THE DOLLAR.

Clearfield, Pa., Jan[illegible]8, 1850.

☞Hon A. GILMORE, our representative in Congress, and Messers. DRUM of the State Senate, and HENPHILL, of the House, have all been attentive in forwarding public documents, and have our thanks for the same.

☞The proceedings of the late Editorial Convention, at Harrisburg, will be found in another column. We have only room to add our endorsement of those proceedings to their fullest extent.

Bible Presentation.

The ceremony of presenting a Bible to G. P. GULICH, Esq., late Superintendent of the Sabbath School of this place, was performed last Sunday in the Presbyterian church. It was a compliment richly merited.

THE ICE FREED.—Last Saturday the river rose to a very high mark before the ice gave way. We have heard of several rafts of lumber and some of timber having been carried away, but of no other serious damage.

Suspension of Diplomatic Intercourse with Austria.

The resolution of inquiry on this subject, offered by Gen. CASS, in the U. S. Senate, several days ago, has been the principal topic of discussion in that body ever since the mover delivered his great speech in support of his resolution. Mr. CLAY replied to Gen. CASS, taking ground against the expediency of the measure.—Mr. FOOTE, of Arkansas, replied to Mr. Clay. These speeches all abound in much useful information, and if we can possibly lay them, or parts of them before our readers, will do so.

COL. FORNEY.—We sincerely regret that Col. FORNEY, the able editor of the Pennsylvanian, was not elected Clerk of the House of Representatives at Washington. Mr. CAMPBELL, whig, of Tennessee, the Clerk of the last session, and who has been acting thus far in the present session, was elected on the 20th ballot.—Eight Southern Democrats deserted Mr. Forney and voted for Mr. Campbell on the last ballot. This was not the treatment deserved by this distinguished Pennsylvanian. He has always sustained the South, by defending the whole Union.

MAYOR OF PITTSBURG.—Joseph Barker was elected Mayor of Pittsburg last week. The said Barker, at the time of his election, was confined in the jail of Allegheny county, to which he had been sentenced for a term of one year, for making disturbances in the streets by preaching. The news of a pardon from Gov. Johnston reached Pittsburg the day before the election by telegraph. The vote stood for Guthrie, dem. 1684; for McCutcheon, whig, 971; for Barker, 1787. It is said that this result grew out of religious excitement, and that Barker was run as the Anti-Catholic candidate. If so, Pittsburg is again disgraced, that's all.

Personal Liability in Banking.

On the first of January, 1850, the new system of Personal liability of the Stockholders in all Banking and joint stock companies, for all bills issued, went into operation in New York. In case of failure, bill-holders are to have precedence of all other creditors. Why not secure the people of this State by similar safeguards, as fast as charters are renewed? and as to applying it to new ones, we would be willing to do without them.

The Senate in the U. S. Senate.

A short sketch of a discussion that took place in the U. S. Senate on the 8th inst., will be found in this paper, which, by an attentive perusal, will give our readers a tolerably correct idea of the views of some of our statesmen on the subject of slavery.

Repeal of the Usury Laws.

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, on the 11th inst., Mr. Matthias read in place, a bill for the repeal of the laws against Usury, as follows:

Sec. 1. Be it enacted, &c.—That from and after the passage of this act, it shall be lawful for all persons to pay and receive such rate of interest, for the loan of money on any promissory note, draft, acceptance, bills payable or bills of exchange, drawn for any time not exceeding twelve months, growing out of commercial or business transactions, or contracts therefor, as the parties may agree upon in writing.

Sec. 2. That no greater rate of interest than six per centum shall be charged on any judgment after the date of the rendition thereof, entered in any courts of this commonwealth, although such judgment may be founded upon a writing stipulating a higher rate of interest.

Sec. 3. That nothing in this act shall be construed to apply to any loan, where the sum or thing lent shall be assured by any grant, charge, or incumbrance of real estate, nor on any loan or discount by any bank or banking association.

Sec. 4. That so much of any existing law or laws, as conflicts with the provisions of this act, be and the same is hereby repealed.

A man named Myrick, was murdered in his own house, near Bolton's depot, in Hind's county, Miss., by his own son, on the night of the 25th ult. It appears that both father and son were intoxicated, and had been quarrelling some time, when a younger son became disgusted and left the house. In a short time afterwards, he was called back by the negroes, and found his father mortally stabbed, and the elder son standing near, holding the knife with which the deed had been committed.

During the week ending January 4, the Postmaster General has established forty new offices, discontinued, four, and changed the name of seven. Among those discontinued is Carrick, Franklin county, Pa., and among those changed are Monroe, Bucks county, Pa., name changed to "Durham," and Greenville, Luzerne county, Pa., name changed to "Green Grove."

Senator Houston denies the right of New Mexico to send a territorial delegate to Congress, upon the ground that it does not belong to the United States, but is a part of Texas. Hugh Smith is the delegate. We shall wait to hear what he has to say.

Gov. Johnston has pardoned the notorious Joe Barker, who was confined in the penitentiary at Pittsburgh.

MARRIED—On the 10th inst., by the Rev. P. McEnally, Mr. HAMILTON WELD, to Miss EMALINE JOHNSTON, both of Beccaria township.

On Tuesday the 15th inst., by B. F. Sterling Esq., Mr. DAVID BELL, of Bell tp., to Miss MARGERY HOOVER, of Pike tp.

On Thursday the 17th inst., by the Rev. M. T. Merwin, Mr. ——— HAINS, to Miss SARAH CARR of Lawrence tp.
