

THE DOLLAR.

Clearfield, Pa., Nov. 2, 1849.

The Foreign News.

We are again compelled to give the foreign news as telegraphed to the Philadelphia papers from New Brunswick. We much prefer giving the details, as brought by the mails of the different steamers, but as this requires a delay of two or three days, after the news is telegraphed, it sometimes happens that we cannot give the details without first giving the report of the same through the telegraph; and to give both is more than can be expected of a country newspaper.

"The Country Dollar."

"The above is the title of a paper published at Clearfield, Pa., by Messrs. D. W. Moore & A. J. HENNING, who are no doubt perfect gentlemen—in their own way and of their own kind. We received a copy of their paper on Tuesday last, on the margin of which was written, 'Exchange, or go to hell.' Now we would inform Messrs. MOORE & HENNING that as to their request, we decline it; for if they are unacquainted with the proprieties of life, or (if acquainted) are guilty of such a gross breach of them, it is reasonable to infer that their paper partakes of the same character, and is therefore not worth having. As to their advice, we are indebted to them for it; yet we respectfully ask to be excused from following it.

We think the editors of "The Country Dollar" have pursued an imprudent course: they cannot even claim originality for what they have written, whilst in the attempt they have violated the Post Office Laws."

The foregoing paragraph we copy from the Columbia (Lancaster county) Spy, of Saturday last. We have only to say, in answer to its vindictive and uncharitable spirit, that the editor, (Mr. J. G. L. BROWN) betrays a serious want of discretion in thus maligning the characters of those who, for ought he knows, may be better than he is himself. Does he not know that there are always others about a printing office besides the editors? and does he not also know that the editors are only responsible for the editorial remarks that appear in their paper? From the language of the Spy, however, it would seem that Mr. BROWN cannot distinguish any difference between an endorsement on the outside of a newspaper—which might have been the act of one as closely connected with the Spy as with the Dollar—and a regular editorial article; for in his closing remarks he speaks of it as the work of the editors without any qualification whatever. Had he known that this was the work of the editors of this paper, his remarks would be merited; but if he has read our columns attentively as his station required him to do, he certainly would have had strong reasons for well grounded doubts—for, as was once remarked by the late JOSEPH C. NEAL, "the Country Newspaper is a mirror through which the character of its editor is reflected"—and in point of morality and decorum, we are quite certain that the columns of the Country Dollar will advantageously compare with those of the Spy.

We used to receive the Columbia Spy regularly, and sought an exchange with it for the purpose of accommodating the lumber interests of this section, more than for any benefit we expected to derive from it; but latterly we received it but seldom—not even monthly—and this treatment gave rise to frequent complaint, in the office, and caused the offensive endorsement, but not by the editors, either of whom, Mr. BROWN must understand, know the "proprieties of life" quite as well as he does himself.

Who Mr. BROWN is, we know not; but when he has had as long intercourse with the Country Press as we have, he will learn not to be thus easily annoyed; and he will also learn—what he ought to know already—that in this country the accused must first be found guilty before they are condemned.

HE DIDN'T COME.—Many of the friends and admirers of the Hon. JAS. BUCHANAN have been anxiously expecting an opportunity of taking that gentleman by the hand on his return from a recent visit to his sister in Meadville. But he has returned by some other route.

We also see it stated that Mr. Buchanan intends visiting New Orleans, and other Southern cities, during the present autumn.

The official Majority of Mr. GAMBLE, the Democratic candidate for canal Commissioner, is 11,729.

STATE ELECTIONS.—The State elections take place in New York, Mississippi, and Louisiana on the same day—next Monday. Members of Congress are to be elected in the two last named States.

A careful report, in detail, of the market prices of our borough would present a singular picture. It would read, "Grain, none in market—Flour, do do—Butter, do do, &c., &c."

The Slave Question in the South.

