

The Sailor and the Jew.

On re-entering the stage, the Jew ask-Saturday used to be a happy night to ed him what he would take for his hat and THE DREADFUL EXPLOSION AT NEW YORK. poor Jack. Then it was that as the end stick. "Why," said Jack, "I wouldn't of the week brought him nearer to the port part with them. I got this hat and stick of his destination, he looked forward with at Shanghai, from a Chinese Princess, pleasure to the time when he should be re. who gave them to me for saving her child, bring us additional particulars of the deleased for a while from the hardships of who fell out of a boat, from a shark, and plorable catastrophe in that city on Monanother voyage, and anticipated the fun of she told me that I never should want for a frolic ashore. On such occasions the any thing is long as I kept them, and bless about 8 o'clock, of a 200 horse power boisteward regularly came forward with a her beautiful top-lights if it hasn't proved ler in the printing press and machine shop bottle of rum, and the compliments of the true." captain, when the little half gill cup would They were near the end of their jour-would follow-such a laugh as only sail.' mined to purchase it at any rate. and the yarn, while others employed them- and stick ?" asked the Jew again. "Oh, great was the force of the explosion, that not mortally. The cries of others were ing yarn:

"Did any of you messmates, ever know old Jack Ringbolt ?" asked Sam.

"I've heard of him," replied one of the sailors.

"Well," continued Sam, "he was a on them." chum of mine the first voyage I ever went any sailor ever knew "the ropes" it was you won't give me what I'd ax.' How a long time ago-after a three years' another, I'd take two hundred dollars.' cruise, in which he had served as captain of the fore-top. The frigate arrived at cy,' and he counted out the sum, while Philadelphia, and he was paid off there. Jack took off his old tarpaulin, and hand-In those days there was no railroads; and so Jack, after having a regular spree, concluded to take the steamboat and stage coach to New York, and go to Boston to see his friends. On leaving his landlord the bargain. he called for his bill, and told him he wan- At the new ted to pay double, "for fear that when he came back he might have no money."

Pick .

irel ion, iils,

era so ri

in iolas Tei fit. nd.

Shoes chants ad soc

and

Pick

ickles

one

selling

TER.

E.

count

CIEB US

protect a are

ME»

ARM

105. 10 RD, 485

er. sonable

miter

i aub i pi fi

NN.

" But I might forget you," said the landlord.

"Oh, no you won't" said Jack, holding jolly host and said, I wish I may never up a stick in his hand; 'you see this stick,' see land again, if I didn't sell my old hat and he took off his tarpaulin and put on it, and stick to that Jew for two hundred dol- the time of the explosion. There were would die soon. at the same time giving it a whirl, and lars!' and Jack roared again, and asked also several females employed in the fac- The two females, the only ones who had winking at the landlord; "well when I re-turn you shall know me by this sign." In the next stage would come

So off Jack went, and on the boat, and along.

be handed around, and as each man toss- ney, when the Jew, who, having seen and original sentiment, a hearty laugh the magic of Jack's hat and stick, deter-the crew had been speculating on what do you say, what price do you ask? — the sception of a solitary piece of wall liberty. By struggling he freed hinself, the sception of a solitary piece of wall liberty. By struggling he freed hinself, the sception of a solitary piece of the and when we saw hin, though much bruit is the station-house in Oak they got ashore, that Sam spun the follow. The buy this hat and stick.' explosion due had in the windows frames cal about the bard had entitiently received. Street was of the most painful description.

"Here's the money," said the Jew, per-'Done,' said the Jew, 'here's the moned it over with the stick.

