Stand by your Ticket.
 If democrats were ever called upon, by a regard for the principles which they profess to cherish, to stand by their ticket, it is now. If the Whigs were out in their true colours—if they had candidates of their own party in the field, Democrats would have no difficulty in making their choice, but would, to a man, discard their political enemies, and give their united support to the candidates selected by the regular action of your party. If you would pursue this course with your open foes, how much more earnestly should your duty require you to do it with secret enemies? Then, Democrats, stand by your Ticket at all hazards. Your candidates are at least equal in every respect to their opponents. They are fully competent to discharge the duties of the offices assigned them, and if elected, will reflect honor upon your cause and your country.

There is no use in a party going to the pains and trouble of nominating candidates, unless the members of that party will sustain the candidates thus selected. As well may we adopt the Whig plan, and leave it to three or four leading politicians—the wire-pullers of the party—to say who shall, and who shall not run. With but few exceptions, the Democratic party of this county, have sustained their Ticket very well. But they have faltered—and never without regretting it afterwards. Let the past, then, serve as a warning for the present, and let every democrat lay aside all personal feelings—all regard for mere men, and look to the integrity of his principles, and vote accordingly. Success will be sure to follow.

If Mr. IRVIN had such a holy horror of Democrats that he would rather forsake the pleasure and honour of a seat in the Senate than give his vote for a Democrat, with what grace can he now ask democrats to vote for him as the federal candidate for Congress? He has no excuse for this part of his conduct. At his own suggestion he was instructed to vote for a Democratic candidate for United States Senator—but rather than obey, he resigned his seat; thus compelling his district to be at a heavy expense, in holding a special election, in the middle of winter, to fill the vacancy. When Democrats are called upon to vote for the man who treated them with such contempt, they should REMEMBER THE PAST.

The Farmers Prospects.
 There is nothing seems to aggravate the federal party so much at present as the rise in the price of all kinds of agricultural products. Wheat from 50 and 60 cents, up to 80 and 87 cents—Rye and Corn from 30 and 37½ up to 75 and 80 cents per bushel! And this all happening just at the time that every federal paper and orator is prophesying ruin, wide-spread and destructive, and moving heaven and earth to create a 'panic' and pressure throughout the land! Why, it is too bad. It's perfectly outrageous thus to spoil their ammunition. It is next thing to their disappointments as to the effect of Polk's election, which, they said, would knock down the price of iron so low that the fire would be extinguished in every furnace in the Union;—when, on the contrary, iron has been higher since than for many years before, and what must be equally surprising to them, the country has prospered quite as well as it ever did—and everything now looks as if it was going to prosper still better.

No Democrat can vote for the Federal candidate for Congress without acknowledging himself either a hypocrite or a turn-coat. If you vote for him without acknowledging a change of principles, then your conduct shows that you are acting the hypocrite,—because, if elected, he will sustain by his vote and influence, measures diametrically opposed to your own.

Wm. B. Foster, jr.
 If ever the people of Pennsylvania had an opportunity to reward a public servant for faithfully performing his duty, it is now, in supporting the reelection of Wm. B. FOSTER, jr. No man is more competent, and no man is more attentive and faithful to the interests of the Commonwealth. Then why turn him out, merely to gratify a few petty politicians, who have been wisely turned out of office after they have grown fat on the public spoils? This is the only reason why he is sought to be displaced. Will the people encourage such work? By no means. And these 'agitating' gentlemen will be taught that the people are all powerful, and cannot be duped.

The whigs have now fairly relinquished their efforts to get up a 'panic.' They find that it cannot be done unless the business men of the county will join them. Mere politicians by trade cannot do it. It requires something else. And the business men understand their own interests. They see there is no cause, and no danger of distress or alarm, and hence they refuse to sacrifice their interest merely for the purpose of gratifying the ambition of a few political speculators. The leading Whigs of New York want a 'specific' Tariff—but little, if any higher than the rates of the Tariff of 1846; while in Pennsylvania they are beginning to talk about waiting until they see how the cat jumps! At all events, there is to be no 'panic'—that's a settled question, and therefore the people may begin to breathe freer and deeper.

We have been sending our paper regularly to, and politely requesting, the Whig editors of this Congressional district to exchange with us. But it is all in vain. Why is this, gentlemen? Can you explain? We have never yet heard anything at all said against our candidate for Congress, except that he is a good Democrat, and we would like to know if anything can be said against him.

