ills

the

the

ions

PLAINTS:

red!

KEMAN OF

rove, beyond sa and same TRED, which

mplaint

No paper will be sent to those who ly in advance after the expiration of the OF All letters on business connected with the office, to receive attention, must be oost paid.

Death in the Eye:

A OD THE DUEL ON HORSE BACK.

Colonel Bill Borlin was the generalissi- the corners of his mouth wore a wild, res- horses were bathed foam, the riders mo of the Texan Lynchers. He well de-served the title which he had won by ma-opposite of pliancy and fear. in courage. His biography in itself was more thrilling than a novel, willer than the wildest romance; and the very first sed with the bold announcement—"I will pled, halting, to his eby—stoops, and prise, at the humble appearance of the manner of the country which is inspiration enough.

The colonel cannot stal yet he is not inspiration enough.

They stopped at last at Mrs. Murray's little store. Frank looked, with some surtillar. It belongs to the class of vestures pled, halting, to his eby—stoops, and prise, at the humble appearance of the little store. It have been a country which is itself only when you see the women.

They stopped at last at Mrs. Murray's little store. Frank looked, with some surtillar. It belongs to the class of vestures pled, halting, to his eby—stoops, and prise, at the humble appearance of the little store. It have been supported by the class of vestures pled, halting, to his eby—stoops, and prise, at the humble appearance of the little store. It have been supported by the class of vestures pled, halting, to his eby—stoops, and prise, at the humble appearance of the little store. It have been supported by the class of vestures pled, halting, to his eby—stoops, and prise, at the humble appearance of the little store. It have been supported by the class of vestures pled, halting, to his eby—stoops, and prise at the humble appearance of the little store. It have been supported by the class of vestures pled, halting, to his eby—stoops and prise at the humble appearance of the little store. It have been supported by the class of vestures pled the little store. It have been supported by the class of vestures pled the little store is the women. their force and fullness, the two essential elements of his character—the ferocious ardor of his appetite for revenue, and the ardor of his appetite for revenge, and the iron pertinacity of his indomitable will.—

"Then, Miss Nancy, take care of your musters also his expirinenergies—fires iron pertinacity of his indomitable will.—

"Then, Miss Nancy, take care of your musters also his expirinenergies—fires iron pertinacity of his indomitable will.—

"And that charming girl," he said, "as-within the century known in sequestered iron pertinacity of his indomitable will.—

"Then, Miss Nancy, take care of your musters also his expirinenergies—fires iron pertinacity of his indomitable will.—

"Then, Miss Nancy, take care of your musters also his expirinenergies—fires iron pertinacity of his indomitable will.—

"Then, Miss Nancy, take care of your musters also his expirinenergies—fires iron pertinacity of his indomitable will.—

"Then, Miss Nancy, take care of your musters also his expirinenergies—fires iron pertinacity of his indomitable will.—

"Then, Miss Nancy, take care of your musters also his expirinenergies—fires iron pertinacity of his indomitable will.—

"Then, Miss Nancy, take care of your musters also his expirinenergies—fires iron pertinacity of his indomitable will.—

"Then, Miss Nancy, take care of your musters also his expirinenergies—fires iron pertinacity of his indomitable will.—

"Then, Miss Nancy, take care of your musters also his expirinenergies—fires iron pertinacity of his indomitable will.—

"Then, Miss Nancy, take care of your musters also his expirinenergies—fires iron pertinacity of his indomitable will.—

"Then, Miss Nancy, take care of your musters also his expirinenergies—fires iron pertinacity of his indomitable will.—

"Then, Miss Nancy, take care of your musters also his expirinenergies—fires iron pertinacity of his indomitable will.—

"Then, Miss Nancy, take care of your musters also his expirinenergies—fires iron pertinacity of his indomitable will.—

"Then, Miss Nancy, take care of your musters also his expirite iron pertinacity of his iron pertinacity of his iron pertinacity of his iron pertinacity of h At the age of twenty, he pursued the assassin of his brother, all the way from CaroEvery heart save one shuddered. The eyes!" arrangements for the event, that aided by numerous relays of swift horses, he effect- rupt the business of the court!" exclaimed last.—Noah's Sunday Tis. ed his escape safely to the south. The a- Judge Fvans, with the grave majesty of a chievement cost him ten thousand dollars. king.