"Here," said he, "take my hat & give them eagerly, and gave Jack his cap in

At the next stopping place Jack got out and bade the Jew good-bye, who continu-

Jack burst into a fit of laughter, & slapping his hands on his thigh, turned to the

From the Phila. Darly News, Jan. 6 TERRIBLE LOSS OF LIFE. The New York papers of yesterday ted.

day morning, resulting from the explosion, street, near Pearl. By the explosion the freezing him with water. whole building, which was six stories in In the front of the building, on Hague they can render Messrs. Taylor & Co. in popular as the Emperor of Russia. ed off his grog, preceded by some quaint such strong and unmistakable evidence of height, was actually lifted from its foun- street, men were diligently removing the their business, and have sent $100, as In vain will the Sultan appeal to the dation to a height of six feet, and when it bricks, voices being heard underneath, have also Beach, Brothers, of the Sun to Christian powers to assist him with an ar-reached that elevation, it tumbled down, calling for help. Two men were rescued be distributed among the families of the my, the United force of which would cnaors can give. Then came the anecdote "What would you take for your hat crushing in its ruins a vast number. So here at about 122, injured severely but sufferers.

selves in their watch on deck, in scrub- more than you can give. Why, blast fragments of the building were scattered still audible. bing out a pair of trousers for the coming your old clothes," said Jack, 'you haven't in every direction; the windows in the Mr. C. O. Jessup narrowly escaped with surance. In the machine department there brought to unite in a war against Russia, Sabbath-for sailors always "dress up" at got money enough to buy them.' 'You neighborhood were broken; and a large his life. What became of him at the mosea of a Sunday, provided the weather will don't know that,' said the Jew, julling out portion of the front wall of the fated build- ment of the explosion he could not tell, value of $50,000, on which there was an the confines of Turkey. In vain will the permit. It was on a Saturday night then, a well-filled pocket-book and showing its ing was thrown with tremendous power but on coming to himself he found himself insurance of $20,000. St. John, Burr & Sultan proclaim a religious war, and unwhen it was expected that the ship would contents to Jack. 'Come,' said the Jew, into the house opposite. In fact the buil- in the eastern part of the building, with 'Co, were partially insured. Their loss is furl the standard of the Prophet. He will make the land during the next week, and holding up the money temptingly, 'what ding was completely wrecked, hardly one much of the ruins laid upon his shoulders' estimated at $12,000 or $15,000. the crew had been speculating on what do you say, what price do you ask ?- brick being left standing on another, with and head, but his feet comparatively at

Well, let me look at them,' said the Jew, explosion dashed in the windows, frames sed about the head, had sufficiently recov-attempting to take hold of the stick. and doors of several of the adjoining build- cred to give the names of nearly all the disfigured bodies were lying at one time in is ready when the ice breaks up on the "Attempting to take hold of the stick.— and doors of a refut of the tailor and angered the walls persons employed in Burr & Co.'s estab-an empty house adjoining. Some have en bells out of ye. You'd steal the charm, of Hall & Sons' large soap and candle fac- lishment. His clothes were mostly torn had life at once crushed out, their heads if you ever got your pickers and stealers tory, which adjoined the ruined building. off his back.

The windows and doors across Hague [Here follows a list of the names, occustreet, and in the rear of houses in Pearl pation and residence of about 50 persons spirits departed. Only a few could be reto sea, and he used to be the life of the severingly, again showing his bank notes, street, were burst in as it with cannon shot, who were taken from the ruins, 10 of whole ship. There was not a port in the 'name your price.' 'No,' said Jack, 'I'm and everything around indicates that the whom were dead, and several others morwolrd, I believe he had not been to, and if going to stop at the next town, and I know explosion was one of the most violent that tall; wounded.]

could occur. So powerful was the explo- One boy was saved by the lodging of anxious and weeping friends to know them. He prefers having a new empire created any salior ever knew "the ropes" it was you won't give the what i d ax. "How Jack Ringbolf, for there wasn't anything much? asked the Jew, cagrely. "Why I sion that the shock, like the trembling of some thick boards angularly against the So painful was the scene, and so touching out of Turkey in Europe, including Greece but what he was up to. He said he came was reekoning, that as I was going back an earthquake, was felt in some of the wall above him, thus keeping the bricks the agony of the poor women who bent over the sone control having the Greek church but what he was up to. He said he came was reckoning, that as I was going back an example, and the solution of a war above min, thus keeping the agony of the poor women who bent over the he can control, having the Greek church he not in the nutilated remains, to the East Indies, shortly, and could get the of a will not be the nutilated remains, to discover by some the can control, having the Greek church in the nutilated remains, to discover by some the can control, having the Greek church in the nutilated remains, to discover by some the can control, having the Greek church in the nutilated remains, to discover by some the can control, having the Greek church in the nutilated remains, to discover by some the can control. line, of about a quarter of a mile, and was in this condition he could thrust his hand shred of clothing whether a son, a husband as its organ and spiritual head. The Emprobably felt at a greater distance. The through a crevice and shake the hand of or brother lay before them, that even the peror Nicholas will thus release himself floors of Messrs. Hull & Sons' building another boy. We believe both were finalwere lifted up, and the thick walls, both ly rescued. those adjoining Mr. Taylor's establishment. One of the most painful cases was that and those fronting on the next street, were of a boy. named Tindle, we understood and those fronting on the next street, were of a boy, named Tindle, we understood. us your bank notes.' The Jew received bulged considerably, although built of un- He was found alive, but his feet and legs usual thickness, with reference to the pos- were so firmly wedged in that it was ne-> manufacturers, and the number of persons on. We fear he was not saved after all, in the employment of the two firms was for about 10 o'clock in the evening he about 120, all of whom were at work at ceased talking, and it was thought that he

