

ampy. To the borom of its God in never ending day. Oh! fondly cheristicil one, thus early called away, Ponce, pence be to thy sleeping, in that narrow house of cinv. Where angels love to linger beneath the sunboams light, And keep thoir eilent vigile, as watchers for each night.

That this golden link he severed from love's endearing chain, Mourn not-that such is mado his gain.

The Trial of Dr. J. W. Webster.

ED

Apply

of the duy u

Court

inble

rficld

Oyer 9

For the Murder of Dr. George W. Parkman, before the Supreme Judicial Court.

(Continued.)

Boston, March 22.

and appeared to be reading; I stood at the up against the box in the centre of the lab-thing was to be dissolved; there was salt since, though I have hunted the building in the water; I'heard no footsteps, but saw all over. Dr. Parkman enter the room from the lec- I do not remember anything particular adjourned.

ture room; Dr. W. looked around surpris- till a quarter of 2 o'clock, when, after I ed to see him enter without being heard; had eaten my dinner, I was standing in he said, "Dr. Webster are you for me to- the front entry looking out at the front examination of Littlefield, the Janitor, the prosecution. night?" speaking loud and quick. Dr. door. I thought, before the coroner's in- was resumed, from which no further facts Webster answered, "No, I um not ready quest, that it was about half past one, but to night;" Dr. Parkman said something reflecting upon it, I remember that I had Androw W. Foster, then testified to the else; I do not remember what; he either examined the tickets at Dr. Holmes' door, date, (Nov. 22,) on which Littlefield came refused to sell Dr. W. something or refus- which would make it a quarter of an hour and got a turkey, on an order from Prof. ed to mortgage something. Dr. Parkman later. I saw Dr. Parkman approaching Webster, when the prosecution called, took out papers from his pocket and Dr. the College in North Grove street, abreast took out papers from his pocket and Dr. the College in North Grove street, abreast Webster said, "I was not aware it was of Fruit street, walking very fust. I re-Webster said, "I was not aware it was of Fruit street, walking very fust. I re-Works I was Saturdays" so." Dr. P. said, "it is so, and you know turned. I entered Dr. Ware's lecture it was Saturday, I am not sure that it was on Friday. it." Dr. We told him "I will see you to- room and lay on the settee nearest the reg- not till Sunday, that I heard of Dr. Parkister, and nearest the door, waiting for Dr. | man's disappearance. morrow." Dr. P. stood near the threshold of the door, raised his hand and said, Holmes' lecture to finish, to help fasten the Mr. Clifford-Did you on Sunday night "something must be done to morrow."- door and clear away his things. I did caution your husband against stating his He went out, and it was the last time I ev- not hear any one enter Dr. W.'s lecture suspicions? er saw him in the building. When I was room; the front door was open till after the Witness-Sunday afternoon my hus-standing in front of the College about one lecture that day; Dr. Ware's lecture room band went out, and returned, saying that and a half o'clock the next day, (Tues- door was closed by a spring. After put- he had seen Dr. Webster, and believed, day,) Dr. W. came and asked me if I ting away Dr. H.'s things, I came down as that he was standing there, that Dr. that if I could not get any one I could trust, minutes past 8 o'clock, Dr. Holmes went "for mercy's sake, what makes you think He was gono about thirty minutes, and to prepare the furnace for the next day; I get hold of it, it would make trouble for theman had when he returned said he gave it into Dr. always sift the coal in the afternoon. I you;" I don't know that I noticed before, Parkman's hands at his house. I had an cleared out the furnace that warmed the that there had been anything unusal in the called inforview with Dr. Webster about noon anatomical and medical lecture rooms; way Dr. Webster kept his room ; but after the same day; Dr. Parkman was there on they are both in the cellar, close under the he mentioned it on Sunday evening, I m