From this time forward his life was one "My name is Colonel Bill Borlin: but long war. Almost every month in the most persons call me Death in the Eyes," your saw him engaged in some fatal duel was the answer.

-fatal only to others, never hurtful to him while each week witnessed the occurrence of casual affrays, often as bloody as his more regular combats. He was the Napoleon of the knife and pistol. But the speakable fury. truth of impartial history impels me to record, that this man, so fearful in his deeds, the smile on his lips, before pale sunshine,

"Who? T whose right arm recked with gore to the was now a wreath of lurid fire. elbow, was not commonly the aggressorin his countless quarrels. Often the friends of those he had vanquished in fair fight as- ellist, grinding his teeth like a raging wild saulted him, from motives of revenge .- beast. The fame of his prowess provoked the vain joalousy of others. He had acquired was the calm rebly. the perilous reputation of a matchless hero—the ardent, the desperate, the ambiro—the ardent, the desperate, the ardent the course of the ardent the arden Every young Hercules longed to kill the lion, so as to clothe himself in his skin, and thus was Borlin forced to maintain an interminable war. It is so in all professions. There can be no piece in high places storm, hail, and thunder must break around the mountain's brow. This duellist was one of the earliest settlers in Eastern Texas, where he became the chief of the lynching party. In his he might have openly defied the officers of the law, had such been his pleasure; but hts shrewd and far-seeing sagneity adopted past offences. and intelligent class of citizens began to change the current of opinion in Harrison, so that in the county election the friends of order, by a slight majority, gained their candidate for sheriff. This was a terrible blow to the Lynchors, as it deprived them of their sure vantage of packing juries; and to increase their danger, at this unpropicious crisis,a new judge was also appointed. The old faction however, did not despair. Joyous—brilliant as the sunbeam that kis—to see people, in this country, talking of cognize his acquaintance."

They were still numerous; thoroughly arm—sed it. The multitude stood ground in the ed, and desperadoes to a man, and determined at the first court to master all their strength, so as to control and overawe their proceedings. tall, slender, extremely handsome, and levelled and fired.

At the instant the Judge urged his horse dressed with the most finical taste—his fine.

At the instant the Judge urged his horse the most finical taste—his fine.

At the instant the Judge urged his horse the most finical taste—his fine.

At the instant the Judge urged his horse the most finical taste—his fine.

At the instant the Judge urged his horse the most finical taste—his fine.

At the instant the Judge urged his horse the most finical taste—his fine.

At the instant the Judge urged his horse the most finical taste—his fine.

At the instant the Judge urged his horse the most finical taste—his fine.

to the man, and less to the clothing he would charge was repeated with like results half for held from he come a dozen times, till their fire arms were exclusion for there was a strange light in the hausted, save a small pistol in the pocket wish to gut the

A WEEKLY PAPER: DEVOTED TO TERATUE, AGRICULTURE, MORALITY, AND FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE.

Volume I.

Clearfield, Pa., June 29, 1850.

Number 48.

went and came at irregular intervals, like saddle. the play of lightning in a summer cloud, The last sweep of was terrific. The ceived Kact when close upon her.

incredible skill in the use of all sorts of murderous Weapons, that it might be pronouneed virtual suicide to even to think of eneed virtual suicide countering him, so rapid his motions, so —stern, ringing, like the accents of a to each at the same int, uttering itself for she and Hastings were almost as intimerring his mortal aim. The terrible commander on parade. Having glanced in those wild cries—lls, like nothing mate as brother and sister, cognoined of "Death in the Eye," told rapidly over the legal definitions and pender truly the market which he always fired—a alties of crime, he proceeded to descant on those wild cries—lls, like nothing mate as brother and sister, "I shall be pleased if you will. Only carthly, but shricking vage, demoniac. "I shall be pleased if you will. Only truly the market which he always fired—a alties of crime, he proceeded to descant on the flew—they is straight onwards." thank he never missed—while such was his the responsibilities of juries to aid in its —they swerved not top right nor to the and I are used to having sense talked to ustonishing quickness that his antagonist suppression. His soul appeared to catch left—and they met life collision of ad- us, and, if you don't acquit yourself credusually fell without pulling a trigger. An electric fire at the theme; his voice borrowenemy stood no better chance by resorting to the sword or bowie knife, against one eyes literally blazed with that strange light in whose hands the flash of steel was like. to the sword or bowie kinte, against one sword or bowie kinte, against one in whose hands the flash of steel was like —the wild expression grew terrible on his lightning—as swift, as mighty to slay—one who appeared to surpass all other men whose hands the flash of steel was like a bow, and secured by the same ribbon. The men we see walking a despair." The men we see walking a bout the streets are the ordinary persons bout the streets are the ordinary persons induce him to talk his best; for the sweet induce him to talk his best; for th as much in strength as in activity—a giant horrors of lawless anarchy till the very its blood, unconquerably all its bruises. emotion of the heart was reflected, was

