LOCAL ITEMS.

FRANKLIN COUNTY OFFICERS.—We have procured from the official records at Harrisburg the following accurate list of officers from Franklin county commisioned in the volunteer service. It does not embrace those commissioned in the three months service, as the record seems to have been lost or mislaid in the removal of the State papers when the capitol was threatened by the rebels:

COLONELS.

Charles T. Campbell, Mar. 4, 1862, 57th.
Frederick S. Stumbaugh, Sep. 20, 1861, 77th.
Samuel P. Spear, Aug. 20, 1862, 11th Cavalry, (from reg. army.)
James G. Elder, Aug. 13, 1862, 126th.

Cols. Campbell and Stumbaugh both resigned because of their appointment as Brigadier Generals; but in the excess of nominations made by the President, the name of Col. Stumbaugh with many others, was dropped. Gen. Campbell is now in service under Gen. Pope in the North-west. Col. Stumbaugh's place having been filled while acting as a Brigadier, he was necessarily but honorably retired from the service. He was a Colonel also in the three months service.

THE CROPS.—Notwithstanding the innumerable inconveniences to which our citizens have been exposed, by the robberies of the rebels and the continued occupation of our county by the military, the wheat crop has been safely harvested with comparatively little loss. With due allowance for the loss resulting from want of labor, stock, wagons and other implements stolen or partially destroyed by the rebels, quite a full average crop of wheat has been gathered. The wheat was sowed very late last fall as a rule, because of the excessive drought, and much apprehension was felt by the farmers that the crop would be a partial failure; but it has turned out most fortunate, for had the wheat been ready to harvest by the 1st of July, as it usually is, it must have been almost if not entirely lost. The rebels occupied the county until the 10th of July on the southern border, and after they left, the farmers had to gather up the stock they had saved by sending it off, which took several days more, so that much of our wheat was harvested as late as the 20th of July. Some loss was of course suffered, as it was too ripe to be cut and handled without shelling; but upon the whole, considering how narrowly they saved any part of it, the farmers have done well with their wheat.

The crop of clover hay was lost in the entire county, excepting perhaps in a few districts bordering on Cumberland and in the valley. Considerable timothy is raised in the county, however, and it is saved, although not got up in good condition because of the unfavorable weather.

The corn crop will be short for want of plowing. In two-thirds of the county, the corn has not been worked since the 15th of June, as the rebels came on the 16th, and farmers could not have their stock at home for a month thereafter. Just the season when corn needs to be worked most, it was necessarily neglected, and a short crop must be the consequence. The season has been singularly favorable for corn, and there is a most luxuriant growth of stocks, grass and weeds; but it will not ear well when not worked in July. Should the season still continue favorable, we may have nearly an average crop of corn; but had it been properly worked, Franklin would have produced the largest corn crop this season ever raised in the county. The potatoes are, of course, suffering with the corn for want of plowing, but not to the same extent, as they were worked pretty generally after the farmers returned.

The loss of a month in mid-summer to our farmers is a most serious embarrassment to them, and one from which they will not recover before next spring. It will keep them behind their work until late in the fall, and the want of horses occasioned by the hundreds stolen by the rebels, will of course retard them very much in their operations. Let them be careful to undertake only that which they can do well, for a small crop well put out is infinitely better than a large one badly done.

THE convalescents of the 158th regiment, in which were most of the drafted men from this county, reached Harrisburg last week, in care of Rev. Daniel Hartman. The regiment, if not there by this time, will be there in a very few days and the men will be mustered out, and discharged. It is conceded on all hands that our drafted men from Pennsylvania made excellent soldiers, and none surpassed Col. McKibbin's command in all the qualities which make valuable and reliable men in the service. We doubt not that many of them will volunteer after they have been home a little time, and again enter the service during the war. Being experienced men, they will be entitled to the liberal bounty of over $400 should they re-enlist.

