

POETRY

A NAME IN THE SAND. BY MISS HANNAH F. GOULD. Alone I walked the ocean strand...

Rebellion Ripening in Canada.

We have watched with much interest the growing discontent in Canada for the past year.

The movers in the plot now going on are the leading men of French origin in the Lower Province.

The discriminating duties that have for a long time favored the provinces under the British tariff are now done away in a great measure by Peel's new bill.

The Montreal Gazette, and other leading loyal papers, are assuming a bold ground. The Gazette says: "Our national tendencies, that is, those of the British and pro-British inhabitants of this Colony, are all to the N. England States."

An election for Parliament is now in progress, and conducted with great spirit. Reform candidates are up in almost every district—even where there is the least hope—in Upper Canada.

Mr. Papineau is a believer in the omnipotent and infallible right of the many. "I have found," he says, "a protecting asylum in the time of storm in the classic land of liberty, the happy country which is your neighbor, the glorious and powerful confederation of the United States, and then in the hospitable, polite and learned from whence our ancestors came, 'la belle France,' the instructors for ages of the nations of Europe, who would advance in the roads of liberty and progress, and in the highest civilization."

He lectures at large on the advantages of a republican government, and the mischief and disadvantages of English connection.—He desires a lower Canadian Republic.

Ob, would that those who have the misfortune to be indifferent to the general principle (Patriotisme general—Republicanism) would give themselves the pleasure to make a journey into the United States, and there they could see how generally the farmers there excel, in comfort, those of Canada; how, from the very worst forms, they reap more than we do from the very best; how the very poorest sell for ten times the price of the very richest of ours; and they will meet with the true form answer.—We owe all these good things to our good government and our good schools.

The election has taken place at Quebec, and two reform members returned instead of two conservatives.

Sir Robert Peel lately affirmed in a speech that Canada was of but little use to England. Lord St. Denham, in his correspondence, has said the same thing.

IRELAND.

The last accounts from Ireland forebode a famine in several of the remote districts even more terrible than that of last year.—One report says that hundreds are, at this moment, solely dependent for support on turnip leaves boiled, with a little raw meal, which, in a very few days, would be consumed.

In last year's famine, according to the speech of Mr. H. Grattan, in Parliament, 115,929 persons died for want of food; while in the coming winter, Lord Fitzwilliam estimated that at least 2,000,000 would require relief. And in connection with these terrible statistics, we may give another—one of those facts which lie at the root of Ireland's misery—that in one hundred and forty-five parishes, containing 1,600,000 inhabitants, there was not one resident landlord.

Poor England.—The London Times of October 20th makes the following extraordinary admission:

"Sorry are we to say it, but the truth must be spoken—the country is poor. To say that it wants money or credit will not convey a very overwhelming idea of the helplessness to some of our readers. So we will repeat that England is poor in the grossest and most tangible sense. The country has till just now been miserably destitute of food. That deficiency is hardly supplied, and in supplying it so far, we have both to part with our gold, and put ourselves in debt to the world. This is being poor in a very plain sense."

THAT BIG GOLD MORTAR,

STICKS out to let you know that there is a parcel of FRESH DRUGS

At the old store between Hemphill's and Huxthall's, just arrived from the city, FRESH, NEW AND GOOD. A first rate assortment of Drugs, Medicines, Oils, Paints, Varnish, Turpentine, Dry White Lead, Dye Stuffs, Confectionary, Fruits, Perfumery, Patent Medicines, and Patent articles of a very great variety, among which is the much celebrated OIL OF SOAP. A never failing article for removing grease, turpentine or paint spots from cloths, silk, &c., without injuring the cloth or varying the color.

ALSO—One of the best articles of VERMIFUGES

Ever offered to the public. It is the regular built worm jerker, which never fails to relieve the little sufferer when properly administered.—There is on hand a variety of other articles decidedly too numerous to mention, therefore we would invite all who wish to procure any of the above articles, or family medicines of any and every variety, (and be sure of getting a good article,) to call at the sign of the Big Mortar, for we have them, and are determined to sell them low for cash, and nothing else.

CAUTION I hereby given to all persons not to harbor or trust on my account, a certain boy named George Barret, who absconded from me. Said boy is about 17 years of age, and was indentured to me until he attained the age of 21 years. Wm. IRVIN, Pike tp, Nov. 5, 1847.

CRANS & BROTHER have just received a new supply of Mrs. Betts' UTERINE SUPPORTERS and APPROVED TRUSSES.

PROSPECTUS OF THE CONGRESSIONAL REGISTER.

WITH the commencement of the 30th Congress, we propose to continue the Congressional Register on the same plan as published during the last session. It will contain a full and accurate report of the business proceedings of Congress, together with sketches of the debates which take place in each house.

THE WEEKLY UNION FOR THE SESSION.

This publication is not only the cheapest, but it contains more valuable reading matter than is to be found in any other Weekly published at the same price in the country. Besides the politics of the day, it contains all the late and important news, both foreign and domestic; and its commercial articles are not unequalled. It will also contain a complete synoptical summary of the proceedings of both Houses of Congress, and be furnished to subscribers at the low rate of One Dollar and twenty five cents per copy for the Session.

Clubs will be furnished with ten copies for $10. All subscriptions must be paid in advance. Postmasters, by sending us five subscribers for either of the above publications, will be entitled to one copy gratis. Subscription price of Daily Union per year $10 00

Postmasters are authorized to act as our agents; and by sending us five Daily subscribers with $50 enclosed, or five Semi-Weekly subscribers with $25 enclosed, or five Weekly subscribers with $10 enclosed, will be entitled to one copy of the same edition as they furnish us subscribers for, gratis.