Democrats, when you are asked to vote for the Federal candidate for Congress, don't forget to tell them that this same gentleman resigned his seat in the Senate rather than vote for a Democrat—that democrat was JAMES BUCHANAN.

The abolitionists of Butler county held their county Convention on the 16th inst., and nominated a full county ticket, and concurred in the nomination of JOHN CRAIG, of Armstrong, as their candidate for Congress.

Sudden Death.
 We learn that, on last Saturday, while a number of hands were working among some timber for Dr. White, in Burnside township, a young man named RATTIER, was crushed to death by a stick of timber. He is said to have been a very worthy young man, a native of Ireland, and leaves an aged father and mother who were greatly dependant upon him for their comfort and support.

Latest from Mexico.
 But last week we chronicled the overthrow of Paredes as President of Mexico, and the recall from exile of Santa Ana to take command in his stead.—Paredes is still held a prisoner by the Santa Ana party, but a portion of the army of Mexico have already pronounced against Santa Ana's movements, and in favor of the restoration of Paredes. So they go.

Our government, it appears, had sent a special messenger to Mexico with offers of peace, but who, after remaining at the Mexican seat of government but three days, returned to Vera Cruz, and proceeded forthwith to Washington. The exact nature of the despatches were not known, but it was generally believed that the old answer was repeated, that they would receive no offer of peace until the American forces were withdrawn from their territory and coast. If so, we may expect the work to begin immediately. Uncle Sam will not be fooled again.

Mr. Buchanan was at New York when the news arrived of the Messengers return, and he proceeded to Washington immediately.

From the Army.
 The latest dates from the Army are to the 30th and 31st August. The main body were as far as Mier, on the route to Monterey, while it was thought that General Worth, and his command were by that time before the latter place. Nothing of importance had occurred. Rumors still reached the camp of a contradictory character as to the state of the defences of Monterey. The opinion, however, generally prevailed, that there would be some hard knocks exchanged before that place would be surrendered.

FIGHTING AT NAUVOO.
 The St. Louis Republican, of the 14th, states that a battle had taken place at Nauvoo between the Mormons and the anti-

Mormons on the afternoon of the 11th, which was renewed again the next morning. The Mormons were about five hundred strong and their enemies about eight hundred. The latter were driven off.—There was some six or eight killed, & about the same number wounded on each side.

From the Blairsville Appalachian.
Maj. Findley Patterson.
 Our readers probably are aware that, in this Congressional district, there is a majority of democratic votes; and that circumstances tending to prevent their being united on the candidates of the party, existed at both the Congressional elections which have taken place since its organization. Happily these divisions are ended, and obliterated. Nothing in the manner of his selection—noting as to his character or acquirements—nothing in his past political course exists, to weaken our present candidate, but much that gives earnestness of success. Let it be remembered then, that for the first time we have a clear prospect of redeeming the district, and acquiring for the majority its fair preponderance, by the election of Major Patterson. Nothing but the grossest apathy on the part of the democrats can prevent his triumphant election.

Mr. Irvin does not occupy as strong a position either in the district in general, or in this county in particular, as did Mr. Buffington. The last named gentleman, in addition to an elevated reputation as a lawyer and advocate, was extensively known and respected for his talents, urbanity of manner, & other personal qualities. Let the democracy then rally with spirit and zeal, and they can make the Congressional election as decisively victorious as the days of Palo Alto and Roca de la Palma.

REVOLUTION IN MEXICO.
 The Yucatan schooner Fernando, Capt. Pinson, arrived yesterday from Campeche, which put she left on the 30th ult. By her arrival we learn that the garrison of Tabasco declared against the Government of Paredes, and in favor of Santa Ana on the 12th ult. We have received copies of the declaration (acta) of the garrison, and the address of the military commander, Juan Bautista Tracostas, to the people. The declaration is substantially the same as that of the garrison of Vera Cruz, accusing the government of having assembled a Congress in a manner not authorized by the Constitution, and of plotting in connection with that Congress for the establishment of a monarchy, to the great detriment of the interests of the nation, and the neglect of the national defences. The object of the revolution is likewise declared to be the re-establishment of the Constitution of 1824, and agreeably to the provisions of that instrument, the organization of the Government on federal principles. Santa Ana is declared Commander-in-chief of the Army. The address of the commander is brief, and incites the people to aid in effecting the revolution.