"But in law you have another name,"

"You shall pay dearly for that word er live within the week!" fairly shouled the duher."

challenge me," said Evans.

"And I accept," answered Evans.

" Name your seconds."

"We will flight without any."

factonishment

fered to interfere, for all saw that such at- may be as we'l born as they are; I never marry for wealth." ted his own case to the grand jury, sure of a triumphant acquitted by his friends on to the medler. One half hour afterwards, the parties met on the little prai- man, riding a beautiful lbrse, passed, and ed on her old school-mate Emma. er turn against him in future, he would be able to plead effectual verdicts in bar of all all consent beth actual to the same and the s At length the time arrived which the edge of the timber on opposite sides.—

"Dear me," said she, "how glad I am At length the time arrived which the colonel had so long anticipated. A wealthy colonel had so long anticipated a bagged book. but of opposite colors, that of the judge Murray! He would not have noticed being white as a snow cloud, while the either of us again." colonel's was black and glossy as the wing Kate Villiers curled her pretty lip in of a raven. The features of the riders in scorn, as she replied, that race of death, presented very differsome face of the judge was gay, smiling, continued, "It vexes me leyond patience he'll find out the 'old families' won't re-handkerchief, as the signal that he was in ble farmer. Take our richest families!— ridiculous notions of the mere 'parvenue.' second Monday in September, 1842, the the act of starting; and swift as arrows A century ago they were poor, while the It happens, too, that Mary has good blood, from the bow, terrible as balls from the real old gentry of that day are now gen- as you would call it. She is the grandnew juage took his sear on the bench.— cannon's mouth, the two horsemen, with erally beggared. Who was Astor ! A daughter of a signer of the Declaration, He was a stranger from the west, whose an name alone had transpired, and whose appearance, at first, inspired the desperadoes with hope, and the friends of order with with energing desterity and desterity and daughter of a signer of the Declaration, poor German lad. Who was Girard?—

A daughter of a signer of the Declaration, poor German lad. Who was Girard?—

A A French cabin-boy. What was Abbot if we have any at all."

Then it is on that account he marries with surerising desterity and daughter of a signer of the Declaration, poor German lad. Who was Girard?—

A French cabin-boy. What was Abbot if we have any at all."

"Then it is on that account he marries with hope, and the friends of order with mry steps of his anemy, the equation maned the friends of order with mry steps of his anemy, the equation maned the friends of order with mry steps of his anemy, the equation maned the friends of order with mry steps of his anemy, the equation maned the friends of order with mry steps of his anemy, the equation maned the friends of order with mry steps of his anemy, the equation maned the friends of order with mry steps of his anemy, the equation of Evans was a young man of twenty-two—loud tones.—'Now take care of your eyes!' Webster, Cass and Benton, all rose from gers flashing with rings, and his person to an evolution, as if bounding over a wall, themselves." adorned in the most gaudy manner. His and the bullet aimed for his eye struck tha . A few days after, as Kate and her acin curls around his shoulders, and the sweet off without harm. Continuing his former met Miss Murray, who, unconscious of then, inquires less supercitiously about on the met Miss Murray, who, unconscious of the met Miss Murray, who is the met Miss Murray who is th smile of complacent vanity beaming on his velocity, he passed the colonel within three offence, stopped to converse with Kate.— new acquaintance. features, gave him an aspect almost ludi- feet, discharging his weapons at the other's Emma was evidently uneasy, the more so breast, but inflicting only a slight wound; as her keen eye detected Frank Hastings crously feminine.

