BEP We have detained the publication of our paper until this (Saturday) morning for the purpose of giving the official returns of our county.

The Election.

The result of the election for Governor is yet involved in doubt. We give a few returns, which show a large gain for the Whigs. The only counties in which the Democrate have gained on their former votes, so far as heard from, are Clearfield. Centre, Mifflin, Juniatta, and perhaps Clinton and Lycoming. Unless, therefore, we have made similar gains in some of the northern counties, the Democracy of Pennsylvania will have to submit to the power of the combined factions.

Of the causes, we do not design to speak. They are twofold, and the result was not entirely un

The Vineyards in and about Reading have this year yielded an abendant crop of their purple fruit. The aggregate quantity of Grapes gathered has been much larger than at any previous season. Clearfield Erect!!

Below we give the glorious result in our patriots their duty better than ever they did. In every pen to the view of the thoughtful mind: township the Democrats were wide awake, and A most melancholy death occurred at Old Pike township took up the spirit, and her homest, hard fisted yeomanry rolled up their sleeves and went to work in good earnest, spreading hope and encouragement all around them. This result we are truly proud of. And whatever may be the result in the State, he it our boast that we have PERFORMED OUR WHOLE DUTY.

But, Democrate, the work is not yet completedyour mission is not yet finished. The great battle of the Union has yet to be fought-and on that day the fragments of all factions cannot combine against us as they did on Tuesday last. It is the word of our friends from all parts of the county that they CAN DO BETTER! But BETTER it would be meanness to ask. Then Democrats of Clearfield county, again to your posts, and roll up another cool 500 for the soldiers, patriots and statesmen, LEWIS CASS and WILLIAM O. BUTLER. One more day-and the victory in
