

DIED—On the 18th ult., at the residence of his father, (John Shaw) in Lawrence township, after a lingering illness, ARCHIBALD C. SHAW, aged 24 years.

DIED—In Huston township, on the 2nd day of October, CATHARINE HOYT, aged 87 years. She was the widow of S. M. Hoyt, dec'd, late of New Haven, Vt., a revolutionary soldier.

She was a mother of the Revolution.—She has spread the cloth before the chief tains and champions of our country's rights and liberty—and day after day, and week after week prepared the table for the soldiers of our republic while recruiting under Col. Baines, of Lanesborough, Mass., for the purpose of watching the motions and arresting the progress of Gen. Burgoyne, who was advancing from the north with an army which darkened the air, and spread terror and consternation thro' the country.

Her compensation, she informed me, for six weeks service, brought her just one paper of pins. She heard the roar of the cannon on the plains of Bennington, and watched, with eager eye, the approaching messenger flying from the battle ground; and listened, with an anxious ear, to the tidings he bore from the field of danger. She saw the prisoners after the battle as they were marched through the country refreshed by the hospitality of 'Lanesborough folks,' and heard them exclaim 'Got pless Gen. Washington and his people for their kindness to poor Hesians.' She married soon after the close of the war, and some years after moved to the State of Vermont, where she lived in the town of New Haven, till about ten years since, for the sake of her children, she came to live and die in this country.

I might here commence a eulogy on her moral, religious, social and domestic virtues, but my readers would be likely to discover in it more of pride than gratitude—more of weakness than wisdom; let it suffice to say, that in all these relations, she has 'acted well her part.' She was long a member of the Presbyterian church in New Haven, but at last she renounced the dogmas of John Calvin and put her foot upon that mountain of error and supererogation which has for ages cast a shadow over the Christian world more gloomy than Atheistic darkness.

From above its murky atmosphere she discovered the utmost limits of Satan's kingdom, and aided by the clear light of Heaven, she saw and proclaimed a world's salvation. She died as she had lived for many years, a firm believer in the doctrine of "the final restitution of all things which has been spoken of by all the holy prophets since the world began."

Weep not for her, if any Heaven there be, She must be there, and happier far than we—Her fit abode, and our eternal home— I see her now—she smiles and bids us come. Did all her goodness move the eternal mind— Oh all her love a Saviour's welcome— Did Heaven forbid the sacrilegious theft— Compare a mourner to a grain of sand, Old Neptune's waters to a drop of rain— Then stretch old Satan from the Almighty's hand— Proclaim his power—and fix his dread domain. G. R. HOYT.

DEMOCRATIC REVIEW.

GREATLY REDUCED PRICE—FROM 5 TO 3 DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

Single Copy—TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.
(Prospectus of the Seventeenth Volume.)

THE price of the Democratic Review has heretofore been too high—not for its size, cost and character, but for the means of tens of thousands who would be glad to receive it, and among whom it is highly desirable that it should circulate. For the purpose, therefore, of largely widening the range of its usefulness, and of multiplying the numbers of those to whom it may be accessible, it has been determined, in consequence of the great reduction in the expense of the postage, to reduce its subscription price, from five to THREE dollars; and when several units in subscription, to as low as TWO dollars fifty, or even to TWO dollars thirty cents per annum.

This very low reduction in the receipts (compensated with but a comparatively small diminution of its expense) involves, of course, an entire sacrifice of profit upon it, unless compensated by a vast multiplication of subscribers. There will be of the outset, only a small reduction in its number of pages, and be restored to its old number, without increase of price, when the anticipated success of the experiment shall justify it.

The portraits of distinguished democrats will be continued, engraved in better and more costly style than heretofore.

The postage, heretofore, for any distance, will be only one and a half cents; it has heretofore been, for over 100 miles, eighteen cents. We look for extension of circulation to be reckoned by tens of thousands, as the result and compensation of this great reduction of price. Every friend of the work, and of the democratic principle and cause, is confidently appealed to, to exert himself to procure its subscribers; both to extend its usefulness, and to carry it successfully thro' the crisis of this great reduction in its receipts.

Those who have paid in advance for the coming year, will receive it, at the reduced rate, for a year and a half.

TERMS, IN ADVANCE
(INVARIANTLY IN ADVANCE.)
Single Copy, 25 Cts.; Eight Copies, 30 Cts.
Four Copies, 1 1/4; Thirteen Copies, 3 1/4
It will thus be seen, that when thirteen copies are ordered at once, the price is down to about TWO DOLLARS and THIRTY CENTS each.

These rates afford high inducements to agents and those to interest themselves to procure subscribers. The cash system and payment in advance, must be uncompromisingly adhered to. The past relaxation of it has occasioned an accumulation of not far from 40,000 dollars of debts due to the work. Hereafter, this must be wholly reformed; nor must either the most eminent political friend, or the most intimate personal friend, be dispensed with on account of the application, in the usage of their numbers, if they neglect this rule; the vital necessity of which, at the present reduced rates, must be obvious to all.

