and a participant in treason—the class whose detestable practices not only give aid and comfort to the common enemy, but, as confessed at Richmond, light up these days of rebel darkness and disaster, and stimulate them to renewed and desperate efforts to recruit their armies and to whom a part is this day justly chargeable whatever of vitality the rebellion preserves, and whatever calamity and affliction the further protraction of the contest may involve. But for Northern sympathizers with Southern treason and the hopes which their treasonable existence inspires, the rebellion would have sunk under the staggering blows dealt at Gettysburg, Vicksburg, and Port Hudson.

Resolved, That wholly without sympathy for the men who have made this war against a free Republican Government, or for a system of human bondage, in whose interest it was instigated, or cause of despotic principles to which it is devoted, this Convention declares all engaged therein, while so engaged, to be worthy only of our patriotic hatred; and, in like spirit we denounce as doubly recreant and base those residents of loyal States who tolerate this treason, and would affiliate with armed traitors, and again surrender our Government and liberties to their keeping.

Resolved, That Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States [applause], by the discharge of his most arduous duties in the dark days of civil war, has won for himself the affection and regard of the whole American people; and, always bearing himself clear in his high office, has maintained the integrity of the Union, and kept our honor untarnished throughout the world [applause] and to him, this administration, its principles and its policy, we give our heartiest approval, and pledge our earnest and enthusiastic support. [Loud applause.]

Resolved, That the amendments proposed to the Constitution in giving to our soldiers in the field the right of suffrage, merit our hearty approval, and will receive our united support; and that we recommend conventions of loyal men throughout the State to pledge all candidates for the Legislature to vote for it.

Resolved, That we tender to the gallant sons of Pennsylvania now in the armies and navies of the Republic the thanks of a grateful people, for their unselfish and heroic valor; that we mourn for those who have sealed with their blood their devotion to their country, and will cherish their memories tenderly and fondly; while to the glorious survivors we give assurance that the last dollar and the last life shall be given to reinforce them until the old flag floats in final victory. [Applause.]

Resolved, That Gov. Curtin, by the effective support he has given the Federal Government in the prosecution of the war, and his vigilant care for our soldiers, alike in the field, in camp, and in hospital, has gained for Pennsylvania proud and foremost preeminence among the loyal States, and entitled himself to the thanks of all her loyal citizens, and in placing him again in nomination the Convention but gave expression to the spontaneous wishes of the people of the Commonwealth he has served so well. We present for their suffrages the patriot statesman, who is alike the friend of the soldier and the favorite af the people. [Applause.]

Resolved, That in the nomination of Judge Agnew, we present an accomplished jurist, a pure patriot, and a loyal citizen, who will adorn the highest judicial tribunal of the Commonwealth, and give additional security to the rights of persons and property.

The following resolution, offered by Mr. Heighold, of Jefferson, was also adopted:

Resolved, That the bold and determined stand taken by the administration in summarily arresting persons found to be guilty of traitorous practices, merits our hearty commendation; and in performing this part of its military iduties, where necessary for the public safety, we pledge it our hearty co-operation.

The Convention then adjourned, with three cheers for the candidates and the flag.

FOR ASSEMBLY.

We have seen in your late papers the names of several good men, presented to the consideration of the loyal people of Franklin county for the different offices to be filled at our next Convention.

Allow us to present the name of W. S. Everett, Esq., as the popular choice of the loyal people of the Northern districts of Franklin county for Assemblyman.

Mr. E. is fresh from the ranks of the people, never having held a political office. He is a man of good character, and fine abilities, and would undoubtedly be a good choice for the responsible position, at this time. He is a good campaigner, and if nominated, will aid greatly to strengthen the Union ticket, at least in this part of the county.

Spring Run, Aug. 7, 1863. UNION.

COL. BRAMLETTE, the newly elected Governor of Kentucky, openly sustained the President's emancipation proclamation during the recent canvass in that State. His opponent, Mr. Wickliffe, was a Union member of Congress in 1861, but since then has joined the Democrats. He does not appear to have increased his popularity by the change. Green Clay Smith, of the Covington district, who is elected to Congress, was denounced by the Louisville Journal as a Republican, but even that could not defeat him.

BRAGG appears to be troubled in the matter of supplies. A Macon paper announces that over one hundred teams are engaged in hauling corn and supplies from the extreme southwest part of Georgia to the interior lines of railway, along which they are transported to his army. Should these railways happen to be cut by our adventurous cavalry Bragg would no doubt be compelled to abandon entirely the region about Chattanooga, and retire still farther toward the seaboard.

