STEAMBOAT DISASTER NEAR BUFFALO.—The steamer Troy, from Sandusky, & other ports on Lake Erie, arrived off Buffalo, last Sunday week, and as the ice prevented her from going into the harbor, she steered for Black Rock to land her passengers. When just entering Niagara river, off the head of Black Rock pier, her boiler exploded with a terrible report, blowing a part of her upper machinery and sundry of her passengers, the most of whom were gathered upon her upper deck, overboard. As soon as the smoke and steam cleared away, it was perceived that her forward parts, immediately over her boilers, were a complete mass of ruins, & the people upon her presented a scene incapable of description. None in the cabin appeared to be materially injured, but of those who were on her deck and about her boilers, not one escaped without more or less injury. It is reported by the clerk that 12 to 15 are certainly killed, and it is feared that an examination of the wreck will discover more. Twelve dead bodies had been recovered at the last accounts, and many others were badly scalded.—Dr. Rial Wright, of Syracuse, was drowned, and it is supposed that a number more perished in the same way.

A GREEN ONE TAKEN IN AND DONE FOR.—A nice young man from Newport, Rhode Island, named William Heath, was done out of $50 as follows:—He met two beautiful young girls in the street, who asked him to beau them home. He willingly went with them to a house in Elm street and had a jollification. There was a dollar to pay the landlady for wine, and Heath generously offered to pay; and pulling out his wallet and finding nothing but a $50 note in it, he actually gave it to one of the girls to get it changed and bring him the balance. The nymph went, but as a matter of course never returned, causing the countryman an agony of suspense.—After having waited two hours, Heath went to the Police office and gave information, describing the girls so minutely that in a short time the officers succeeded in arresting them. They gave their names as Bridget Hanley and Maria Murphy; both are well known to the police. No portion of the money has been recovered, but they were both locked up in prison for doing his young man out of his money.

N. Y. Dispatch.

A Successful Swindle.—A few weeks since, the public treasury at Havanna was cheated out of the sum of $20,00, paid on a forged order. It appears that one of the clerks in the Admirality Office, obtained through his position there, information that an order for the above sum from the War Department in Spain upon the Treasury of Cuba, would be transmitted to the Admirality by some future vessel, and the Tresury received similar advice. Availing himself of this information, he forged an order upon it to the same effect, and forged also the signatures of several officials, through whose hands it would have passed if genuine. The rogue immediately after obtaining the money, made his escape by a vessel to Key West.

A Dog Express from the Selkirk Settlements.—The St. Paul (Minesota) Pioneer, has late dates from Pembina and Selkirk settlements, by the arrival of an express mail from thither in 18 days, the sled being drawn by dogs. The three dogs, having made 50 miles a day, some days, were very much fatigued at the end of their journey; and being fed, laid down in their harnesses for several hours and slept, but moving their feet while sleeping on their sides, as if they were still travelling. The sledge contained the mail, and provisions for the dogs and two men; there being no dwellings to stop at for many hundred miles. One of the men, half-breeds, travelled ahead of the dogs, and the other with a stick to drive them, and a rope to hold back the sledge down hill, came behind. The winter has been very severe but provisions plenty. Fish have been caught in immense quantities. The buffalo hunt was not very productive.—Provisions plenty and cheap at the Selkirk settlement. The only trouble is to get wheat ground, as all the mills are turned by wind.

Attempted Murder.—A public officer from Fayette county was in Pittsburgh, on Friday last, in search of a man accused of a singularly atrocious attempt on the life of a fellow creature. It appears that on the Saturday night previous, Col. Henry Kennedy, of Fayette county, was way-laid by a man named S. Brownfield, on the National road. He attacked him with a stone, beating him until he supposed life was extinct, when he left him. Kennedy was discovered before life was extinct, and measures were taken to restore him, when he gave the above account.

March 4, 1850.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

The Great Remedy for Consumption of the Lungs, Affections of the Liver, Asthma, Bronchitis, Pains or Weakness of the Breast or Lungs, and other affections of the Pulmonary Organs.