No communications will be taken from the post office, unless free of postage.

All communications, both on editorial and publishing business, must be addressed henceforward to the undersigned. Those relating to the settlement of the past debts due the work, will be still addressed to Mr. J. L. O'SULLIVAN, 8 Astor House, the past year's subscription, with whom, as publisher, have reached their termination.
J. L. O'SULLIVAN,
135, Nassau st. N. Y.
Oct. 1845.

LAST LIKENESS OF GEN. JACKSON.
The admirable Daguerreotype of General Jackson, taken by Anthony Edward & Co. a few weeks before his death, has been purchased for the use of the Democratic Review. It is in the hands of the artist, and will be engraved in the finest style of mezzotint of extra size. It is a most beautiful and interesting work, declared by Mr. Van Buren and others, to give a more perfect idea of the good and great old man than any other likenesses; and it ought to be possessed and framed by every friend who loves or reveres his memory. Those who subscribe early, will receive it as one of the regular series of portraits.

To the Democratic Press.
Our friends of the Democratic Press are requested, to interest themselves in aiding to carry the work safely and successfully through the crisis of this great reduction of price. Every editor inserting this prospectus, with an editorial notice, (and sending a copy of the paper marked,) shall receive the Review for a year.

APPRENTICE WANTED
To the Blacksmithing Business.

A boy, from 16 to 18 years of age can have a good opportunity of learning the above business by making application immediately to the subscriber in this place, either personally or by letter.

U. S. SATURDAY POST.

New volume, new type, old friendships, and new attractions.

THE publishers of the UNITED STATES SATURDAY POST feel constrained to make again their acknowledgments to the reading public for the liberal support which their paper receives. To show that they are not ungrateful, it would be entirely sufficient to refer the reader to the established character of the friends friend, which is pre-eminently the designation of this paper. As a newspaper dependent upon public patronage, 'grows by what it feeds on,' the publishers flatter themselves that the Post has increased in interest and value, with the steady and gratifying support which has been accorded to it, for a period of a Quarter of a Century. In this time, which has served for the life and death of whole generations of periodicals, the Post has kept the even tenor of its way, by its own intrinsic health and strength—now looking, upon leading the public taste, and not departing from its independence to minister to the transient newspaper follies, which, compared to the existence of the Post, are indeed ephemeral.—We shall continue in this path, endeavoring, in the NEWS DEPARTMENT, to present the latest authentic intelligence, divested of party hue, and interested bias, and resting solely on the basis of truth, as far as it is ascertainable. We endeavor to select and publish intelligence of value and importance to citizens engaged in all the three great interests, Agriculture, Commerce, and Manufactures.

In political intelligence we recognize only one party—and that our Country—our whole Country. We know no sectional interests in our patriotism—no party lines in our politics—no sectarianism in our religion, but print and publish for the greatest good of the greatest number.

To give the Saturday Post an importance beyond that temporary one which it derives from being the record of current events, and to make it acceptable to the Family Circle, we give its columns the character of a Weekly Magazine, embracing Original Tales and Sketches—Original Verse and Essays—History and Statistics—Biography and Legends—Science and Statistics—Revolutionary Annals—Moral Tales and Traits of Life—Original Comments, on Notables—Wit and Humor.—In a word, such a variety of matter as, (our own country first remembered,) the Whole Literature of the World may offer. The Original Translations from European Literature, which had from time to time appeared in this journal, are referred to as an earnest that we have spared no pains to make the Post truly Cosmopolitan in the Great Republic of Letters.

Volume Twenty-Seventh, upon which we are about to enter, will appear in new type, and with such other improvements and advantages as experience may suggest. To repeat the words of a former prospectus—our motto is still 'Excelior!' Among the oldest papers on the continent, and possessed of all the advantages which long accumulated facilities afford, the conductors blend with these peculiar advantages, (not to be acquired in a day,) all the improvements which each successive year presents to their notice; and all the changes for the better, which occur to men intent on doing well for a reading public which has always done well for the United States Saturday Post.

TERMS, PER ANNUM.
1 copy, $2 00; 8 copies, $10 00
3 copies, 5 00; 17 copies, 20 00
The money must always be sent in advance, free of postage, Address,

CAUTION.

THE public are hereby informed that I have this day left in the possession of Martin Hohenberry, on the land of mine, whereon he resides, in Chest township, Clearfield county, one black horse, one roan mare, one yoke of oxen, and one brown cow. I hereby warn and forbid every person from buying, or in any way meddling or interfering with the same.

PROSPECTUS OF THE AMERICAN REFORMER AND PENNSYLVANIAN SECTE TEMPERANCE ORGAN!

A Family Newspaper—Neutral in Politics and Religion—Independent on all subjects. Published in Harrisburg, Penn'a.

The necessity of a State Temperance Organ is acknowledged by every temperance man in the meridian of Pennsylvania; its establishment has long been desired and most ardently for; and the object of the subscriber is now to establish such an organ, one that will prove a free channel through which temperance men of every section of our Commonwealth can communicate their ideas—record the success of their efforts—encourage each other in their philanthropic labors—and thus concentrate their efforts in one common bond of union—for without an unanimity of feeling and action we can never expect to accomplish any material or permanent good.

