When the government calls for negro soldiers to defend the Old Flag and preserve the Republic, the copperheads indignantly declare that this "is a white man's war" and they alone shall win our battles, and must not fight on equality with negroes. When the government calls for white volunteers, they denounce the war as a "nigger war" and discourage enlistments by declaring that the "nigger-worshippers" must fight it out. When the authorities refuse negroes as substitutes for white men who are drafted, they denounce the government because it does not regard the negro soldier as on perfect equality with the white. "Father," said an inspiring youth, "you must either quit praying or swearing, I don't care much which!"

Brig. Gen. Alexander Hamilton Coffroth, M. C. from this district, of course had his share in the glory of Gettysburg. He unfortunately did not get there until after the battle was over, doubtless owing to bad roads or delayed trains; but when he did get there he valiantly berated the Union troops for burning a few rails and drinking butter-milk, and rushed to Harrisburg to recover damages. When last heard from he was explaining to an itinerant tinker how he had been elected to Congress from this district—all the residents and frequenters of the Capitol having heard the thrilling story from ten to forty times from his own lips before.—Lightning and elections do strike queerly sometimes!

The Hagerstown Herald and Torch appeared last week again, firmly as ever devoted to the cause of the Union. It justly deprecates the split in the Union ranks of Maryland which has resulted in two candidates for Controller. The Union men of Maryland cannot afford to be divided. Their enemies are the enemies of the Republic and they will be united; and may triumph if the loyal men divide their strength. Loyal men of Maryland! the hope of your State is in mainthining your ascendency! Men must be subordinated to the great cause of a common country!

The Fulton Democrat, edited by the member of the Democratic State Committee for this district, seems exceedingly ambitious to get up a small draft riot in Fulton county. In a late issue an editorial review of the conscription bill thus apologizes for the copperhead thieves and murderers of New York:

"Is it any wonder then that an excited populace should refuse to submit quietly to laws supposed to be unjust, and believed to be unconstitutional? Is it strange that we should have riots and resistance to the draft, when those in high places have set an example of utter disregard of all law, an example which a populace more virtuous, and more patriotic, than their present rulers have been slow to follow?"

When Jeff. Davis had a succession of advantages in the field by the battles of Chancellorsville and the repulses at Port Hudson and Vicksburg, he exhibited his eminently christian character by proposing to murder half the Union officers in his hands. When his murderous hosts were captured at Port Hudson and Vicksburg, and routed at Gettysburg, Jeff. postpones hanging and appoints a day of humiliation and prayer. Sensible Jeff.!

—A Hicksite quaker authorizes the Independent to say that the "friends" addressed by Gov. Seymour during the New York riots, do not belong to the regular meeting!

THE DRAFT. CONSTITUTIONAL.

The Act of Congress of March 3, 1863, for enrolling and calling out the national forces, commonly known as the Conscription Law, has already been adjudged constitutional. The District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, over which Judge Cadwalader, an extreme Democrat, presides, decided the question in a case arising on a writ of habeas corpus on the 27th of March, 1863, and fully affirmed the constitutionality of the law. The question arose as follows:

A deserter who had been drafted under the act of July 17, 1862, was arrested by a Provost Marshal on the authority of that provision of the act of 1863 which legalizes the arrrest of persons called into service under any act of Congress. A writ of habeas corpus was granted by Judge Cadwalader, and on the return to that writ, the case was argued in full. Much of the discussion was upon other points than that of the constitutionality of the law, but that point was necessarily raised, was argued, and was fully decided. Judge Cadwalader says:

"The Constitution of the United States authorizes Congress to raise armies, and also to call forth, and organize the militia of the several States. Under this two-fold power, both regular national armies, and occasional militia forces from the several States, may be raised, either by conscription or in other modes. (5 Wheaton, 17.) The power to raise them by conscription may, at a crisis of extreme exigency, be indispensable to public security."

Various questions of the construction of different portions of the acts of 1862 and 1863 are very elaborately considered by the learned Judge, but his reasoning is at too great length to be quoted here, nor is it our province especially to investigate questions which are merely questions of detail. It is enough to say that on all the points discussed Judge Cadwalader sustains the constitutionality of the law. It is to be remarked further that no Court or Judge has yet denied it, and, indeed, no argument has been adduced against it which a lawyer of reputation would be willing to present as his own. The law stands, therefore, before the country, with the presumption in its favor that every law has, and with the judicial affirmation by a United States Court of its constitutionality. No loyal citizen can hesitate to render henceforth a cheerful obedience to all its provisions, and to support the officers charged with its enforcement.

