The march of life should never stay—
All things should onward tend;
Man should not clog progression's way.

The Telegraphic communication has been completed between this city and St. Louis. Only eighteen hundred miles of Telegraph—that is all.

Never be afraid to do right, because somebody will laugh at you.

A Prize in the Lottery of Literature! PAUL'S WEEKLY GALAXY

I decidedly superior to all contemporaries in point of celebrity, universal popularity, and genuine worth provoking humorous merits; and though it cannot boast the 'India Rubber Expansiveness' of the blank sheet, yet as 'good articles generally come in small packages,' and little people are often possessed of the most spirit; the Galaxy may be presumed to be worthy of the attention and generous patronage of the most discerning public.

Lovers of genuine unforced fun, wit and humor, you cannot subscribe for a better paper than PAUL'S WEEKLY GALAXY. It will amuse, divert, drive away the gloomy hovering shadows of care, dispel the illusions of sadness, and clear away the cobwebs of the brain.

HEADS OF FAMILIES.—If you would subscribe for a cheap, valuable and entertaining paper, look at the Galaxy. It is just what you want.

PEOPLE OF ALL CLASSES.—From the merchant to the laborer, the Galaxy is a neutral ground where you can all meet with pleasure unalloyed with anything that can annoy or give you pain.

Every yearly subscriber to the Galaxy will be presented with a copy of 'The Village Schoolmaster,' a thrilling romance, by one of our most admired authors. It will be forwarded by mail immediately on the subscription money being received.

TERMS PER YEAR:
One copy, $1 00
Five copies, 4 00
Ten copies, 7 00
Specimen numbers of the Galaxy will be sent to any one on application by letter (post paid).
