Arrival of the Falcon at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 7.

The Gulf mail steamship Falcon, Capt. Hartstein, arrived yesterday at this port from Chagres, after a passage of six days. She reports the arrival at Panama, on the 23d ult., of the Pacific mail steamship Oregon, Capt. Pearson, from San Francisco, with intelligence from that port to the 1st of October—one month later than previous voyages.

The Oregon brought down from San Francisco three hundred passengers and seven hundred thousand dollars in gold dust!

The Hon. Thomas Butler King, who was reported dangerously ill at San Francisco, at the previous accounts, was slowly recovering, and would leave for the Atlantic in the steamer of the 1st inst.—his desire to be in Washington on the opening of Congress, to be ready to lay before that body the facts that he has obtained relative to California.

We regret to learn that the Falcon brought no mails.

Horrible Murder.

We copy the following particulars of a most deplorable event, from a late South Carolina paper:

Lexington District has been, within a few days past, the scene of a murder, which the time of its perpetration renders extremely revolting. A man by the name of Louis Stack, who resides near John Couger, some thirteen miles from Columbia, of a dissipated character, being without strange and peculiar in many of his notions and actions, was murdered during the night of the 31st of October, by Edward A. Hodges, a respectable citizen of this District.

Stack was a married man, the father of several children, and has, on several occasions, upon the death and burial of a child, exhumed the body, retaining it several days, and then interring it again. A daughter of his having recently died in Columbia, was buried there; but Stack, in one of his odd whims, in conjunction with other persons, drove a wagon down to the grave, disinterred the body, and brought it up to his own house; designing to inter it by the graves of his departed children.

It appears from the most correct statements given, (as the evidence of the persons present has not yet been taken,) that Hodges was at a neighboring house on the road, on the evening of the 31st—when he was sent for by Stack to come and set up with the corpse at his house. He complied with the request, and was accompanied there by a Mr. Hughes.

On his arrival, he was asked in, and treated very kindly. It seems that a conversation commenced, concerning some trifling matter, when Stack, differing from Hodges, became violently vexed, and gave him the lie, which was promptly returned by Hodges. Whereupon, Stack immediately sprang up, seized upon a loaded gun, and made directly at him to shoot him.

In the meantime, Hodges made for the door, but being closely pressed by Stack, drew his knife in self-defense, seized upon the gun, averting the muzzle from his body, made several flourishes and thrusts around with his knife to keep him off; thereby inflicting several wounds; one of which striking against the left cheek, inflicted a flesh wound, another severed the temporal artery on the right temple, and the third divided the jugular on the right of the neck—a deadly wound, which prostrated Stack forthwith.

With singular presence of mind, Hodges seized up the wound, severing the jugular, thereby stopping the copious effusion of blood. Stack expired the following day.

A Terrible Railroad Accident.

We learn from the New York Herald, of yesterday, that a dreadful accident occurred on Monday morning, 5th instant, on the New Haven Railroad, by the collision of two trains. The up train conveying the Boston mail, and leaving New York at eight o'clock, had on board, in the hindmost car, the members of Marion Hose Company, No. 4, Captain Joseph Buckman, who were going on their annual target excursion to New Rochelle. There were nearly 60 in the car, including invited guests. When the train was between Fordham and Morrisania, a drove of about eighty cows, belonging to Mr. Bathgate, were being driven across the track, by the herdsman, from watering. The train coming in collision with them; the baggage car was thrown off the track, and across the track of the down train. At the same moment, the New Haven down train was passing to New York, and the locomotive coming in contact with the baggage car of the up train, was driven off its track, and being detached from its train, it shot off at an angle, and went right into the corner of the hindmost car containing the Hose Company. It went through it in a diagonal direction, wounding and bruising the passengers in a dreadful manner, and filling the car with the steam. Fortunately, the safety pipe was broken in the collision; and the steam escaping, the force was necessarily diminished. The engine was shattered, and buried itself in the sand, by which its progress was arrested. The sand was thrown up into the air, like so much smoke. There were thirteen of the cows killed, and some of them thrown twenty feet by the force of the shock; but it is almost miraculous that no human life was sacrificed—at least, we have heard of none. There was a little boy sitting quite close to the spot where the locomotive entered the car, who was thrown to the other side, and was not injured in the least; and fireman, named James P. Sowerley, of Stanton street, was thrown out of the window, without being hurt. The other cars were considerably damaged, but none of the passengers in them received the slightest injury. Some of the cars had the wheels knocked off. The Herald gives the names of the persons who were wounded in different ways, and says there are others, whose names it could not learn.—Pennsylvania.

Later from Santa Fe—Another Fight with the Indians.

St. Louis Nov. 8.

By an arrival here, from the Plains, we have received later advices from Santa Fe, though the news, generally speaking, possesses little interest.

