We make no apology for again filling four or five columns of our paper with the highly interesting intelligence from the Old World. It will richly repay an attentive perusual.

What a scourging the people of Europe are receiving! From east to west, from north to south, they seem to be on the very verge of a tremendous commotion; for, believe it those who may, we are not yet ber of deaths to-day is is about 150. credulous enough to think that the people of France will suffer their President to be made the instrument in the hands of Emperors and Kings to put down that spirit of republicanism all over Europe which they themselves were the first to establish, without a struggle that may involve the whole civilized world. Rome, following the example set her by the French nation, and no doubt calculating confidently on the sympathy, if not, indeed, an the assistance of the French people, stripped the Pope, their temporal Governor, of his temporal power, and established a Republic after the French model. But instead efsympathy and assistance from France bey are visited by an overpowering army French soldiers, who come, not to asand "fraternize" with the republicans Rome to repel the invading hosts of Aus-
