

adjust it upon their own responsibility and in their own manner, and we shall render another tribute to the original principles of our Government, and furnish another guarantee for its permanence and prosperity."

The Democratic State Convention of Ohio, on the 8th of January, 1848, declared in favor of Gen. Cass for the Presidency, with a unanimity unequalled in the previous history of the State. Altho' there was much difference of opinion in the selection of a candidate for Governor yet the popular sentiment in favor of Gen. Cass, and the conviction that with him as the candidate, their State could be placed among the foremost of the Democratic States of the Union, induced an almost unanimous expression in his favor. (At the last election in the State of Ohio, the popular vote was Democratic by a majority of 1,563.) The State Convention of Michigan has also unanimously placed him in nomination for the Presidency. In the Democratic State Convention of Pennsylvania, held at Harrisburg, on the 4th of March, 1848, a resolution, in the highest degree complimentary to Gen. Cass, was unanimously reported by the committee, and adopted with acclamation by the convention.

It is not necessary to refer to the numerous public demonstrations & the leading journals which have given expressions in his favor in New England, the Middle States, the West, and the South. Public opinion, looking to his brilliant services, sterling integrity, and unflinching fidelity, has pointed to him as the MAN FOR THE TIMES, and the proper exponent of the American Democracy. Plain and unassuming in his manners, kind and generous to a fault, frank and social in his intercourse with his fellow men, he is, in every sense of the word, a Democrat.

Democratic County Meeting.

The Democratic citizens of Clearfield county are requested to meet in the Court-house on Tuesday evening of the 27th inst. for the purpose of responding to the nominations made by the late Democratic National and State Conventions, and for the purpose of effectually organizing for the approaching contest.

No apology is required for filling our paper with the biography of Gen. Lewis Cass. Every American citizen—who carries an American heart—whether Whig or Democrat, must feel proud of such a man. This story of his life—with the exception of that part relating to events of recent occurrence—was not prepared for political purposes; but was written years ago, as part of the history of our country.

ORGANIZE! ORGANIZE!!

Much remains to be done by the Democratic party of Clearfield county, preparatory to the coming political contest. A Congressman, members of Assembly, Prothonotary, County Commissioner, &c. are all to be elected, and not a man yet in the field. In the other counties of this Congressional district the party is in motion, and will have their delegates appointed by the 4th of July—Armstrong and Butler certainly. Ours can be appointed at the adjourned court on the 27th inst. But there should be some regular and definite action by the masses of the party with regard to the system of selecting candidates for county offices, which would be equally satisfactory to all parts of the county.—This we hope will be done at that time.

Cass and Butler.

There never was a ticket presented to the American people by any party, that gave such universal satisfaction to the masses of such party, as the names of CASS & BUTLER, the candidates of the Democracy for the two highest offices in the gift of the American people. Save & except a small portion of the party in New York, and an equally small portion among the impracticables in the South, there is not a single breath of dissatisfaction from any part of the Union. On the contrary, the choice of the Baltimore Convention is every where hailed with more than ordinary enthusiasm.

The difficulty in New York, we feel very confident, will be effectually healed. The nomination of Millard Fillmore, for the Vice Presidency, by the Whigs, will have a strong tendency towards this end. He was the opponent of the lamented Silas Wright for Governor in 1844, and the Barnburners know him only as an inveterate enemy of their most cherished principles. They will not be much inclined, therefore, to do anything that will in the least tend to favor his election. New York then may be set down as safe—safe as the immovable Keystone itself.

Whig National Convention.

Gen. ZACHARY TAYLOR is the nominee of the Whig National Convention for President. This event had been generally anticipated for weeks. It is a barbed acknowledgment on the part of the Federal party that they could not expect to carry an avowed and undisguised Whig, and that their only hope was in gulling Democrats into the support of a Whig disguised as a no-party man.—That they are sadly mistaken, we have not a single doubt. The evidence is all around us. The nomination is received by many with cold indifference, and by others it is positively spurned.—A convention is already called by the Clay Whigs of New York, and the New England States, to nominate a third Ticket.