The Santa Fe Republican gives an account of a skirmish, recently, between the Whites and Apaches, near Los Vales. The Indians had renewed their depredations, by stealing a lot of clothing, two horses, and 150 head of cattle, from Los Vales. Captain Papeau, with 40 men, pursued the Indians 15 miles, without coming up with them. He then divided his force, Sergeant Miller taking command of half of the men. Sergeant Miller continued the pursuit, and six miles further on, suddenly came on the encampment of the Indians. A conflict of short duration ensued, in which the Indians were completely routed and put to flight, leaving five of their party dead upon the ground, among whom was Petrito, a noted Chief.

Col. Washington, with a large force, was scouring the country round in search of marauding Apaches, but with little success.

Indian depredations all around Santa Fe are now of daily occurrence.

Startling Development.

On Thursday night the 25th inst., the house of James George, residing in Mercer county, bordering on the north of this county, was forcibly entered by a gang of robbers, having their faces painted and otherwise disguised for the purpose of evading detection. After having put the inmates under guard, they proceeded to search the house for money, using an axe in breaking open the trunks, chests, &c., and took from $900 to $1000, chiefly in gold.

Previous to their leaving they tied Mr. George in his bed, during which employment they used the most menacing and taunting language to their unfortunate victims.

Information having been made against those suspicious of the crime, they were immediately arrested and committed, which led to still further examinations in the neighborhood of Centerville, in the upper part of this county, where five galvanic batteries, dies, chemicals, and all the implements necessary for carrying on the counterfeiting business, were found, and arrests are still continuing to be made, and judging from circumstances, they are only commencing.

It is generally believed that a gang of robbers and counterfeiters are associated together reaching from various parts of the State of New York, passing through Pennsylvania into the States of Ohio and Virginia. We think that the matter can now be probed to the bottom, and the whole gang be broken up; but as further discoveries are being made, we refrain from a further detail for the present.—Butler Dem. October 31.

Cuba yet to be Independent.

The N. Y. Sun, of Saturday last, announces the receipt of highly important intelligence from all parts of the island of Cuba; so important indeed, that our contemporary feels warranted in adopting for a caption, "The flag of free Cuba yet to be unfurled!" We make the following extract. We shall soon see what we shall see.

In silence and secrecy the Cuban patriots are steadily at work in every part of the island, and though a portion of their plans were frustrated by the seizure of some of their vessels at New York, still their designs in Cuba have not been discovered or disturbed. Thus far the most rigid searches of the tyrant Rencali have availed him nothing. A short time only will elapse when the true object of recent "seizures" and "excitements" at New York, will be made public, and the readers of the New York Sun may look for stirring, glorious news, from the beautiful Cuba!

Fatal Accident.

Correspondence of the Pennsylvania. NEW BRUNSWICK, Nov. 8, 1849.

This afternoon at half-past four, while some laborers were pushing a wood car across the railroad bridge, at the time the draw was being turned on, and before it was properly adjusted, the car ran on to the draw—the car, draw, and men, were precipitated into the canal—a distance of 40 feet. In the fall one man was killed instantly, and two others were injured—one very seriously. M. E. ELISON.

N. B. The cars will be under the necessity of changing passengers at this place, until the draw can be replaced.

THE SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY BANK.

We learn from Montrose that the failure of the Susquehanna County Bank has caused the greatest excitement in that community. The committee of directors appointed to investigate the affairs of the institution, report that the bank has at least $200,000 afloat, of which probably $150,000 has recently been put in circulation at the west, through a certain agent in Cincinnati, who was in Montrose but a week before the institution exploded.—The cashier, T. P. St. John, has been arrested and committed in default of $40,000 bail. He had assured the directors that there were but $40,000 in circulation, and that every dollar could be redeemed. So infuriated were the citizens that they attempted to do violence to his person, and after his incarceration, they took the signs from the bank, and placed them with an effigy over the jail door.—Phila. Daily News.

PRINTERS IN EUROPE.—A convention of printers, which were about to meet in Berlin, in the early part of October, for the purpose of consulting upon the means of forming a union between the different societies of printers of Germany, was suppressed by the authorities, and twenty-four hours allowed to the deputies to leave the city.

Sylvia Tory was burned to death by her clothes taking fire, in South Kingsburytown, R. I., on the 1st. aged more than 112 years. She was imported from Africa when 8 years old, and leaves a daughter aged 87 years, she was well, up to the day of her death, and her eyesight perfect.

The Johnstown (Pa.) Echo, of Nov. 7, says: On Saturday evening last, a fiend in the shape of a man, committed a most cruel outrage upon the person of a young girl, the daughter of Mr. George Nagle, of the Summit, in this county. We learn that the scoundrel has been arrested and lodged in the jail at Ebensburg.

DIED.—On Friday evening, the 9th inst., at his residence in Lawrence township, ISAAC GOON, Sr., in the 79th year of his age.
