PA. Sen.—The whole three Whig Congressmen from the Reserve in Ohio, are out against Gen. Taylor.

The Whig and Abolition Convention at Worcester, Mass., was an imposing affair, numbering from 5000 to 8000 strong. They passed strong resolutions against both Taylor & Cass, in favor of the course of the Barnburners in N. York, and appointed delegates to the anti Taylor Convention to be held in Buffalo on the 9th of August.

We have with held the publication of our paper from Saturday until Tuesday with the hope of being able to put to rest the rumor with regard to the resignation of Gov. Shunk; but we are finally compelled to go to press still in doubt.

That he did resign on last Saturday, seems quite probable. The most able physicians, after thorough consultation, have pronounced the Governor's disease incurable; and in order that the people of the State—the good old Commonwealth which Governor Shunk loves so much and has served so well—may have the benefit of a Governor of their own choice, he has determined to resign before the tenth of July, (yesterday.) This was the substance of the rumor that has been current for the last eight or ten days.

The constitution provides, that the Speaker of the Senate shall act as Governor in case of the death or resignation of the Governor elect. If such death or resignation takes place more than three months (say before the 10th July) previous to the next annual election, a Governor shall then be elected; but if within less than three months (any time between the 10th July and the 10th of October) then the election of a Governor cannot be held until October a year.

Next Congressman.

ALFRED GILMORE, Esq., of Butler, has been unanimously nominated by the Democracy of that county as the Democratic candidate for Congress. Mr. Gilmore is highly spoken of by those who know him, as a good Democrat, a sound lawyer, and an able speaker.

G. W. SMITH, of Butler, has been nominated by the Whigs of Butler, as their candidate. Too fast again, Mr. Smith.—You are always first in the field, and the first out of it.

Sabbath School Meeting.

At a meeting of the friends of the "Sunday School" in the borough of Clearfield, held at the Academy, the following proceedings were adopted, viz:

- G. PHILIP GULICH was called to the chair, and G. R. BARNETT appointed Secretary.
- The meeting was opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Lane, after which the President stated the object of the meeting. A very excellent address was then delivered by the Rev. Mr. Lane.
- On motion, Resolved, That the Superintendent and one of the Teachers, visit every family in the borough and vicinity, for the purpose of enlisting more feeling in favor of the Sunday School, and that Mrs. BERRIS, Mrs. BLOZER, and Miss WEAVER, be appointed a committee to visit each family in the borough for the same purpose.
- Resolved, William A. Wallace, Esq. be, and he is hereby appointed Secretary for the Sunday School in Clearfield, for the ensuing year.
- Resolved, That G. Philip Gulich be appointed Superintendent for the ensuing year.
- Resolved, That F. P. Hursthal be appointed Treasurer of the "Sunday School Union" in the borough of Clearfield for the ensuing year.
- Resolved, That Miss Sarah Weaver, Miss Rebecca Reed, Miss Mary Ann Irwin, and Miss Margaret Shaw, be appointed a committee to solicit contributions to the Sunday School for the purpose of purchasing books, &c.
- Resolved, That Alfred Smith be appointed Librarian for the ensuing year.
- Resolved, That we will hereafter hold a meeting of Teachers, Parents and Children at 4 o'clock on the first Monday evening in each month, at the Sunday School room, for a concert of prayer in behalf of the Sunday School cause; and that all persons, of all denominations, feeling an interest in the onward progress of the Sabbath School cause, are respectfully invited to attend.

G. R. BARNETT, Secy.

Gen. Dodge's Declination.

The gallant, the patriotic, the distinguished General Henry Dodge, Senator from the young State of Wisconsin, spurns the treasonable and disorganizing nomination of the Utica Barnburners of N. York, whose motto seems to be that they would rather rule in Hell than serve in Heaven. Thus will Mr. Van Buren and his disorganizing followers be deserted by all high-minded and honorable politicians.—Harriburg Union.

The Washington Union of the 30th ult, contains the following: "Just as we are going to press, we received the following card from General Dodge, Senator of the United States from the 30th State, the youngest sister of the Republic. It is what we expected from that gallant man and indomitable republican. It shivers to pieces the schemes which have been formed at Utica and in Cincinnati, founded in the use of his name:

A CARD.
I have seen in the published proceedings of the convention at Utica, N. York, that my name is put in nomination for Vice President of the United States, on the ticket with Mr. Van Buren. No information has been given to me by the convention, or its order, of this nomination; and I have waited some days for that information; as furnishing the suitable occasion for making my answer. But, beginning to doubt whether any such communication will be made, and seeing my name placed in many papers as a candidate for the Vice Presidency, by virtue of that nomination, I deem it proper to delay no longer, and to declare at once, and in this public manner, my inability to accept it. The State to which I belong was represented in the Baltimore Convention; the vote of that State was given to Messrs. Cass and Butler; they were nominated; and as one of the citizens of that State, that nomination immediately received my cordial concurrence and support, and will continue to do so.

