FALLS CITY, NEB., July 31, 1871. EDITOR JOURNAL : - Falls City is a nice town; in fact, it is hard to beat in any respect, but we are troubled with some of the 'swearables of life," of which I will speak. Our three greatest pests are loafers, dogs, and a Base Ball Club. I admire loafers principally on account of their pugilistic proclivities. If a dog interrupts you on the street, and you give him a kick with the toe end of nine inches, you have a loafer in the muss. Kick a loafer and you have a dog ditto. We have lean dogs and lean loafers, fat loafers and fat dogs, poor dogs Chop. rye. and poor loafers, etc., but the "B. B. C." is a greater nuisance than all combined. A noble game is base ball! Our club "busted" temperarily, not long ago, and the rush of Flour, bbl. ciers, loafers, etc., fight it out on that line,
