

THE DOLLAR.

Clearfield, Pa., July 5, 1850.

Proceedings of the Whig State Convention. The proceedings of the Whig State Convention—the important portion of the proceedings—will be found in this paper.

This being anniversary week, and one of our hands being absent, we either had to slight our paper, or work all day on the memorable Fourth. We preferred the former.

We stand Corrected.

The Elk County Advocate corrects us, and removes all doubts, about electing a Senator this fall, by coolly informing us that Clearfield will be in reality, unrepresented in the Senate both next winter and the winter following; while at the same time the district, as formed by the late apportionment has two Senators—Mr. Ives, of Potter, whose term expires with the next Legislature, and Mr. Gouvseux, of Tioga, who has two years yet to serve. We will therefore elect the first Senator in this district in 1852.

THE FOURTH.

The anniversary of our National Independence was appropriately celebrated by the Teachers and Scholars, connected with the various Sabbath Schools in this vicinity. The day was pleasant, and every means adopted to make the occasion agreeable to all concerned.

More Danger to the Union.

By the late news from Santa Fe, in New Mexico, we learn that the Military Governor of the district, Lieut. Moore, by proclamation, called upon the people to elect delegates to a Convention to form a State Constitution and apply for admission into the Union. The delegates were accordingly elected, the Convention held, and a constitution drawn up and submitted to the people. This movement will no doubt cause a deal of trouble. Texas, as annexed to the United States, claims to the Rio Grand—that is, all the territory lying east of that river, and a large portion of the territory of New Mexico is embraced in this claim of Texas. By the terms of the act of annexation the additional States to be formed out of Texas may or may not have Slavery, as the people may determine. By the Constitution lately adopted in New Mexico Slavery is positively prohibited.

This is to be more regretted, counting as it does at the very moment that the Southern people are highly excited by the threats of Northern agitators of the Slave question. It is to be hoped, however, that it may have the effect of hurrying the compromise through Congress, and thus put a final stop to the evil work.

26th Congressional District.

It will be seen by the proceedings of the Democratic County Meeting, held in Indiana, which are published in his paper, that the fixing of the time of holding the District Convention for nominating a candidate for Congress is submitted to the Democracy of Clearfield county. The time is fast approaching that the candidates should be decided upon, so that the people may have a fair opportunity of canvassing their respective districts. A meeting of the Standing Committee of this county should be held immediately.

Mail Robbers Convicted.

Marshal Ives passed through this place last week, having in charge two prisoners, whom he was conveying to the Western Penitentiary. The one was an ex-Postmaster in Susquehanna county, and was found guilty at the late U. S. Court at Williamsport of purloining money from the Mail. The other was a good looking young man, named Gearheart, formerly a clerk in the Post-office at Danville, Pa., and the same lad who escaped from Mr. Ives a few weeks ago at Howardville, in Centre county. They were both sentenced for ten years.

An attempt was made on last Friday to burn the Central railroad bridge across the Juniata, above Lewisstown. The fire was discovered before any serious injury was done.

The statement published in another column, of Dr. Webster having confessed to the killing of Dr. Parkman is not confirmed by yesterday's mail.

Democratic Meeting in Indiana County.

At a Democratic meeting held at the Court-house, in the Borough of Indiana, in Indiana county, on Tuesday evening the 25th of June, 1850. ARCHIBALD DAVIS Esq., was chosen President, and JOSEPH ANDERSON and ADAM LOWRY Vice Presidents, Edward Nixon and Dr. Thomas Murry Secretaries. The object of the meeting having been stated to be for the purpose of appointing Conferees, to meet others from the different counties in this Congressional and Senatorial District, to put in nomination a candidate for representative in Congress, and also a candidate for the Senate of this State—it was thereupon on motion

Resolved, That the Hon. JOSEPH THOMPSON, and MAJ. FRANCIS LAIRD jr. be appointed Congressional Delegates for this Congressional District for this county, to meet the Conferees of the other counties of the District at such time, and place, as shall be designated by the Conferees of Clearfield county.

Letter from a Friend in Washington.

THE BOUNTY LAND BILL. WASHINGTON, June 25, 1750. DEAR SIR:—The Bounty Land Bill passed the House to-day. It is a good bill, with one exception. I think that 40 acres of land is too small for three months' service. It is too small for a farm, and will not sell advantageously.

The whigs, with some honorable exceptions, opposed the bill; while all the democrats, with the exception of three, gave it their support.

The whigs tried to defeat the bill by adding obnoxious amendments, that would weigh down the bill; but the democrats voted them down as fast as they were offered.

