WISTAR'S BALSAM is chiefly composed of [illegible] MOSS of ICELAND, and from [illegible] and WILD CHERRY of our own latitude. The great secret of its efficacy consists in the method by which these extracts are prepared. Such is the nature and simplicity of this medicine, so powerful in action, yet so mild, safe and pleasant in its operation, that it might be justly termed, "Nature's own prescription," and although a few years have elapsed since it was first made public, we can proudly say it has acquired a celebrity unprecedented by any medicine now in use, and is evidently destined to become the most popular and valuable medicine ever discovered.

Respectfully begs leave to inform the public generally that he has removed his Drug Store one door north of the Mansion House, on 2d street, directly opposite R. Shaw & co's. store, where he hopes by strict attention to business to secure a liberal portion of public patronage.

Patent Medicines, Drugs, Groceries, Confectionaries, Oils, and Paints and Dye-Stuffs, together with a fine assortment of Toys, Stationary, Perfumeries, and Fancy articles too numerous to mention.

His stock of Drugs and Patent Medicines consist in part of the following:

Husband's Magn'sia	Oils and Tinctures,

CONFECTIONARIES, &c.

His stock of Confectionaries and Perfumeries is the most extensive ever brought to this place and they were selected with the utmost care and quality.

Toys, etc.

Of Toys and Fancy Articles, why, the almost boundless limits of the Country Dollar would not begin to hold them.

A small lot of TEA and SUGAR, a very superior article, together with a few barrels of FISH, of good quality, which will be sold either by the quantity or retail.

In short, he has a little of everything in his line and no one will be undersold for cash and cash only.

THE BEST OF THE FAMILY JOURNALS.

NOW IS THE TIME!

The Saturday Gazette AND PARLOR JOURNAL.

The subscribers, on beginning the 12th volume of their newspaper, cannot but express their satisfaction with the patronage they have received, for the past year, since the enlargement. The Gazette now contains thirty-six columns of reading matter, which is from four to eight more than the weeklies generally; and being printed in new and handsome condensed letter, contains more matter than any two dollar Journal in the United States. It is not so much on the superior quantity of the contents, as on the quality that the subscribers pride themselves. A hasty recapitulation of points in which this journal excels its contemporaries will, therefore not be out of place here.

BEST CORPS OF CONTRIBUTORS.

From its commencement, the Gazette has been made up principally of original contributions in prose and verse, and not, as most of the weeklies are, of selections clipped from the country papers and each other. The subscribers of the Gazette always have fresh reading, therefore; and this from the very best pens the country affords. Some of our most eminent writers contribute to no other newspaper: among them we may name, the author of the "Bedott Papers," Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, T. Mackellar, and the author of "Lights and Shadows of a Country Parson's life." A partial list of our original contributors is subjoined.

Miss Eliza Leslie; Author of "Bedott Papers;" Mrs. Ann S. Stephens; Mrs. E. D. N. Southworth; Miss. M. J. McIntosh, Author of "Conquest and self Conquest;" Mrs. E. Oakes Smith; Mrs. Angele Hull; Fanny Forester, now Mrs. Judson; Edith May; T. A. Mackellar; T. S. Arthur; H. W. Herbert; Enna Duval; Author of "Lights and Shadows of a Country Parson's Life;" Mrs. Margaret Piggott; Mrs. E. C. McKinney.

In addition, a watch is kept on all the best articles of the English Magazines and such as are desirable, secured for us through an agent, in advance. In this way we obtained "Agnes Grey," by the author of "Jane Eyre," Wildfield Hall," &c. and in this way we have anticipated stories by James, Thacker, and others of the best English writers. In no case do we publish old English stories as original.

A LADIES' NEWSPAPER.

In another respect the Gazette differs from other weekly newspapers. Its fourth page is edited by Mrs. Joseph C. Neal; the result of which is to combine, with a high toned family and literary journal, a ladies' paper of the best character. Everything of importence to the sex—the latest books, the latest styles of dress, the changes of fashion and customs of society, new receipts, new charades, etc., are weekly chronicled. In addition to this, this department will contain original stories from the most accomplished female writers with hints on female education and manners. In fine, every thing that shall render the paper, both in its literary character and excellences of paper and printing peculiarly

A Saturday Parlor Companion.

This department we have no doubt will fill the vacuum long complained of, and ladies in the country have the advantage of a weekly chit-chat on matters of fashionable life with their own sex in cities.

Elegant and Appropriate Engravings, representing Battle Scenes, Incidents and Conspicuous Personages in Revolutionary History, Sea Scenes and Battles, together with original Maps and views of important Places and Events, are another feature.

