

...to the recent alteration— gradually to bear him down, until the last December, when he took to his bed, which he never left until carried to his grave. During his last illness, the delicacies of the character of the food was most carefully and beautifully prepared. Perfectly aware of his real condition, his preparations for leaving the world were judiciously made; yet the hope of at least temporary recovery never forsok him. Of pain he was entirely free, and was even less troubled with cough than those in his situation generally are. He received the most careful treatment and kind nursing, and notwithstanding, his appetite was generally good, and his mind clear and buoyant, his strength gradually left him, and without a pang of suffering, or sigh of regret, he surrendered his spirit to his giver, rejoicing in the assurance that he was about to be rewarded with a crown of glory in Heaven.

FRESH ARRIVAL.

NEW GOODS

To the Citizens of Curwensville and surrounding country.

ISAAC SMITH

Has just received a choice selection of NEW GOODS of the latest styles.

Groceries, Boots & Shoes, Hats & Caps, Hardware, Cutlery, Crockery, Glass & Queensware, Nails, Books & Stationery, Oils and Paints, Cotton yarn &c.

I do not pretend to enumerate a list of such goods as I have, but only ask a call from persons wanting anything in my line. I have selected my stock for the convenience of the farmers and laborers, in which I respectfully invite their attention. I do not wish to produce any false impressions by advertising; I have determined to sell at lower prices than the same goods have been selling in this vicinity for cash or on time to punctual men and by this means hope to receive a share of public patronage.

ALSO

A large stock of READY MADE clothing, which was selected from the very best establishments in the city, for sale low for cash or country produce.

Patrons will be taken in exchange for goods at the market prices.

NEW YORK EVENING POST.

The New York Evening Post is the oldest Democratic paper in the State of New York, and one of the oldest in the United States. Its past history we venture to hope, will justify us in soliciting from our Democratic readers and fellow laborers a friendly interest in regard to a Journal which has seen some service in the cause of Democracy.

It is not for us perhaps to say how far the Evening Post is calculated to meet the want to which we have alluded.—Our readers are doubtless generally acquainted with its literary and political character. If its aim and influence are such as meet their approval, we trust they will find it in their way to contribute somewhat to its circulation.

To those who are unacquainted with its plan and character we beg to submit the following summary:

1. NEWS OF THE DAY, which we shall report with all the accuracy and fidelity in our power, including intelligence from foreign countries, political information, reports of elections, and notices of every occurrence of general interest.

2. PUBLIC DOCUMENTS, of general importance, reports, Messages, official communications &c.

3. DISCUSSIONS of Political Questions.—These we hope to be able to conduct in a spirit of fairness and courtesy, not descending to personalities or appeals to prejudice, yet always without any basis of personal interests, and with complete independence. We are Democrats in principle; we have embraced the Democratic creed from a strong conviction of its truth and are associated with the Democratic party because we find it striving in the main for objects which we cordially approve. We hold the great doctrines of free trade, of equality and sparing legislation, of the propriety of bringing public affairs as much as possible within the cognizance and management of small neighborhoods. We are opposed to the extension of slavery, and in favor of its restriction in every possible mode; we are enemies of all monopolies and of all legislation which seeks to create jobs for favorites, and to promote the interests of particular classes. The course of the Evening Post in regard to these subjects is well known, and its conductors may say with an allowable satisfaction that if the zealous support of these views for a long series of years they have never wavered through fear or interest.

4. THE MARKETS and Commercial Information, the proprietors have made arrangements for giving with accuracy and with the latest revisions of persons of intelligence in such matters.

5. LITERARY NOTICES, selections from the literature of the day, extracts from our best Magazines, popular and scientific, and a fair proportion of all that sort of miscellaneous reading which gives an entertaining character to a newspaper. With these materials we will endeavor to make the paper both interesting and useful to the reader.

TERMS.

