Brazos, and who is direct from Monterey. He has kindly furnished us with the following information, which is highly important, il there be no error in the accounts. They were fully credited at the Biazos, and are confirmed by Capt. Brower, of the schooner Rubert Mille, who arrived last evening from that port.

An express from Gen. Worth, at Saltil lo, arrived at Monterey on Wednesday, the 16th of December. It brought the news that Gen. Worth had learned thro' his spice that Santa Anna was within three days' march of Saltillo, at the head of an army of twenty or thirty thousand men. [Other accounts say about 15,000.] The express bore a call upon Gen. Taylor for reinforcements. Gen. Taylor and his staff had left Monterey on the 15th ult.the day before the express arrived-for Victoria, to join his command, which was two days' march in advance of him. The express reached Gen. Taylor at Victoria at 11 o'clock, P. M. on the 17th ; and at 3 o'clock, A. M. the next day, Gen. Tay- known, have scarcely reached Saltillo. lor despatched two regiments; the Kentucky and Tennessee volunteers, to reinforce Gen. Worth at Saltillo, intending to dulge any lively apprehensions. The utfollow himself, as soon as possible, with all his disposable force. Gen Taylor felt watchlulness and skill of the accomplishconfident of his being able to arrive at Saltillo before Santa Anna could reach there. The whole force of Gen. Taylor the movements of the enemy in time to would then amount to about 10,000 men, prepare properly for his reception. As which he considered sufficient to cope with any force that Santa Anna could bring a gainst him.

Gen. Butler, in command at Monterey, immediately sent oft despatches to Gen. we should count both to be sale, whatever Marshall, at Camargo, and to Gen. Pat force the Mexicans might number. Should terson at Matamoros, to send forward the companies en route from Camargo have without delay all the troops they could reached Saltillo, the force of Gen. Worth spare from their commands.

Gen. Patterson had left Matamoras only the day before the news reached that place. It was at once forwardeded to him, and upon learning its purport our informant therefore, with great interest, but not with states that he immediately started on his fear of any serious disaster. return with the view to proceed to Monterey.

It was reported at Tampico on the 25th as will be seen from the postscript to Mr. Lumsden's last letter, that a portion of all of whom are from Monterey, as they Gen. Patterson's command had entered say. They will carray alarming accounts Victoria, but it is not mentioned that the as to the situation of Gen. Worth could be well, reinforced, it is possible the place nay have to be evacuated, as no force of consequence could be spared from the garrison at Monterey. The brigades of Gen-erals Quitman and Briggs left Monterey for Victoria on the 13th, and, therefore had been four days on the march before the express arrived at Montercy, and no considerable force was stationed at any of the points between Monterey and the Rio Giande. By the last advices, two regi ments had been ordered from Camargo to join Gen. Wool, but they could, at the time Santa Anna's movement became Wool's camp so early, it is not impossible the latter may have effected a junction with Gen. Worth, in which case would be increased to 2,400; and at the worst we believe he would be able to hold out till he could be further strengthened.