A convention of Slaveholders was recently held at Jackson, Miss., to adopt measures to protect the interests of the South, which resolved on calling a convention of the slaveholding States at Nashville, Ten., on the 1st Monday of June, 1850. The following, among other resolutions, was adopted:

"That in the language of an eminent northern writer and patriot—The rights of the South in African service, exist not only under but over the constitution.—They existed before the government was formed. The constitution was rather sanctioned by them than they by the constitution. Had not that instrument admitted the sovereignty of those rights, it never would have been itself admitted by the South. It bowed in deference to rights older in their date, stronger in their claims, and holier in their nature, than any other which the constitution can boast. Those rights may not be changed—even by change of the constitution. They are out of the reach of the nation, as a nation.—The confederacy may dissolve and the constitution pass away; but those rights will remain unshaken—will exist while the South exists—and when they fall, the South will perish with them."

Whenever we behold a tear, let our kindest sympathies awake—let it have a sacred claim upon all that we can do to soothe and comfort under affliction. What rivers of tears have flown, excited by the cruel and perverse ways of man! War has spread its carnage and desolation, and the eyes of widows and orphans have been suffused with tears! Intemperance has lighted the homes of millions, and weeping and wailing have been incessant! A thousand other evils which we may conquer have given birth to tears, enough to constitute a flood—a great tide of grief!—Suppose we prize this little philosophy, and each one determine never to excite a tear in another—how pleasantly will life mellow! Watching the eye of the telegraph of the mind within, let us observe it with anxious regard; and, whether we are moved to complaint by the existence of supposed or real wrong, let the indication of the coming tear be held as sacred, and to unkindly feeling, and all our efforts be devoted to the substitution of smiles for tears!

Complain Not.

Whatever be your condition—inwardly or outwardly—let not a complaint fall from your lips. You may be poor and be obliged to work hard day by day; but this world is a place of toil. Millions have toiled before you who are now at rest in the kingdom above. Are you abused? So was the most perfect man the world ever saw. Abuse will not injure a sterling character. Harsh words rebound to the speaker's own hurt. Are you cheated? So is every honest man. If you complain at every mishap—at every slander—at every dog at your heels—you will pass a life of misery. The best course is to suffer without complaining, and to discharge all your duties faithfully, as in the fear of God. The man who has a snarl always on his brow—a scorn on his lip and a mountain on his back—not one of which he can muster courage to remove—is of all men the most miserable. If you complain at the trifles now, before you die, you will embitter every hour of existence, by your unhappy disposition.

INTERESTING DEVELOPMENTS.—It has been a matter of speculation for some time what country the Round Islanders were to conquer. Mr. Griffith H. Williams, sergeant-major of the late regiment on Round Island, informs the editor of the St. Louis Union that their ultimate destination was the Island of Cuba. The men were to have been shipped to the Island of Lopez to be drilled and armed. The expedition had been in contemplation for many years, and the funds for its support had been accumulated by annual donations from the planters of Cuba, and were deposited in New York, subject to the order of General Lopez, the general manager of the expedition. Its object was the establishment of a Republican Government in Cuba.—For the present the expedition has been abandoned, but Cols. White and Biscoe, the leaders, entertained no doubt as to its ultimate success.

STABBING CASE.—On Tuesday night about ten o'clock, a man named George Shiel, whilst passing along Market street, near Schuylkill Seventh street, in company with a female, was met by two young men, one of whom impudently looked under the bonnet of the female, whereupon Shiel told him to go about his business. An altercation ensued, when one of the ruffians drew a knife from his pocket and inflicted two stabs in the breast of Shiel, which though not thought fatal, may prove so. Shiel was taken to the Hospital.—Phil. News

The Frankfort correspondent of the Louisville Journal says that a son of Thomas H. Benton stabbed Mr. Lyons, of Louisville. Mr. Benton was about accompanying a lady from the parlor of the Weisiger House to her room. Mr. Lyons proposed to join them. Mr. Benton was offended at the proposition, and soon after, in an adjoining parlor, the stabbing took place.

ACQUITTED.—John W. Lovett, a blind man, and recently a pupil of the Stanton Blind Institution, charged with robbing the Richmond mail for Lynchburg, between Farmville and Walker's Church, in Prince Edward county, was examined in Lynchburg on Monday last, and, of course, acquitted—it being improbable that a man who can barely distinguish day from night, could have been guilty of such an act.

DEATH BY A DROP OF LAUDANUM.