I carried the jar to the front entry; and laid down on a settee; he said he counted up I was talking with the officers; Dr. W. put it on the top of the case where I put the money down to Dr. Parkman in his came in, went through the entry, and took up notices. I went to Dr. Holmes' lec- lecture room; he said that Dr. Parkman up the grape vines, went into the lecture ture before it was finished. At the lecture grabbed the money from the table without room and came down into the laboratory, room of Dr. Holmes I saw the student, J. counting it, and ran as fast as he could and unlocked the door, leaving it unlock B. Hathaway, who attends the apotheca-ry's shop in the Hospital. I told him there that Dr. Parkman told him he would go disappearance. I did not see Dr. W. go was a glass jar in which Dr. W. wished to with him to Cambridge, and discharge a out; it was when Mr. Littlefield was talkget a pint of blood. He replied : "I think mortgage, and Dr. Webster said I suppos- ing with the police officers ; when Mr. we shall bleed some one to-morrow morn- ed he did, but I have not been over to the W. was gone, Mr. Littlefield went down ing, and I will save the blood." On Fri- Register of Deeds to see; he said this was and was gone, I should think, not more day morning, I went to the apothecary the first he had known of it; he had read than ten minutes. When he came back shop at the hospital, and the students said it in the Transcript; he said he was enga-that they had no blood, that they had bled ged to meet an unknown gentleman, and he burst out a crying; he did not go right nobody; I told Dr. W. about half-past e- he had come to see about it; he had been away, he could not; he then locked the leven o'clock on Friday, that we could to see Dr. Francis Parkman; he then went door and went to Dr. Biglow; Mr. Tren-cd anything to go to Dr. Bigelow first, cuttings of grape vines from his house; get no blood; he said he was sorry, as he away; when Dr. Webster spoke to me, holm came in, and went down and stayed and then come to me; enjoined strict se- it was Monday, the 26th; I brought in alget no blood; no said no was sorry, as no away, when Dr. redster opere to his, hour three injustes. He said it was no crecy upon him in case he made no dis- so a box and a bag of tan; the bag was know about the blood; I have no recollect his head up, he did not do so then, but look. mistake. (Witness was checked from gi-covery, and pledged myself to the same; about a foot and a half squire, like a soap tion of having any interview on that morn- ed down and appeared confused and agita- ving what he said.) I saw no bed clothes Furth Day's Proceedings.—Ephraim ing with Dr. Webster after the one 1 men-Littlefield, sworn—I am the Janitor of the Medical College, superintend the building, 23d, after I made his fire, swept the room, which way he went, but think it was tow- Fruit street place. Knew Mr. Littlefield. make the fires, sweep, &c.; I have been and went to set the room in order; behind ards Cambridge; on Monday I could not Knew Dr. Parkman. Took a note up to Janitor seven years; three winters ut Ma- the door of his laboratory and saw the get into his room to make up the fire; my Dr. P., from Mr. Littlefield, and left it at son Street College, & four at the new one; sledge hammer behind the door. It was wife told me; she told me that Dr. Samuel Dr. P.'s'house. It was the forepart of the I have known Dr. Webster 7 years; have usually in the laboratory. The handle Parkman had been there to see Dr. Web. week that the Dr. was missing. I dolivknown Dr. Parkman over twenty years; was about two feet long, of white oak, & ster; I asked how he got in, seeing that cred the note into the Dr.'s own hands. was present at an interview on Monday would weigh six or seven pounds; I never all the doors were locked; went up the John Hathaway called-I am engaged evening, Nov. 19, between Drs. Webster saw it in his back room, or any room, ex- laboratory stairs and saw Dz. Samuel at the Massachusetts Hospital. Keep the evening, Nov. 19, between Drs. Webster saw it in his back room, or any found, ex- habitation with which I unlocked the door; this and Parkman; I was in Dr. W's back pri- cept in his laboratory before. The ham- Parkman and Dr. Webster in the back medicines, as the apothecary. Mr. Little-the Sunday afternoon after the disappear- time I had, perhaps, misunderstood the vate room assisting him towards evening; mer was about as large round as half an room, they were talking about the old Dr. field applied to me for some blood the Dr. Webster had three candles burning; orange; rounded on both sides; I carried it Parkman; I overheard the conversation Thursday before Thanksgiving, for Dr. Dr. W. was looking at a chemical book down stairs into the laboratory and set it about some money. Webster. I fixed the day because there There was nothing more clicited in the was but one lecture more that week. Atten 1 the lectures, all of them.

stove stirring some water in which some- oratory; I have never seen anything of it balance of the evidence. Littlefield's cross examination was a bout to be commenced, when the court

SIXTH DAY, BOSTON, March 25. Fifth Day's Proceedings .- The cross

Miss Sarah Buzzell, sworn-Knows Mr. were elicited.

ternoon.