I thought it strange that a bill that was calculated to do justice to a brave and meritorious class of our people, should meet with opposition from any quarter.

The patriot who, in the hour of danger, leaves his home and family to serve his country, deserves the highest reward; and the representative, who is the servant and agent of the people, does not perform his duty if he refuses that reward.

The whole appropriation will amount to about fourteen millions of acres, and the State of Illinois has more public lands yet within her limits than will supply the appropriation.

There has been too much time consumed this session in debate. If Congress were to speak less, and act more, it would be better. If California were admitted and the appropriation bill passed, Congress might adjourn, and this could all be done in a short time.

Yours, &c.

The bill referred to by our correspondent contains but three sections.

Section first provides that a bounty of 160 acres of land be given to every officer musician and private who served in the war of 1812, or either of the Indian wars; and the commissioned officers in the United States service in the late war with Mexico, are to receive for twelve months service 160 acres, for six months 90 acres, for three months 40 acres.

Sections 2d and 3d makes provision for carrying the above section into effect.

OUTRAGE AT SAULT ST. MARIE.—The Detroit Free Press of the 18th June, says—We learn from passengers from the Sault that an armed band of British soldiers, commanded by Capt. Cooper and Lieut. Balfour, stationed opposite the Sault St. Marie, on the Canada side, crossed over to the American side, on the night of the 14th inst., to arrest deserters.

This band entered the boarding house of a Mr. — with axes and clubs, cutting down the doors, and knocked down Mr. F. The soldiers entered the room of Mrs. F., and knocked her down and gagged her. They also threatened the lives of several of the boarders. We also learn that Lieut. Russell, of the U. S. Army, was present at the time and witnessed the outrage, and, to all appearance, encouraged the British soldiers to do what was done. He threatened the citizens if they interfered to prevent the arrest of the deserters, or stop their lawless proceedings. If this is so, Lieut. Russell should be cashiered, and we are glad to know that the proceedings have been reported to the U. S. government.

Disatisfied with his Counsel.

A few days ago an Irishman, was convicted in the Municipal Court of an offence for which Judge Bigelow sent him to the house of correction. Just as Patrick was stepping into the coach his legal adviser approached and whispered something in his ear, the nature of which the reader will divine by Pat's answer, which was rendered in a very decisive tone:—Not a cent! ye thafe o' the world! had ye been working half as hard to get ye clare as the old white-headed divil did to convict me, I wudn't be in this dirthy ould cart now! Dye mind that son of the divil that ye are! Nixt time I'll be gettin' that ould grey headed gentleman to defend me, an' sure ye'll be gittin' no more o' my poachage if ye starve for the nado of it,—och, ye paltry pity-roogher, dont be botherin' me! just as ye see I'm to start on a thra moonth's journey!

The School Law.

The following extract of a letter from A. L. Russell, esq. Superintendent of the Common Schools, shows the change in such school law, made by the late Legislature: "The only change in the School law of 1849 made by the late Legislature at its last session, are the repeal of so much of the 16th section, as prohibits the admission of scholars over 21 years of age, reducing the minimum period, fixed by the 22d section, for keeping schools in operation, to three months."—Daily News.

Confession of Professor Webster.

Boston, June 29, 6 o'clock.—It is stated on high authority, that Professor Webster has written a letter to the governor and council, confessing that he killed Dr. Parkman, but that it was not a murder, and asking a commutation of his sentence. The letter, though long, does not give the particulars of the transaction, and will probably be considered by the governor and council on Tuesday next.

Fall of Table Rock at Niagara.

BUFFALO, June 26, 6 o'clock.—At 20 minutes past two o'clock, Table Rock, at Niagara falls, fell with a tremendous crash, which was heard for miles. A carriage containing six persons, was on it at the time: the passengers escaped, but the carriage was carried away with the rock.—It is stated that the guide, with several persons, were under the precipice at the time it fell.

BUFFALO, July 1.—The despatch sent you on Saturday, as to the fall of Table Rock, is confirmed. About 40 feet of it are gone, but no lives were lost. The six persons in the carriage had a very narrow escape by jumping as the carriage went over.

Cholera at Nashville.—Nashville June 30.—There were fifteen deaths by cholera in this city yesterday.

An Irishman lost his hat in a well and was let down in the bucket to recover it; the well being deep and extremely dark withal, his courage failed him before he reached the water. In vain did he call to those above him to pull him up; they lent a deaf ear to all he said; till at last, quite in despair he bellowed out, "Be St. Patrick, if you don't pull me up, sure I'll cut the rope."

ANNIVERSARY HYMNS.

