To secure these great objects, (with the nore certainty, it is desirable that the inispensable business of the legislature bould be acted on at an early period, and that no important subject of legislation should be deferred to the closing days of the session. tained, of affixing the Executive approval for the purpose of electing officers, &c. The practice, which has sometimes obto bills during the recess, seems to me to be opposed to the policy of the constitution, while to act on them in the crowded hours that precede an adjournment, requires e decision without affording time for conwideration-hence, a jule securing reasonable time for Executive deliberation, on bills presented to him, near the close of the ses sion, is most desirable.

Since the last session of the General Assembly, it has pleased Almighty God, to withdraw from the view of the American Nation, its most eminent and best loved try, the defence of her soil, her institutions and her honor, ANDREW JACKSON has passed to his rest-leaving to the friends of liberty. throughout the world, the precious inheritance of his example, and the consecrated memory of his services. His last moments were serens and admirable. Death found him waiting his approach, with a heart expanded in universal charity, and his spirit brightening as it drew nearer to the Saviour in whom he trusted. That he lived, has been the long extended theme of patriotic gratulation-that he so died, must crown the devout thanksgivings of the christinn.

> Jon. 14. The Mails---Where is the Blame ?

We have frequent occasion to complain of the irregularity and delay in the receipt of letters, pa pers, &c., from the East. There must be gross neglect or mismanegement somewhere. By the direct mail route, we ought to receive our Philadelphin and Washington papers in two and three days after they are printed-which we sometimus do-but generally, they are six, eight and ten days on the way. Now this is positive evidence that the Department is at fault somewhore ; and as there is great anxiety at present, in all quarters, . to hear the News,' we hope and trust the evil may be promptly corrected. 000 00
