

Adam Huntsman of Tennessee.

This distinguished democratic politician of Tennessee, formerly a member of Congress from that State, took a Taylor shute when old Zack first came upon the political turf as a no party candidate for the Presidency. But since the General has come out and declared himself a whig, Mr. Huntsman has abandoned him. In a letter to the Jackson Democratic Club, he says:

I spoke of General Taylor favorably until he came out in a letter that he was not an ultra whig. Now whether this means that he is a soft whig, or a tender-footed whig, I know—I care not. Of all the politicians which exist, the soft or tender-footed are the most obnoxious to me. Instead of being a no-party man, as he at first declared, it turns out that he belongs to the tender-footed whig party, as he himself shows.

I never did, nor never will vote for a political officer, who will not come out frankly with his opinions upon all subjects connected with that office. If he has got no opinions, then I consider him a fool upon those subjects; if he has any, as our government is peculiarly founded upon the opinions of the people, we have a right to him, if he wants to conduct that government as its chief. I never wish to see a man exalt himself to such a high & mighty position, in his own estimation as to refuse to give his opinion to his countrymen, when he is asking them to office upon him. This is precisely or worse than the practice of Kings, and should be scouted by every man in a free government. We should never vote for a man, who would not condescend to inform his countrymen of his opinions.

Since I have seen Gen. Taylor's letters and correspondence, they have convinced me that he has no qualifications to discharge the duties of chief magistrate. A Daniel Webster says, he is a mere military man. In that capacity he will always do honor to himself and country.

I am personally acquainted with General Cass—was much in his company when he was Secretary of War. His conduct and services, since, as Minister of France and as Senator in Congress, has satisfied all the world that he is a man of first rate talents, and qualifications for any civil appointment. For the foregoing reasons, I ought not, I cannot, and I will not vote for Taylor and M. Fillmore, but if spared I shall vote for Cass and Butler. In doing so, I consider that I am carrying out those democratic doctrines, which I have been advocating for forty years, and expect to die in that faith.

ADAM HUNTSMAN.

WHO KILLED CLAY.

Gen. Shields, in one of his speeches in Ohio, thus speaks of the butchery of Henry Clay, at the "Whig Slaughter House Convention" in Philadelphia:

Clay has one consolation, however, if consolation it can be called. Although assailed and perhaps abused by his enemies, he never was disgraced except by his own friends. A countryman of mine, by the name of Donnelly, was a butcher in the army. He used to attend to his duty as a butcher, until a fight came on, and then he would snatch up some kind of uniform and pitch into the thickest of the fight. At Chapultepec he got in advance of the line, and having on a Mexican uniform was mistaken for a Mexican, fired upon and killed. I soon came across and recognized him. Ah, had Donnelly, is that you, and are you wounded? Yes, general, said he. I am badly wounded; I am as good as dead now. But, general, said he, thank God, I was not killed by the Mexicans. It was my own friends that shot me. So with Henry Clay. It was not the Democrats who killed him, but it was his own friends.

BLOODY AFFAIR.—The Louisville Journal of October 10, says: Yesterday afternoon, Mr. Robert Ewing, a young man of a very highly respectable family in this city, rode to the house of Mr. William H. Kelly, called him out, and for some alleged grievance, struck him with a whip. Mr. Kelly seized his assailant by the collar, whereupon the latter drew a pistol and shot him, the ball entering near the left ear, breaking both jaws, entirely severing the tongue near the roots, and lodging, as the surgeon supposed, near the right ear. Mr. Ewing, after shooting Mr. Kelly, remounted his horse and rode off. The marshal informed us last evening that he had heard of him four miles from the city on the Salt River road, and sent two police officers in pursuit of him.

A frightful accident (says the Sa. Lou. Republican of Oct. 4) occurred on the 18th ult., in Mount Pleasant, Iowa county. A number of persons were engaged in raising the cupola of the Congregational Church, when the scaffold gave way, & seven men fell to the ground, a distance of twenty seven feet, the timbers going with them.

The head of Mr. Pixley was seriously mangled and his skull fractured. Mr. N. Lathrop's right shoulder was dislocated and leg badly mangled. I. G. Palmer's face above the eyebrow was severely cut and ankle sprained. T. V. Taft and T. F. Newton were injured by the falling timber. E. Tine and H. Higgins were also injured, but not severely.

A STRANGE STORY.—A few evenings since, says the New York Sun, a decently dressed, middle-aged woman spoke to some boys in Chatham street, and promised them three cents if they would carry a small bag which she had in her hand to a certain number in Mulberry street. The boys consented, took the three cents and started with the bag, while the woman walked rapidly away in a contrary direction. The boys had carried the bag about a couple of blocks, when a strange movement inside induced them to examine the contents, which were an old pair of boots, a washboard, and a fine healthy babe about a month old. This development induced the boys to change their destination. They carried the bag to the police station, from whence it was taken to the Alms House. The woman who gave it to the boys has not been discovered.

Northrop Convicted.—The trial of Northrop at White Plains, for the murder of Maria Goodheart, by stabbing her in the breast with a shoe knife, which he had sharpened several days previously, & carried in his breast pocket for the purpose, was concluded on Monday afternoon, 9th inst. The jury were out only fifteen minutes, and returned with a verdict of guilty. Judge McCoun deferred the sentence till Friday.

