

CLEARFIELD, PA JAN. 15, 1848.

The Auditors' Report of the receipts and expenditures of the county for 1847...

Messrs. Walters and Koutly will accept our thanks for papers and public documents.

Cold.—Last Saturday night we had a fall of about six inches of snow, followed on Sunday, Monday, and part of Tuesday...

The Message.

We have only space to call the attention of the reader to the very excellent message of Governor SUMMER...

A NEW PAPER.—The Lancasterian and Chronicle of the Times is the title of a new and very pretty paper just commenced in Lancaster...

ANOTHER NEW PAPER.—The Western Weekly is the name of a literary paper just started in Pittsburgh...

THE PRESIDENCY.—The friends of Buchanan and Dallas had a hard tug for the Delegates to the Conventions in the city and county of Philadelphia...

Throughout the State, however, so far as meetings have been held, and delegates appointed to the State Convention...

On the 5th inst., Mr. Calhoun addressed the Senate on the subject embraced in the resolutions previously offered by him...

Mr. Cass, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported a bill in the United States Senate...

It then goes to the House, where the Whigs are in the majority, and it remains to be seen whether the honor and most vital interests of the nation are again to be placed in jeopardy...

Referring to this subject the Washington Union speaks as follows: "Time is precious. The troops should be in Mexico to operate with constant and unceasing energy upon the enemy..."

Gen. Taylor.—The Federal members of the Virginia Legislature, in caucus assembled, formally nominated the unpigged hero of Buena Vista...

The Hon. HENRY CLAY is now in Washington—and Gen. TAYLOR, it is expected, will soon be there also.

In the House of Representatives, on the 6th inst., Mr. Meek presented a bill relating to the Karlsruhe Bridge...

The news from the army is not of much importance. Gen. Patterson reached the capital on the 6th Dec. with 3,500 men...

Gen. Lane had a brush with a party of guerrillas at a place called Matamoros, and defeated them, and released several prisoners.

A meeting was held in the city of Mexico on the 4th of Dec. to devise means for erecting a railroad from Vera Cruz to that city...

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

The Session has opened very favorably. The very best feeling pervades the ranks of the Democratic members...

The House was organized by electing PACKER, Speaker, JACK, of Westmoreland, Clerk, and McCLEARY, of Philadelphia county, Sergeant at Arms.

WM. C. TOBEY, in his North American, printed in the city of Mexico, of the 9th of November, thus alludes to the conduct of some of the 1st Pennsylvanians:

It is not generally known that some ten or twelve volunteers, belonging to the 1st Pennsylvania Regiment, ran off from Puebla when Gen. Scott advanced upon the capital, for no other purpose than to get a fight...

ELECTION OF SPEAKER.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Tuesday, Jan. 4, 1848.

On motion, the House proceeded to the election of a Speaker.

Mr. Krick nominated Wm. F. Packer, of Lycoming county.

Mr. Fox nominated George Ladley, of Chester county.

The first ballot resulted in the election of Wm. F. Packer, as follows:—

Table with 2 columns: Name and Votes. Wm. F. Packer 63, G. George Ladley 33, John C. Myers 1, John Allison 1.

Mr. Packer being declared duly elected, was conducted to the chair by Messrs. Ladley and Myers, and addressed the House as follows:—

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives:—

In approaching this chair, a chair rendered sacred by the memories of the past, I am overwhelmed by the consciousness that I am not competent to fill it with that undoubted ability which has hitherto characterized its distinguished occupants...

It is known to most of you, that this identical chair was occupied by the distinguished President of the Congress of 1776, which adopted the immortal Declaration of American Independence—and by the Speakers of the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania for the last half century...

How wonderfully has the scene been changed! Now, in 1848, Pennsylvania is a great and mighty Commonwealth, numbering a population of more than two million souls...

Every hill has been made to reverberate with the panting of the locomotive—and every valley is vocal with the merry music of our industrious boatmen. Bridges, the finest specimens of architecture in the world, span our noble rivers...

receipts at the Treasury for the year just closed, amounts to about $4,000,000; and the expenditures for the same period are about $3,680,000.

Such is Pennsylvania now, when we, her representatives, have come up here to direct her future destiny. Let us then, one and all, by a united and harmonious effort, put forth our best exertions to promote her onward prosperity...

A SCANDALOUS PROPOSAL.

The Lancaster Journal says.—The following resolution was submitted by Mr. Hudson, on Monday, the 3d of January:—

Resolved, That the Committee on Military Affairs be directed to inquire into the expediency of requesting the President of the United States to withdraw to the east bank of the Rio Grande our armies now in Mexico, and to propose to the Mexican government forthwith a treaty of peace on the following basis...

The vote on the resolution stood—Yeas 41—Nays 137. We give the names of those voting yea for Pennsylvania, the representative from this district was among them:—Blanchard, Brady, Dickey, McIlwaine Strohm.

We ask the people to mark these records to duty and patriotism. We ask good old Pennsylvania to remember those who profess to be her representatives, and who have insulted her absent sons by voting for this dishonoring proposal.

For the good name of our race and our country, we rejoice that this resolution was thus distinctly put, and thus indignantly repudiated. For the good name of Democracy, we rejoice that no man who professes its principles, has made himself infamous by sustaining it.

Behold the Effect.

The New Orleans Delta has this startling statement:—

Mr. CLAY'S SPEECH IN MEXICO.—The Lexington speech of Mr. Clay has been extensively circulated throughout Mexico, and has created quite a lively sensation among the Mexicans...

The Delta does not explain what it means that "the Mexican are destined to a cruel disappointment" in these expectations. Does that able parrot mean that they will be disappointed in these hopes...

Mr. GOGGIN, of Virginia, has, as we perceive, made a motion in Congress for certain papers—not in existence—in regard to the admission of SANTA ANNA...

Mr. GOGGIN, of Virginia, has, as we perceive, made a motion in Congress for certain papers—not in existence—in regard to the admission of SANTA ANNA...

GEN. TWIGGS.

The American Star, at Mexico, thus speaks of the gallant Twigg, and his departure for Vera Cruz:

With the train this morning leaves Gen. D. E. Twigg, who, we understand, has been five years from his family & friends. From the first fight at Palo Alto up to today, Gen. Twigg has been in hard service, and richly deserves what he enjoys—the appellation of the fighting general of the army...

Gen. T. has been in more battles than any General in Mexico, and the services that he has rendered his country are infinite, and not until impartial history tells of his labors, will they be duly appreciated.

In other fields than Mexico he has done the State some service, and in all of which, like those in Mexico, he has been a working general. We wish him a pleasant journey to Vera Cruz, and, although his departure from the front of the army may be a general matter of regret, we hope that he may be permitted to visit those at home, from whom he has been so long estranged.

The sweetest flowers ever scattered in an old bachelor's pathway, are the two-lips of a pretty girl!

RHEUMATISM CURED.—JOHN BURNS, living at 262 N. SECOND ST., Philadelphia, had been several years afflicted with Rheumatic pains in various parts of the body...