I have long been the friend, personally, as well as politically, of Mr. Van Buren, and under other circumstances, would be proud to have my name associated with his in any way; but the acceptance of this nomination is impossible; and I have to request the members of the convention and the public, to receive this declination as my answer, and to excuse this mode of making it—being the only mode which the want of a communication from the convention leaves open to me.

HENRY DODGE.
Washington City, June 29, 1848.

From the Washington Union

OHIO.

The following is an extract of a letter just received from Steubenville, Ohio, written by an officer of volunteers who served in Mexico:

"The whigs here give this State to Cass. Old 'Available' will find that he cannot lead the Mexicans to victory here as easy as he did the Americans in Mexico. He will rue the day when he said that the volunteers were not worth their rations."

His faithful blade he slung there—
Remembrance would not bear—
He would not strike his country's flag—
THE BRAVE OLD VOLUNTEER.

We copy the following from the Zanesville (Ohio) Aurora, it being the testimony of a brave man who was present and witnessed the heroic conduct of Gen. Cass at the time of Hull's surrender:

Let federalism repeat her foolish falsehoods against Lewis Cass! Her most silly one is, that he did not break his sword on hearing of Hull's surrender. Below we have a letter from Squire Willis, an old and highly esteemed citizen of this county, on the subject. We can get letters from others, we think, who were eyewitnesses of the transaction. This abuse of Gen. Cass is not at all detrimental to his prospects of election to the Presidency. The enthusiasm and support of old companions in arms is called out by these cowardly attacks:

ZANESVILLE, Ohio, June 19, 1848
To the Editor of the Aurora:

Sir: In the Zanesville Courier of this date I noticed an article headed "The Broken Sword;" in which it is stated that the honor of breaking his sword is "borrowed, or rather stolen capital;" and that it was Gen. McArthur, and not Gen. Lewis Cass, who broke his sword at the time of Hull's surrender. Now it may be that Colonel McArthur did break his sword, for he was a patriot and brave man; but if he did, the writer of this did not see or hear of it at the time. But I did see Col. Cass break his sword at the pickets where Gen. Brock—the British commander—met Colonels McArthur & Cass above the Well Springs, below Detroit. I was standing within six feet of Col. Cass at the time; and I never will forget the indignation and mortification he exhibited at the time.

These silly attempts to deprive General Cass of his patriotism and courage, made by men or the sons of men who kept shady in those dark days, will only have the effect to rally to his standard all the soldiers of 1812. Col. Cass was loved by all his men. It could not be otherwise, for he loved them all, and did all he could to promote their comfort. My voice and my vote are for Cass and Butler.

W. M. WILLIS.

INDIGESTION, WEAK NERVES, LOWNESS OF SPIRITS, &c.—Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are a natural and therefore a certain cure for all kinds of nervous diseases; because they completely cleanse the stomach and bowels of those bilious and corrupt humors which not only paralyze and weaken the digestive organs, but are the cause of weak nerves, low spirits, &c. Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are also a direct purifier of the blood, and therefore not only impart health and cheerfulness to the mind, but also give new life and vigor to the body.

Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations.—Remember that the original and only genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the signature of Wm. Wright written with a pen on the top label of each box.

JUBILEE PICTORIAL BROTHER JONATHAN.—A GRAND JUBILEE NUMBER. The great semi-annual Pictorial Brother Jonathan for the 4th of July, has been sent us by Wilson & Co., New York. It is a most gorgeous Pictorial sheet. Among fifty or sixty other finely executed engravings will be found a Mexican Battle Piece, covering a surface of nearly seven square feet, and so life-like and full of spirit is the picture, that the figures seem to move on the paper. This Double Mammoth Sheet also contains among its principal attractions, an engraved fac-simile of the Original Rough Draft of the Declaration of Independence—a great curiosity in its way. Also eleven Original Designs by Gavarni, the great French artist, illustrating recent scenes in Paris. The Jubilee Brother Jonathan also contains a large number of beautiful Fancy Pictures, well calculated to suit the public taste. A letter directed to Wilson & Co., Publishers, New York, enclosing a one dollar bill, will bring, by return mail, ten copies of this most beautiful of Pictorial sheets. The following are some of the contents of the press:

"Pictorial Brother Jonathan.—The present number carries away the palm from all its predecessors. It is great—wonderful—in fact (if we could not replace it) we would not lose our copy for three dollars!"—Philed. Ledger.

"A most gorgeous Pictorial, a rich moment of our glorious Fourth!"—N. Y. Tribune.

"A sheet that must cause the artists of Europe to look to their laurels!"—N. Y. Cour. & Eng.

"The greatest paper or picture sheet the world ever saw has just been issued by Wilson & Co."—Onida Democrat.

"Beyond all comparison the most magnificent affair of the kind we ever set eyes on!"—Baltimore Republican.
