CLEARFIELD, PA. April 24. 1847.

FOR GOVERNOR,

FRANCIS R. SHUNK. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER. MORRIS LONGSTRETH, of Montgomery county.

The Hard Times.

When strong, hearty laboring men go about the country seeking day's works for thirty, forty, and fifty cents a day-when the markets are all glutted, and nobody to buy-then, indeed, times are hard, and the ed at Karthaus. blighting effects of a direful ' panic' are visible on every hand. When such a pictry at the present time, as predicted by the found. Whig party from the immaculate Webster down to the little railroad eating lawyer of a neighboring county. and all this was to be the effect of the nasty Polk Tariff of '46. try is just now enjoying a state of unexampled prosperity from the Aroostook to the wards, Rio Grande. The merchant, manufacturer, farmer, mechanic, and laborer-the Shamokin dam. importer and the exporter-the producer. and the consumer-are all, in their proper ophere, doing a thriving business, and in the aggregate, present a speciacle of prosperity that is indeed unprecedented. But when this is the picture, is there not equal sense in saying that ' all is well.'

The above remarks were suggested by the many evidences of prosperity in this county and neighborhood, and the great scarcity of laboring men. On every hand we hear of new saw and grist mills going up-the number for exceeding that of any former year. Hands are scarce, although good wages and ready pay is offered. A season of prosperity, to which the people of this county have hitherto been strangers, is promised in the future, and is perhaps just beginning to dawn. That it may come speedily, and effectually, we would be do ing an injury to our own dearest interests not to desire.

But how different is the present condition of our county-we mean the lumber interests-to that which was prophecied by the leaders of the Whig party? All will remember the gloomy pictures that were drawn by their orators. How our al was to remain in our hills until the .day of father Miller's 'midnight' dreams! oak of our forests were to be passed by by the axeman, and left to be destroyed by the fierce tornado! All these calamities were pictured to our imaginations in the most lively colors. Still the indomitable Democracy persisted. Elected Polk, Dallas and Shunk - and then, as if bent upon hurl. $1 50, -other grain in proportion. ing still deeper destruction upon a doomed nation, their representatives in Congress annexed Texas, established the Independ ent Treasury!! and passed a Tariff that gave the farmer an equal chance with the manufacturer!!! Many of our readers will remember that in the fall of '44, there was several gentlemen tarried in our town, who said they intended to establish extensive lumber manufactories somewhere in our county, and that they were just waiting to hear the result of the election. If Clay was elected, go ahead was the word; but if Polk, why then the fat was in the fire. The manufacturing interests-and particudarly that of lumber-would be destroyed. and no capitalist would be caught spending his money in that way. Well, the election came round. The old Keystone Polked it at them. State after State came rolling in until the news from the Empire State decided the fate of our country, and our gentlemen manufacturers left us instanter, and for ought we know, have not been heard of since. As they left us, they seemed to look upon us with pity, believing that we were a lost and ruined people. If we knew where they were we would as relates to the Wilmot proviso. send them an account of this springs? business." We would tell them that lumber commands a higher price and readier sale than it has done for eight or ten years, and that the business of manufacturing of lumber is getting into the hands of men who
