society.

THE KU-KLUX.—It is represented by almost every citizen who has been summoned to give testimony before the Ku-Klux Investigating Committee, that it is next to impossible for any man, white or black, entertaining Republican principles, to live in peace and safety in a Southern State.

The evident intention of these midnight desperadoes is to bully the whites, and terrify the blacks, when they do not kill them, so that the Republican ticket will not have any open supporters, or supporters at all, in the election for President in 1872 throughout the South. It is their only hope of carrying the Southern States. In nearly every one of them, where the people are permitted to vote as they wish, the Republican ticket will secure a majority. The blacks to a man vote with us, and a sufficient number of the Unionist whites are Republicans to enable us to carry two-thirds of the States without a doubt, if an honest election is held. Every ex-Rebel is a Democrat. Every member of this fiendish order is a Democrat. Every colored man, and every Union man is a Republican. Can any good citizen hesitate as to what party he should belong and vote with? All the traitors and Ku-Klux on one side, and all the Unionists on the other.

PROTECTION AND FREE TRADE.—Ten years ago eighty-seven per cent. of all the steel for machinery and edge tools made in this country came from abroad. Now, under the cherishing influence of protection, foreign steel supplies but eleven per cent. of our needs. We make for ourselves nearly nine-tenths of all we want. No man is mad enough to imagine that we could ever have achieved this result under the policy of free trade.

Free trade keeps every American workman under perpetual competition with all the lowest paid workmen on the globe. If he attempts to weave cloth, he is not permitted to do so at a profit so long as the poorest Manchester or Australian grower can undersell him. If he tries to raise wool he is broken, provided a single Buenos Ayrean or Australian grower can undersell him. Whatever he does he must do cheaper than the whole world beside, and, of course, of all the world's paupers, he must be the poorest, or else the national industry must fail in the fierce competition.

THE verdict of the Coroner's jury in the cases of persons killed by the New York rioters, indicates that there will be no prosecution of such parties, despite the fact that it is distinctly asserted by New York journals that the parties who fired the shots are clearly known. The verdict rendered by the jury is, that the parties referred to came to their death by shots fired by unknown parties. If the New York authorities fail to make use of the most vigorous means to ascertain the guilty parties, and to punish them to the full extent of the law, there can be no other verdict than that they failed in their duty. If this fact can be clearly ascertained, it will be of sufficient value to damage seriously the standing of that party, even in New York, and the Republican party should, by means of it, carry the State. If a fusion can be made, by which the independent voters of New York and the Republican voters can be united on a fair representative man, even the city government ought to be changed at the next election.

THE Indiana Democrats are growing tired of being called "ring-tailed monkeys," we are told, and desire to make a full and complete departure to Republican principles, or go square back to the platform of their Southern brethren and the one dearest to their hearts, "the constitution as it was."

THAT noted and unclean Democrat, Henry Clay Dean, says: If the Republicans were right in making the war, creating the debt, and changing the constitution, I can see no reason why a new set of leeches should now be applied to the body politic for the mere variety of change.

ANOTHER earthquake has occurred with great loss of life—this time in one of the Philippine islands. Earthquakes in the East and in the West, and, in fact, nearly everywhere. What is the matter with good mother Terra? We shall soon be compelled to address her as Terra infirma.

THE Lebanon, Pa., Courier says that the Democratic party at the present moment reminds one of a wasp—very nearly in two pieces, with the larger piece behind.

GEN. HANCOCK was president of the military commission which convicted Mrs. Surratt. Pennsylvania Democrats want him for President.

Philadelphia Items.

Judge Kelley, the great tariff statesman, is now on a visit to Colorado. Kelley was one of the first advocates of the Pacific railroad.

A delegation was here last week to see about the centennial celebration. These delegations from other States came, and a general speech-making, champagne-sipping, cigar-smoking and drives to the Park take place, and then they depart. So the centennial anniversary ball goes on.

