 "After many years we have witnessed the good effects which have invariably been produced by the use of Dr. F. Green's Pills, and therefore freely recommend them to the public as a safe and efficient medicine."
R. Blakey, Charles Carpenter, Wm. Hunter, James Chambers, John L. Gray, A. Elder.
 Lewistown March 16th 1848.
Dr. F. Green—Dear Sir: I take great pleasure in informing you of the great efficacy of your worm syrup. My daughter being afflicted for a long time, I tried all the remedies I could hear of without receiving any benefit; I was requested to try your Worm Syrup, and I must say that before taking the whole of one bottle it removed her complaint and restored her to health. Being grateful for the benefits she received I take pleasure in thus acknowledging it and recommending it to the public.

Lime, Lime.
 THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has just burnt a kiln of Lime near the residence of Major James Armer, near Bellefonte, where he is prepared to sell at a reasonable term to suit times. The lime is of the very best quality, free from coke or ore, and of a beautiful white color. It is at least equal to any that has ever been sold in this county, as all judges of the article will say when they see it.
RED LION HOTEL.—The subscriber also keeps this well known TAVERN STAND, situated on Allegheny street, Bellefonte, where he is provided with everything necessary for the accommodation of man and beast, and will spare no pains to make all comfortable who favor him with their custom.

THE BEST OF THE FAMILY JOURNALS.
NOW IS THE TIME!
The Saturday Gazette
 PARLOR JOURNAL.
 subscribers, on beginning the 12th volume of their newspaper, cannot but express their satisfaction with the patronage they have received, for the past year, since the arrangement. The Gazette now contains thirty-six columns of reading matter, which is from four to eight more than the weeklies generally; and being printed in new and handsome condensed letter, contains more matter than any two dollar Journal in the United States. It is not so much on the superior quantity of the contents, as on the quality that the subscribers pride themselves. A hasty recapitulation of points in which this journal excels its contemporaries will, therefore not be out of place here.
BEST CORPS OF CONTRIBUTORS.
 From its commencement, the Gazette has been made up principally of original contributions in prose and verse, and not, as most of the weeklies are, of selections clipped from the country papers and each other. The subscribers of the Gazette always have fresh readings, therefore; and this from the very best pens the country affords. Some of our most eminent writers contribute to no other newspaper: among them we may name, the author of the "Bedott Papers," Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, T. Mackellar, and the author of "Lights and Shadows of a Country Parson's life." A partial list of our original contributors is subjoined.
 Miss Eliza Leslie; Author of "Bedott Papers;" Mrs. Ann S. Stephens; Mrs. E. D. N. Southworth; Miss M. J. McIntosh, Author of "Conquest and self Conquest;" Mrs. E. Oakes Smith; Mrs. Angèle Hull; Ranny Forester, now Mrs. Judson; Edith May; T. A. Mackellar; T. S. Arthur; H. W. Herbert; E. A. Duval; Author of "Lights and Shadows of a Country Parson's life;" Mrs. Margaret Piggott; Mrs. E. C. McKinney.
 In addition, a watch is kept on all the best articles of the English Magazines, and such as are desirable secured for us through an agent, in advance. In this way we obtained, "Agnes Grey," by the author of "Jauc Eyre," Wildfield Hall, &c. and in this way we have anticipated stories by James, Thacker, and others of the best English writers. In no case do we publish old English stories as original.
A LADIES' NEWSPAPER.
 In another respect the Gazette differs from other weekly newspapers. Its fourth page is edited by Mrs. Joseph C. Neal; the result of which is to combine, with a high toned family and literary journal, a ladies' paper of the best character. Everything of importance to the sex—the latest books, the latest styles of dress, the changes of fashion and customs of society, new receipts, new characters, etc., are weekly chronicled. In addition to this, this department will contain original stories from the most accomplished female writers with hints on female education and manners. In fine, every thing that shall render the paper, both in its literary character and excellences of paper and printing peculiarly
A Saturday Parlor Companion.
 This department we have no doubt will fill the vacuum long complained of, and ladies in the country have the advantage of a weekly chat-chat on matters of fashionable life with their own sex in cities.
Elegant and Appropriate Engravings, representing Battle Scenes, Incidents, and Conspicuous Personages in Revolutionary History, Sea Scenes and Battles, together with original Maps and views of important Places and Events, are another feature.
LITERARY CRITICISM.
 Our position as a weekly Gazette will enable us, to give understandingly, such rapid but candid and judicious notices of the literature of the day, as cannot fail to keep the reader fully enlightened on this important subject, at once furnishing food for thought and conversation, and indicating to the student where to turn, instead of frittering away his time in wading through the flood of publication which now emanates from the press.
DEPARTMENT FOR CHILDREN.
 No family journal is complete without a well-edited department for children. In this respect the Gazette is unapproachable. Mrs. J. C. Neal who has charge of this department, enjoys a well-earned reputation of being one of the best writers for children in the United States. Her "Helen Morton's Trial," originally published in this journal, has been called by the highest critical authority, the most admirable book of its kind published for many years. This important department is entirely neglected by most weekly papers.—Childhood, is, however, the time, when instruction is easiest imparted, and in determining for what paper to should give the preference.

