

ADVICE TO WIVES.

Love is fickle, says say— Beauty cannot hold him; Love will steal himself away.

THERE'S A GOOD TIME COMING.

There's a good time coming, boys, A good time coming; Subscribers shall not wait for duns.

Arnold the Traitor.

There was a day when Talleyrand arrived in Havre, hot foot from Paris. It was in the darkest hour of the French Revolution.

"Is there an American staying at your house?" he asked the landlord of his hotel.

"The landlord then hesitated a moment, and replied: 'There is a gentleman upstairs either from America or Britain, but whether an American or Englishman, I cannot tell.'"

He pointed the way, and Talleyrand—who in his life was Bishop, Prince and Prime Minister—ascended the stairs.

In the far corner of a dimly lighted room, sat a gentleman of some fifty years, his arms folded and his head bowed on his breast.

A flood of light poured over his forehead. His eyes, looking from beneath the down-cast brows, gazing in Talleyrand's face with a peculiar and searching expression.

"Talleyrand advanced—stated that he was a fugitive—and under the impression that the gentleman before him was an American, he solicited his kind feeling of sympathy.

He poured forth his history in eloquent French and broken English.

"I am a wanderer—an exile. I am forced to fly to the New World, without a friend or hope. You are an American? Give me then, I beseech you, a letter of yours so that I may be able to earn my bread. I am willing to toil in any manner—the scenes of Paris have filled me with such horror that a life of labor would be a Paradise to a career of luxury in France. You will give me a letter to one of your friends. A gentleman like you has doubtless many friends."

The strange gentleman rose. With a look that Talleyrand never forgot, he retreated towards the door of the next chamber, his head still downcast, his eyes looking still from behind his darkened brow.

"I am the only man born in the New World who can raise his hand to God and say—I have not a friend—not one—in all America."

Talleyrand never forgot the overwhelming sadness of that look which accompanied these words.

"My name"—with a smile that had more of mockery than joy in its convulsive expression—"My name is Benedict Arnold."

He was gone. Talleyrand sank in a chair gasping the words—"Arnold the traitor!"

Thus you see he wandered over the earth, another Cain, with a wanderer's mark upon his brow. Even in the secluded Inn at Havre, his crime found him out, and forced him to tell his name—that name the synonyme of infamy.

The last twenty years of his life are covered with a cloud, from whose darkness but a few gleams of light flash out upon the page of history.

The manner of his death is not distinctly known. But we cannot doubt that he died utterly friendless—that his cold brow was not moistened by one farewell tear—that remorse pursued him to the grave, whispering John Andre! in his ears, and that the memory of his course of glory gnawed like a canker at his heart, murmuring forever—"True to your country, what might you have been, O Arnold, the Traitor?"

Nothing is more easy than to magnify a trifling circumstance into a serious misfortune, by suffering the mind to dwell upon, and place it in every possible point of view, each assuming a darker shade than the former. It is the common fault of a vivid imagination to exaggerate either good or evil.

M'Alister's Ointment.

Insensible Perspiration.

THIS OINTMENT HAS POWER TO remove ALL EXTERNAL SORES, SCROFULOUS HUMORS, SKIN DISEASES, POISONOUS WOUNDS, to discharge their purulent matters and then heal them.

It is rightly termed All-healing, for there is scarcely a disease, external or internal, that it will not benefit. I have used it for the last fourteen years for all diseases of the chest, consumption, liver, invalid, being the utmost danger and responsibility, and I describe before heaven and man, that not in one single case has it failed to benefit, when the patient was within the reach of mortal means.

I have had physicians, learned in the profession, have had Ministers of the Gospel, Judges of the Bench, Aldermen, and Lawyers, gentlemen of the highest erudition, and multitudes of the poor use it in every variety of way, and there has been but one voice, one united, universal voice, saying, "McAlister's Ointment is good."

CONSUMPTION. It can hardly be credited that a salve can have any effect upon the lungs, seated as they are within the system. But if placed upon the chest, it penetrates directly to the lungs, separates the poisonous particles that are consuming them and expels them from the system. It is curing persons of consumption continually.