The fireman had started the fires under Shortly So off Jack went, and on the boat, and along. in the stage coaches, taverns, &c., as he raveled in Philadelphia, the boiler at an earlier hour than usual, the boiler at an earlier hour than usual, the boiler at an earlier hour than usual, which is getting cold while stand-travelled along, he did the same thing, with a ravenous appetite he entered an paying double for everything and giving with a ravenous appetite he entered an earlier hour than usual work until nearly dark. He in-the boiler at an earlier hour than usual, and, exulting over his fortunate purchase, ing unused over Sunday, and hardly had hard at work until nearly dark. He in-some of the vietims have by the intensity will again be made on Constantinople. paying double for everything and giving with a ravenous appetite he entered an ing unused over Standay, and hardly had the countersign of recognition, telling them, eating-house and determined to have a glo-that he expected to return shortly, and rious dinner. Having called for the best would prefer standing a double shot, as he of everything, and drunk a bottle of wine, ing unused over Standay, and hardly had hard at work until nearly dark. He in-that he expected to return shortly, and rious dinner. Having called for the best would prefer standing a double shot, as he ing unused over Standay, and hardly had that he expected to return shortly, and rious dinner. Having called for the best would prefer standing a double shot, as he ing that have anything left in the lock-er when he wanted to come back. Jack paulin on the stick, he gave it a turn and the prophecies of the rubbish in certain for come back. Jack paulin on the stick, he gave it a turn and the prophecies of the rubbish in certain the night, and set a number of carts to asarrived at Boston under a full press of sail, winked at the landlord, in imitation of the coroner, but for some reason he did sist in carring away the rublish. Proviswith all colors set, a: 1 offer speading some Jack. 'What do you mean by that l'ask, not take it, and it was sent to Havannah ions were got for the men, so that they time with his filends--the result he had of the bost. (Why don't you know? said where it was used as a steamboat boiler, nod not lose a minute from work while a just a minute---we can stand it---the man's now be accounted for. It was supposed power except Great Britain, backed also alive," the firemen replied. And they did that there were yet at least twenty bodies by the powerful alliance of Austria, if nestand it, and saved the man, though them- buried in the ruins, for from all accounts cessary. Constantinople and the towers selves much scorched and nearly suffoca- there were from ninety to one hundred in of the Dardanelle's must therefore fall.--the building at the time of the explosion, What power, what influence, can be bro't

Next to this man, wedged in an angle and many are still missing who would have against Russia to avert a calamity which between two floors, were two other men, who also by the noble efforts of the fire-who also by the noble efforts of the firemen were ultimately rescued. One of was yesterday to enter upon a full inves- or any other nation. England is aware these cried out soon after 11 o'clock that tigation in relation to the cause of the ex- that a reliance on her navy alone is but a of A. D. Taylor & Co. 5 and 3 Hague he was not much hurt, but that they were plosion. In the meantime, Messrs. Hoe feeble hope against a military despot so & Co. have kindly volunteered all the aid exceedingly and alarmingly powerful and Brothers, and valued at $10,000. No in- nor any of the northern powers, can bo were tools, patterns and machinery, to the having to pass through Austria to reach