Washington City, Sept. 1847.

A Prize in the Lottery of Literature!

PAUL'S WEEKLY GALAXY The great Philadelphia Comic Weekly, and Museum of FUN!

IS decidedly superior to all contemporaries in point of celebrity, universal popularity, and genuine mirth provoking humor; merits; and though it cannot boast the 'India Rubber Expansiveness' of the blank sheet, yet as 'good articles generally' come in small packages, and little people are often possessed of the most spirit; the Galaxy may be presumed to be worthy of the attention and general patronage of the most discerning public. Concentration, condensation, and brevity, are the grand characteristics of this age of steam, and the Galaxy partaking largely of these peculiarities, condenses a vast quantity of matter into the smallest possible space. Thus those who may make the size of the Galaxy an objection, are but shortsighted, and look not to its real intrinsic excellence. Were the Galaxy the size of a cellar door, we might be as dull and prosy as numberless compilations of the present day yeiport newspapers.

Look at our columns week after week. Are they not filled with sparkling, racy, spicy, witty, and humorous articles, in larger proportion than may be found in any of our competitors. The choice spirits of this goodly Quaker city, are our ever ready contributors, and we are gratified to perceive that their efforts meet with a generous approval. Effervescent with the spirit of the age, stored with a pile of good humor anecdotes, ever ready at a hit, yet relieved by a dash of sentiment and sweet poetry, and romance, we look upon the Galaxy as bound to become in time, one of the leading Journals of the country.

Lovers of genuine unforced fun, wit and humor, you cannot subscribe for a better paper than PAUL'S WEEKLY GALAXY. It will assist digestion, drive away the gloomy hovering shadows of care, dispel the illusions of sadness, and clear away the cobwebs of the brain.

Hypochondriacs, if you would enjoy true health and unalloyed pleasure, take the Galaxy. It is better than the nostrum of any empiric, and never fails to promote health by inspiring wholesome laughter, good humor and mirth. Throw away your bottles and your pill boxes, peruse the Galaxy every week, and you will be wiser and better men.

HEADS OF FAMILIES! If you would subscribe for a cheap, valuable and popular weekly, look at the Galaxy. It is just what you want. Its contents are innocent, humorous and entertaining; and of a quiet evening, when sitting by your fire-side, surrounded by all you hold most dear, you can enjoy the pleasant chit chat of the city, with a wholesome gusto that knows no drawback.

PEOPLE OF ALL CLASSES, from the merchant to the laborer, the Galaxy is a neutral ground where you can all meet with pleasure unalloyed with any thing that can annoy or give you pain. Merchants, as you emerge from the shadowy gloom of your counting house, where can you look for an hours entertainment with more certainty of enjoyment, than in the perusal of the Galaxy. Lovely bells, as you sit in your parlor, surrounded by beautiful bouquets, fine books and sweet singing birds, can you look upon any of them with more delight than you look upon the pages of the Galaxy. Politicians, when you grow tired of the vexation and trouble of political affairs, and seek a brief relaxation, where do you look with more certainty of satisfaction, than to the Galaxy. Mechanics! when your daily toil is over, do you not hunt up the Galaxy with eager delight?

Every yearly subscriber to the Galaxy will be presented with a copy of "The Village Somnambulist," a thrilling romance, by one of our most admired authors. It will be forwarded by mail immediately on the subscription money being received.

In order to accommodate all those who may desire to form clubs, the publishers have fixed as the basis for clubbing, the following low

TERMS PER YEAR: One copy, 81 00; Five copies, 4 00; Ten copies, 7 00; Twenty copies, $16 00; Thirty copies, 19 00; Forty copies, 25 00. Specimen numbers of the Galaxy will be sent to any one on application by letter (post paid).

All letters and communications must be addressed (post paid) to HENRY P. PAUL & Co., Publishers, Philadelphia, Pa. Dec. 23, 1847. 2 m

COMMISSION & FORWARDING AGENCY.

THE undersigned having located themselves at Milesburg, at the head of Bald Eagle Canal Navigation, intend conducting the Forwarding and Commission Business, and solicit the friendship of the Farmers, Merchants, and others having produce to forward from the counties of Centre, Clearfield, Jefferson, and other parts, and the patronage of Merchants who may want storage on their goods purchased in the cities.

From thirty years' experience in the Commission and Packet Business in the city of Baltimore, they hope to be able by strict attention, to render satisfaction to those employing them. They will be provided with store-house room for Grain and Goods, and yard room for storing Plaster, Coal, Lumber, Iron, &c. Grain and Lumber will be forwarded to a branch of their house in Baltimore, or to Philadelphia, to an experienced house there, whichever market may offer the best inducements, having quotations three times a week from each city.

Assuring those who favor them with their business, that no effort shall be wanting to give satisfaction, and that they may depend on quick sales, and returns of funds promptly made.

DR. E. GREEN'S RED & BROWN PILLS.

THE demand for the above medicine in the last 2 or 3 years, is deemed a sufficient apology for placing it now fully before the people; and the diseases for which it is applicable have become so prevalent in this country that a remedy entitled to confidence, is a great desideratum. The diseases I allude to are Hepatitis (Liver affection), Dyspepsia, and female complaints in general.

The above pills will be kept constantly for sale by Richard Shaw, Clearfield, Bigler & Co., Bell township, Graham & Wright, Bradford James McGirk, Philipsburg, Oct. 20, 1846.
