

POETRY.

A Touching Ditty.

When Seth got home from mackerling, He sought his Sarah Ann;
And found that she, the heartless thing,
Had found another man.

A Fighting Clergyman.

We have said that there were not wanting clergymen of the Church of England, who, like Mr. Caldwell, mingled in the strife of the Revolution.

On the breaking out of the Revolution, Dr. C., who was settled in one of the interior counties of Virginia, adopted the popular cause.

At last, at a meeting of the vestry, so violent became the controversy, so harsh the language addressed to him, that the minister triumphed over the minister—their captivity was returned in no measured terms, and, rising in his might, like Samson of old, he scattered his enemies, inflicting upon them the personal chastisement he thought they merited.

Such an event naturally excited much remark, and, notice having been given to that effect, the whole community availed themselves of an early opportunity afforded them of going to the Church to hear the Doctor's explanation.

Dr. C. continued in command of his troop, and served in one or more campaigns at the South, among all the trials and temptations of partisan warfare, retaining the respect and esteem of all who knew him. He finally returned to his parish, resumed his parochial duties, and officiated in his old Church until his death.

The diseases allude to are Hepatitis,

AFFICTED, READ!

PHILADELPHIA MEDICAL HOUSE—Established 15 years ago, by DR. KINKELIN.—The oldest, surest and best mode to cure all forms of secret diseases, diseases of the skin and solitary habits of the body, is DR. KINKELIN'S N. W. corner of THIRD and UNION Sts., between Spruce and Pine, one and a half squares from the Exchange, Philadelphia.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Youth who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in—a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school—the effects of which are nightly felt; even when asleep, and destroy both mind and body, should apply immediately. Weakness and constitutional debility immediately cured, and full vigor restored. All letters POST PAID.

YOUNG MEN!

If you value your life or your health, remember the delay of a month, nay, even a week, may prove your ruin, both of body and mind. Hence do not falsely modestly deter you from making your case known to one who, from education and respectability, can assure you in his honor as a gentleman, and in whose bosom will be for ever locked the secret of your cure.
Too many think they will hug the secret to their own hearts, and cure themselves. Alas! how often is this a fatal delusion, and how many a promising young man, who might have been an ornament to society, has faded from the earth.

COUNTRY INVALIDS,

finding it inconvenient to make personal application, may, by stating their case explicitly, together with all their symptoms, (per letter, post-paid), have forwarded to them a chest containing Dr. K's medicines appropriated accordingly.
Packages of Medicines forwarded to any part of the United States at a moment's notice.
POST PAID LETTERS, addressed to DR. KINKELIN, Philadelphia, will be promptly attended to.
See advertisement in the Philadelphia Spirit of the Times, Jan. 28, 1848.—1y