The scene of the station-house in Oak organized troops of Russia. being now a shapeless mass; others seem to have endured intense agony before their into Asia, the natural boundaries of the cognized by their blackened and disfigur-, ed features, but generally the remnants of sia to occupy a position so dangerous and their garments was all that enabled their controlling ! That is not his intention .--- cued, whether alive or dead, had his shirt the Mediterranean. sleeves rolled up, showing that he had al- This result, which we feel convinced ding were occupied by A. B. Taylor & Co., in this condition he was fed with bread and Mr. Taylor, is among the persons saved. The Sultan may for awhile make Damas-Mr. Taylor employed fifty-seven men, and The Sultan may for awhile make Damased on his way. As the stage drove off, as was also the basement, and the other milk, and made as comfortable as possible, as their hour for work was 7 a. m. and it cus his residence, but to retain his maristories by Messrs. Burr & Co., hat-body while the slow work of digging him out went was 71 when the accident occurred, near-time power, he must have a scaport and ly all are supposed to have been in the maritime resources, and he will fall back building. The principal foreman in Mr. on Egypt, over which he exorcises a Su-Taylor's establishment, Charles Ford, con-tinues missing, and is doubtless killed. It is impossible that any person can be alive It is impossible that any person can be alive

the last person rescued while living.

ble him to check the rapid advances of the

The building was owned by Harper & Cossacks. Neither France nor Germany, force to stand up against the powerfully

> If the Emperor delays or postpones the is ready when the ice breaks up on the Danube to push forward his columns, Constantinople fails, and the Sultan crosses Moslem race. But it will be asked, will the European powers consent to allow Rus-ready commenced work for the day. Mr. Edward Chapin, the book-keeper of will derange the political relations and sibility of fire or other contingency. The first and second stories of the buil- ber and bricks to extricate him. While Mr. Taylor, is among the persons saved, balance of power both in Europe and Asia.

anticipated having taken place, for he was the Jew, going through the motions again, but not generating steam fast enough for imber remained that could hide a body. [The mighty power of the Original Controlled route of your cursed non, a boat, it was sent back and exchanged with Mr. Massell, chief of police, was also at which for so many courses, and the host, due not generating of another seal—will surely take would return. So he up stick and made a sense,' said the host, due not generating of an over the massent year, and will be would return. So he up stick and made a 'sense,' said the host, 'but pay for dinner.' 'Pay for my dinner' straight wake for the Delaware. Anght wake for the Delaware, dinner." Tay for my dim As the stage stopped at a form house in Jow, n surprise, and think New Jersey, a Jew who was a fellow pas- he had not done the th senger, had observed that Jack never paid it over again, and cofor anything as he travelled along, but gave the landlord ar merely gave a whirl of his hat on his the devil do you n stick, and a wink to the coachman or land. lord, who now got lord, who immediately recognizing old "you needn't thin! Jack, sung out "all right." The Jew was with your wink'r taken all aback at this, and thinking that me for your dir he had some mermaid's charm about his taken up." A hat or stick, was dying to find out the mys. by the throat, tery. At last the Jew could stand it no if they would longer, and itching with curiosity, he o- and carry a pened his guns upon Jack to find out his. The Jew su explain by a secret. "How is it, Jack," asked he, "that you the landlord don't pay for anything on the road !" another twir "What do you want to know for !" said lord, boiling Jack, eyeing the Jew as one of the many "Tell that Sam's messi land sharks that fleece us ashore. "Why," said the Jew, seeing that he nearly to sp was not going to get any thing out of Jack not make uss easily, 'why, I'd give something to know.' "It's true "Well," said Jack, with a wink at the just as old Ja balance of the passengers, whose attention when he go had been attracted to the conversation, Jew had bee "d-n me if I care; here, do you see this on his being hat?" and 'Jack put his tarpaulin on his told the story, stick and gave it a twirl. "That's the tions, which ra ticket you can travel all the world over ment among judge, who cam with.

