

soldierly kindness? and how how to re-

To Capt. D'Arcy of the Curwensville Artillery, and to the Bassell of the National Guards—return our thanks for their personal attention, their soldierly deportment, and anxiety they manifested to promote our cause.

To G. D. Long, the Guard, are much indebted for kindness during our stay, and for the breakfast and treat given them on Thursday morning.

Meiss. J. J. Batt, D. W. Moore, E. Magee, M. Fran and others will receive the thanks of Guards for their attention to them.

Our respects are due to the following gentleman: to P. Barrett, of Barrett's Hotel, for his treatment to us while encamped with him Saturday evening till Monday morning; and also, on Thursday night, to Messrs. D. Barrett, R. Ross and J. Lamberts, of Curwensville, and to W. Bloom, at the Susquehanna Bridge, for their attention to the Guards.

Owing to the shelter in the streams many of our men are unable to be with us, and owing to same cause, many of the Clearfield Volunteers were also absent—but we can say that no company was ever treated better than we were, while away from home; and if we raise an encampment in June next, in Brookville, we will endeavor to be as attentive to those we meet on this occasion, as we possibly can, as if Clearfield ever has another encampment, the Brookville Guards will be on the ground with twice the number.

Flight of the Mormon Prophet.—William Smith of the Patriarch's family has fled from Nauvoo. The St. Louis papers of Saturday week published his address, "a faithful warning to the Latter Day Saints," against the unrighteousness of the Elders, who have usurped the Patriarchal character, of which he is the only legatee. He counsels peace, love to men, and a restoration of confidence between the Mormons and their neighbors; urges emigration to Oregon, and promises further exposures of the unrighteousness of the wicked Elders. William is now in St. Louis, under the protection of some friends. His address is dated 25 Oct.

Antidote to Prussian Acid.—Recent experiments in France seem to prove that instant immersion in cold water is effectual cure in the event of persons falling prussic acid.

MARRIED.—In Morris township on the 20th ult., by S. C. Thompson, esq. Mr. DANIEL BEAM to Miss SUSAN COOPER, all of Morris.

DIED.—In Dayton, Illinois, October 10th, Mrs. ANN BROOKS, wife of Rev. John Brooks, formerly of Clearfield county, Pa.

After an illness of twenty-four hours, calmly fell asleep in the arms of Jesus. Mrs. Brooks was a member of the Methodist church of some six years standing—manifested quite a lively and cheerful disposition in religion—and in death, as in life, Christians do, she left her friends a pleasant memory of her acceptance with the Lord.

Mourning to the mind of man is the misfortune of the pious and virtuous dead. The buoyant spirit and sparkling eyes of youth, the vigour and maturity of manhood, as well as the white-robed fathers, are subject to the desolation of the spectral chariot of death. The most endearing relationship—the purest and tenderest ties of devotion, and the most consummate love and felicity have to be dissolved. But why should we weep for those who die in the Lord—whilst we entertain a hope which pierces the dim pall that veils the mortal vision; and by the promise of him, who is the resurrection and the life, we shall all be reunited, immortal, to spend the ceaseless ages of eternity in the presence of God.

The angel stood ready in waiting. The moment the spirit was gone, it darted upward to heaven. And where is it safely at home. M. S.

DEMOCRATIC REVIEW.

GREATER REDUCED PRICE, FROM 5 TO 3 DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

Single Copy—TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

Prospectus of the Seventeenth Volume.

THE pride of the Democratic Review has heretofore been too high—not for its size, cost and character, but for the means of tens of thousands of who would be glad to receive it, and among whom it is highly desirable that it should circulate. For the purpose, therefore, of largely widening the range of its usefulness, and of multiplying the numbers of those to whom it may be accessible, it has been determined, simultaneously with the great reduction in the expense of the postage, to reduce its subscription price also, from FIVE to THREE dollars per annum. Several units in subscription, to us low as TWO dollars, or even to TWO dollars three cents per annum.

This will be a great reduction in the receipts accompanying a small diminution of its expense; and of course, an entire sacrifice of profit, unless compensated by a vast multiplication of subscribers. There will be at the outset, by a small reduction in its number of pages, soon to be restored to its old number, without increase of price, when the anticipated success of the experiment justifies it.

The portraits of distinguished democrats will be continued, engraved in better and more costly style than heretofore.

The postage, hereafter, for any distance, will be only five and a half cents; it has heretofore been, for over 100 miles, eighteen cents. We look for extension of circulation to be reckoned by tens of thousands, as the result and compensation of this great reduction of price.

Every friend of the work, and of the democratic principle and cause, is confidently appealed to, to exert himself to procure it subscribers; both for its usefulness, and to carry it successfully through the crisis of this great reduction in its receipts.

Those who have paid in advance for the coming year, will receive it, at the reduced rate, for a year and a half.

TERMS HENCEFORWARD.

(INvariably in Advance.)

Single Copy, $3.00 Eight Copies, 20.00 Four Copies, 11.00 Thirteen Copies, 30.00

It will thus be seen, that when thirteen copies are ordered at once, the price is down to about two dollars and THIRTY CENTS each.

These rates afford high inducements to agents and others to interest themselves in procuring subscribers. The cash system and payment in advance, however, will not be discontinued.