ERYSIPELAS, OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE.—Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are an easy, safe and certain cure for Erysipelas, because they purge from the body those poisonous humors which are the cause of St. Anthony's Fire and every other maldy. From four to six of said Indian Vegetable Pills, taken once in twenty-four hours, at night on going to bed, will in a short time make a perfect cure of the most obstinate attack of Erysipelas; at the same time the digestion will be improved, and the blood so completely purified that all kinds of inflammation and pain will be driven from the body, and health and vigor will be given to the whole frame.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS AND IMITATIONS! Remember that the original and only genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the signature of Wm. Wright written with a pen on the top label of each box.

AN OLD THING BECOME NEW.

Dr. Wm. P. Hills, after experimenting for ten years, and trying everything likely to be good for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Asthma, Croup, Bronchitis, Influenza, Difficulty of Breathing, Spitting of Blood, Pains in the Breast or Side, originating from cough or cold; and for a gentle emetic in any disease, has found by experience in prescribing for the above diseases, that the Fluid Extract of Squills is much the surest to perform a cure of any of the medicines now before the public—and has the advantage of being at least one-half cheaper. Don't be afraid to try it. It comes from an experienced physician, and is no new thing. It is only the best thing in the world got up in a new form.

Also—if you have yourself, or know of any one that has Tetter, Scald Head, Ringworm, Erysipelas, Itch, or Indolent sore of any kind on the skin, arms, legs or feet, or any kind of breaking out on the skin, just go and buy a bottle or two of Dr. Hill's Tetter Ointment, and use it according to directions and it will positively perform a cure, if persevered in. Erysipelas is always cured in forty-eight hours by putting on plenty, and keeping open the bowels with some cooling medicine, such as salts and cream of tartar.

The above valuable medicines are for sale at Dr. A. M. Hill's Drug Store, Clearfield; at the stores of James Forrest, Clearfield Bridge; Crans & Brother, Curwensville; Graham & Wright, Grahamton; Bowman & Johnston, Philipsburg, Centre county; and at the principle stores throughout the county.

GREAT INDUCEMENT TO A READING PUBLIC.

SARTAIN'S UNION MAGAZINE OF LITERATURE AND ART.

The undersigned, having purchased the subscription list and good will of the UNION MAGAZINE of New York, purpose removing the Office of Publication to Philadelphia, and commencing with the number for January, 1849, under the title of SARTAIN'S UNION MAGAZINE OF LITERATURE AND ART.

This Magazine was begun in July, 1847, and during the brief period of its existence, has risen so rapidly in public favor, as to already have become a firmly established RIVAL OF THE OLDER MONTHLY PERIODICALS. Notwithstanding its success under the management of its present able Editor, its future publishers feel confident of making it far more desirable still, by the intended improvements which their superior facilities will enable them to command.

Besides the varied and occasional embellishments the work will contain, every month.

TWO HIGHLY-FINISHED MEZZOTINTO

from pictures of the highest merit, engraved by J. Sartain, under whose exclusive control the selection and management of the Pictorial Department will be.

Its partner in this enterprise has been many years connected with the oldest Weekly and Monthly publishing establishments in the country; so that with their united experience and earnest effort, added to a LIBERAL AND JUDICIOUS EXPENDITURE, they feel assured of being able to cater successfully and to the satisfaction of a discriminating public, and of producing a magazine of real intrinsic value, surpassing any periodical of the class now issued from the American press.

Their aim will be to furnish a Monthly Miscellany, that is not only lively and entertaining, but useful and instructive; in which DOMESTIC HOME TALES and SKETCHES, Calculated to elevate the moral and intellectual faculties shall be substituted for the namby-pamby articles which occupy so large a space in the popular periodicals of the day. In short,—the pages of Sartain's Magazine will be such as no parent will hesitate to put in the hands of a rising family; while its high quality and character of the embellishments, it will be made to distance all competitors. It will be emphatically a FAMILY MAGAZINE, and of the most attractive form.

The contents of each number will be original, and consist of articles in prose and verse, by

AUTHORS OF ESTABLISHED REPUTATION.

The Critical Department will be conducted with the greatest care and impartiality; and while personality and needless eulogy will be studiously avoided, opinions of merit or demerit will be candidly and fearlessly expressed. There will be also a monthly record of all that is interesting to lovers of the Fine Arts respecting the progress of Art and Artists throughout the country.

The utmost pains will be bestowed on the engravings, not only to furnish plates executed with care and skill, but in the selection of subjects, to adopt such as from their dignity and importance command attention, or from their beauty and artistic excellence, attract and charm. They will consist of transcripts, either of original paintings, or of unquested American Painters, and occasionally of compositions by the best artists, made expressly for the work. Portraits of remarkable or eminent persons will also add to the interest and variety of the series, together with free and spirited illustrative engravings. In the COSTUME DEPARTMENT, (which now appears to have become an indispensable adjunct to a Monthly Magazine,) we shall present

COLORS PLATES OF THE SPRING, SUMMER, FALL AND WINTER FASHIONS.

In a style no way inferior to anything of the kind now published.

In conclusion, we beg leave to state, that every promise made will be faithfully and literally fulfilled, (which those accustomed to compare the performance with the promises of Magazine publishers will hardly expect)—that the first number of the volume will be found to be always a fair specimen of every other that is to follow, except in its possessing a beautifully engraved Title Page.
