YOUNG MEN.

YOUNG MEN, Who have injured them edires by a certain practice, in-dulged in when along handling to the edirects aro nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, render mar-riage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately. // What a pity that a young man, the hope of his coun-try, the darking of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons, before contemplating ing should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happi ness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hoarly dark-ens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with de spair, and filled with the melancholy-reflection, that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.
