

Democratic Notice.

CLEARFIELD, PA. JULY 17, 1847.

FOR GOVERNOR.
FRANCIS R. SHUNK
FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER.
MORRIS LONGSTRETH

Democratic Meeting.

The Democratic Voters of Clearfield county are requested to meet at the court house in the borough of Clearfield, on Saturday the 17th day of July, inst., at 4 o'clock, P. M.—for the purpose of appointing two DELEGATES to attend the Senatorial Convention, by order of Standing Committee.

July 8.
Wm. J. HAZARD, Secy.

This Meeting—We hope our Democratic friends will attend in their proper persons at the meeting in the court-house this (Saturday) afternoon.

Our farmers are about commencing to cut their harvest. Wheat is now pronounced out of danger—and the yield in this county after all the croaking, will be a full average—and some say, will fall but little short of the very abundant crop of last year. Some fields fall far short—scarcely worth harvesting. Others again, are overladen. The grain is large, plump and full. Other crops are doing fine. Corn, oats, &c., never looked better—as well.

Flour may now be quoted at $5 50 in the Philadelphia market. It is nearly a dollar higher in New York.

HAIL STORM.—A storm of much violence passed over this place on Tuesday afternoon last. Hail, accompanied by rain and wind, fell thick and fast, doing considerable damage to the farmer. It seems to have spent its greatest force in the neighborhood of Joseph Irvin's and Mitchell's, between two and three miles from town, where it broke a large number of panes of glass, besides injuring seriously the growing and ripened grain.

NEW SAW-MILLS.

So we go.—No less than four new saw-mills have been raised within four or five miles of this place during the last two or three weeks, viz:—Kratzer & Barretto's Ringgold Mill, on Clearfield creek—R. Shan's, on the river—M. Nichols, on Chinclelamousche creek—and Hursthal & Clyde's on Lick Run. These mills are all built in the most approved style. There are several others in the course of erection. All these mills are flat contradictions to the federal prophecies of last summer as to the effect of the Tariff of '46.

The President has returned to Washington from his trip to the East. It is said that he still persists in the belief that the country is not ruined.

O. K.—JACOB ZEISLER, the fearless and talented editor of the Butler Herald, is the Democratic candidate for the Legislature, in Butler county. As Jacob received an unanimous nomination, we may reasonably presume that he will receive the unanimous support of the party in October, which, with the aid of a very few votes from the other party, by men who wish the services of a good and true representative, will secure his election.

FROM THE RIO GRANDE.

The Matamoros flag of June 26th, contains one extra item of interest: The alcalde of Reynosa has reimbursed the money of which four of the Illinois volunteers had been robbed, after being assailed as we have already mentioned.

The Rio Grande is still very low, the rains not yet having set in. Carvajal—or Carrabjal, as his name is often given—was a few days previous to the 26th of June, in Victoria, in consultation with the Governor of Tamaulipas and other influential men of the State, on a subject of vital importance to the future destiny of several States of Northern Mexico—no more nor less than a separation from the Mexican confederacy, and the establishment of an independent government. Carvajal has been alive to this subject for years, and will lose no opportunity to accomplish his cherished purpose. Now he thinks is the proper time, and there is great prospect of his success.

The country in the vicinity of Matamoros, is quite free from robbers, &c.

FROM THE GLENDALE ENGINEER.

Col. DONIPHAN.

We observe in the papers an attempt to run a parallel between Xenophon and Col. Doniphan; but the chief similarity is in the name. The one is the hero of a celebrated retreat, the other of a victorious march. We believe Doniphan much the greater man of the two. As he was comparatively unknown prior to his unprecedented march from Fort Leavenworth, on the Missouri, via Santa Fe and Chihuahua to the mouth of the Rio Grande; and as the whole country is powerfully attracted by his heroism, and the great military capacity which he has exhibited; we note down a few facts concerning him which we have obtained from personal acquaintances. Col. Doniphan is a native of Kentucky, but for the last twenty years he has been a citizen of Missouri. As to talents and influence he is among the first lawyers of the State; and as a criminal lawyer he has, perhaps, no equal in that State. His personal appearance is prepossessing, and commanding; his stature is about six feet two inches, in weight about two hundred and ten pounds; he is of the sanguine nervous temperament, and is in the meridian of his physical and mental vigor—being about 45 years of age. His residence is at Liberty, in Clay county, Missouri. During the Mormon troubles in Missouri he was general of the militia, and by his unbending influence over his troops kept in check their furious resentment against the infuriated people. As to politics, Col. Doniphan entertains Republican sentiments. He has never been an office-seeker, nor has he served in any higher capacity than as a member of the State Legislature. But we predict that the country will call him to some high station, and the Colonel is too brave a man to shrink from the responsibility.