Colonel Bill Borlin gazed on this apparation with inessable contempt, and whis side of the prairie, and renewed their headthem. Politeness he Brown for Delta, it all our own way, as Houston has kindly but passed, almost touching each other, and disgrace of again both fired as they passed, each drawing of a "thread". If the colonel had paid more attention a stream of blood from his factor. sent us Miss Nancy," both fired as they passed, each drawing of a "thread". If the colonel had paid more attention a stream of blood from his foe. The same ma calle a fexage vivid blue eyes of the stranger-a light that of the colonel; and et, both kept their

WHO IS SHE

BY ELLEN ASH'M.

"Mary Murray, you sa_and, pray, who is sho?"

These words were addesed by one young lady to another, in ference to an acquaintance to whom oncof them had

Mary Murray is more leautiful more ac- poverty. He could never have entertain- originally it was. The name of the coscomplished, and more aminable too, than ed an affection for her, if she had not been tume is saya-manta. half my school-mates."

cit consent, both actuated by the same notice from one of the ichest and most Frank Hastings and Mary Murray.

"Frank Hastings is to sensible to be she is so well fitted to adorn." ent types of expression. The colonel's affected by such a thing, I fancy. But, if stern, lowering, awful; but the hand- And warming with natural indignation, she chooses to disgrace himself, let him; but The mantillas, reversing the effect of our the leg accordingly was full, because its grove, almost terrified at the scene about of a hundred, there is scarcely one that is "You know better. Mr. Hastings is, himnot descended, and at no great distance, self, a member of one of the 'old families' Suddenly the colonel waved: a white from some honest mechanic or respecta- we have; and being such, is above all the

Frank Hastings, mountime, came sauntering idly down the street, and only per-

"Good morning," he said, bowing, his The grand jury being called and sworn, as madly as over, without crific cries, Miss Villiers, and allow me to accompany the wildest romance; and the very first sed with the bold announcement—"I will pled, halting, to his chy-stoops, and prise, at the humble appearance of the

I was half in love with her before, and it lingers still on the verge of the Penintriumph-" I told you take care of your lina to Canada and shot him dead at the dinner table of a tavern in Quebec: yet such had been the cunning of his previous such had been the cunning of his previous are represented by the current of the current for the curr "Who are you that thus dares to inter-colonel was "Death in the Eye!" to the fashion—gilded, conceited butterflies like serge, two yards long by one broad. troduce me regularly."

poverty; but she had not dreamed for an pet of about six inches in width, lined But no, as she hastily thought over the face. Encasing the person from the waist and any feet at all. This production of cache who comes of cache who comes round the lift they had any feet at all. This production of cache who comes round the lift they had any feet at all. This production of cache who comes round the lift they had any feet at all. good qualities of each, she chipped her upward, it is an admirable protection a-

"Who? The daughter of Vidow Murana, and again, and again, Frank went, and, after the first two interviews, always with er lived is Mary, too—you ght to know out Kate. He was noble-hearted, intel-Backed by such authority, I may venture her."

amiable and intelligent; nor, perhaps, c- The mantilla is the manta narrowed, two colors which the Spanish woman most "Well, I can tell you one think, if you wen if her parents had been unworthy; loosened from the waist and listened on affect—the colors of their gorgeous stand-that 'thread and needle woman's' daugh- a bagged hood, ter?"

"Pshaw !" said Kate, contemptuously.

ried, Kate being led to the ultar on the same the want of clo long their of a bright golden color, waving silver pommel of his saddle, and glanced quaintance were walking together, they day. Emma has learnt a lesson, and, since

FROM URQUHART'S TRAVELS IN SPAIN

The milliners of Paris, it is a common saying, have accomplished what the arms line sense struggled to uphold. Alas! for the diginty of manhood ;-it is the tailors, not the milliners of Paris, who have triumphed where German insolence, Bourbon fraud, and imperial victories alike had failed.