On September 6th, the iron masters of the State met here to form a "Bar Association." That is, "iron bar association."

The Pennsylvania branches of the Atlantic and Great Western railroad were sold on the 22d inst., for $620,000. Gen. S. B. McClellan and Senator Thurman, of Ohio, were the purchasers. The sale for overdue coupons held in the State of Ohio. The property sold was the Franklin, Meadville and Oil City branches.

An idea of the commerce of Philadelphia may be gathered from the fact that 145 vessels were loading and unloading on the 23d. Twenty-three vessels were loading with oil.

It cost $1,197,901 to run the public schools of this city last year, 1,539 teachers are employed. The army of scholars amounts to 82,891.

The Y. M. C. A. have street preaching every Sabbath. The building of the Penn'a Central railroad line of steamships will be let by contract in a few days.

The Sons of America meet in Harrisburg next week. T. J. Duncan, of Pittsburg, has bequeathed Bishop Simpson $60,000. This moiety was squeezed out of oil.

1,457,698 gallons of coal oil were shipped for foreign parts, last week. 396 deaths occurred last week.

The American Protestant Association, on Friday last, expressed themselves, "that we view with horror the attempt of the mob to supersede the government of N. Y. by force of arms, to arrest the progress of peaceable professions, and to shoot down men and women because of a difference of religious belief." They denounce the attack on the Orangemen as bigoted intolerance, and an assault on the rights and liberties of American citizens. All of which is sound doctrine.

Religious speculations are just as honorable as any other. Viewing matters in this light, the New Jersey Methodist preachers formed a company, bought grounds in West Jersey and have a camp meeting overture on Aug. 1st. $5 is charged for ground to pitch a tent, and the railroad company gives a percentage upon all tickets sold. Verily, the days of Methodism have changed since Wesley's time.

Rev. Isaac S. Hortley sent a "brick," removed from Independence Hall recently, in repairing the building, to President Thiers, of France. Hortley expects this brick but to help construct their new government, but does not advise whether it is for the foundation of a building or an ornament for the hat. More bricks!

Francis X. di Maria, a priest sent from Rome, to engage in Indian Missions, died on the 23d inst.

Commercial agencies are fixed institutions, but not always reliable. A case was before the St. Louis courts recently which developed the fact that the reliability of merchants and business men was reputed according to the personal feelings of the Agent. Clearfield business men had better not snub the Agency. Keep on the right side and be reported A. 1. Recollect the Agency spies into all your business transactions.

Peaches sold on Saturday at 50 cts. a basket; $1.25 a box. July 31, 1871. Z.

It is stated, in a London dispatch to New York, that the Pope may at any time leave Rome for Corsica, and that the chateau of Corti has been placed at his disposal. The rumor, so long in circulation, that arrangements were being made at Rome for the election of his successor, have assumed greater definiteness, Cardinal Carnello de Pietro being named as his probable successor.

PREPARATIONS are going forward that indicate that the ex-Emperor Napoleon is about to take up his residence at his house in Abrensburg, in Switzerland. Every part of the residence is being put in perfect condition, and horses and carriages are arriving, all looking to the speedy transfer of Napoleon to his old home. Switzerland is very convenient to Paris.

It is reported that a company of European capitalists are about to embark for the United States, for the purpose of inquiring into the condition and prospects of the Northern Pacific Railroad. A movement of this kind doubtless "means business."

The horn of a Patagonian ox has been forwarded to Baltimore. It is sixty-five inches long, seventeen inches in circumference at the base, and will hold seven quarts.

Mrs. John Allen was instantly killed by lightning last week, at Washington, Pa. Her youngest child and a Mrs. Wolf were stunned at the same time.

IN ONE day, recently, 10,000 buffalo robes were shipped from Leavenworth, Kansas, to the east.

A SLIGHT shock of earthquake was felt at Cairo, Illinois, last week.
