COURTS.

The several Courts of Clearfield county commence their sessions on the first Mondays of February and May, and the last Mondays of September and November.

Hallooing at Elections.—On the occasion of the late Presidential election, a row had occurred at a ballot box in a certain town, during which pistols, guns, brick-bats, &c., were in requisition. The ring-leaders were taken up, and one of the witnesses was called upon for the testimony, which was in the following manner:

Witness.—'I did that.'

L.—'Were you shot before or behind?'

W.—'I wasn't shot neither before nor behind.'

L.—'But you say you were shot?'

W.—'I reckon I did; for I was peppered all over my left side.'

L.—'What were you doing at the time you were shot?'

W.—'Saying! Why, I wasn't saying nothing, but was hallooing as loud as I could—'Hurrah for Clay and Frelinghuysen!'

L.—'Did you halloo the same thing after being shot?'

W.—'I rather 'spect I didn't. If you had thirty-two shots put in you at once, I 'spose you wouldn't hallooed for any body but yourself!'

Rather Tough.—The Picayune has a story of a rattlesnake which swallowed a field mouse or mole, and repeated the operation twice, the mole each time exiting his way out, and finally killing the serpent.—The public is expected to swallow both mole and serpent.

One at a time.—A constable, who had lately been inducted into office, was in attendance at the court, and was ordered by the Judge to call John Bell and Elizabeth Bell. He immediately began at the top of his lungs—

'One at a time,' said the Judge.

'One at a time—one at a time—ONE AT A TIME!' shouted the constable.

'Now you've done it,' exclaimed the Judge, out of patience.

'Now you've done it—now you've done it—now you've done it!' yelled the constable.

There was no standing this; the court, bar and bystanders broke into loud laugh, to the perfect surprise and dismay of the astonished constable.

Three nice young men were arrested in Brooklyn, N. Y. on Saturday, for indulging in the very funny recreation of filling a drunken negro's ear with powder and blowing it off.

A proposition being before a certain city council to lay out a public square, one of the worthy members arose and gravely expressed the wish that, if a square was determined upon, it might be laid out in a circle—it looked so much better.

No one, says Jerome, loves to tell a tale of scandal except to him that loves to hear it; learn, then, to check and rebuke the detaching tongue, by showing that you do not listen to it with pleasure.

POPULAR REMEDIES.

THE most popular remedies of the present day are those which cleanse and purify the blood, and which are known to be innocent in their qualities. Such remedies as Antimony, Mercury, Zinc, and having recourse to bleeding in disease, are now it is hoped, going out of fashion, and Vegetable remedies will be soon the popular medicine. Then Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills will be used and appreciated. They are known to act beneficially on every part of the body; being taken up by the chyle they pass into the blood, which they purify, and it should be remembered that they only remove those parts from the blood which were the cause of inflammation or disease of any kind. Nothing is equal to ridding the vitiated humors with a vegetable medicine of this kind, which eighty-four years have proved never to do injury, but always good.

DEMOCRATIC REVIEW.

GREATLY REDUCED PRICE—FROM 5 TO 3 DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

Single Copy—TWENTY FIVE CENTS. (Prospectus of the Seventeenth Volume.)

THE price of the Democratic Review has heretofore been too high—not for its size, cost and character, but for the means of tens of thousands of who would be glad to receive it, and among whom it is highly desirable that it should circulate. For the purpose, therefore, of largely widening the range of its usefulness, and of multiplying the numbers of those to whom it may be accessible, it has been determined, simultaneously with the great reduction in the expense of the printing, to reduce its subscription price also, from FIVE to THREE dollars; and when several units in subscription, to as low as TWO dollars fifty, or even to TWO dollars thirty cents per annum.

This very low reduction in the receipts (compensated with but a comparatively small diminution of its expense) involves, of course, an entire sacrifice of profit upon it, unless compensated by a vast multiplication of subscribers. There will be at the outset, only a small reduction in its number of pages, soon to be restored to its old number, without increase of price, when the anticipated success of the experiment shall justify it.