The coach soon after stopped at a tay. sheets out of the ern to change horses and give the passen. the Jew was cra gers a chance to dine. 'The Jew watched free." Another Jack to see if his hat really had the magi- when Sam was c cal effect which he was gradually becom. the wheel .- N. O ing a believer in. Jack called for liquor on entering the tavern, which he tossed off, THE SHUNK MO and after smacking his lips, perceiving our possession a be, that the barkceper recognized his colors, by N. LeBrun, Esq. said nothing. After dinner the driver the monument in a blew his horn, and the passengers hurried tion over the remai to get in the stage. Shunk. Should the

"Stop! stop! you sailor man; you monument will be c havn't paid," said the landlord. feet high, of Gothic a | feet high, of Gothic a "Avast there a bit, old Blowhard," said turn on his stick, at the same time wink-

Norrise Jack, taking off his hat and giving it a The number of deaths ing at the landlord, who responded "all ring the last year were right," to the utter astonishment of the 1,057 were colored persons.

sons died above the age of 100

powers will take part. This is destinuand cannot be averted. Of terrine tinger-

From Noat's Sunday Times. THE DOWNFALL OF TURKEY.

sia has sufficient; but ple have been catharine: "This is the part to Constantinople!" and over that vall the with an iron hand European Turkey, to opening of another seal-will surely take with Greece, the islands of the Ar- place during the present year, and will be

- Danube, and other important possessions gary.

and positions which made her a second I, whelmed by Russia, the only enemy which tailor being released from this troublewhermed by Russia, the only enemy which tonor being released from this reduce-to the Sultan has feared from the time of some world and a seolding wife, appeared

B- which the Musslemen believe is destined to crush them. Since the death of the Em- to purgatory " eNo, said the tailor, but I have been 18 las, by far a man of more agacity, brave- Journed." go ry and talents, has been actively preparand hand. The campaigns in Circaset, car-la fat, turtle-cating alderman, cane puffing ne ried on for several years by Russia, were and blowing. e. mere preludes to the great drama-experbk iments to test the skill and bravery of the the door." Moslem army, and to become familiar with "Not so first, sull Peter, "have you B the mode and manner of its approaches ever been to purgatory ?? in key and Russia for the last 30 years have, is that to the purpose?" You let in that the been more skirmishes on the outposts poor half starved tailor, and he had, been in feelers as it were to ascertain where the no more in purgatory than I. ty real strength lay, and the wars ended as nat Nicholas desired, by the friendly media-nk tion of the European powers. Now, how-ic- ever, the time has arrived to meet the ever, up une has arrived to meet up then please go back again, salar of great struggle in carnest, and the storm is tor, "paradise is not the place for fools!"

not nearly ready to burst upon the head of the met Ali, Pacha of Egypt, could approach ing office, says the New York Globe, has Commander of the Faithful. As Mehein- as near as Adrianople, in a meditated at-tack on the city of Bysantium, the Emper- poor boy-has graduated more useful and or of Russia is convinced that he can ac- conspicuous members of society-has me complish something more in the great ef- tured more intellect, and turned fort to carry out the ultimatum of Cathar- practical, useful channels, awaken ้วม-

The new railroads will bring from dis- thought, than any of the literary cr int territories regiments free from any of the counter. Low many p he inc. tant territories regiments free from any of the counter and debilitating or painful service. Comman- past con ding the resources of a country with a git of population of 60 millions, where his will is ar di- law; popular among his people, moving in h- every direction, and superintending every 1. thing in porson; with skilful generals and c soldiers, trained as such from infuncy, with t but abundance of means and Europe tranquil-ized, the attack on Turkoy will be may my 500,000 men, and a squadron from the b tack Sca larger than th apelago, the provinces of Wallachia, prognant with greater events than the Apenago, the provinces of wanachia, pregnant with greater events than the Abidavia and Servia, the fortresses on the flight of the Pope or the downfall of Hun. Scene at the Gate of Paradise-A poor

s. Catharine the Great, and the only power at the gate of paradise; a peter asked him if he had ever been

The tailor had searcely got in, before und blowing. "Halloo? you fellow," said fier topen

"No," said the alderman; "but what

"But he has been married,,' said Peter. "Married!" exclaimed the alderman, "why I have been married twice." "Then please go back again," said Pc-

THE POOR BOX'S COLLEGE .- The print.

mind, generated more active and ele.

ೆ