between four and five; I was sitting in the day of his arrest. kitchen ; Mr. Littlefield was lying down, and Mrs. L. was away; when the front about 4 o'clock, that he had told to door bell rung, and I went/to the door; as cers that every place in the co I could not get the door open, I told the been scarched except that, and gentleman if he would go round to the to penetrate the walls and other door, I would go down and call Mr. anything there. How day,) Dr. W. came and asked me if I ting away Dr. H.'s things, I came down as that ne was standing mere, that Dr. built down as that he was standing mere, that Dr. Built down, a the walls of the law could carry a note to Dr. P., and he added; and locked the front door. About fifteen Webster, murdered Dr. Parkman; I said, Littlefield. Hearned, afterwards, that the the walls of the law could carry a note to Dr. P., and he added; minutes mast & colock. Dr. Holmes went "for mercy's sake, what makes you think gentleman's name was Pettee. I went time before. I for that I must carry it up myself. I got a out; he is generally the last one to go out so?-never mention that thing again; or down and met Mr. Littlefield coming out feel any heat there have a feel any heat there a feel any heat there have a feel a feel any heat there have a feel a feel any heat there have a feel a feel any heat there are have a feel a feel any heat there are have a feel a feel a feel any heat there are have a feel a feel a feel any heat there are have a feel a feel a feel any heat there are have a feel a feel a feel any heat there are have a feel a feel a feel a feel a feel any heat there are have a feel a feel a feel a feel any heat there are have a feel a fe down and met Mr. Littlefield coming out feel any heat there Crossr of Physiological Anatomy, at Harvard on Friday afternoon saying, "what about College, in the city of Cambridge. Mr. the $20 bill" he said something about the Littlefield had an interview with me on city Marshal at Cambridge in connection Friday, at the College, at one o'clock. with this bill. I was acquainted slightly [The introduction of this conversation with the Professor at that time. I saw was objected to by the defence, but was Littlefield on Saturday, the day after the allowed to proceed by the Bench to test disappearance of Dr. Parkman; he was the relevancy of the subject matter of the talking with Mr. Kingsley. Nathaniel D. Saurin, sworn-I am exconversation.]

That he could not go into the street with. press man between Cambridge and Boston; out being told that Dr. P. was within the I have been in the habit of carrying things walls of the Medical College, and that he for Prof. Webster ; during the week after meant to dig to the privy yault and examine Friday, Nov. 23d, I remember bringing in it; I told him to go in, and if he discover- two bundles which I should call fagotswhen I came home that evening I found box; I brought them from Dr. Websters him (L.) at my place; don't know wheth-, house in Cambridge; Dr. Webster direcer W. used anatomical subjects in his de- ted me to leave them in Mr. Littlefield's cellar, and said to me, "that, I will take partment or not. Cross-examination of this witness de- them into the laboratory :" he never gave me such directions before ; I had carried G. W. Trenholme, Policeman-My things to the Medical College perhaps two beat was at the west front of the city, last hundred times before, I always loft them November, near the Medical College; in the laboratory below or above. I usunever knew Littlefield, the janitor of the ally found a key in Mr. Littlefield's kitch-College ; knew Prof. W.; saw Prof W. on en, with which I unlocked the door ; this ance of Dr. P.; I was standing talking Professor, and would set the things, into with Littlefield when he came up; he, (W) the laboratory; I tried the door and found said to me, "what about the $20 bill; "I it locked; I went into the kitchen to get told him I did not know anything about it; the key, but could not find it. I found both he then told the story of the Irishman of- doors of the laboratory locked; on Wed-The court adjourned over till Monday. fering the $20 bill to change for a toll of ensday, Nov. 28, I went there again; carone cent.

clined by defence.

ried two boxes there; the largest about Here witness said he was mistaken, two feet and a half long, and one and a

The court this morning proceeded to and said that he was talking with Mr. J. half wide and ten inches deep; the other the examination of the thirtieth witness for H. Blake, late City Marshal, instead of was one and a half feet square; the large Littlefield : 'W. camo up and spoke to Mr. one was empty; the other had something Blake, and said that the first he had heard in it; I left them, when I left on Monday, nd Mrs. Littlefield; is a connection of of the disappearance of Dr. P. was the in Mr. Littlefield's cellar; there was a Mrs. L.; visited them on the 16th of Noy. evening before; he said that he had read piece split off of the cover, and I saw inwent away the 27th; belong in Mediord; an account of it in a paper; Prof. Webster side a checked handkerchief; I saw there heard of Dr. P.'s disappearance in the af- said that on the day of his (Dr. Parkman's) the box and the grape vine I carried on disappearance, he had paid him $483 and Monday, but not the tan; I went to the city to tell his (Parkman's) friends; did Mor Witness-heard of it on Friday; I heard not see Prof. Webster during the interthem talking about it, on Friday afternoon view between that Sunday and the Satur Mr. L. told me on Friday afterne aly the small boy

Dr. John B. Jackson, called-I am Prof. Cross-examined.-Prof. W. accosted me