

From the Pennsylvania.

A STRONG HIT.

In the late speech of Hon. STEPHEN A. DOUGLASS, of Illinois, he paid his respects to Senator Clayton in the following manner. Our readers will recollect that Mr. Clayton, in his late speech, took occasion to play upon the words, "Indemnity for the Past and security for the Future," for want of something better to say. Judge DOUGLASS, whose speech we have read with profound satisfaction, thus takes off the distinguished Delawarean. We think this may fairly be called "turning the tables."

Know with to invite the attention of the Senate—especially those Senators who have hitherto supported the war, and now oppose it upon the ground that the President has recently shifted positions by setting up a claim for indemnity—to the following extracts from a document which was sent to Gen. Taylor, from the War Department, on the 4th of June, 1846, & by him promulgated to the Mexican people:

A Proclamation by the General commanding the Army of the United States of America, to the people of Mexico:

After many years of patient endurance, the United States are at length constrained to acknowledge that a war now exists between our government and the government of Mexico. For many years our citizens have been subjected to repeated insults and injuries, our vessels and cargoes have been seized and confiscated, our merchants have been plundered, maimed, imprisoned without cause and without reparation. At length your government acknowledged the justice of our claims, and agreed by treaty to make satisfaction, by payment of several million of dollars; but this treaty has been violated by your rulers, and the stipulated payments have been withheld. Our late effort to terminate all difficulties by peaceful negotiation has been rejected by the dictator Paredes, & our minister of peace, whom your rulers had agreed to receive, has been refused a hearing.

This is the first statement which our Government ever made to Mexico, of the purposes for which the war—she here made upon us—was to be prosecuted on our part.

Let me read another extract from the same document—it is a choice morsel.

We come to obtain reparation for repeated wrongs and injuries: we come to obtain indemnity for the past and security for the future.

The identical words which have frightened the Senator from Delaware from his propriety, if not his duty, and which, when found in the President's late message, have converted the Senator from a firm friend to an irreconcilable opponent of the war, upon the ground that they furnish evidence of a change of policy on the part of the Executive! If indemnity for the past means one-half of Mexico, and security for the future the other half, why did not the Senator then see a clearly as he now sees, that it was the object of Gen. Taylor as well as the President, to conquer and to hold the whole of Mexico? Why did he not then, as well as now, denounce the war as a stupendous scheme of rapine and robbery? Again, sir, it will be remembered, as I have already remarked, that the official reports, containing the detailed history of our conquests in California, New Mexico, Coahuila, New Leon, Tamaulipas and Tabasco, were before us at the last session of Congress. We also had before us at the same time the voluminous correspondence between the Departments of War and Navy, and our generals and commodores, commanding our armies and navies in Mexico, and upon her coast. The Senator from North Carolina, who favored the Senate with his views a few days ago, quoted largely from that correspondence, as published in the documents of the last Congress, to show that the President designed from the beginning to conquer and hold a large portion of the territory of Mexico. He felicitated himself that he had established his position beyond all controversy, by extracts from the instructions of the Navy Department to Commodore Conner, Sloat and Stockton, and from the War Department to Generals Taylor and Kearney. Indeed, all the arguments upon which Senators rely to prove that this is a war of conquest and robbery, repugnant to the genius, and fatal to the permanence of our institutions, are founded upon information communicated at the last session, and which was, or ought to have been, as familiar to them then as now. Besides, sir, the fact that the President, at the opening of the last session, renewed his recommendation of the three million bill, with the distinct intimation that it was intended as the first instalment, in part payment of whatever territory we might acquire from Mexico by a treaty of peace and limits, after deducting all claims for indemnity—was sufficient notice that the Executive did, at that time, contemplate a session of territory by Mexico, to the value of three millions of dollars at least, over and above the indemnity for injuries to our citizens, and the expenses of the war. Thus, with a full knowledge of the origin and history of the war—of the extent of our conquests and the line of policy in reference to its further prosecution, the war bills of the last session were passed, making liberal provision in men and means, not only for holding what we had conquered, but for making new conquests in the very heart of Mexico. These bills received the cordial and powerful support of Senators, who now tell us that we ought to withhold all further supplies, because the President has changed his whole policy & converted it into a war of conquest.

In the Austrian empire, one man out of seventy-eight is a soldier; in the kingdom of Great Britain and its dependencies, one to four hundred and twenty-six; in the United States, one in two thousand nine hundred and forty-seven.

There are 1555 papers and periodicals printed in the United States, and but 1891 for the rest of the world—only 336 more for the 930,000,000, than for our 20,000,000 of Anglo-Saxons.

ONE WORD TO THE SEDENTARY.—Those who labor within doors are compelled to breathe an impure atmosphere, which is wholly unfit for the proper expansion of the lungs, and, owing to want of exercise, the bowels become constipated, the pores of the skin closed, and, indeed, all the functions of the body become deranged; hence proceed asthma, cough, pains in the breast & side, palpitation of the heart, rheumatic pains in various parts of the body, giddiness, and a variety of other distressing complaints common to those of sedentary habits. WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS disperse all these unpleasant symptoms. A single dose will in all cases give relief, and, if repeated a few times, will most assuredly restore the body to health.

Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations.—Remember that the original and only genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the signature of Wm. Wright written with a pen on the top label of each box.

UNION MAGAZINE

Literature and Art—edited by Mrs. C. M. KIRKLAND, author of New Home, Forest Life, &c.—and filled with contributions from the most eminent writers of the country.

The second volume commences with the January number, 1848. At the conclusion of the first half year of the Union Magazine, the publisher feels impelled to make some acknowledgment of the success of the favorable reception accorded to it by the public. Its success has certainly been unprecedented, and while it may be pardonable to ascribe this in part to the merits of the work, it must not be denied that public good will and kindness have been abundantly demonstrated. The press in all parts of the country has given its voice liberally and heartily in favor of the new aspirant. To flag after this, would be dishonorable indeed.

The Union Magazine will be published regularly on the first of each month. Dealers in periodicals throughout the Union and Canada, who wish to become agents for the Union Magazine, will please apply to the publisher immediately. All postmasters are desired to act as agents for it, and the usual discount will be made to them. A specimen number will be sent to any one wishing to see it, on application to the publisher, post paid.