HEADACHE. The Salve has cured persons of the Headache of 12 year's standing, and who had it regularly every week, so that vomiting often took place. Dizziness and Ear-Ache are helped with like success.

RHEUMATISM. It removes almost immediately the inflammation and swelling when the pain of course ceases.

COLD FEET. Consumption, Liver Complaint, pain in the chest or side, falling off of the hair, one or the other, always accompanies cold feet. It is a sure sign of disease in the system to have cold feet.

SCALD HEAD. We have cured cases that actually defied every thing known as well as the ability of fifteen or twenty doctors. One man told us he had spent $500 on his children without any benefit, when a few boxes of the ointment cured them.

BALDNESS. It will restore the hair quicker than any other thing.

BURNS. It is the best thing in the world for Burns. (Read the directions around the box.)

WORMS. It will drive every vestige of them away. (Read the directions around the box.)

CORNS. Occasional use of the ointment will always keep corns from growing. People need not be troubled with them if they will use it.

PILELS. Thousands are yearly cured by this Ointment.

TETTER. There is nothing better for the cure of Tetters.

JAMES McALISTER & Co., Sole proprietors of the above medicine.

CAUTION. "No Ointment will be genuine unless the names of James McAlister or James McAlister & Co. are written with a PEN upon EVERY LABEL." PRICE 25 CENTS PER BOX.

Read the Following Communication. Received from an old, respected, and well known citizen of Philadelphia, 10th mo. 18th, 1846.

To T. B. Peterson, No. 38 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, I have been requested to give my opinion on the merits of McALISTER'S SALVE I am willing to enumerate some of the benefits which I have experienced in the use of the article.

In the spring of 1845 I had an attack of Erysipelas in my face which became very painful, and extended into one of my eyes, being attended with fever, my distress was great and I became to be fearful of losing my eye.

Although not much a believer in what is termed quick medicine, I purchased a box and made application to my face. To my surprise the pain soon abated and in a week's time I was entirely cured, and I firmly believe it was the salve under Providence that cured me.

From that time to the present I have used the article as occasion required, and in every case where I have used it, I have found a decided benefit.

At one time in going to bed at night, my throat was so sore that I swallowed with difficulty, but by an application of the salve I was relieved before morning.

I have used it in cases of burns, sprains and flesh cuts all with the happiest effects, and one case of poisoning by a wild vine in the woods has been dried up and cured by a few applications.

From my own experience I would strongly recommend it to all, as a cheap, convenient medicine. It requires no preparation other than to rub it on the affected part.

I have become so partial to it that I expect to keep it constantly in my family.

Though not ambitious to appear in print, yet I cannot refuse to have the communication made public if judged best to serve the cause of humanity.

Respectfully thine, WM. ADAMS, No. 26 Old York Road.

AFFLICTED, READ!

PHILADELPHIA MEDICAL HOUSE—Established 15 years ago, by DR. KINKELIN. The oldest, surest and best hand to cure all forms of secret diseases, diseases of the skin and solitary habits of youth, is DR. KINKELIN, N. W. corner of Third and Union Sts., between Spruce and Pine, one and a half squares from the Exchange, Philadelphia.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Youth who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in—a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school—the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and destroy both mind and body, should apply immediately. Weakness and constitutional debility immediately cured, and full vigor restored. All letters post paid.

YOUNG MEN! If you value your life or your health, remember the delay of a month, nay, even a week, may prove your ruin, both of body and mind. Hence let no false modesty deter you from making your case known to one who, from education and respectability, can a noble friend to you. He who places himself under DR. KINKELIN'S treatment, may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and in whose bosom will be forever locked the secret of the patient.

Do not think they will hug the secret to their own hearts, and cure themselves. Alas! how often is this a fatal delusion, and how many a promising young man, who might have been an ornament to society, has lapsed from the earth.

COUNTRY INVALIDS, finding it inconvenient to make personal application, can, by stating their case explicitly, together with all their symptoms, (per letter, post-paid,) have forwarded to them a chest containing Dr. K.'s medicines appropriated accordingly. Packages of Medicines forwarded to any part of the United States at a moment's notice. POST PAID LETTERS, addressed to DR. KINKELIN, Philadelphia, will be promptly attended to.