Spain lives only in the peasantry, and in that sex which an Eastern sage has an that sex which an Eastern said is "the first to hope and the last to like a bow, and secured by the same rib-

"And that charming girl," he said, "as- within the century known in sequestered body may be of any color. They are your friend Emma. You must take mc Three cords are run through it lengthto Miss Murray's some evening, and in- ways at one edge; by these it is bound and puckered round the waste: it is then Kate had known Frank too well to sup-turned up like a petticoat over the head produced disappointment that only recentpose he would despise Mary, because her and shoulders, and is gathered in the hand mother had been reduced to comparative upon the breast. In front there is a laprequaintance to whom oncof them had hands and cried, gainst wind, rain and sun. One eyo only ust bowed.

"Who? The daughter of Vidow Murach of the control o lectual, graceful, and refined; and Mary to say that it is not without its ostensible trophized the artiste thus "Go out into beast.

"There is no time like the present," of widow Murray, who kips a perty paid to her. Indeed, after some maident was the calm rebly.

"Now?" interrogated Borlin, as if her to associate withing side to associate withing side to associate withing's kitching and perty paid to her are timed; and attractions of concealment. The three is no time like the present," of widow Murray, who kips a perty paid to her. Indeed, after some maident and attractions of concealment. The Turkish yasmac conceals the face; the Turkish yasmac conceals the face; the indignation at seeing this hideous petticoat the earlige shrouds the person; the mantal thing will be to associate withing's kitching will be to associate withing's kitching will be to associate withing and long petticoat threat and needle stere! We, the next because the face; the mantal thing will be to associate withing's kitching will be to associate withing and long petticoat threat and needle stere! We, the next because of the devoted suit he beauties as well as its revelations of concealment. The trophized the artiste thus:—"Go out into the streets with mantilla and long petticoat threat and needle stere! We, the next because the face; the indignation at seeing this hideous petticoat imposed on Spaniards, who, as she said, the present of the said threat and long petticoat the artiste thus:—"Go out into the artiste thus:—"Go out into the streets with mantilla and long petticoat the streets to But, in this county, Emmit is merit Frank was too sensible to regard the the women of Malta is of the same dethat makes the rank," replied the other, mere accessories of fortune. Perhaps, in- scription. The petticoat being also black "I do challenge you!" thundered Bor- "Here, you know, we have no distocracy. deed, he loyed Mary the better for her that the dress appears all of one piece, as

"Well, I can tell you one think, if you wen if her parents had been unworthy; toosened from the waist and instence on another and blood.

"Well, I can tell you one think, if you wen if her parents had been unworthy; toosened from the waist and instence on another are two kinds. The ard, those of gold and blood.

The terms? asked Borlin, with signs keep up your acquaintarce with ler, you'll but all things else he considered comparathe head. There are two kinds. The ard, those of gold and blood. be cut by all genteel people. Do you tively indifferent. Himself accustomed, mantilla de tiro is that worn by the peas-er! The manima is not spoken of as a piece blue, by white "Yes! and a happy couple they will of dress that fits well or ill. Such a lady, kle and foot. make. Mary will now have the wealth they say, wears her mantilla well, just as The old Spanish shoe is very low, and if they were speaking of a ship carrying scarcely held at all at the hoel: like the the is so wen inted to adorn.

"I shan't visit her," said Emma, pettish- her colors. The port of a spanish lady slipper of the Easterns, it required the acly. "She's a nobody. If Mr. Hastings is, indeed, like the bearing of a ship.— tion of the toes to hold it on. once freedom and dexterity. The man- figure, that at Rome the models, male and tilla, fan, castanet, guitar and dance- female loose their pension if they wear a which last is not here the business of the legs alone-keep the arms always busy. The head is disencumbered of bonnet, cap, ribbons, and curls; honce that grace of the Spanish women, which all recogist the fan. Yet how supplied by nize and none clin describe, for mere at least, ales with problet Ass and fidelity. form or feature does not explain it.

