The pairy council met at the Castle on Thesday, and in the evening of that day, the citizens of Dublin were astonished by the publication of a proclamation signed by the Lord Lieutenant, putting the cities of Dublin, Cork, Waterford, and Droghe. day under the act of last session, by which the police are authorized to search for arms, and to take note custody all persons who are found to be in possession of arms without a license.

The Dublin Eve. Post, which speaks always for the Government, made an ex planation of this extreme measure of the Government.

We select from Wilmer & Smith's Zimes, of the 22d July, the following parngraphs 2 -

The government have been prompt in following up the proclamations issued on the 18th, by notifications, setting forth the days and places appointed for granting licenses to keep arms. The commissioners of police in Dublin issued a noticesthat they will attend at their office in the Low. er Castle-yard, for some days, to receive applications for licenses. Similar notices have been issued in all the proclaimed districts.

The police have received information that depots of arms exist in some parts of grum. the metropolis, & that they were to make strict search in the suspected localities.

Orders have been given from the Commander in-Chief's office, to all officers belonging to regiments in Ireland, on leave of absence in London, to repair immedi ately to rejoin their respective regiments quartered in that country. There has been a "brush" at Carrick on Suir. A Clonmel correspondent thus describes the affair :

The Carrick people on hearing of the arrest of same of the club members, and the symor that one of their own curates was marked out for arrest, rose en masse, and with arms in their hands, consisting of riffes and pikes, repaired to the authorifics and demanded the release of the priswhen 4000 men descended from the neighboring hills, armed to the teeth, who reconsidered; as a triumph. There is no regiment has so far been successful in demistaking the national feeling."

In Kilkenny, in consequence of a report which had no foundation, of the issue of a warrant for the arrest of Dr. Cane, a magiatrate, and the leader of the Confed. erates in that quarter, the populace made a formidable demonstration, and barricades were erected in the town.

The Tipperary Vindicator gives an account of the airest of some persons at Templemore, charged with drilling and training. Bail has been refused, and the prisoners are committed to Nenngh goal. The same journal has the following sample of the spirit of disaffection prevailing amongst the populace in Nenagh, the assize town of the North Riding of Tipperary:

About half past ten o'clock on Satur. day, a canvass figure, stuffed with straw, Major Brant had arrived at Fort Mann. saturated with turpentine, and made to After indulging to some extent in groaning and hooting the Whigs, and in particular his Whiggish Excellency, the canvass effigy was raised by means of a rope around the neck, and suspended from a lamp post. The 'honging' elicited several wittleisms from the boys' of the crowd, printed by the Senate during the present and consummated its destruction."

A Sad Talc.

A correspondent of the Milford (N. H.) Mirror relates the following. Is it possible that it can be true? We can better understand those tales of disbolism which we lately quoted in connection with the late insurrection at Paris, than such coldblooded cruelty as this:

About two years ago, a wealthy and influential widower of forty five, named Dr. -, of Chelsea, hired an amiable and beautiful girl of eighteen, named Mary -, to assume the care of his children & household. North Carolina Election. GLORIOUSLY ENCOURAGED IF NOT VICTO. RIOUS

The election for a Governor and Legislature was held in North Carolina on the 3d inst. There are 74 counties in State, which gave a Whig majority for Governor in 1844 of 3,153. About half the State has now been heard from, showing a Democratic gain on that vote of nearly 2 000. Should the balance of the State do as well, Reid, the De. mocratic candidate, will certainly be elected.

This is glorious encouragement for the Democ racy, and indicates very clearly that CASS and BUTLER will sweep almost every Southern State North Carolina has not given a Democratic majority for many years-was the first to repudiate Clay and nominate Taylor, and was confidently relied upon by the Whigs to give an increased Whig majority no an evidence of Taylor being stronger than Clay.

The legislature chosen at this election will elect Senator of the United States in the room of Mr. Balger, whose time expires on the 4th March next. are entertained that the Democrate will have a majority on joint ballot.

The North American notices the custom in the Southern States of candidales for Governor, Congress, &c., stump. ing their States and districts - both candidates addressing the same assembly-and then expresses a wish that this system might become the custom in this State.

This is just what the democracy want. candidate for Governor, and such a skinning of coons as we will have in Pennsylvania will surprise the natives. Yes, yes! just come out before the people, destitute of principles as you are, it is just where we want to get you.