AGRICULTURAL
 We shall endeavor to make the time to time such notes for your advancement of knowledge and interest in the progress of the arts, as may seem to be advantageous. This department is under the charge of a practical farmer.

NEW YORK EVENING POST.
 The New York Evening Post is the oldest Democratic paper in the State of New York, and one of the oldest in the United States. Its past history we venture to hope, will justify us in soliciting from our Democratic readers and fellow laborers a friendly interest in regard to a Journal which has seen some service in the cause of Democracy.
 It is not for us perhaps to say how far the Evening Post is calculated to meet the want to which we have alluded.—Our readers are doubtless generally acquainted with its literary and political character. Its aim and influence are such as meet their approval, we trust they may find it in their way to contribute somewhat to its circulation.
 To those who are unacquainted with its plan and character we beg to submit the following summary:
 1. THE EVENING POST will contain
 1. NEWS OF THE DAY, which we shall report with all the accuracy and fidelity in our power, including intelligence from foreign countries, political information, reports of elections, and notices of every occurrence of general interest.
 2. PUBLIC DOCUMENTS of general importance, reports, Messages, official communications &c.
 3. DISCUSSIONS of Political Questions.—These we hope to be able to conduct in a spirit of fairness and courtesy, not descending to personalities or appeals to prejudice, yet always without any bias of personal interests, and with complete independence. We are Democrats in principle; we have embraced the Democratic creed from a strong conviction of its truth and are associated with the Democratic party because we find it striving in the main for objects which we cordially approve. We hold the great doctrines of free trade, of simplicity in the powers of government, of equal and sparing legislation, of the propriety of bringing public affairs as much as possible within the cognizance and management of small neighborhoods. We are opposed to the extension of slavery, and in favor of its restriction in every possible mode; we are enemies of all monopolies and of all legislation which seeks to create jobs for favorites, and to promote the interests of particular classes. The course of the Evening Post in regard to these subjects is well known, and its conductors may say with an allowable satisfaction that if the zealous support of these views for a long series of years they have never wavered through fear or interest.
 4. THE MARKETS and Commercial Information, the proprietors have made arrangements for giving with accuracy and with the latest revisions of persons of intelligence in such matters.
 5. LITERARY NOTICES, selections from the literature of the day, extracts from our best Magazines, popular and scientific, and a fair proportion of all that sort of miscellaneous reading which gives an entertaining character to a newspaper. With these materials we will endeavor to make the paper both interesting and useful to the reader.

MEDICAL HOUSE,
 ESTABLISHED 15 YEARS AGO BY
DR. KINKELIN,
 North-West corner of Third and Union streets,
 Between Spruce and Pine streets,
 PHILADELPHIA.
 FIFTEEN YEARS of extensive and unintermitted practice spent in this city have rendered Dr. K. the most expert and successful practitioner far and near, in the treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with ulcers upon the body, throat, or legs, pain in the head or bowels, mercurial rheumatism, stricture, gravel, disease arising from venereal excess or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled, are all treated with success.
 He has placed himself under the care of Dr. K., may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.
TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.
 Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in—a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school—the effects of which are nightly felt, even when a sleep, and destroy both mind and body, should apply immediately. Weakness and constitutions of debility, loss of muscular energy, physical and mental prostration, irritability and all nervous affections, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, and every disease in any way connected with the disorder of the procreative functions, cured, and full vigor restored.

 Away with your old fashioned hand-lug wheels, &c.
 The undersigned having obtained the Agency from the patentee, for selling the rights of his valuable improvement in breaks for Carriages, Wagons, &c. called Great's Self acting Retarder, in and for the counties of Clearfield, Jefferson, Clarion, Venango, Crawford, Erie, Warren, McKean, Forest and Elk, in Pa. which we will sell on very reasonable terms either by county, township or individual rights. It is decidedly the most important improvement of the kind now in use. It needs but to be seen to be approved. It needs but to be tried to be well recommended.
 We will have on hand a model to illustrate the principle upon which it acts.