The portraits of distinguished democrats will be continued, engraved in better and more costly style than heretofore.

The postage, heretofore, for any distance, will be only five and a half cents; it has heretofore been, for over 100 miles, eighteen cents. We look for extension of circulation to be reckoned by tens of thousands, as the result and compensation of this great reduction of price. Every friend of the work, and of the democratic principle and cause, is confidently appealed to, to exert himself to procure it, and to extend its usefulness, and to carry it successfully through the crisis of this great reduction in its receipts.

Those who have paid in advance for the coming year, will receive it, at the reduced rate, for a year and a half.

TERMS HEREAFTER (INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE):

Single Copy, $3 00 Eight Copies, 20 00
Four Copies, 11 00 Thirteen Copies, 30 00

It will thus be seen, that when thirteen copies are ordered at once, the price is down to about two dollars and thirty cents each.

These rates afford high inducements to agents and others to interest themselves to procure subscribers. The cash system and payment in advance, must be uncompromisingly adhered to. The past relaxation of it has caused an accumulation of not far from 40,000 dollars of debts due to the work. Hereafter, this must be wholly reformed; nor must either the most eminent political friend, or the most intimate personal one, be dispensed on any pretext, from the payment of the stoppage of their numbers, if they neglect this rule; the vital necessity of which, at the present reduced rates, must be obvious to all.

No communications will be taken from the post office, unless free of postage.

All communications, both on editorial and publishing business, must be addressed henceforward to the undersigned. Those relating to the settlement of the past debts due the work, will be still addressed to Mr. H. G. Langley, 5 Astor House, the past arrangements with whom, as publisher, have reached their termination.

J. L. O'SULLIVAN,

Oct. 1845.

LAST LIKENESS OF GEN. JACKSON. The admirable Daguerotype of General Jackson, taken by Anthony Edward & Co., a few weeks before his death, has been purchased for the use of the Democratic Review. It is in the hands of the artist, and will be engraved in the finest style of mezzotint of extra size. It is the most beautiful and interesting work, declared by Mr. Van Buren and others, to give a more perfect idea of the good and great old man than any other likeness; and it ought to be possessed and framed by every friend who loves or reveres his memory. Those who subscribe early, will receive it as one of the regular series of portraits.

To the Democratic Press. Our friends of the Democratic Press are requested, to interest themselves in aiding to carry the work safely and successfully through the crisis of this great reduction of price. Every editor inserting this prospectus, with an editorial notice, and sending a copy of the paper marked, shall receive the Review for a year

THE DEMOCRATIC UNION.

Semi-Weekly during the Session of the Legislature at TWO DOLLARS.

THE Democratic Union will be published twice a week, during the coming session of the Legislature, and we embrace an early occasion to commend it to the favor of the reading public. Neither pains nor expense shall be spared to impart to its columns additional zeal and vigor. Ample and correct reports of the proceedings of the two branches, together with sketches of the debates on all public and important questions, will be furnished, competent stenographers having been engaged for that purpose. Persons desirous of obtaining early intelligence will always find in the Democratic Union a true and honest chronicle. To Attorneys, Judges, Justices of the Peace, and public officers generally, it will be invaluable, as the Union executes all the STATE PRINTING, and the LAWS of a public and general nature are published in it immediately after their passage, and usually some months before promulgated in pamphlet form.

To increase our facilities for the most prompt execution of all the public printing, we are now propelling our presses by the aid of steam, a most important matter in the legislative body.

A corps of able correspondents have been employed at Washington city, who will keep our readers constantly apprised of events transpiring at the seat of the National Government.

TERMS. For the whole year, $3 00
For the session only, (twice a week) 2 00
Any person sending us five subscribers for the session, accompanied by ten dollars, shall receive a copy gratis for his trouble.
