

RAYMOND & WARING'S Great Zoological Exhibition FROM THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

GRAND CAVALCADE. On entering each place of exhibition, the Menagerie will be preceded by the grand and novel spectacle of an elegant MUSIC CAR.

ERBERT GREY HORSES. OF THE LARGEST SIZE, CONTAINING A BAND OF MUSICIANS, who will enliven the scene by executing a variety of favorite pieces of MUSIC.

MR. JOHN SHAFFER, the daring LION TAMEL, and his equally intrepid LADY, will enter the cage with Lions, Tigers, Leopards and Panthers. He will drive a large African Lion harnessed to a Car, and will by various graceful and daring feats show his complete control over animals usually deemed of the most savage disposition.

Will be Exhibited at Luthersburg on Friday, April 28th. At Clearfield on Saturday, April 29th. At Philipsburg on Monday, May 1st.

ADMISSION 25 cents; Children under ten years of age, 15 cents.

DOORS OPEN FROM 1 to 4 o'clock, P. M.

RAYMOND & WARING would announce to the citizens of the West that they will now have an opportunity of seeing the celebrated and brave

JOHN SHAFFER & LADY, who has been styled by critics the "Lion King," as he has exposed his life heretofore in subduing the largest and most terrible Lion ever caught; this animal is at present in his possession, and has repeatedly saved his life when exercising the other beasts in the performing cage. His feats have been beheld by millions; he actually drives a Wild Lion harnessed to a car, thus showing the supreme majesty of man above the brute.

The Wild Tenants of the Forest, from the huge and docile Elephant, the majestic Lion of unexplored Africa, the fierce Tiger of the Bengal jungles, the beautiful Leopard, the playful and ferocious Bear, the gentle Gazelle, the useful and patient Camel, the curiously striped Zebra, the grave-robbing Hyena, the stealthy Panther, the savage Wolf, the cunning Fox, down through all the lesser grades, are here beheld with perfect safety, true to their nature at times, but perfectly subject to the control of man, the lord of creation.

Feats of the Air and Repetitions, the most beautiful, rare, varied and dangerous of their species, are also comprised in this valuable collection; description is powerless, and space too limited to admit it. Suffice it to say that the proprietors are of the old standing and highest celebrity, and have devoted years of toil and expense to the present collection, which is pronounced in Europe and America, perfectly unparalleled.

The moral and useful purposes which an exhibition like this can serve, are perceived by all, and acknowledged by all moralists; the exhibition serves to entertain and instruct all in the wondrous works of the Supreme Being, and is perfectly impressive on the minds of youth.

Particular reference is given to the Mammoth Bills, Posters and Lithographs in principal Hotels.

The whole Menagerie, on entering each town preceded by the Car, containing the New York BASS BAND, will form a Grand Procession of twenty carriages, containing the various animals, and drawn by seventy-five horses.

The second volume commences with the January number, 1848. At the conclusion of the first year of the Union Magazine, the publisher feels impelled to make some acknowledgment of his sense of the favorable reception accorded to it by the public. Its success has certainly been unprecedented, and while it may be pardonable to ascribe this in part to the merits of the work, it must not be denied that public good will and kindness have been abundantly demonstrated. The press in all parts of the country has given its voice liberally and heartily in favor of the new aspirant. To flag after this, would be dishonorable indeed. The Union Magazine will be published regularly on the first of each month.

Dealers in periodicals throughout the Union and Canada, who become agents for the Union Magazine, will please to inform the publisher immediately. All postmasters are desired to act as agents for it, and the usual discount will be made to them. AFFLICTED, READ! PHILADELPHIA MEDICAL HOUSE—Established 15 years ago, by DR. KINKELIN. The oldest, surest and best mode to cure all forms of secret disease, disease of the skin and solitary habits of youth, is DR. KINKELIN'S, N. W. corner of Spruce and Union Sts., between Spruce and Pine, one and a half squares from the Exchange, Philadelphia.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Youth who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in—a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school—the effects of which are nightly felt; even when asleep, and destroy both mind and body, should apply immediately. Weakness and constitutional debility immediately cured, and full vigor restored. All letters post paid.

YOUNG MEN! If you value your life or your health, remember, the delay of a month, nay, even a week, may prove your ruin, both of body and mind. Hence let no false modesty deter you from making your case known to one who, from education and responsibility, can be a true friend to you. He who places himself under DR. KINKELIN'S treatment, may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and in whose bosom will be forever locked the secret of the patient.

Too many think they will hug the secret to their own hearts, and cure themselves. Alas! how often is this a fatal delusion, and how many a promising young man, who might have been an ornament to society, has faded from the earth.

COUNTRY INVALIDS, finding it inconvenient to make personal application, can, by stating their case explicitly, together with all their symptoms, (per letter, post-paid,) have forwarded to them a chest containing Dr. K.'s medicines appropriately accompanied.

Packages of Medicines forwarded to any part of the United States at a moment's notice. POST PAID LETTERS, addressed to DR. KINKELIN, Philadelphia, will be promptly attended to. See advertisement in the Philadelphia Spirit of the Times, Jan. 28, 1848. 1y