The price of the NEW YORK WEEKLY EVENING POST is, for single copy payable in advance $1 00

For ELEVEN copies to one address $10 00

The price of the Semi-Weekly Evening Post is, for a single copy payable in advance $3 00

THE BEST OF THE FAMILY JOURNALS.

NOW IS THE TIME!!

The Saturday Gazette
AND PARLOR JOURNAL.

The subscribers, on beginning the 12th volume of their newspaper, cannot but express their satisfaction with the patronage they have received, for the past year, since the enlargement. The Gazette now contains thirty-six columns of reading matter, which is from four to eight more than the weeklies generally; and being printed in new and handsome condensed letter, contains more matter than any two dollar Journal in the United States. It is not so much on the superior quality of the contents, as on the quality that the subscribers pride themselves. A hasty recapitulation of points in which this journal excels its contemporaries will, therefore not be out of place here.

BEST CORPS OF CONTRIBUTORS.

From its commencement, the Gazette has been made up principally of original contributions in prose and verse, and not, as most of the weeklies are, of selections clipped from the country papers and each other. The subscribers of the Gazette always have fresh readings, therefore; and this from the very best pens the country affords. Some of our most eminent writers contribute to no other newspaper; among them we may name, the author of the "Bedot Papers," Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, T. Mackellar, and the author of "Lights and Shadows of a Country Parson's life." A partial list of our original contributors is subjoined.

Miss Eliza Leslie; Author of "Bedot Papers;" Mrs. Ann S. Stephens; Mrs. E. D. N. Southworth; Miss M. J. McIntosh, Author of "Conquest and self Conquest;" Mrs. E. Oakes Smith; Mrs. Angelle Hall; Fanny Forester, now Mrs. Judson; Edith May; T. A. Mackellar; T. S. Arthur; H. W. Herbert; Emma Duval; Author of "Lights and Shadows of a Country Parson's Life;" Mrs. Margaret Piggott; Mrs. E. C. McKinney.

In addition, a watch is kept on all the best articles of the English Magazines; and such as are desirable secured for us through an agent, in advance. In this way we obtained "Agnes Grey," by the author of "Jane Eyre," "Wildfield Hall," &c. and in this way we have anticipated stories by James, Thacker, and others of the best English writers. In no case do we publish old English stories as original.

A LADIES' NEWSPAPER.

In another respect the Gazette differs from other weekly newspapers. Its fourth page is edited by Mrs. Joseph C. Neal; the result of which is to combine, with a high toned family and literary journal, a ladies' paper of the best character. Everything of importance to the sex—the latest books, the latest styles of dress, the changes of fashion and customs of society, new receipts, new charades, etc., are weekly chronicled. In addition to this, this department will contain original stories from the most accomplished female writers with hints on female education and manners. In fine, every thing that shall render the paper, both in its literary character and excellences of paper and printing peculiarly

A Saturday Parlor Companion.

This department we have no doubt will fill the vacuum long complained of, and ladies in the country have the advantage of a weekly chat on matters of fashionable life with their own sex in cities.

Elegant and Appropriate Engravings, representing Battle Scenes, Incidents and Conspicuous Personages in Revolutionary History, Sea Scenes and Battles, together with original Maps and views of important Places and Events, are another feature.

LITERARY CRITICISM.

Our position as a weekly Gazette will enable us, to give understandingly, such rapid but candid and judicious notices of the literature of the day, as cannot fail to keep the reader fully enlightened on this important subject, at once furnishing food for thought and conversation, and indicating to the student where to turn, instead of frittering away his time in wading through the flood of publication which now emanates from the press.

DEPARTMENT FOR CHILDREN.

No family journal is complete without a well-edited department for children. In this respect, the Gazette is unappreciated. Mrs. J. C. Neal who headed the department, enjoys a wondrous reputation of being one of the best writers of children in the United States.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

The Great Remedy for Consumption of the Lungs, Affections of the Liver, Asthma, Bronchitis, Pain, or Weakness of the Breast of Women, and other affections of the Pulmonary Organs.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY is a fine HERBAL MEDICINE, compounded by WISTAR CHERRY BARK and the genuine FORLAND MOSE (the latter imported expressly for this purpose), the rare medicinal virtues of which are also combined with a new chemical process, with the extract of turpentine, thus rendering the whole compound the most certain and efficacious remedy ever discovered for

CONSUMPTION OF THE LUNGS.