The Democrats of Perry have nominated John A. Magee, of the Democrat, for Assembly; John C. Lindsey for Prothonotary; Wm. Grier for Register, and James B. Hackett for Treasurer. Magee was chosen by seven majority last year by the home vote, while the volunteer vote defeated him by about 150; but he got his seat and served nevertheless, devoting his energies to advance the policy of the ultra Democrats. If the Union men of Perry will do their whole duty this fall, they will be differently represented. They should bear in mind that eight additional votes cast by Union sluggards, who staid at home last fall, would have made Kennedy the member, and his vote would have chosen a Union U. S. Senator in place of Buckalew.

The steamer Imperial, the first boat from New Orleans, arrived at St. Louis on Tuesday morning. A large crowd of merchants and other citizens greeted her arrival, and a national salute was fired in honor of the opening of the Mississippi. The steamer Albert Pierce sailed the same evening for New-Orleans, with a heavy load of private freight and a large passenger list. The Continental left on the previous day for the same port, heavily laden with Government stores.

The Chicago Evening Journal, of Monday, says: We learn from one of our citizens, just returned from Ohio, who is well acquainted in the locality which he visited—Painesville and thereabouts—that he did not find one Democrat who would vote for Vallandigham for Governor. From another source we learn that bets are offering in Ohio that Vallandigham won't carry three counties in the State.

We are glad to learn that Hon. Wm. Haslett, editor of the American, has been nominated by the Union men of Butler county for Assembly. He served with unusual credit in the Senate some twelve years ago, and will bring to the House great ability and experience and equal fidelity. He will of course be elected.

Daniel S. Dickinson made a speech in Genesee, New York, on the 15th. inst., in which he used this emphatic language: "This rebellion has its existence to-day in the hope of having help here; and its sympathizers at the North are more guilty for its continuance than Jeff. Davis is."

It is understood that the Government has taken decided ground in the matter of the rebel fleet now being fitted out in English ports, and has notified her Majesty's Government that the sailing of these vessels will be considered an unfriendly act on the part of Great Britain.

Brutus J. Clay (a brother of Cassius M. Clay, we believe), has been nominated for Congress by the Unionists in the Ashland District, Kentucky, in place of the Hon. John J. Crittenden, deceased.

The number of New York rioters known to have been killed in their attempt to subvert the laws of the United States is said to be ninety, but believed to far exceed that number.

A loyal newspaper is already issued at Port Hudson.

THE RETALIATION ORDER.

War Department Adj't Gen's Office, Washington, July 31.—General Orders, No. 252.—The following order of the President is published for the information and government of all concerned:—

Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C., July 30, 1863.—It is the duty of every Government to give protection to its citizens, of whatever class, color or condition, and especially to those who are duly organized as soldiers in the public service. The law of nations, and the usages and customs of war, as carried on by civilized powers, permit no distinction as to color in the treatment of prisoners of war as public enemies. To sell or enslave any captured person on account of his color, and for no offense against the laws of war, is a relapse into barbarism, and a crime against the civilization of the age.

The Government of the United States will give the same protection to all its soldiers, and if the enemy shall sell or enslave any one because of his color, the offense shall be punished by retaliation upon the enemy's prisoners in our possession. It is therefore ordered, that for every soldier of the United States killed in violation of the law, a Rebel soldier shall be executed, and for every one enslaved by the enemy or sold into slavery, a Rebel soldier shall be placed at hard labor on the public works, and continued at such labor until the other shall be released and receive the treatment due to a prisoner of war. (Signed) Abraham Lincoln.

By order of the Secretary of War.
(Signed) E. D. Townsend.
Assistant Adjutant General.

LATEST NEWS!

IMPORTANT FROM NORTH CAROLINA.

Jeff. Davis Denounced.

The Raleigh "Standard" Threatens Revolution.

A DELEGATION TO WASHINGTON PROPOSED.

Fortress Monroe, August 2.—The steamer Escort arrived this morning with Newbern dates to the 1st instant.

The Raleigh Standard denounces Jeff. Davis as a repudiator, in whom no confidence should be placed, and whose efforts to establish a Southern Confederacy will be a failure.

The Richmond Enquirer calls upon Jeff. Davis to suppress the Raleigh Standard and wipe out the Supreme Court of North Carolina.

The Standard says:—"Governor Vance will stand by the Supreme Court, and the Standard also, if necessary; and if Jeff. Davis attempts to use physical force to suppress the Standard, Davis will be met with physical force, and a revolution in this State will be the result. John Mitchell, the editor of the Richmond Enquirer, is an agent of Great Britain, which has long sought to divide the Northern and Southern people."