A letter in a mercantile house in this city, dated at Laguna, August 2d, states that the U. S. Brig Somers had arrived at Laguna a few days previous to its date, to take in supplies, and that her commander had stated that it was intended to blockade the port of Tabasco, if a disposition was not manifested soon to end the war.

Loss of the Steamship New York, and Narrative of her passengers and Crew.
 By an extra from the office of the N. O. Commercial Times, dated the 9th inst., we have the painful intelligence of the total loss of the above vessel on the 7th inst., which left New Orleans for Galveston on the 5th,—together with 17 of her passengers and crew.

The New York had experienced a continuous gale from the time of her departure; so terrible, in fact, as to render all exertions unavailing, and after two days of the most tempestuous weather, she foundered in ten fathom water. The surviving passengers and crew were picked up by the steamship Galveston, Captain Wright.—Am'n Sentinel.

A letter written on board on of the U. S. squadron off Vera Cruz, on the 28th ultimo, says that the steamer in which Santa Ana went from Havana to Vera Cruz was boarded on her arrival off the latter port by the sloop-of-war St. Mary's, and subsequently permitted to pass. The same writer says:—Am'n Sentinel.

"We are now living entirely on 'salt junk,' pork and beans. A day or two ago a small boat came off from the shore with supplies, at the very moderate war price as follows: Six very poor chickens, $2 each; two dozen eggs, $2; half a bushel of potatoes, $4. What surprised me most was that any thing of the kind could be had in the neighborhood of Vera Cruz.—The city at this time is distressed for every thing but beef, which is abundant.—Where are some of our active money-making young men, that they do not come out here in a small vessel loaded with knick-knackeries? All eatables and drinks would find a ready sale in our squadron, as well as in the English, French and Spanish vessels—in all some fifteen or twenty vessels of war, who would purchase at fair or even large prices. I have been astonished that no one from New Orleans has come here with an assorted cargo.

CALIFORNIA.—The Washington Union, of a late date, says: "The events & prospects on the coasts of California are bright and cheering.—

There is reason to believe that before this time the whole of that coast has been occupied by our squadron. Monterey is certainly taken, and Guimas, and it is certain that the Yerba Buena, on the bay of San Francisco, was summoned by Capt. Montgomery, and it is believed to have been taken without resistance.

MAINE ELECTION.
 We have returns from 313 towns out of about 430 into which the State is divided. There is one comfort in store, for we Democrats; the whig portion of the State has been heard from, and most of the returns to come, pattern after Monroe and Berks—still we are under the impression that there is no election of Governor by the people. The returns say—
 Dana, Democrat, 31,310
 Bronson, Whig, 27,111
 Scattering and Abolition, 8,880
 It is impossible to tell who is elected to Congress, or what will be the political complexion of the Legislature.
Pennsylvanian.

INTENSE EXCITEMENT
 Prevails at Manayunk, among the male and female operatives, owing to the attempt of one of the manufacturers to reduce their wages. Several meetings have already been held, at which strong resolutions have been passed against the person alluded to, and against the pretext he makes for his conduct. The meeting on Saturday last was composed of many hundreds.—It appears that none of the other manufacturers have as yet entertained the idea of reducing the wages of their hands.
Pennsylvanian.

PAIN OR DISTRESS OF ANY KIND, whether of gout, rheumatism, headache, toothache, or any other kind of ache, is in all cases caused by impure humors of the blood, which have lodged upon the parts, and which nothing save vegetable purgative (purifying) can remove, because by no other means can impurities be driven from the body.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills have no superior, if indeed they have an equal, in removing every description of pain; because they carry off by the stomach and bowels, all morbid and corrupt humors, the cause of disease, in so easy and natural a manner, that the body is actually restored to health, as it by magic. Four or five of your Indian Vegetable Pills, taken once in twenty-four hours, on going to bed, will in a short time not only drive pain and distress of every kind from the system, and restore the body to a state of sound health, but the blood and other fluids will be so completely purified, that new life and vigor will be given to the whole frame.

Caution.—It should be remembered that Mr. Edward Cole, of Philadelphia, Mr. John Dixon, of Easton, Pa., and Messrs. Browning & Brothers, of Philadelphia, are not agents of ours, and as they purchase no Indian Vegetable Pills at our office, we cannot guarantee as genuine any medicine they may have for sale.