Sad news from the Plains—Capture of a Wagon Train—Murder of Teamsters—Slaughter of Cattle.

The St. Louis Reveille, of the 22d ult., says that a gentleman just arrived from Westport, Mo., states that just before his departure, a Delaware Indian had arrived from the Plains, giving an account of a wholesale murder of teamsters, by a combined force of Arapahoes, Camanches, and Pawnees. The Indian is a son of Nacomo, the principal chief of the Delawares, and is generally considered a man of veracity. He was found a prisoner at Taos, when Col. Price took that place and liberated him. His story is, that having started homeward, he fell in with a body of Indians, of the tribes mentioned, on the Arkansas. They made him prisoner, and only spared his life on the condition that he would join them against the whites. He sets their number down at two hundred men, which would make the total number of the force about one thousand men.

Near Walnut creek, he states, this formidable party met and attacked a train of 30 wagons, drawn by mule teams, and accompanied only by the drivers and eight or ten horsemen. The Indians surrounded them, and charging them suddenly, drove the teamsters from their saddles, and massacred every man of the party! The wagons were loaded with government stores, which, with the mules, the Indians appropriated to their own use. The day succeeding this massacre, a young Nacomo was permitted to depart—having been presented with a fine large American mule. This animal bears the mark 'U. S.' and has since been recognized as one of those belonging to a government train which left Fort Leavenworth a few weeks since.

When our informant left Westport, Major John Dougherty, who recently started for Santa Fe, with 650 head of cattle, was there for the purpose of employing more men. Near Council Grove, his herd made a stampede, and one hundred and fifty escaped. It was to go in search of these that the additional aid would be required. Council Grove is one hundred and fifty miles distant from Westport. We farther learn, that the Delawares are preparing to send a war party against the Osages, the latter having recently taken three Delaware scalps. The Indian who gave the information respecting the murder of the teamsters says there was a few Osages among the number.

Correspondence of the Pennsylvanian.

HARRISBURG, July 10, 1847. This afternoon John Soubreck of Dauphin, a town about nine miles above this, and Thompson Graham, of Newport, Perry county, were drowned in the Susquehanna, whilst on a fishing excursion. They had gone across the river at Hunter's Falls, to some rocks to fish; and after remaining there some time, a storm coming up, three of them got into a small boat to return; the other one, which was Graham, then stepped in, the boat dipped water, and Messrs. Soubreck and Graham were drowned. Jonathan Novinger, one of the party, swam to shore, whilst Col. Kendig, the other one, clung to the boat and was saved. The bodies of the drowned men have been recovered. Graham was in the employ of the Central Rail Road Company as an axeman, and has left a wife and three children to mourn his loss. Soubreck has left a wife and fourteen children to regret his untimely end. He kept tavern at Dauphin, and was a man universally respected and known in this community. The water in that part of the river is deep, and the current very rapid.

BOWEL COMPLAINTS occur more frequently during the summer months than at any other period, because at this season of the year, the system being debilitated, digestion is not sufficiently active to dispose of the food before it becomes putrid; hence a peculiar acid is generated in the stomach, which is the cause of those horrid diseases called dysentery, cholera morbus, inflammation of the bowels, &c. Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are a natural remedy, and therefore are a certain cure for all kinds of bowel complaints; because they cleanse the stomach and bowels from those putrid humors which are the cause of the above distressing complaints. They also aid and improve digestion and purify the blood, consequently, as they remove the cause of every form of disease; it is absolutely impossible for them to fail in making a perfect cure of dysentery, cholera morbus, inflammation of the bowels, &c.

Beware of Counterfeits of all kinds! Some are coated with sugar; others are made to resemble in outward appearance the original medicine. The only original and genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the signature of William Wright written with a pen on the top label of each box. None other is genuine, and to counterfeit this is to rob.