I need not say that beneath a mantilla there are no curls; nor need I add, that where neither bonnets nor caps are worm and the head is always exposed, the bair

PRICES OF ADVERTISING:

months 20 0 30

Books, Jobs and Blanks Of every description, printed in the very best ste and on the shortest notice, at the COUNTRY DO LAR Office .

was called "Tyrian." The Jewesses Costume of the Women of Spain. wear their hair bound upon the head in a very elaborate manner, with feathers, a cushion, and handkerchief, the Tyrian be ing all opened and exposed. I find that AND MOROCCO.

I am concurrently using the past and present tenses, referring at one moment to the spot where I am; at the next to the times of Hiran and Solomon: but, in fact, they are so intermingled it is impos sible to disserve the scriptural descriptions and the things themselves. -

The other style is mano. The front hair parted, is plaited on each side into one plait, then rolled as a wheel upon the temple, and fastened by a hair pin. The back hair is gathered light, and secured by a ribbon. It is then divided into two parts and plaited; these are turned up large rose of variously colored ribbon, which is sometimes used to set it off.-It is placed on the crown of the head: from it hang two tassals of gold or silver, lace or embroidery.

There is no gown of a piece; the cosout of doors, covered by the mantilla; like the mi jambe with weights round to keep it down. In a discussion on these subjucts with Spanish ladies, an English gentleman maintained, on the authority of Murry's new "Guide Book," which had come out, and which had been looked ly the ladies of Cadiz had taken to show, their feet : that formerly they wore their petticoats so long that you could not tell and anger. A Gaditana mentioned that having returned in 1823 from Paris to Madrid in the wake of the French army, bringing her mantilla with her, she sent for a milliner to order the other parts of the Spanish dresses would do, for that

The petticoat of the peasants in Andalusia is yellow, of a homely but excellent wollen stuff, and bordered with red, the

"On horseback, in the little prairie west think the Livingstons Harrisons, and from his carliest years, to fashionable so- antry; it is of black serge trimmed with to her foot and shoe than to her hair: of the village, one half hour from this, each lawrences will come by your parties, if ciety, he knew its exact value; and he velvet. It is worn high on the head, and from below the saga comes forth the armed with as many brings and sixtle as a received with as many brings and sixtle as a received with as many brings and sixtle as a received with as many brings and sixtle as a received with as many brings and sixtle as a received with as many brings and sixtle as a received with as many brings and sixtle as a received with as many brings and sixtle as a received with as many brings and sixtle as a received with as many brings and sixtle as a received with as many brings and sixtle as a received with as many brings and sixtle as a received with as many brings and sixtle as a received with as many brings and sixtle as a received with a r was accustomed to say that "worth, not round the face. The second, the costume plump leg in its croasless stocking. The own county of Harrison, he possessed armed with as many knives and pistols as they are to meet shop gils there!"

was accustomed to say that "worth, not round the face. The second, the costume plump leg in its croasics stocking. The second, the cost in the second stocking is constituted by the second stocking in the second stocking is constituted by the second stocking is fending a motion in court.

Not one but the chief actors in this extraordinary seeme uttered a syllable, or offered to interfere, for all saw that such at least ware. I power

Nate vimers, with spirit "But que thing Mary, on her part, loved Frank for his is of sik, rich and sun, plain or nowered, naving been mere as a clint, was applied and differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a and differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a and differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a sun differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a sun differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a sun differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a sun differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a sun differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a sun differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a sun differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a sun differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a sun differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a sun differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a sun differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a sun differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a sun differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a sun differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a sun differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a sun differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a sun differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a sun differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a sun differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened female figure, with a sun differs from the other by having lace-bedizzened fe About three months after the day on silk is fastened to the crown of the head; ning. If the wise man was bewitched by less gathered up. It is secured in windy nim Holosernes "ravished" by the sight "Who do you think is going to be mar- weather against the cheek by the tip of of Judith's sandal. But the sandal must "What!" exclaimed Emma, pale with cd to an unmeaning scarf or a tippet; yet of ribbon that held the soul itself. Spain mortification, for she had assiduously sou't this is now become the fashion. The is still the country of the sandal, you may The mantilla is not spoken of as a piece blue) by which it is secured round the an-shoe with a thick sole.

There still wants something to complete the Spanish costumes, or pechaps I might say the Spanish womanconverted on the service Problemotary's