The convention was in session four days, and had an exceedingly stormy time of it. The nomination was made on the fourth ballot.
Mr. FILMORE, their candidate for Vice President, was nominated on the 2d ballot. He is the same man that was so badly beaten, by the late SILAS WASHINGTON, for Governor of New York, in 1844. He was in Congress when the Federal party came in to power in 1841, and was an ardent advocate of a United States Bank—Distribution—Bankrupt Law, and opposed the repeal of the latter, and the refunding of the fine imposed on Gen. JACKSON, and is a Federalist died in the wool—just the very man to unite the Democratic party of New York.

That Secret Session.

There is a great deal of inquiry afloat as to what transpired in that secret session of the late Federal National Convention—for our readers must be informed that such a session was held on the second day, after the 2d balloting, at which none but the regular delegates were admitted. What was the object? what bargains were made? and with whom? or what was revealed, discovered, or made known to, by, or among these leaders or captains of the great Whig party, that the rank and file—the fellows that do the voting—dare not be trusted with?

The Keystone is the name of a new and beautiful paper just started at Harrisburg, by O. BARRETT, Esq. It is designed to be a permanent publication, and is Democratic throughout. We hope it may meet with a liberal support.

FROST AGAIN.—We have had two pretty smart frosts this week, though no serious deprivations were committed. But by way of a variety, yesterday and day before we had it about as warm as we ever felt it.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.—We hear of no effort being made to celebrate the approaching anniversary of a National Independence by our citizens. We go in for a political, a real Cass & Butler demonstration, and if we can do no better, we'll go it alone if we can only raise something to say and a little to take.

The Washington Union of the 9th inst., announces the certain intelligence of the final ratification on the part of Mexico, of the Treaty of Peace, in the following beautiful language.

PEACE!!!

We have at length the exquisite pleasure of announcing to our countrymen the ratification of the treaty, and the establishment of peace between Mexico and the United States. We are satisfied that would diffuse greater joy throughout our country—not peace only, but an honorable and an advantageous peace—as the result of one of the most brilliant wars that ever adorned the annals of any nation. The President declared that he would prosecute the war until we could "conquer peace"—an honorable peace. We have reached this result, and we cordially congratulate the country upon it. We have just received (8 o'clock last evening) the following bulletin by telegraph, and we consider it the most important and the most gratifying news that has ever been communicated and received by that mysterious and greatest wonder of the age—the magnetic telegraph. Thanks a thousand times to Professor Morse, in whose office and by whose side we have the honor of penning these hasty lines!

BY TELEGRAPH.

"Augusta, Ga., June 8, 1848.
"Your express brings dates from the city of Mexico to May 26, 4 o'clock, p. m., by the steamer Hetzel at New Orleans.
"The Senate ratified the treaty on the 20th. The vote was 23 yeas, 5 nays.
"Gen. Kearney, who succeeds General Smith in the command of the city of Mexico, superintends the embarkation of the troops at Vera Cruz. Messrs. Sevier and Clifford arrived at Queretaro on the 29th, and exchanged ratifications. The outposts of the army are all ordered in, and to be on the march in ten days. All un-der sentence of death to be transported.—The Mexican are under great fear of the Indians after the army shall leave."

Some one has defined augury to be bringing into the future for facts.

From Tampico.—The N. O. Picayune of the 4th inst., says: A gentleman arrived in this city yesterday in a schooner from Tampico, having left that place on Saturday the 27th ult. He informs us that a short time previous to the sailing of the schooner a report reached Tampico that San Louis Potosi had been attacked and captured by five thousand Indians.—The inhabitants had fled for safety. Another was burnt, that the anti-peace party had taken possession of the place. A mail from San Louis was due at Tampico on the 28th ult. The next arrival from the last named place will either confirm or dissipate the rumor.