My country! 'tis of thee, Sweet land of Liberty! Of thee I sing! Land where my fathers died! Land of the pilgrim's pride! From every mountain side, Let freedom ring!

My native country! thee, Land of the noble free! Thy name I love! I love thy rocks and rills— Thy woods and templed hills— My heart with rapture thrills, Like that above,

Our Fathers' God! to thee, Author of Liberty! To thee we sing! Long may our land be bright, With freedom's holy light— Protect us by thy might— Great God, our King!

Mr. Willis speaks of a handsome country girl, (city girls are not very handsome,) whom he met in an omnibus in New York, as one, "the dimples at the corners of whose mouth were so deep, and so turned in like inverted commas, that her lips looked like a quotation." NOW, that the season for Coughs and Colds are advancing, we cannot do better than to urge upon our citizens the importance of guarding against unnecessary exposures to the changes in the weather experienced in our climate at this season of the year. The introduction of Spring always brings with it a troublesome variety of weather, and the sudden transitions we feel from heat to cold, from dry to moist state of the atmosphere, frequently impart to our systems the first characters of disease, and lay the foundation of the numerous consumptive complaints so prevalent among our people. It is the wisest part to prevent, if possible, the formation of these diseases, by a proper respect for the laws which govern our bodies; but when coughs and colds do come, we should have recourse to that efficacious and universally popular remedy for all diseases of the chest and lungs, Dr. WISTAR'S BALM OF WILD CHERRY.

Dr. S. F. Green.—Dear Sir:—I take great pleasure in informing you of the great efficacy of your worm syrup. My daughter being afflicted for a long time, I tried all the remedies I could hear of without receiving any benefit; I was requested to try your Worm Syrup, and I must say that before taking the whole of one bottle it removed her complaint and restored her to health.

Being grateful for the benefits she received I take pleasure in thus acknowledging it and recommending it to the public.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

The Great Remedy for Consumption of the Lungs Affections of the Liver, Asthma, Bronchitis, Pains or Weakness of the Breast or Lungs, and other Affections of the Pulmonary Organs.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY is a fine HERBAL MEDICINE; composed chiefly of WILD CHERRY BARK and the genuine ICELAND Moss (the latter imported expressly for this purpose), the rare medical virtues of which are also combined by a new chemical process, with the extract of tar—thus rendering the whole compound the most certain and efficacious remedy ever discovered for CONSUMPTION OF THE LUNGS.

We are just in receipt of the following voluntary tribute to the curative power of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, from E. Hall, M. D., of Mount Clemens, Michigan, who is a physician of high standing, and an extensive Druggist:

Mr. CLEMENS, Mich., Oct. 29, 1849. To the afflicted this may certify that Mrs. H. Roberts of this village, three or four weeks after confinement, was attacked with a violent cough and great prostration, and seemed hastening to the grave with fearful rapidity. I advised her to use Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—she did so, and with that valuable medicine alone, in the space of three or four weeks, was restored to health, and is now a living proof of the value of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

E. HALL, Physician and Druggist.

Read on and be convinced still further of the remarkable virtues of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—

Messrs SANFORD & PARK—Gentles—As a tributor of justice to you, and for the benefit of the public, I would offer the following statement of a cure effected by your medicine, known as Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. In the spring of 1847 my wife was severely attacked with Peripneumonia, or Pleurisy, which resulted in a deep seated pain in the side, accompanied with a severe cough; she was attended by some of the best physicians in Chicago, too but no purpose; for weeks she suffered, without relief, coughing incessantly night and day. I came to the conclusion that all the remedies known to the physicians could not help her, and was induced to try your "Wild Cherry." I procured one bottle, and commenced using it according to directions; before it was all gone the cough stopped, and the pain on her side left her, and with the aid of another bottle she was restored to perfect health. In consideration of these circumstances, I would recommend it to the public as a valuable medicine.

Yours, respectfully, R. N. GARRATT.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 8, 1849. The following we have just received from Messrs. Fall, McCracken & Co., Agents for the sale of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry at Lancaster, Pa. Ohio.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I feel it my duty, as an act of kindness to the afflicted, to inform them what Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry has done for my daughter. There is many a parent who has given up a beloved son or daughter, as a prey to the fell destroyer Consumption. They have—gave I have done—tried all the most skillful and eminent physicians within their reach, and all of the most popular remedies that seemed to hold out some hope for a continuance of life, without getting any relief.

To all such, who, like me, have been seeking with trembling lips for some remedy of real efficiency, I would say, seek no further, but try at once Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. My daughter Sarah Jane, aged 17, whose life for months had been despaired of, and was supposed a sure prey to Consumption, has been cured; restored to perfect health; and that too by using five bottles of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.