A BEAUTIFUL ENGRAVING.—Rev. I. J. STINE, well known to most of our readers, as a gentleman who rendered most essential service to the Union cause when before the battle of Antietam, and who suffered most unjustly therefor, is the only authorized agent in this and adjoining counties for a most exquisite Engraving entitled "Christ Blessing Little Children." It is from a painting by Sir Charles Eastlake, engraved on steel in mezzotint by Sarten, 18 by 21 inches inside of the frame. It illustrates the incident recorded by the several Evangelists, of the bringing of children to Christ for his benediction. We bespeak for Mr. Stine the generous patronage of the public.

ANOTHER OUTRAGE COMMITTED BY A DRUNKEN SOLDIER.—George Bell, an old and crippled negro of respectability, residing in Carrstown, while sitting at his window on Monday afternoon last, was approached by a soldier who was engaging him in a rather friendly conversation, when another soldier came up, and without any provocation or warning, stabbed the poor, old, inoffensive negro in the breast with his bayonet. The fellow, we believe, was arrested and is now confined in jail. We have no positive assurance that this wretch was drunk, but for the sake of humanity, and the company he disgraces, we give him this plea.

THE Union County Convention met here on Saturday last, and issued a call for the Union Delegate Elections on Saturday the 15th of August, between the hours of two and six oclock, P. M., and for the Union Convention on Monday the 17th at 11 o'clock. Dr. S. E. Duffield, of Fulton county, was concurred in as Senatorial Delegate to the Union State Convention, and Alex. K. McClure was chosen Representative Delegate.

A MEETING of the Union League of Chambersburg, was held in the Court House, on Monday evening last, President Reed in the chair. Minutes of last meeting read and adopted. A communication was read from Hon. Wm. D. Kelly, in which he stated his inability to address the League on Monday, August 10th, on account of a prior engagement. On motion the communication was referred back to the Committee for further action. The League then went into the nomination of officers for the next six months.

Adjourned to meet on Friday evening, August 7th.

B. L. MAURER,
G. O. SEILHAMER,
Secretaries.

WE call attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Smith & Richardson, Hardware dealers, No. 611 Market St., Philadelphia, merely to state that Mr. Smith is J. F. NATIONAL THANKSGIVING.—To-morrow (Thursday) has been appointed by the President of the United States as a day of Thanksgiving. All places of business will be closed, and services held in the German Reformed, Lutheran, Methodist and United Brethren Churches at 10 o'clock, A. M.

WE welcome the sprightly faces of the Greencastle Pilot, Mercersburg Journal, and Waynesboro' Record, all of which had been suspended for some five weeks. They are all out natural as ever, and long may they flourish without another interruption by the rebels.

CORP. SAMUEL RORABAUGH, of St. Thomas, a member of Company H, 16th Pa. Cavalry, who was wounded near Sheppardstown, Va., on the 16th of July, died the following day from his wounds, aged 31 years, 3 months and 4 days. He leaves a wife and child.

IT has been recommended by the Christian Commission that collections be taken up tomorrow (Thanksgiving Day) in all churches in which services are held, to aid them in their efforts to relieve the wants of our patriotic sick and wounded soldiers.

FRANCIS H. HENCH, of Perry county, was killed at Gettysburg. He enlisted originally in the McClure Rifles under Capt. W. Reilly, and served with credit during the entire war, and was engaged in every battle with the Reserve Corps. Peace to his ashes.

MAJ. JOHN S. FILLER, formerly editor of the Fulton Republican, and recently from Bedford, was a volunteer aid to Gen. Strong during the attack upon Fort Wagner. He led a charge upon the very guns of the Fort and was captured.

WE notice in the St. Louis Democrat the advertisements of our old friend John L. Carson, as Captain and Commissary of Subsistence. He is eminently fitted for the position, and is a valuable officer for the government.

OUR Court will meet on Monday next, but the business will be confined chiefly to the disposal of criminal cases. No civil trials or accounts in the Orphans' Court can be acted upon.

THE Directors of the Waynesboro Saving Fund meet on the 14th inst. to dissolve the partnership and organize a Bank under the act of Congress. Sensible movement.