Of the character of the new paper little need be said. It is believed that the subscribers past experience, in connection with the Temperance Press, will enable him in future to discharge the onerous duties of a temperance editor. His paper shall be strictly Territorial in its principles—free from personal and sectarian abuse—devoted to general useful knowledge, comprehending a FULL and IMPARTIAL review of the proceedings of our State Legislature, and latest news of the day.

The Order of the 'Sons of Temperance' (of which the subscriber is a member) will find in the STATE ORGAN a reliable advocate of their new and popular order of temperance reformers; and the location being at the State Capitol, it is hoped the brethren will cordially unite in its proposed establishment as their general or permanent establishment.

The subscription list of the AMERICAN REFORMER, published by the subscriber, in Lancaster city, will be transferred to 'The State Organ.'

A Resolution, adopted by the Lancaster County Temperance Convention, Sept. 6, 1845.
Resolved, That we heartily approve of the course of J. M. WILLIS GEIST, as Editor of the American Reformer; and, approving his course as a talented and faithful temperance editor, we feel ourselves morally bound to put forth our individual and united efforts to sustain him in his publication as a STATE TEMPERANCE ORGAN; and we hereby recommend the 'Organ' to the patronage of the friends of temperance throughout the State of Pennsylvania.

THE REFORMER AND TEMPERANCE ORGAN will be published every Saturday, on a beautiful double medium sheet, containing thirty-two columns, printed on new type, and will present a handsome appearance. The first number will be issued on Saturday, the first of November next.

TERMS—$2 a year.
Address J. M. WILLIS GEIST,
Harrisburg, Oct. 30.

The Cheapest Paper ever published in America!

Democratic Expositor and UNITED STATES JOURNAL FOR THE COUNTRY.

We issue to-day the first number of the new series of the Democratic Expositor & United States Journal for the country, which, we consider the cheapest publication ever offered to the patronage of the American public. It will be published weekly, instead of semi-monthly as heretofore while under the charge of Mr. Kendall, and although it will contain more than double the amount of matter, there will be no increase of the subscription price. The new publishers propose to furnish their subscribers with a volume of 332 Pages, at the unprecedented low price of ONE DOLLAR only! Being the cheapest, periodical ever before issued in this country.

The Expositor will continue to be a faithful and fearless expounder of the true principles of Jeffersonian Democracy, as it has been under its late highly gifted editor, who we are encouraged to hope, will materially aid us with articles from his eloquent pen; its pages will be adorned by contributions from the most distinguished political writers in the United States. Neither pains nor expense will be spared, to make it worthy of being considered a text book for the democracy in future generations. The publication in future generations. The publication in the palm days of that useful publication; it shall be a record of important political facts, for future use and reference, as well as an able expounder of still more important political truths, which will live through all time, and eventually, will revolutionize the world.

We shall unflinchingly and with the whole soul, devote ourselves to the cause of universal republican education, to this end we shall zealously endeavor to reform every college in America, and establish a system to educate all the children in the land in the saving principles of American Liberty, instead of, as present, growing up in thoughtless, unprovided ignorance, or what is even worse, if possible, becoming indoctrinated with the baleful principles of English monarchy and aristocracy, the only system of education pursued at our fashionable seminaries of learning.

We shall oppose all monopolies—a high Protective Tariff—partial legislation—any National Bank—Distribution—Assumption of the State Debts—with unflinching, unremitting zeal. All these, as well as other Federal heresies, will be handled without gloves! In short it shall be a volume worthy of being preserved by every lover of our republican institutions.

We shall pay the strictest attention to its business department, as well as to its editorial. Those who wish to subscribe may place the most implicit reliance upon our pledge that it shall be published and mailed each week, with unflinching promptitude and regularity; no one shall even have the slightest occasion to find fault in this respect. Care will also be taken to have the packages strongly and securely enveloped, so that they shall reach their destination in good order. With this brief and imperfect outline of our plan, we submit our claims to the patronage of the Democracy, with unshaken and undoubting confidence that we shall be generously supported.

TERMS:
The Democratic Expositor and United States Journal for the country, will be published weekly; each number will contain sixteen closely printed pages, making eight hundred and thirty-two to the volume, for the unusual low price of one dollar per annum, to a single subscriber.

GREAT INDUCEMENTS TO CLUBS AND COMPANIES.—In order to extend the circulation of the Expositor into every part of our glorious Union, we make the following proposals: those persons who shall forward ten dollars shall receive eleven copies for one year; those who forward twenty dollars shall receive twenty-three copies for one year; those who forward thirty dollars shall receive thirty-five copies for one year; those who forward fifty dollars shall receive fifty-five copies for one year; and those who forward one hundred dollars shall receive one hundred and thirty-two copies for one year, respectively requested to exert themselves in obtaining us subscribers.