The Raleigh Standard says that "North Carolina has furnished 95,000 soldiers for this war, 40,000 of whom are either killed or wounded; and that North Carolina should send a delegation to Washington at once and see what terms can be obtained, and not wait for Jeff. Davis."

The recent cavalry raid, under Col. Spear, from Norfolk to Jackson, N. C., found the enemy intrenched strongly at Jackson, which commands the approaches to Weldon.

Maj. Anderson, on the 26th ult., captured the enemy's pickets and took possession of an important bridge, thereby defeating the enemy in their intentions.

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

Crossing of the Rappahannock.

Lee's Army Massed Near Culpepper.

A RECONNOISSANCE AND A FIGHT.

Headquarters Army of the Potomac, Aug. 2, 1863.—Gen. Buford's cavalry, artillery and a supporting infantry force crossed the Rappahannock at the railroad station yesterday, and thence with his cavalry and artillery he proceeded towards Culpepper, driving Stuart's cavalry before him.

When near Culpepper Gen. Buford encountered a large rebel force of infantry and artillery, and a fierce fight ensued, lasting until dark, when he withdrew to a strong position east of Brandy Station. The loss on both sides was considerable.

This reconnoissance confirms the reported concentration of Lee's forces near Culpepper, and indicates that his present headquarters are at Stevensburg, four miles southeast of Culpepper.

The 29 sutler wagons captured near Fairfax on Thursday night by Moseby and his band, were recaptured with all their contents on Friday morning, near Aldie, by the 2d Massachusetts Cavalry. A skirmish ensued between the guerrillas and our advance guard, but on the approach of the main body, Moseby fled, closely pursued by the cavalry.—Several of the enemy are reported killed and wounded, but no report has been received of the result of the pursuit.

This morning a detachment of our cavalry killed two and captured two others of Moseby's band near New Baltimore, and were engaged in ferreting out others.

The weather yesterday and to-day has been by far the hottest of the season. All is quiet to-night.

FROM SOUTH CAROLINA!

Gen'l Gilmore Successfully Approaching Sumter.

HIS SIEGE GUNS WITHIN A MILE!

Improbable Rumor about Rosecrans.

New York, August 3.—The steamer Fulton, from Port Royal, with dates to the 31st ult., arrived during the night.

Her officers report the siege of Fort Wagner still progressing.

Gen. Gilmore has mounted a number of two hundred pounder siege guns within one mile of Fort Sumpter. He is confident of reducing both Sumter and Fort Wagner, in a short time.

The New South says: Just as we go to press it is reported that Gen. Rosecrans is within 30 miles of Savannah.

[This report in regard to Rosecrans' whereabouts is, of course, sensational. "Old Rosey" will march as fast in hot weather as the next General, but an inland march of 400 miles away from his base of supplies, in the course of a fortnight, is "too big a thing" for even him to attempt in the face of the dog days.—Ed.]

Rebel Conscription in West Tennessee.

Col. Richardson, the rebel guerrilla, has issued an order, requiring all the men of West Tennessee, between 18 and 45, to report at his camps under the rebel conscription act. The following are the instructions given for carrying out this order:

"If a man should absent himself from home to avoid this order, burn his house and all his property, except such as may be useful to this command. If a man resist this by refusing to report, shoot him down; if a man takes refuge in his house and offers resistance set his house on fire, and guard it so that he may not get out."

The officers of the steamer Courier, from Helena, report the arrival of Gen. Davidson, with a large cavalry force from Pilot Knob, Mo. He captured about 500 rebels, ten miles from Helena, and brought them in.

Fire at Scranton, Pa.

Scranton, Pa., July 31.—A fire broke out in the cellar of Mathews & Gilmore's drug store, on Lackawana avenue, at 9 o'clock last night. The fire extended to the four story building on the north owned by John Koch, and from thence to the banking house of George Sanderson, on the south. Koch's building was badly damaged. Geo. Fuller's and Sanderson's buildings were totally destroyed, with their contents. G. A. and J. F. Fuller, and Matthews & Gilmore, and the "Union" and "Peter Williamson" Masonic Lodges lost everything. The fire originated from benzine oil.

DIED.

On the morning of the 4th inst., in this place, Mr. Richard Burden, an old and esteemed resident, aged 81 years.

On the 20th ult., near Frederick, Md., Mr. James R. Weagley, aged 38 years, 6 months, and 21 days.