THE Fulton (Missouri) Telegraph states that a petition is being circulated in the southwestern part of the State, by Edwin Price, asking the President to permit Sterling Price to return to Missouri. It is said he is penitent, and desires to abandon the rebel cause, come home, and spend the remainder of his days in peace.

AT a joint session of the West Virginia Legislature, Wartman T. Wiley, of Morgantown, and P. G. Van Windle, of Parkersburg, were elected U. S. Senators—the former on the first, and the latter on the sixth ballot.

COL. Basil Duke, says the Louisville Democrat, is the son of the late Captain Duke, of the United States navy, and is only twenty-six years old, and was born at the house of his uncle, James K. Duke, of Scott county, Kentucky, who is the father of the St. Louis Basil. They are both named for their grandfather, Dr. Basil Duke, who married a sister of Chief Justice Marshall, and for many years lived in Washington, in Kentucky, and died there in 1828.

THE Richmond clergymen appear to have taken to preaching politics. Among the "Sabbath Notices" in last Saturday's Dispatch is the following: "The fourth series of interesting discourses will be delivered on Sunday morning at Bethel Meeting House, 25th street, Union Hill. Subject: The Northern States of America the most likely location of 'the Lake of Fire and Brimstone' in the which the Beast and False Prophet will be tortured."

THERE should be no encouragement given, in or out of the army, to the idea that the fact of being conscripted attaches a stigma to the conscript. The soldiers of Napoleon were conscripts, and they bore the French eagles from Cadiz to Moscow, and from the Baltic to the Pyramids. And our conscripts from the Eastern States have already fought bravely in this war.

ON the receipt of the news in England of the rebel reverses in Pennsylvania and on the Mississippi, the rebel loan declined eighteen and twenty-five per cent. Parliament had been prorogued, and the speech from the throne delivered. The Queen says she sees no occasion for departing from the position of strict neutrality.

A MOTTO for the Vallandigham Democrats expressing their position exactly: "Freedom of speech for treason and rebellion, but no freedom of speech against slavery."

The cure of Colds is in keeping open the pores, and creating a gentle internal warmth, and this is caused by the use of this Medicine. Its remedial qualities are based on its power to assist the healthy and vigorous circulation of blood through the lungs, it enlivens the muscles and assists the skin to perform its duties of regulating the heat of the system, and in gently throwing off the waste substance from the surface of the body. It is not a violent remedy, but emollient, warming, searching and effective. Sold by all druggist at 13s and 25 cents per bottle. [july 22.

THE FOLLOWING IS THE LANGUAGE of Sec. 2d of the Act of Congress, passed March 3, 1863:

SEC. 2. That the following persons be, and they are hereby, excepted and exempt from the provisions of this act, and shall not be liable to military duty under the same, to wit: Such as are rejected as physically or mentally unfit for the service; also, first, the Vice-President of the United States, the judges of the various courts of the United States, the heads of the various executive departments of the government and the governors of the several States. Second, the only son liable to military duty of a widow dependent upon his labor for support. Third, the only son of aged or infirm parent or parents dependent upon his labor for support. Fourth, where there are two or more sons of aged or infirm parents subject to draft, the father, or if he be dead, the mother, may elect which son shall be exempt. Fifth, the only brother of children not twelve years old, having neither father nor mother, dependent upon his labor for support. Sixth, the father of motherless children under twelve years of age, dependent upon his labor for support. And no persons but such as are herein excepted shall be exempt: Provided, however, That no person who has been convicted of any felony shall be enrolled or permitted to serve in said forces.

Sec. 8 of the Regulations prescribed for the government of the Bureau of the Provost Marshal General reads as follows:

To establish exemption under the second, third, fourth fifth and sixth provisions of section 2 of the act for enrolling and calling out the national forces, &c.; the board shall require the affidavits of the person seeking to be exempt and of two respectable men, (heads of families,) residing in the district, that the man in question is, "the only son liable to military duty of a widow dependent on his labor for support," "the only son of aged or infirm parent or parents dependent on his labor for support," or otherwise, according to the particular provision of the section under which the exemption is claimed. These affidavits will be made according to the forms hereinafter prescribed, and must in all cases be taken before a civil magistrate duly authorized to administer oaths. These forms of affidavits shall be published by the board of enrollment in the newspapers of the district, for the information of the public, when a draft is ordered.