There is an account in the last number of the New England Surgical Journal of a child being poisoned by the administration of one drop of laudanum, by its mother, for griping. It was a fine healthy child, and it lived but eleven hours after the laudanum was administered. People should be careful about the use of drugs that are reputed dangerous, especially in administering the same to children, who cannot tell the state of their feelings.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.—The Pittsburgh American states, on reliable authority, that the Pennsylvania Railroad company have contracted for 4,000 tons of railroad iron for the western division of their road, and adds, that Col. Patterson, the President of the company, in recent correspondence with prominent citizens of Pittsburgh, has promised, if proper aid be extended to the company immediately to put the whole of the western division to Pittsburgh under contract.

MELANCHOLY.—A gentleman who, a few weeks ago, visited Grayville, a small town some ten miles south-west of St. Louis, found there no less than twenty-five infant boys and girls whose parents had died of the cholera. They were all gathered into the dwelling of a benevolent gentleman, named Sappington, by whom they were generously cared for.

A KNOWING CANDIDATE.—A young man who seems to have known the world well, recently carried his election to Parliament in an English town, by promising to marry the daughters of thirteen hundred electors. They all voted for him in hopes of being an M. P.'s father in law.

AN INCIDENT.—At a concert in Cleveland lately, Mrs. Sca Smith's descriptive of the death of Mrs. Blake, who was found frozen to death with her infant huddled to her breast still alive, was sung, and it was made known that Mr. Blake and the young lady thus saved, were at that moment in the room.

THOMSON'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF TAR Is a never failing remedy in cases of Cough, Bronchitis, and affections of the Throat, Lungs, and Hoarse. We speak from experience, having used the preparation for the last three years with the most decided advantage. A case of Pulmonary Consumption cured under our notice, which was ultimately cured by the use of three bottles of Thomson's Syrup of Tar. (Invaluable to the Editor of the St. Louis Union.) Sent by mail, or by express, to all parts of the Union. Prepared and sold by ROSE & DICKEYSON N. E. corner of FIFTH and SPRUCE streets, Philadelphia. Sold by A. M. HILL, Clearfield, Pa., and by Druggists generally. Price 50¢ or $1.00 per bottle.

CIRCULAR.

To Clergymen, Post-masters, Teachers of Sabbath-Schools, Book Agents, Students, and Heads of Families.

Agents wanted in every section of the U. S. to sell Sears's Pictorial Family Annual;
AN ILLUSTRATED WORK, comprising a fine series of embellishments with interesting descriptions in one handsome large Octavo of about 400 pages, elegantly bound in gilt, and lettered in the most finished style of modern book making.
Price only Two Dollars.

This splendid volume comprises within itself a complete Library of Useful and Entertaining Knowledge, condensed in form, familiar in style, copious in information, embracing an extensive range of subjects. The engravings (over 300 in number) are strictly illustrative, being representations of actual Scenery, Costume, Manners, Monuments, &c. &c.
On examination the above work will be pronounced by every intelligent person under whose observation it may come as one of the most valuable presents for a father to present to his family, as regards both the quality and nature of the embellishments and the pure character of its contents. In preparing every article for its pages the greatest caution has been used to admit nothing but of an improving and instructive character.

To men of enterprise and tact this work alone offers an opportunity for profitable employment we deem to be met with. There is not a town in the Union where a right, honest and well-disposed person can fail selling from 50 to 200 volumes, according to the population.
All persons wishing sample copies to examine or procure subscribers with, can receive 1 or more, substantially bound in paper covers, at the postage not exceeding 30 cents on each volume, forwarded on the receipt of ONE DOLLAR. In this way, no matter where a person resides, if only within the reach of a Post Office, he can obtain a copy of the FAMILY ANNUAL.

Agents may obtain all the requisite information by addressing the subscriber. To secure attention to any communication they must be postpaid. In writing, let each person mention his Post Office County and State.
ROBERT SEARS, Publisher, No. 128 Nassau St., N. Y., and at the Post Office Law, 508 Broadway, N. Y.

To publishers of Newspapers throughout the United States.
* Newspapers copying this advertisement, entire, well displayed, as above, without any alteration or abridgement (including this notice) and giving it four inside insertions, shall receive a copy of the ANNUAL (subject to their order), by sending direct to the publisher.