On the 24th of May last, in Canton, Ill., Mr. George Kieffer, aged about 65 years. Mr. K. was a native of this county, being a brother of Dewalt Kieffer. He lived many years in Clearspring, Md., whence he removed about five years ago, to Canton, Ill.

On the 31st ult., at Strasburg, after a lingering illness, Samuel Gilmore, Esq., aged 66 years.

On the 8th inst., suddenly, at Quincy, Mr. Geo. A. Anderson, in the 56th year of his age.

On the 1st of June, at Camp Falmouth, Va., Corporal George H. C. M'Ginness, Co. G, 140th Reg't P. V., aged 21 years.

This young man was a child of the covenant; the son of the Rev. J. Y. M'Ginness, formerly of Shade Gap. He was consecrated to God, by baptism, in childhood, and re-consecrated by his dying father. Five years before his death, he dedicated himself to the God of the Covenant, in a written form, found among his papers, the language of which evinces the intelligent earnestness of the transaction. The sincerity of his piety and the consistency of his deportment, amidst the temptations of the camp and the perils of the field, are amply attested by his officers and fellow-soldiers. Though his last days were spent far from home, and the closing hours clouded by delirium, yet his mother and sisters have the sweet consolation of knowing that he was watched with tenderness, and of having his remains deposited in Chartiers church-yard.

Madame Porter's Curative Balsam has long tested the truth that there are first principles in Medicine as there is in Science, and this Medicine is compounded on principles suited to the manifold nature of Man! The cure of Colds is in keeping open the pores, and creating a gentle internal warmth, and this is caused by the use of this Medicine. Its remedial qualities are based on its power to assist the healthy and vigorous circulation of blood through the lungs, it enlivens the muscles and assists the skin to perform its duties of regulating the heat of the system, and in gently throwing off the waste substance from the surface of the body. It is not a violent remedy, but emollient, warming, searching, and effective. Sold by all druggist at 18s and 25 cents per bottle. [July 22.

Hardware!
SMITH & RICHARDSON,
611 Market St., Philadelphia.
J. Fred. Smith. | Chas. Richardson.
The undersigned would respectfully call the attention of COUNTRY MERCHANTS to their large and well selected stock of HARDWARE!
Having made special arrangements for the Full Trade, we flatter ourselves we can offer inducements to purchasers that will fully remunerate the trouble of examining our stock. We ask but a trial, to convince the Country Trade, that we are prepared to sell low and accommodate.
Our stock of Table and Pocket Cutlery is unusually large, selected with care, and including a variety of styles that cannot but suit all tastes.
We have constantly on hand a large assortment of Building Hardware,
Tools, Cutlery,
Files, Tool-Boxes,
and Chests, Saddlers,
and Shoemakers Tools,
Screws, Nails,
everything in short, pertaining to a first class Hardware Store.
Particular attention paid to Country orders. It is our aim to secure the confidence of our customers, and to this end we are particular, in filling orders, to give the best and as cheap as though the customers were buying in person. Give us a trial.

Saponifier, or CONCENTRATED LYE,
THE FAMILY SOAP MAKER.
The public are cautioned against the SPURIOUS article of LYE for making SOAP, &c., now offered for sale. The only GENUINE and PATENTED Lye is that made by the PENNSYLVANIA SALT MANUFACTURING COMPANY; their trade-mark for it being "SAPONIFIER OR CONCENTRATED LYE." The great SUCCESS of this article has led UNPRINCIPLED PARTIES to endeavor to IMITATE it, in violation of the Company's PATENTS.
All MANUFACTURERS, BUYERS, or SELLERS of these SPURIOUS Lyes, are hereby NOTIFIED that the COMPANY have employed as their ATTORNEYS,
GEO. HARDING, Esq. of Philad'a, and
WM. BAKEWELL, Esq., of Pittsburg,
And that all MANUFACTURERS, USERS or SELLERS of Lye, in violation of the rights of the Company, will be PROSECUTED at once.
The SAPONIFIER, or CONCENTRATED LYE, is for sale by all Druggists, Grocers and Country Stores.

TAKE NOTICE!
The United States Circuit Court, Western District of Pennsylvania, No. 1 of May Term, in 1862, in suit of the PENNSYLVANIA SALT MANUFACTURING COMPANY vs. THOMAS G. CHASE, decreed to the Company, on November 15, 1862, the exclusive right granted by a patent owned by them for the SAPONIFIER Patent dated October 21, 1856. Perpetual injunction awarded.