LITERARY CRITICISM.

Our position as a weekly Gazette will enable us, to give understandingly, such rapid but candid and judicious notices of the literature of the day, as cannot fail to keep the reader fully enlightened on this important subject, at once furnishing food for thought and conversation, and indicating to the student where to turn, instead of frittering away his time in wading through the flood of publication which now emanates from the press.

DEPARTMENT FOR CHILDREN.

No family journal is complete without a well-edited department for children. In this respect the Gazette is unapproachable. Mrs. J. C. Neal who has charge of this department, enjoys a well-earned reputation of being one of the best writers for children in the United States. Her "Helen Merton's Trial," originally published in this journal, has been called by the highest critical authority, the most admirable book of its kind published for many years. This important department is entirely neglected by most weekly papers.—Childhood, is, however, the time when moral instruction is easiest imparted, and parents, in determining for what paper to subscribe, should give the preference to the Gazette, for this reason, if no other.

COMMERCIAL INFORMATION.

Men of business will find under our business head, that every effort will be used to keep them well advised as to the state of the markets in the Atlantic cities, showing the price of commodities, the condition of the money market, the rates of exchange, and other matters of interest in those engaged in commercial pursuits. Our markets are three days later than those of Philadelphia weeklies generally. Of

News, both Foreign and Domestic, no pains shall be spared to keep our patrons fully informed. The events of the day will be distinctly mirrored in our pages, with such comments as the circumstances shall require. News is obtained by telegraph up to the hour of going to press.

AGRICULTURAL.

To our agricultural friends we shall endeavor to make the Gazette a useful visitor by giving from time to time such notices of the advance of knowledge and improvements regarding their pursuits, as may seem to be advantageous. This department is under the charge of a practical farmer.

ARTHUR BELL, Tr[illegible]r.

March 4, 1850.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

The Great Remedy for Consumption of the Lungs Affections of the Liver, Asthma, Bronchitis, Pains or Weakness of the Breast or Lungs, and other affections of the Pulmonary Organs.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY is a fine HERBAL MEDICINE; composed chiefly of WILD CHERRY BARK and the genuine ICELAND MOSS (the latter imported expressly for this purpose,) the rare medical virtues of which are also combined by a new chemical process, with the extract of tar—thus rendering the whole compound the most certain and efficacious remedy ever discovered for CONSUMPTION OF THE LUNGS.

We are just in receipt of the following voluntary tribute to the curative power of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, from E. Hall, M. D., of Mount Clemens, Michigan, who is a physician of high standing, and an extensive Druggist:

MT. CLEMENS, Mich., Oct 29, 1849.

To the afflicted this may certify that Mrs. B. Roberts of this village, three or four weeks after confinement, was attacked with a violent cough, and great prostration, and seemed hastening to the grave with fearful rapidity. I advised her to use Wistars' Balsam of Wild Cherry—she did so, and with that valuable medicine alone, in the space of three or four weeks, was restored to health, and is now a living proof of the value of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

E. HALL,
Physician and Druggist.

Read on and be convinced still further of the remarkable virtues of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—

MESSRS. SANFORD & PARK—Gents:—As a matter of justice to you, and for the benefit of the public, I would offer the following statement of a cure effected by your medicine, known as Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. In the spring of 1847 my wife was severely attacked with Peripneumonia, or Pleurisy, which resulted in a deep seated pain in the side, accompanied with a severe cough; she was attended by some of the best physicians in Chicago, too but no purpose—for weeks she suffered, without relief, coughing incessantly night and day. I came to the conclusion that all the remedies known to the physicians could not help her, and was induced to try your Wild Cherry. I procured one bottle, and commenced using it according to directions; before it was all gone the cough stopped, and the pain in her side left her, and with the aid of another bottle she was restored to perfect health. In consideration of these circumstances, I would recommend it to the public as a valuable medicine.

Yours, respectfully,

R. N. GARRATT.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 8, 1849.

The following we have just received from Messrs. Fahl, McCracken & co, Agents for the sale of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry at Lancaster, Ohio.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I feel it my duty, as an act of kindness to the afflicted, to inform them what Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry has done for my daughter. There is many a parent who has given up a beloved son or daughter, as a prey to the fell destroyer Consumption. They have—as I have done—tried all the most skillful and eminent physicians within their reach, and all of the most popular remedies that seemed to hold out some hope for a continuance of life, without getting any relief.

To all such, who, like me, have been seeking with trembling hope for some remedy of real efficiency, I [illegible]