We are just in receipt of the following voluntary tribute to the curative power of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, from E. Hall, M. D., of Mount Clemens, Michigan, who is a physician of high standing, and an extensive Druggist.

Mr. CLEMENS, Mich., Oct. 29, 1849.

To the afflicted this may certify that Mrs. B. Roberts of this village, three or four weeks after confinement, was attacked with a violent cough and great prostration, and seemed hastening to the grave with fearful rapidity. I advised her to use Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—she did so, and with that valuable medicine alone, in the space of three or four weeks, was restored to health, and is now a living proof of the value of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

E. HALL,
Physician and Druggist.

Read on and be convinced still further of the remarkable virtues of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—

Messrs SANFORD & PARK—Gents.—As a matter of justice to you, and for the benefit of the public, I would offer the following statement of a cure effected by your medicine, known as Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. In the spring of 1847 my wife was severely attacked with Pertussis, or Pleurisy, which resulted in a deep seated pain in the side, accompanied with a severe cough; she was attended by some of the best physicians in Chicago, but no purpose—she weeks she suffered, without relief, coughing incessantly night and day. I came to the conclusion that all the remedies known to the physicians could not help her, and was induced to try your "Wild Cherry." I procured one bottle, and commenced using it according to directions; before it was all gone the cough stopped, and the pain in her side left her, and with the aid of another bottle she was restored to perfect health. In consideration of these circumstances, I would recommend it to the public as a valuable medicine.

Yours, respectfully,
R. N. GARRATT.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 6, 1849.

The following we have just received from Messrs. Fall, McCracken & Co., Agents for the sale of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry at Lancaster, Ohio.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I feel it my duty, as an act of kindness to the afflicted, to inform them that Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry has done for my daughter. There is many a parent who has given up a beloved child or daughter, as a prey to the fell destroyer Consumption. They have—as I have done—tried all the most skillful and eminent physicians with their reach, and all of the most popular remedies that seemed to hold out some hope for a continuance of life, without getting any relief.

To all such, who are afflicted with Consumption, I would recommend Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

There is many a parent who has given up a beloved child or daughter, as a prey to the fell destroyer Consumption. They have—as I have done—tried all the most skillful and eminent physicians with their reach, and all of the most popular remedies that seemed to hold out some hope for a continuance of life, without getting any relief.

To all such, who are afflicted with Consumption, I would recommend Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

AGRICULTURAL.

To our agricultural friends we shall endeavor to make the Gazette a useful visitor by giving from time to time such notices of the advance of knowledge and improvements regarding their pursuits, as may seem to be advantageous. This department is under the charge of a practical farmer.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

The Great Remedy for Consumption of the Lungs, Affections of the Liver, Asthma, Bronchitis, Pain, or Weakness of the Breast of Women, and other affections of the Pulmonary Organs.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY is a fine HERBAL MEDICINE, compounded by WISTAR CHERRY BARK and the genuine FORLAND MOSE (the latter imported expressly for this purpose), the rare medicinal virtues of which are also combined with a new chemical process, with the extract of turpentine, thus rendering the whole compound the most certain and efficacious remedy ever discovered for

CONSUMPTION OF THE LUNGS.

We are just in receipt of the following voluntary tribute to the curative power of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, from E. Hall, M. D., of Mount Clemens, Michigan, who is a physician of high standing, and an extensive Druggist.

Mr. CLEMENS, Mich., Oct. 29, 1849.

To the afflicted this may certify that Mrs. B. Roberts of this village, three or four weeks after confinement, was attacked with a violent cough and great prostration, and seemed hastening to the grave with fearful rapidity. I advised her to use Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—
